

ue" of north Chicago is named in honor of the editor of the Richmond (Va.) PLANTER. This league is composed of the leading business men of the Northside and they have beautiful fitted quarters at 480 Wells street, where its members meet every evening to read the papers and discuss the leading topics of the day and enjoy themselves at social games. Every Thursday is ladies day at the club and all the wives and lady friends of league men have charge of their rooms and refreshments are served free to our guests, and the time is spent in conversation.

This league has three objects in view, namely, to bring together a closer union among the colored citizens in Northside of the better class and their families each other, to become financially and to give preference to league men for any position that may be had. 3rd. To use the college politics to club men seeking positions, either city, state or under the National government. Among the first officers are: J. T. Jones, president; G. W. Ramsey, financial secretary; William M. Johnson, recording secretary. V. N. Watkins, vice president.

The board of directors and members of the club (25) represent every state south of the Potomac and extend into the Old Dominion has a very large share of her sons on the soil.

The colored business men in Chicago are about the same as in other parts of the north, born and raised in the south.

I hope in the near future to give you a short write up of our colored business men in this city.

INSTRUCTIONS TO VIRGINIA REPUBLICAN VOTERS

Unable to Prepare their Ballots.

To vote for McKinley and Hobart for President and Judge Lewis for Congress, the names of all other candidates for President and Vice-President and all other candidates for Congress must be scratched; the pen or pencil mark plainly made and to run straight through the names scratched. Use a lead pencil in this scratching your ballot. Be careful to see that only one name for President, and one name for Vice-President, McKinley and Hobart, and one name for Congress is left on the ballot unscratched.

Request and require the Judge of the Election to so mark your ticket as to enable you to vote for McKinley and Hobart for President and Vice-President and Judge Lewis for Congress and see that the names of the electors are not to be scratched. Read and study this.

FARMVILLE LETTER.

Farwell Entertainment to Dr. Mitchell. Personal Mention.

FARMVILLE, VA., Oct. 22, 1896

Every thing in general in and around this vicinity is getting or putting on air of the election and before this time another week the death knell will be sounded and the alarm will be given to McKinley and the country will be safe.

Last Thursday night was one to be long remembered by Dr. H. Mitchell, not only the ladies and gentlemen, but not only of the Baptist Church but the A. M. E. Church. At an early hour the hands of McKinley and the country will be safe.

Last Thursday night was one to be long remembered by Dr. H. Mitchell, not only the ladies and gentlemen, but not only of the Baptist Church but the A. M. E. Church. At an early hour the hands of McKinley and the country will be safe.

The pulpit of the first Baptist Church was very acceptably filled last Sunday by Rev. E. W. Moore, of the Richmond Theological Seminary. A very body were highly pleased with Rev. Merchant and want him to come this way again.

Mr. C. T. Branch left this week for Shaw University, Raleigh, N. C., to enter the medical department.

Political Notes—John Mitchell, Jr., League.

CHICAGO, ILL., October 26.—This section is now in the throes of one of the hottest fought campaigns ever experienced since the 60's, this city being the central headquarters. Many of the best as well as the poorest citizens of both parties can be seen and heard nearly every night and at noon in different halls.

There has been one very noticeable feature of this whole campaign that is the work is being done chiefly, so far as the speakers are concerned, by the colored people. The only person that has derived any financial support has been the printer, who has a number of hands in this kind of matter and flags. There are thousands of flags stretched across the street in every part of this city, but not a single one has been made by a colored man.

J. J. Christian will leave Thursday for New York enroute to Europe where he expects to spend the winter.

Ross brothers were sports at Swamps last Sunday on bicycles to visit their girls.

Two of our sports went bicycle riding about two weeks ago to see their girls and the rain caught them. They rode their bicycles some, and the bicycle cycles there some, and cost them fifty cents apiece for over staying their trip.

J. J. Christian will leave Thursday for New York enroute to Europe where he expects to spend the winter.

General Burkner surrendered to General Grant at Fort Donelson. He will surrender with more cheerfulness to Major McKinley in November.—Springfield (Mass.) Union.

Li Hung Chang says he is "impressed by the welfare and prosperity of the American people," and "wishes to see the country prosper." Let him return after McKinley's election if he wants to see the country at its best.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

POLITICAL PERSONAL AND BRIEFS—DEATHS.

Rev. Powell Surprised.

For the past few days the weather has been warm and Springlike, while the trees have on their fall-like appearance, and the grass looks dark and drying up; showing that King Frost has left its biting effect upon it as a striking reminder every time we walk.

Every night, the voters are assembled at their club rooms to be educated how to vote on next Tuesday, (3rd of November), the people should remember how they have suffered for the past four years, and study the record of the past, and give their vote to the interest of themselves and families. There need not be the least doubt that when they arise Wednesday 4th, their fondest hopes will be realized. McKinley will be President, Hobart Vice-President; and Judge Lewis Congressman from the 3rd district. To our men, stand for Protection and Republican principles and in a few short months you will have work and means to support and comfort your families.

Rev. Powell Surprised.

That a certain noted divine has his eyes on another field.

That a certain other popular minister can get a very inviting field if he will take it.

Mr. Carberry Burton has replaced the roof of his house taken off by the recent wind storm.

An accident occurred at the residence of Mrs. Tucker, corner Beverly and Meadow Sts. The stable feed was slightly damaged.

There is a considerable uptick was at the 2nd Baptist Church last Sunday caused by the pews having been polished and could not be used to have services in the main auditorium.

This church will conduct a week's festival commencing Monday, November 2nd and in honor of its 50th Anniversary, and to raise money to pay off a small debt the friends rally to help the faithful.

At the Fifth Baptist Church on last Sunday, Rev. Powell preached at 11:30, Rev. T. Hall at 3:30, and Rev. D. L. Cosby at 8 P. M. All preached most excellent sermons.

Rev. Powell will preach on Wednesday, November 1st, at 11:30, and on Friday, November 3rd, at 8 P. M. He will preach on the subject, "Vinegar." Go and hear him and you will want to go again.

At the River View Baptist Church, 11:30, Rev. Motley of 6th Mt. Zion Church, preached a sermon that was listened to with interest.

3:30 Communion administered by the pastor, Rev. George E. Johnson. Sunday School, 10:00.

Rev. John Ellis is doing a good religious work in the Newtown district. He has a very good Sunday School and prayer-meetings.

Rev. Powell and family were surprised on Thursday night, 22nd inst., by the arrival of the Fifth Baptist Church, accompanied by some from Sharon and other churches, led a very pleasant surprise on Rev. and Mrs. Powell. They were met at the door by bags of flour, lard, sugar, tea, coffee, a variety of canned fruits, corn, tomatoes, apples, etc., etc.

Rev. Powell and family were surprised on Thursday night, 22nd inst., by the arrival of the Fifth Baptist Church, accompanied by some from Sharon and other churches, led a very pleasant surprise on Rev. and Mrs. Powell. They were met at the door by bags of flour, lard, sugar, tea, coffee, a variety of canned fruits, corn, tomatoes, apples, etc., etc.

Among the contributors were: Deacon George W. Moore, Rev. Frank Davis, Deacon Daniel Brown, Mrs. W. H. Carter, Thomas C. Edmunds, Jefferson Martin, Fields, Joe Scott, James Ferguson, Sisters E. R. Moss, M. Brown, M. Taylor, M. Carter, M. Mullen, J. H. Ferguson, M. Patterson, E. Drew Ellis, R. Carter, M. E. Jones, J. H. Brown, J. H. Brown, J. H. Brown, Lucas, F. Jasper, Kate Johnson, Mary Randolph and others. After a very happy and profitable prayer-meeting, Rev. Powell expressed his hearty thanks and appreciation, and promised continued faithfulness, and earnest work for God and the advancement of their church and people.

Some of the same good workers visited Morris Monday night, 23rd inst., and sang and prayed for her sick husband, left some money and other comforts. Life, Revs. Powell and D. L. Cosby. Rev. Powell assured the friends and the people generally of his gratification of their support and encouragement.

UNION UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.

Monday night, 26th at 8:30, there was held at the Fifth Baptist Church, mass-meeting in the interest of higher education for our people. The following distinguished gentlemen were present: Rev. John W. Kirby, general financial agent; C. H. Corey, D. J. E. Jones, Rev. E. W. Moore, Rev. D. L. Cosby, and others. The meeting was well attended and the logical reasons why the college should be established and properly supported by us. Others present and encouraging the work, Revs. A. Kings, J. D. H. Powell, D. L. Cosby and W. J. Smith. A fair crowd was present. We are assured by Rev. Kirby that much will be heard from in the near future in no uncertain sound.

A young man named Motie Wharton was shot last Tuesday in Henrico near the Exposition Grounds by Constable A. C. Green. It was nothing more nor less than a cowardly and base attempt on the part of Green because he thought the man an escaped convict. Why should he shoot a poor boy had made no resistance, and was not fleeing from the officer, and the officer had not one reason of his own knowledge to justify such harsh action.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

Deacon Christopher Wilkerson and Mrs. Ada Wilkerson celebrated their 25th Anniversary Tuesday night, 27th inst., at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. St. A large number of distinguished guests were present to greet them. The evening was made up of the handsome presents of silver. On Tuesday 20th, Mrs. Wilkerson was presented by the society of which she is the honor. A beautiful mother, with a beautiful swinging water pitcher and gold-lined goblets.

DEATHS.

Mr. Ferrin Jackson died Sunday, the 25th inst., at his residence on Norton near Moore St. He was a member of several societies, and leaves a wife and several children. His funeral took place from the Shenandoah Baptist Church, Rev. A. S. Thomas officiating.

NOT OUR JOHN MITCHELL.

We noticed in the "Richmond Times" of the 28th, among other names the name of John Mitchell on the list of candidates for Congress from this district. All who have read the communication between Mr. John Mitchell of the PLANTER and Secretary Lawless will know that it is a democratic trick to split the colored vote. We have not consulted Mr. Mitchell, but from our knowledge of affairs, we know Mr. Mitchell is not a candidate for Congress now; but his host of friends must lay on their arms and keep their powder dry, because they will need it.

SOUTH STARVING

TO MCKINLEY.

Her People Responding to the Plea For Honest Money.

REPUBLICANS HOPEFUL.

Mr. Scott of the National Committee Believes McKinley Will Carry Maryland, West Virginia, Delaware, North Carolina and Kentucky.

(Special Correspondence.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The fact that there is every likelihood of several of the southern states declaring at this election for McKinley, Hart and sound money has given to this campaign a new element of interest. The eyes of all who believe that the preservation of the nation's credit is a question pending beyond party lines are turning eagerly to the south to see what the voters in that section of the country propose to do in this crisis.

The preliminary survey of the field which was made some time ago was so satisfactory that last week Mr. Hanna, chairman of the Republican national committee, frankly said:

"I go well fully prepared and ready to meet our opponents in the open field of battle which they have chosen for the final contest with perfect confidence and assurance as to the result. The campaign has been extended. It now reaches into many of the southern states, which give promise of success over the developed strength of sound money principles, and this comes naturally from the local sentiment in that section."

Views of an Authority.

In order to get a more detailed opinion bearing upon the condition of the southern section for the prospects of turning some of them into the Republican column your correspondent called today to see Mr. N. M. Scott, secretary of the Republican national committee.

Mr. Scott has been intrusted with the highly important task of directing the campaign in certain of the southern states, and he is fully qualified to give an opinion on the subject. He is one of the leading Republicans of the south and because of his wide and intimate acquaintance with existing political conditions there. Although Mr. Scott was exceedingly busy with the thousand and one details attending upon his work, he turned from his desk for a few moments and talked freely about the general political outlook in the south.

His views are entitled to the widest acceptance, because he is qualified to speak with authority on this matter. He is a thorough, experienced and energetic politician, and he has been continuously on the campaign since July 27.

"What do you think of the situation throughout this country, Mr. Scott?" he was asked.

"Well, in the first place, there is no question about Maryland giving at least from 15,000 to 20,000 votes to McKinley. Maryland as being as absolutely secure for McKinley and Hobart as to the state of West Virginia, Delaware, North Carolina and Kentucky, with the added remark that these are fairly safe bets. It is not hard to convince them of the free silver fallacy will find itself very much mistaken in the future. It is not hard to convince them of the free silver fallacy will find itself very much mistaken in the future. It is not hard to convince them of the free silver fallacy will find itself very much mistaken in the future."

Will Sweep the Country.

"In my opinion," was his prompt reply, "the Republican party has the assistance of the sound money Democrats, are going to sweep the country, and the number of votes they will carry is estimated to be not less than 275, and probably 300. There has been a steady tide setting in to sound money and protection during the past four weeks, and it is gaining strength every day. Our people are thoroughly convinced of the error of their ways, and integrity of this country and keep our credit where it is today—the best in the world. There has been a great deal of work about the farmers being for free silver. My knowledge and acquaintance with the facts are such that I am confident that they, above all men, believe in honesty and practice it. They have plenty of time in their hands, and they are not in a hurry to accumulate enough to buy or build. They are not in a hurry to accumulate enough to buy or build. They are not in a hurry to accumulate enough to buy or build."

Great Loss to Wage Earners.

Stated broadly, the savings bank, life insurance and assessment companies and building and loan associations of the country have lost $1,000,000,000. The result of a quarrel which originated in the election at Twenty-third and Naudian streets on March 7th. A number of young white men, who were in the crowd when Queen and some companions entered. One of the latter had a chicken with him and this called forth a serious remark from one of the young men. Angry words followed and one of the colored men ran from the crowd and returned with a large butcher knife. He then followed the white man, who was carrying a house near by, and beyond the calling of names and he throwing of a few bricks, no damage was done.

At the moment Queen had gone to his home and armed himself with a large butcher knife. He then followed the white man, who was carrying a house near by, and beyond the calling of names and he throwing of a few bricks, no damage was done.
