NEED HOUSE NUMBERS

Over Half the Residences, Stores, Apartment Buildings and Other Structures in Chicago Are Without Them.

The casual observer cannot fail to notice that one of the crying needs of Chicago is street numbers on the buildings.

Since the passage of the new street car ordinance, which provides for the stopping of the cars at even numbered corners only, the absence of the numbers is painfully noticeable, and much annoyance is felt in consequence.

Letter carriers and others who have long suffered from this flagrant disregard of the law requiring numbers on every house, have grown tired of uttering complaints. No attention was paid to them.

Whole blocks all over Chicago are without numbers, and no one in authority appears to care about the fact.
