Editorial Opinion. It never pays to be insulting. Let us educate and teach our children.

Are you reading and paying for a race journal? Many of the ills from which we suffer are of our own creation.

The world owes our race a living and it is getting it. Liberal minded white men in the South are on the increase.

Parents should teach their children good manners. Robbing of colored men has led to the cheating of white ones.

Some people will build every-body else up except their own families. Marriage is not a failure, but numbers of people make it so.

Honest elections is the slogan in Virginia. The Democratic ring must go! This has been a starvation period.

Colored men have pulled through it though. Some people will bewail $25.00 lost in a business venture more than $100.00 spent in frolic.

An even temperament is indicative of a clear head. The person who possesses both is best fitted to succeed.

Some of us talk too much. We gossip when we should keep our mouths shut. It is much better to study to please than to think how to displease.

If you want to hear a first-class "cuss," go to a Democrat and ask him how his business. Poverty is every-where apparent.

Prosperity seems to have gone upon a long journey, never to return. Colored folks are always the object of special attention.

Just look at those Hawaiian Islands. Some young folks will spend ten dollars in pleasure where they won't invest five dollars in a load of coal.

The Democratic Party may be able to run a state but it can't run the government, save at a loss, and at great big loss to those who are living under it.

It is better to have made an effort to succeed in business, even though you fall than to have pursued the weather-beaten path and lived at a "poor-dying rate."

When white men speak out in favor of justice and right-doing they should be encouraged. Colored men should enter new fields.

Diversified industries is what have made nations, and we may well profit by their example. The cry for a constitutional convention to disfranchise the Negro.

and poor white men by legislative enactment becomes faint and fainter. In our article on the Hawaiian situation, we intended to say Pacific Ocean instead of the Atlantic Ocean.

describing the location of the Hawaiian Islands. The Richmond, Va., DISPATCH bids at its own risk to the conclusion that our editorial is not honest, but respectfully declines in making them so—rather a peculiar position.

The prejudice against us on account of our color can be utilized to our advantage if we will organize and work. It is a grand thing that there are some white Christians in this country.

There have been a large number of colored ones here for some time. Some colored men will spend fifty cents treating an Afro-American editor where they won't invest half that amount in subscribing to his paper.

The craft have no doubt often experienced this. What will the authorities of Nanamond County do with the lynchers of ISAAC JENKINS? Will they prosecute him and pay no attention to bringing his would-be murderers to justice?

The brilliant CHARLES S. MORRIS is now preparing himself for the ministry in Boston. He will make one of the most eloquent pulpit orators now before the American people.

The WILSON Tariff Bill is doing more injury to the business interests of the country than anything else. As fast as the blasting effect of its classification and reduction of schedules in certain departments become known, despair seizes upon those whose interests are directly affected.

Lieut. JOHN H. ALEXANDER, a graduate of West Point, and a colored man at that, has been appointed Professor of Military Science and Tactics at Wilberforce (O.) University by Hon. DANIEL S. LAMONT, Secretary of War. This is a fitting recognition and it is not at all surprising that President S. T. MITCHELL is happy.

Dr. PARKER'S headquarters in Main street, during the time they were open were the scene of much that was as interesting as it was surprising. The suffering among the poor white people was pitiable.

Compliments judiciously bestowed generate more happiness than money or presents, the latter being of course more preferable. A person's disposition has much to do with his success in life.

A morose, sullen temperament is sure to lead to the prison-house or lunatic asylum. An honest, conscientious, justice-loving southern white man is one of the grandest creatures on the face of the globe.

He'll stick to you through adversity and assist you to the end. But honey, don't talk about the other kind. The Richmond DISPATCH has left all hope of carrying out its policy for the robbing of the "ignorant Negroes," by means of a constitutional convention, and ends its lamentations by the cry that it will come, not with this legislature about the next.

Yes, and death will come and remove the stumbling blocks in the way of the Negro's and the white man's progress. They say there is a revival in business. The trouble about it is that no one seems to know anything about it, but the man who wrote the article.

It is announced that out of ten representatives from Virginia, only three can be depended upon to vote against the Wilson Tariff Bill. Such is Democratic treatment of Virginia interests. This duty upon coal is now seventy-five cents.

Under the Wilson Tariff Bill it is placed upon the free list. Congressman WISE is now advocating a measure making the duty fifty cents a ton; so he chops Virginia into 33 1/3 per cent and his party colleagues won't even agree to that. With coal and iron ore on the free list, one half of our mines will remain closed for an indefinite time.

Such is the "beneficial effect" of the Wilson Tariff Bill on Virginia interests. Colored folks have been Republicans ever since the war, claiming that they were right. Now most of the white folks are their way of thinking.

The legislature has passed against lynching. Surely this anarchistic practice is nearing its end and the millennium is near at hand. Good for Georgia!

Will the white men of Virginia heed these instructions? Will they stand up for these great, eternal principles which have been so plainly set forth by this justice-loving journal? We shall see. The Richmond, Va., DAILY TIMES is the true friend of Virginia and the South.

There but one royal road to permanent success and prosperity and this journal is pointing and leading the way. God grant that many may be made to see the good that great advocate is doing, realize that right will ultimately triumph for wrongdoing can flourish but little while. Honesty is the best policy and square-dealing a practice which should be always encouraged.

Virginia will yet turn her face to the morning. The Roanoke authorities seem mean business. Another one of the lynchers of the colored man, who is in trouble as the following graphic report will show: ROANOKE, Va., Jan. 19.—Special—McDaniel was not present in court, tried and sentenced to one year in the burning of Thomas Smith.

The misfortune is that he is sent down here in care of Mr. L. LYNN, Supt. Va. Penitentiary, rather than be allowed to idly away time in the Roanoke jail. Some more of them, gentlemen! They are worse than anarchists. MR. CLEVELAND AND HIS NEGRO APPOINTEES.

The Richmond, Va., DAILY TIMES in its issue of the 20th inst. after quoting from the address of a delegation of colored men, styling themselves the Negro Democratic League of America who visited Mr. CLEVELAND, asking him to again nominate colored men to three or more prominent positions, with the office of the Recorder of Deeds inclusive says: Prior to Mr. Cleveland's first administration, the second who cursed the Southern States kept the Negro constantly agitated with the fear that democratic ascendancy in the nation meant a reinvestment of them. It was one of Madison's chief methods of holding the Negroes in check, and it was the presidential election of 1854. Mr. Cleveland's course in that administration showed the Negro that this sort of talk was the best consequence of it and the first event since the war that started the disintegration of the Negro party in the South.

It says further: The President listened attentively and in reply said that he had in no way changed his policy in relation to the proper recognition of the Negro race in the selection of men for office. He said he had not been discovered or tricked away from his purpose by the Republican nomination to be Governor of Ohio, or by the failure of the take action on the appointment for a minister to Bolivia. He had asked him to appoint a colored man, and while not replying directly to that request, his general remarks were taken as being indicative of a favorable leaning in that direction.

But, sir, the bourbon Negro-hating Democratic whites did more to emphasize these assertions than ever did. They abused, maltreated and threatened us. The DAILY TIMES does not think a colored man should be appointed Recorder of Deeds although ex-Senator B. K. BATES, a colored man occupies that position now. We however agree with the following: But Mr. Cleveland is rendering the South an immense service in his general policy towards the Negro, for as the Negro comes to understand who his real friends are, the solid Negro party will be dissolved and become a thing of the past if it is not already so.

But, sir, the position you endorse is giving the Negro-haters the gripes and the DISPATCH, the epilepsy. How could you all be so cruel? RICHMOND'S RECOGNITION OF ITS COLORED TROOPS. The action of the Richmond, Va., City Council in appropriating $7,500 in city 4 per cent bonds for the erection of an armory for the colored troops is indeed commendable and will no doubt be noted with surprise by sister cities to the south of us.

The surprise will be greater when it is known that the measure was introduced by a colored member and referred to a Democratic Finance Committee, approved by the Council, in the face of a Republican Negro-hating speech by one of the members, he being the only one to vote against it, and unanimously approved by a Democratic Common Council, and signed by a Democratic Mayor.

It would seem that liberal-minded white men were multiplying in this section and demagogues were being ordered to take back seats. The time is not far distant when Virginians will see what those of this city have already seen, that people regardless of race or color must work in harmony in order to achieve permanent success. ISAAC JENKINS' CASE. The case of ISAAC JENKINS, who was beaten, hanged and shot, yet walked thirteen miles into Norfolk is one of the most remarkable in the criminal annals of this country.

His subsequent treatment presents a phase of human depravity and heartlessness that is startling in its proportions. We have seen JENKINS and are accordingly well advised as to his sufferings. He has been tried upon the charge of barn-burning and acquitted. He is now held upon the charge of poisoning horses and selling whiskey without a license.

Is it possible that the prosecuting officer is heartless or does his fidelity to duty extend in only one direction? What effort has been made to bring ISAAC JENKINS' lyncher to justice? The sheriff and Commonwealth's attorney of Nansemond know well the ordeal through which this man, JENKINS has passed. They know of the nine wounds in his head, the abrasion around his neck, with the two bullet holes in the same. They know that he has never been in a hospital, was kept in a common jail, and subjected to all of the tortures which necessarily accompanies such treatment.

What have they done to bring JENKINS would be murderers to justice? A felony has been committed in Nansemond Co. A citizen of that county has been treated worse than a brute and the law decrees that his assailant shall be sent to the Virginia penitentiary. Is Commonwealth's Attorney HOLLAND a Christian? Does he belong to that army that pays homage to the spotless character of the Lamb? Has he ever asked God to forgive his sins, or has he given rough-shod or conscience, challenged destiny and taken his chances with the unforgiving millions of this sinful world?

Is Sheriff BAKER a Christian? Has he felt the saving grace of the redeeming love, or does he too trust in might rather than right and fail to perform a duty in accordance with an oath, which is as solemn as the one taken at the masonic altar. Gentlemen, there is a day of reckoning. There is a time when the secrets of all hearts will be made manifest and that which you mete to JENKINS will be measured to you again. On with the torture! Continue to keep him confined behind prison doors even though he has suffered one death at the hands of the mob, but God will hold you responsible.

But a few more days and solemn dirges will be sung, a crowd of relatives will follow one or the other, possibly both of you to your long home. The falling of the clouds upon your coffin will tell those left behind that there is no repentance beyond the grave. The memory of the fact that one prosecuted a helpless, defenseless, almost cowering man, es-aying to put upon him further punishment when he had been trebly injured, and that the other failed to do his sworn duty in bringing his would-be murderers to justice will cause tears of regret to course down the cheeks of the loved ones left behind and a degrading remorse to accompany your soul to the spirit land.

What will you do with JENKINS? I grant that your eyes may be opened to the injustice of existing conditions and that this helpless man may not be subjected to further persecution at the hands of those who should be his strongest protectors. Lynch-law must go! The attempt to steal the Hawaiian Islands and set up what is called "a white man's government" will hardly succeed during Mr. CLEVELAND'S administration.

Please Read the Following: BROOKLYN, Aug. 15, 1891.—This is to certify that I came to New York from Albany. I was a stranger in a strange city out of work and out of money. I had no luck in anything I undertook. What do I do? I did not know. A friend advised me to go and see Doctor Shea. I did. He told me the name of my trouble. I told him I got it treated like a snake bite, and I thought I was in a good position that very week. I had been to the doctor. I gave him my money and did not see him. I bless the day I met Doctor Shea. He advised me to go to him at once. Sincerely, ALBERT AYRES. 217 Atlantic Avenue.

BROOKLYN, Aug. 15, 1891.—This is to certify that my husband had gone away and had been absent two years. I was in a very bad way. I came to him. He is home now, same as I was. I told me I would get my money and did not see him. I bless the day I met Doctor Shea. He advised me to go to him at once. Sincerely, ALBERT AYRES. 217 Atlantic Avenue.

GOOD ADVICE. Every patriotic citizen should give his personal effort and influence to increase the circulation of his home paper which teaches the American policy of Protection. It is his duty to aid in this respect in every way possible. After the home paper is taken care of, why not subscribe for the AMERICAN ECONOMIST, published by the American Protective Tariff League? One of its correspondents says: "No true American can get along without it. I consider it the greatest and truest political teacher in the United States."
