

President Cleveland, and he is the first white representative who has had in Hayti for a number of years.

The story is told by Edmond Fortune, who was the only passenger on the Prins Willem I from Hayti. Mr. Fortune hails from Trinidad. He stopped at Port-au-Prince on his way to the United States.

When he arrived here he went to the Mayor House, and was found there later by the Sun reporter.

THAT REMARKABLE LETTER. "I found matters pretty quiet in Hayti," he said, "but there was considerable excitement in the city of Port-au-Prince over a letter that had been written by American Minister Smythe to the President of the republic, Hippolyte. The letter had not been made public, but the people knew one had been written, and they were thinking things worse than they were, and there were some threats made against the Minister. I could not get a copy of the letter, but the German Minister with whom I am acquainted, told me that it Minister Smythe made very severe criticisms on the manner in which the republic's affairs were being managed."

MISCHIEVOUS MEDDLING. He condemned the rigorous manner in which the President adopted to put down revolutions before they attain ed size. He insisted that men could not obtain justice in the courts. He objected to the financial and customs policies of the country, and said that if the President didn't devote the revenues to making public improvements, instead of to person al uses, he need not expect to retain the sympathy of the U. S. Government. Then he suggested reforms that should be made at once, and told how the government ought to be run, in the future if it wanted to be a real good government.

OTHER FOREIGN MINISTERS DECLINE TO SIGN IT. "After writing this letter, the German minister said, Minister Smyth took it around to the ministers of other countries and asked their opinion of it, and then asked them to join him in signing it. They told him that they were representing their governments, and that they had no authority to meddle with Hayti's domestic affairs, and they all refused to sign it, so Minister Smythe signed it himself and sent it to the President.

DECLINED TO DINE WITH THE PRESIDENT. "The German minister didn't know what President Hippolyte said when he read the letter, but he did know that that same day the Minister of Foreign Affairs sat down and wrote a letter to Minister Smythe inviting him to call and dine with the President and talk the matter over in private. Minister Smyth declined the invitation and the President was very angry. He consulted with his advisers and they forwarded the letter to Washington. Whether the letter was enclosed with it or not, the recall of Minister Smythe is not known in Hayti.

Mr. Fortune said he did not know the date on which President Hippolyte forwarded it to Washington, but he was sure it had been forwarded by the earlier steamer than the Prins Willem I.

OTHER REPORTS DISCREDITED. The officers of the Prins Willem I had no information to add to that given by Mr. Fortune. They said they had heard nothing about the reported recent execution of a government official who had attempted to kill the President. They had heard reports that the exiled Haytians, under the leadership of General Manigal, who are at Kingston, Jamaica, were preparing to invade Hayti and try to overthrow Hippolyte. They were going to land on the northern side of the island, where they expected to get arms and ammunition and money. Then they would march across the country to the capital, picking up recruits on the way, and they expected to get enough recruits to whip the government army.

Rev. Wells Honored—Many Fine Presentations. A few of the members of the Ebenezer Baptist Church, namely, the Independent Club, of which Mrs. Amanda Thornton is president, surprised their pastor with several valuable gifts, Thursday, January 25th.

Among them was a handsome French Imported Clock, Japanese Vases and a silk plush lambrquin. A neat presentation speech was made by the Secretary, Mrs. Alice Brown in behalf of the Club, to which the pastor replied in a speech as grateful in style, and as grateful in spirit, as his unbounded feelings would allow. The meeting was more devotional than social in character.

Those Ohio Lynchers. West Union, O., Jan. 16.—Judge Davis has instructed the grand jury to make every effort to find any or all of the men connected with the mob who lynched Henson Parker and to indict them as murderers. He also instructed them to indict every reporter that wired sensational reports which had the effect of raising a mob, and especially to indict the reporter who accompanied the mob and assisted at the hanging.—Balto. Herald.

She Fractured His Skull. On Saturday night when James Knull, colored, who resides on South avenue, Petersburg, Va., came home and his wife engaged in a quarrel. Knull is said to have been somewhat under the influence of liquor. It is alleged that he struck at his wife two or three times. Mary Davis, Knull's wife's aunt, interfered when she saw Knull strike the Davis woman. The trouble between this woman and Knull was subsequently renewed, and during the difficulty which followed it is alleged Mary Davis struck Knull with an ax, fracturing his skull and in-storting injuries which it is thought will prove fatal. The woman Mary Davis has not been apprehended.

Samuelians to the Front. There will be a public meeting at the Third Street M. E. Church, on Monday night, the 30th inst., under the auspices of the Samaritans of this city. Addresses will be expected from National Grand Sir J. W. F. Batts of Petersburg, Hon. J. W. B. Batts, Grand Secretary of the State Grand Lodge, and Past Grand Chief Robert W. Batts of Charlottesville, also John W. Batts, all members of the order in this city, Manchester and vicinity, and the meeting is invited to attend on those addresses will be of a high order of excellence, dealing with the origin and purposes of the order, its accomplishments in this State and its plans in the future. Those who attend will be amply repaid.

The arrangements are under the direction of Mr. J. B. Taylor, Deputy for this city.

Republican Gain in New York. The election in the 14th and 15th districts of New York city, Tuesday, resulted in a phenomenal gain for the Republicans. In the former Lemuel E. Quigg, Republican, was elected by 905 plurality, a Republican gain of 9,750 voters.

In the latter, while E. W. Sigrist was defeated and leader Straus, Democrat, elected, the usual Democratic plurality of nearly twenty thousand was cut down to 4,510. Republican gain over the vote of '92 of 7,325.

This is a Republican tidal wave and foretells the overwhelming defeat which awaits the Democratic party at the next election.

HE CAUSED HER INSANITY. A White ex-Chief of Police Charged with Criminal Intercourse. ROANOKE, Va., Jan. 29.—Roanoke has another sensation that stirs the city. At 1 o'clock yesterday, Thomas S. Kenerly, a local dealer, and at one time chief of police of the city, was arrested at his home on a warrant charging him with undue intimacy with Miss Bessie Smith, of Franklin county, a young woman of unbounded mind. The young woman had been placed here in a sanitarium for treatment.

The commission of lunacy to examine into the mental condition of Miss Smith met again at 1 o'clock to day, and, after hearing the testimony of her mother and two brothers, from Franklin county, returned a verdict of hysterical insanity.

Thomas S. Kenerly, who was released on bail Saturday morning on his appearance before the Police Court tomorrow, was indicted this afternoon and a bench warrant is issued for his arrest.

$40,000 for the Corbett—Jackson Fight. LOS ANGELES, CAL., Jan. 29.—Leading citizens of Arizon, Catalina, Island, have subscribed $50,000 for the purpose of getting Corbett and Jackson to meet here June next. This sum is to be supplementary to the $35,000 offered by the Santa Catalina Athletic Club of Los Angeles. Jackson has expressed his confidence in his success and there is little doubt that the fight between the champion of the world and this colored pugilist will be the most widely contested fight of modern times.

Myrtle Lodge's Entertainment. The grand festival of Myrtle Lodge, K. P., was continued Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Large crowds thronged Richmond Hall, and the dancers were enjoying the entrancing whirl.

The management succeeded in having a grand success and were thankful to the public for the interest shown.

Y. M. C. A. Considering the inclemency of the weather Monday, January 29th, there was a large number in attendance at the Concert for the Poor. Every person who took part showed that he or she was deeply interested in the effort. The Richmond Quartette was in its place as usual. Madame R. K. Jones presided at the piano. The solo rendered by Madame D. R. Cross, Miss S. A. Kemp and Mr. J. A. Bowler were happily received by the audience. Mr. George West, the humorist, in his happy mode, evoked applause after applause.

The Queen of the World's Fair Souvenirs

Complete in Serial Form For Only Five Two Cent Stamps a Six Planet Coupons.

The PLANET makes an offer to its readers which will make a sensation in every town and city in this section. Realizing how many thousands of people are anxious to secure a permanent souvenir of the World's Fair, we have secured a large copyrighted edition in serial form.

It is a collection of the only Original Photographs, authorized and permitted by the management of the World's Columbian Exposition, consisting of Photographs of the Thirteen Original Buildings, the Forty State Buildings, the Buildings of Nineteen Foreign Nations, the Court of Honor, Exhibits, the War Ship Illinois, the Lake Front, the Lagoon, Temples, Pavilions, Gardens, Fountains, Statues, the Midway Plaisance and its Scenes.

The text matter covers the entire page opposite each photograph, and expands into an amount of reading matter that surpasses anything of its kind ever before produced.

This magnificent volume of over 500 massive oblong pages is illustrated with over 250 full-page copyrighted photographs, size 6x8 inches, of the World's Columbian Exposition, the use of which is authorized by the official management. It is printed on the finest coated paper, handsomely and luxuriously bound in One Royal Oblong Volume, size 9x11 inches. The text fills the pages opposite the pictures and presents an unrivaled mass of instructive and descriptive matter, most beautifully and simply expressed.

Endorsements of Eminent Men. The following letters culled from hundreds which have been written show the great value of this publication, which is illustrated from original photographs, the use of which was authorized and permitted by the exposition management as certified by President Higginbotham:

"I prize the book as one of my great treasures. It is literally in compressed form a representation of the greatest Exhibition in the history of mankind. Next to seeing the Fair, the best thing is a copy of your book." W. M. MCKINLEY, JR., Governor of Ohio.

"Shepp's World's Fair Photographed," is an admirable book of photographs of the World's Fair Exposition, and far ahead of anything previously seen." October 3, 1893. GEO. F. HOAR, Senator, Massachusetts.

"The collection is very beautiful, and will be of permanent value and interest." October 17, 1893. HON. JOHN W. DANIELS, Senator, Virginia.

"A beautiful book of photographs of the World's Fair at Chicago. They are faithful and excellent likenesses which I prize very highly. The book is a work of art." October 6, 1893. R. M. SULLY, Superintendent. E. T. D. MYERS, General Superintendent. T. M. PUGH, General Superintendent.

This magnificent work has been divided into thirty-two parts, each part containing Nine Superb half-tone photographs. When all of the parts have been secured, it will make a magnificent book of 500 pages.

A copy of Part I with nine photographs can be seen at this office. Price, without coupons, 25 cents. With three coupons cut from different issues of the PLANET, five 2 cent stamps. Bring stamps to the PLANET Office. Persons living outside of the city must send two cent stamp extra—for mailing. Do not send stamps of a higher denomination than two cents.
