

FROM HOT SPRINGS.

A Brilliant Marriage—Rev. Smith Re-membered.

HOT SPRINGS, Va., Nov. 28, '98. On Tuesday, November 15th, Mr. Benjamin Davis led to the hymenal altar, Miss Lucy Winslow of Lynch-burg, Va. The ceremony was performed at the First Baptist Church, Warm Springs, Va., Rev. J. D. Oliver officiating.

The bride wore white satin, trimmed with white lace and dotted with orange blossoms with veil and slippers to match. The groom wore the conventional black.

The bride made were Miss Alice Hopkins, Willie Bias, Katie Cosby and Annie Allen. Best man were Messrs. K. R. Gaither, E. L. Baptist, William Bee and N. F. Berry. Bride maids wore white satin with trimmings to match.

At 9 o'clock the carriages were at the service of the bridal party. After a thirty minutes' drive, arrived at Warm Springs where a beautiful decorated church and an eager assemblage awaited their arrival.

The bride ceremony was performed at the First Baptist Church, Warm Springs, Va., Rev. J. D. Oliver officiating. The bride made were Miss Alice Hopkins, Willie Bias, Katie Cosby and Annie Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Perry left a few days since for Lynchburg, Va. Mr. R. N. Smith came near getting badly hurt in a train wreck between Covington and Hot Springs, Va.

Mr. S. D. Pamel made a trip last week to Lexington and Lynchburg, Va. The friends of Mr. A. F. Lorton were greatly shocked to hear of his sudden demise. He left here Thursday, Nov. 17th, apparently well and hearty and Friday evening his wife received a telegram announcing his death.

Rev. J. H. Thomas left a few days since for his home in Charleston, West Va. Rev. C. W. Wright preached Sunday evening from Acts 9:20.

Mr. Smith was the recipient of a fine clock and a beautiful ring, a present of the waiters. Mr. Pannel made the presentation speech.

Yours for PLANET's success, W. S. T.

Relly—Wot's Callahan lookin' so mournful for to-day? Dooley—Sure, he wanted his little kid named Dewey and their old woman had the by christened Alger be mistake.

Keeping His Promise. "Can you build a bridge over this washout strong enough to take a train over," asked the conductor, looking at his watch. "In two hours?"

"I can, sir," replied the section boss. "Then go ahead." "It was then 2 o'clock. At 4 the conductor went down to inspect the work.

"How's this?" he demanded. "Didn't you say you could build a bridge in two hours that I could run this train over?"

"No, sir," responded the section boss. "I said I could build a bridge you could run the train over in two hours. It ain't none of my business what you want to run so thunderin' slow for, but I'm makin' the bridge all right. It'll be done to-morrow mornin'."

Best Way Out of It. He—Who is that ugly looking girl standing at the side of the post? She—Sir, I want you to understand that she is my sister.

He—You understood me; I mean the girl to the left of the post. She—That is also one of my sisters. He—Allow me to congratulate you on having the meanest looking lot of relatives I have ever seen in all my life.

Flattered. Young Mrs. Tordkins was almost in tears when her husband came home. "What's the matter?" inquired her husband. "It wasn't my fault, Charley, dear, and I do hope it can be mended. That pointer piteon you brought home—"

"Well?" "I'm afraid it has swallowed a tack and got a puncture."

Two Plans. Mabel—I suppose you have heard of sister Lou's marriage. She's taken a flat in Brooklyn. Miss Jellius—Yes, I heard she had a flat; but I didn't hear where she had taken him.

The Correct Expression. "Have I got the 'pleasing expression' you want?" asked Mr. Gubbins. "Yes, sir," replied the photographer. "I think that will do very well." "Then hurry up, please. It hits my face."

Better Than He Should Expect. "Does your husband speak more than one language, Mrs. Parvett?" "Oh, yes, he talks war, horse, base ball and bicycle—one just as well as the other."

THE LITTLE ENCYCLOPEDIA.

Shoes made of porpoise leather are absolutely impervious to water.

Moscow's orphan asylum, founded by Catherine II, is supported by a tax on playing cards.

The Tibetans have a week of five days, named after iron, wood, water, feathers and earth.

The Mexicans are the most inordinately smokers in the world. Even women and children are habitual smokers.

A snake does not climb a tree by coiling round it, but by holding on with the points of its scales. A snake could not climb a glass pillar.

Spiders are a serious plague in Japan. They spin their webs on the telegraph wires and are so numerous as to cause a serious loss of insulation.

Sweeping the wires does little good, as the spiders begin all over again. There is a fish found in Hudson Bay which absolutely builds a nest. This it does by picking up pebbles in its mouth and placing them in a regular way on a selected spot on the bottom of the bay, where the water is not very deep.

POINTS AND MOOT POINTS.

We offer daily incense, devilish or divine, to our Creator on the shrines and altars of our bodies.

Virtue must be real; ideal virtue is an illusion many have gone insane over.

We are so shy of the nude we close our eyes instinctively to the naked truth.

Love and music are oftener spoiled by poor execution than by poor instruments.

Heart failure is the open secret of most divorces.

Of married people a few are harnessed span, the majority tandem.

Marriage should be a square knot—no use to tie a "granny."

Pray without ceasing, as the wolf said in the prayer-meeting.

Swindling goes swimmingly upon the account books of time; but there will be no watered stocks entered on God's ledger.

Labels get shifted; the double extract of pride steals the tag of humility, for instance.

BLASTS FROM RAM'S HORN.

Love makes fewer mistakes than learning.

No church is Christian if it fails to go about doing good.

Some people are willing to live up to their light as long as their eyes are banded.

It is our little deeds of love that are large and our great deeds of self that are little.

The difficulties in the path of duty disappear when we go forward as though they were not there.

Some men lay the loadstone of lust alongside the compass of conscience and then talk about its being a good guide.

The preacher who talks about firing over the heads of his people had better learn that his business is feeding as well as firing.

Men cannot do without a creed; he must have a backbone, but that is only a part of him. If he is all backbone, we should call him a post; with no backbone a jellyfish.

ALL SORTS.

A Russian does not become of age until he is twenty-six.

No less than five systems of law are in use in Germany.

Husbands and wives traveling together in Norway, Austria and Hungary pay only a fare and a half on railways.

A Berliner has secured Luther's Bible, the margins of which are covered by notes in the reformer's handwriting.

London has a population of 4,250,000, equaling the combined populations of Paris, Berlin, St. Petersburg and Rome.

A man in London who has been prosecuted sixty times for refusing to have his children vaccinated was the recipient of a testimonial from a number of anti-vaccinationists.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A French woman has died in her 110th year, leaving 132 descendants.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When that tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars; free.
