

"GIVE CREDIT TO WHOM IT DUE."

(Dedicated to John Mitchell, Jr., in his efforts for the "Lunenburg Prison...")

Some toll along from from till night... Others work with no incentive, save that Right may have fair play.

When rejoicing is given a people... To see that justice made demands.

Al praise to him, who has thus stood... Upon his brow is placed the wreath.

When his brow is placed the wreath... To him, the credit that is due.

J. ANDREW BOWLER, May 6, 1896.

MAGNO'S MESSAGE.

POKEY AT OUR CHURCHES—SUNDAY SERVICES—PYTHIANS' PARADE IN THIS SECTION—THINGS SEEN AND HEARD WHILE WANDERING IN THE WARD.

Last Sunday was an exceedingly hot day, while the verticle rays of the sun added to the heat of the day.

A large crowd assembled at the First Baptist Church on last Sunday morning... After a most excellent sermon by Rev. D. W. Davis, a collection of over $23.00 was taken in her behalf.

At the Moore St. Rev. R. O. Johnson preached an excellent sermon. He took as his subject, "The pardoning Sin."

Regular services were held at the other churches. We have now heard much sickness this week, while death-rill is nearly blank.

The marriages will begin again next month. Look out for them. On last Tuesday the Knights of Pythias paraded this section.

Yes, she smacked her lips in the mouth a few Monday nights ago. It is said to have been a love lick, but it was a very hard one.

WILL SHE HANG?

Mary Abernathy's Case to Go to the Supreme Court.

THAT TELL-TALE CONFESSION.

TAKEN TO LYNCHBURG FOR SAFETY.

How Long Will She Have to Suffer?

The Lunenburg Case continues to attract wide-spread attention and sympathy is manifested in the most substantial way in behalf of the poor women.

Solomon Marable and Mary Abernathy were removed to Lynchburg jail for safe-keeping.

MR. WOOTTEN'S RESTAURANT. Where Solomon Marable purchased a fifty cent lunch, the morning after the murder and displayed the $20 bills.

The following letter from Aunt Mary explains itself: Mary Abernathy's Letter.

Dear Mr. Mitchell—Your kind letter came to hand and it afforded me much pleasure to hear from you.

At the time of said murder, your petitioner was employed as a laborer at the saw-mill of Herbert Thompson, near by the residence of the said E. S. Pollard.

On Friday, the 14th day of June, 1896 Mrs. Lucy Jane Pollard, wife of E. S. Pollard, a citizen of Lunenburg county Va., was murdered at her home, in said county.

On the 14th day of June, while going from a place called Fort Mitchell, near by there, to said saw-mill, your petitioner came upon one David Thompson, a white man, who lives in the neighborhood, in the public road.

THE HORRIBLE MURDER.

Mrs. Pollard saw his shadow and backed out of the door and towards your petitioner, who caught her by her hair from behind.

He then made your petitioner go with him into the house, and he opened some things and took money out of one of the places which he put into his pocket.

He then made your petitioner go away with him, and he opened some things and took money out of one of the places which he put into his pocket.

On a succeeding day, Pokey Barnes was put on trial. Your petitioner being then convicted, and feeling that there was no hope for him determined that he would tell the truth about it.

SOLOMON MARABLE'S CABIN. The people there are new comers. This is where he went to spend the night following the murder.

When Mary Abernathy was put upon her trial your petitioner was put on the stand as a witness, and still under the domination of the terror with which he was seized, your petitioner told the same story, and she was also convicted.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God, the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, to remove from our midst our beloved brother, James L. Smith, and

Whereas, in the death of this our dear brother, who has lost a faithful Christian worker, the community a loving and kind friend, who in her social walks was ever willing and ready to perform any duty in loving charity imposed upon her, therefore be it

Resolved, that while we deeply deplore our loss, yet do bow in humble submission to the will of Him who does his will in heaven, knowing that our beloved one having been faithful even unto death has gone from labor to reward, and that she has only put down the cross to rise up in glory. Sleep on beloved, sleep and take thy rest.

Resolved 2nd, that we extend to the family of the deceased through whose death our link has again been broken, our sincere sympathy in this their hour of affliction.

Resolved 3rd, that these resolutions be published in the weekly papers and that a copy be spread upon the minutes of the Sunday school.

Resolved 4th, that these resolutions be published in the weekly papers and that a copy be spread upon the minutes of the Sunday school.
