ABOLISH THIS JOB

The Department of Public Service Is an Unnecessary Hardship on the Taxpayers.

The city department of public service should be abolished. It is an unnecessary nest of sinecures. The biggest sin in it is the job of commissioner. A visit to his office may disclose this fact. This department cost the weary taxpayers of Chicago, $76,910 last year. It pretends to receive, investigate and adjust complaints regarding service, rates, products and other matters relating to the health, comfort, convenience or safety of the public as affected by public utilities. Let us laugh. Everybody knows what a joke this department is and how little it does.

Owen O'Malley, popular former county commissioner and leading cigar dealer at 137 North Clark street, is making a good record as commissioner of the Forest Preserve.

Charles E. Ummach, as president of R. Williamson & Co., is at the head of the largest maker of lighting fixtures in America.

Louis J. Behan, the well known lawyer and popular master in chancery, is frequently mentioned for a place on the Superior Bench. Every one who knows him believes that he would make a fine judge.

William C. Niehoff would make a good County Commissioner. No man is better posted on public affairs.

Among American music educators Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Deis are in the very front rank. On principles of psychology and modern pedagogy they conduct the work of their school where piano playing as an art is taught exclusively.

Dixon C. Williams should be elected to the constitutional convention in the sixth district.

The Edmund T. Perkins Engineering Company, First National Bank Building, are reclaiming in central Illinois several thousand acres of rich farm land, part of which they offer for sale at low price.

Adam Orsolfen, one of the best of Chicago's City Treasurers, would make a good State Treasurer.

Julius F. Smetanka is making a splendid record as collector of internal revenue.

Coroner Peter M. Hoffman is one of the most popular public officials in Illinois.

Peter Reinberg has made a splendid record as president of the county board.

Messengers restaurants which can be found all over the city are very popular with everybody. They are clean, wholesome, sanitary and bright. The food is of the best quality and the service is excellent.

William R. Fetzer, the popular Seventh Ward alderman, is in line for higher honors.

Jacob Levy, the well known Twenty-first ward Democratic leader, would make a good county commissioner.

AMBROSE A. WORSLEY,
Much Talked of by Democrats for County Judge.

ROGER C. SULLIVAN,
Democratic Leader Who is Working Hard to Bring the Democratic National Convention to Chicago.
