

BUES FOR DIVORCE.

Strange Matrimonial Experience of Mrs. Florence Hardy.

Married by a Man Who Did Not Want Her Himself, But Was Determined to Injure a Rival Whom He Disliked.

A wife barely five minutes and then deprived of the title by the husband who has promised a deathless union, according to the Chicago Chronicle, the heart-suffering experience of Mrs. Florence L. Hardy, of Washington, D. C.

The remarkable and pathetic experience came to her five years ago. Mrs. Hardy is now suing for legal divorce from her husband, George M. Hardy.

Every effort is being made to keep the details of the affair from publicity. The woman's lawyer will not reveal her maiden name. The suit was filed in the district court two weeks ago.

At the time of her romance she was a clerk in the post office department. In her boarding house her beauty and vivacity made her the envy of the ladies and the adored of the men.

She had married any of a half-dozen suitors. Hardy was one of them, though less ardent than the rest. It was around Hardy treated her distantly.

At such times he would not let her out of his sight. Finally Hardy learned that she was engaged to another. This made him desperate. He wooed. This led to a "tiff" between her fiancé and herself.

With passionate protestations of love Hardy begged her to go to Baltimore with him and become his wife.

Hesitating but a moment, she hurriedly donned her handsome gown—a white confection of fluffy white lace—and on a morning train she fled to the monumental city with Hardy.

The procurement of the marriage license was attended with no difficulty, as they both presented themselves to the marriage clerk. Hardy left her at the Hotel Remond.

Her faith—Presbyterian. The church organist also was found and fed liberally by the soft, pleading tones of Mendelssohn's famous march as the bridal couple, unattended, walked from the door to the chancel. It was all as she had arranged. There was no wedding ring. The ceremony did not require it, nor did she in her agitation demand it.

From the church they hastened in a carriage back to the Baltimore & Ohio depot. They had been in Baltimore only five hours. She had been his bride only the length of time required to ride from the church to the train which bore her back to Washington, when, assisting her into a car, Hardy spoke the words which sent her home with her heart crushed and bleeding.

"I do not love you," he said, "as a husband should love a wife. You see, I didn't want a wife at all. All I wanted was to freeze out those other fellows. I couldn't bear the thought of seeing you married to another man. Good-by forever."

With this Hardy darted back into the crowd. Scarcely realizing the terrible import of his words, she staggered, half fainting, into the car. She sat like one dazed as the train rumbled back into Washington. Not a hint of the marriage did she give anyone. Hoping against hope, she nursed the stinging secret in her bosom for a year, believing that her husband would come to claim her. Finally she told her great secret to a girl friend and showed the marriage certificate. Soon it became known in her whole circle of acquaintances.

Hardy, a telegraph operator, disappeared from Washington for three years after his strange conduct. Several times during the last two years Hardy has been in Washington and remained several weeks. On neither occasion did he call upon his widowed wife. Once she met him face to face in Pennsylvania avenue. He bowed to her like a Chesterfield and lost himself in the crowd. In despair, Mrs. Hardy has sued him for divorce.

A Magnificent Thimble. The queen of Siam owns a thimble which was a present from her royal husband. It is made in the shape of a lotus bud, of the finest gold, and is studded with diamonds, which are so arranged that they form their names and the date of their marriage.

SQUIRREL BEGS NUTS. Charming Little Incident Recently Observed in Central Park by a New York Reporter.

A pretty incident was seen by a Tribune reporter while walking through Central park, New York. A man on a bench, under one of the trees, was feeding peanuts to a beautiful gray squirrel.

The man and its little neck craned in the most beseeching attitude. This continued until several peanuts had disappeared. Then the observer said: "Did you train this squirrel? Does it know you?"

"No," was the reply, "anyone can call these little fellows if they only know how," and handing a nut to a woman, he added: "Take a quarter of it in your fingers and hold it out so, and pretend to throw it."

The squirrel had retreated to the opposite edge of the walk during this conversation, but kept a very keen eye on the two people. When the new friend tried to entice him, he was not sure about things, and expressed his uncertainty and indecision by many pretty whisks and manuevers, but finally, with the air of a squirrel who would say faint squirrel never won fair nut, he darted toward the outstretched morsel, seized it, and, sitting on his hind feet, ate it all.

THE LATEST DIAGONAL.

A Smart Street Dress Which Shows Off the New Scalloped Jacket.

It requires only a few yards—say 5 1/2—of extra wide diagonal to make up this attractive street gown.

Royal blue autumn brown, russet green or a dark rich purple would be a stylish color. The skirt could have a tunic fitting perfectly smooth over the hips with trimmings of braid and stitching.

One of the most fashionable finishings for the tunic around the foot would be points faced either with braid or bias bands of satin.

The lining of the skirt could be of bright green, scarlet, cerulean blue or black, which would be a very effective contrast.

It does not turn the skin in spots but bleaches out white. It is a very good thing for the eyes if allowed to get into the eyes while washing the face.

One box of this preparation is all that is required to remove wrinkles, freckles, dark spots, and pimples from the face without harm to the skin.

Directions and preparation will be sent on any address on receipt of $2.00, O. O. D., or send money order. Please do not send cash unless you are sure of the genuineness of the goods.

A FASHIONABLE TAILOR-MADE DIAGONAL.

helltrope, either of which combines harmoniously with the new shades of blue, brown, green and purple.

The bands of goods which faces the outside of the lining around the foot could either be of diagonal or velvet.

A very elegant finish for the smart little jacket would be lapels of dark fur. This, however, is an expensive treatment unless imitations are used, and as fine cloth and velvet produce a very rich effect they are often preferred to fur imitations.

The newest cut for tailor made jackets, and one which would look well with a diagonal street gown, has a fly front finished below the waistline in several times and the sinuses are given a very pretty effect by a trimming of small buttons.

The most serviceable hat to go with such a gown would be a small toque of velvet or felt trimmed with wired ribbon and fancy quills.

NEW ENGLISH WALKING HAT.

An Improvement on the Popular Shape with Many New Trimmings.

The English walking hat has undergone a radical change at the hands of London milliners. They have retained the broad, low crown, but have straightened out the sides until they are quite flat.

The only observable trace of the familiar rolling brim is the slight curve on its outer edge; and this is as often as not concealed beneath a ruching of chiffon or a band of fur. Frequently a combination of the two.

Many new forms of trimming are seen. The one used on the new English walking hat consists of a fall piece of ribbon-covered wire which stands at the back of the crown with the ends of the ribbon inclining toward the front, where they are trimmed around the edges with ruchings of lace combined with fur.

White felt is much the fashion, especially in the low-crowned hats. The felt is of the very finest quality and the edges can be left raw; or, they can be finished with a ruching of chiffon and fur, or narrow frills of lace and fur. This materials and fur are very much used together this season.

Among the Parsees a murderer is punished with 90 stripes on his bare back, while a master who neglects his dog receives 200 stripes.

Didn't Land Him. "Why is it, Jack—I mean Mr. Buchanan," she asked, "that you have never married?"

"Well," he replied, "I have always felt that I was not good enough for any girl that I would want to be my wife."

She had intended to land him, but after thinking the matter over for a few seconds she decided that there was really nothing further to be said on the subject.—Answer.

Domestic Weas. A bride of three short weeks is she, and yet her heart is sad; For she has troubles of her own, and she has them mighty bad.

To-day she sought the kitchen, and an effort made to bake A wondrous thing from a recipe that called for angel's cake;

But the cruel words of hubby brought tears to her dark eyes— Said her: "Why it's called angel cake, I can readily surmise." —Chicago Daily News.

The True Significance. Daughter—Yes, Henry calls her three times a week, but I don't think he means anything by it. He says he doesn't take any stock in matrimony, thinks a man is better off single and is exceedingly apathetic and insensitive to me!

Father—Great Scott! That shows he wants you the worst way! He's a horse dealer, you know.—Puck.

Good News for the Unemployed.

I live right here in the north. I am in touch with those who need help can find out who is unreasonable and unjust. I have a steady demand for good women as cooks, chambermaids and general servants, and often for good indoor and outdoor men servants.

I pay your fare to which is added a reasonable amount for expenses and feet. I take no orders under any circumstances from disreputable houses and halls of that kind, and the best protection is afforded the respectable girl who respects herself.

MRS. MARTH, the world renowned and highly celebrated business and test Medium reveals everything. No imposition. Can be consulted upon all affairs of life, business, love and marriage specially. Every mystery revealed, also of absent, deceased and living friends. Removes all troubles and estrangements, challenges any Medium who can exceed her in startling revelations of the past, present and future events of one's life. Remember she will not for any price flatter you; you may rest assured you will gain facts without nonsense. She can be consulted upon all affairs of Life, Love, Courtship, Marriage, Friends, etc., with description of future companions. She is very accurate in describing missing friends, enemies etc. Her advice upon sickness, change of business, law suits, journeys, contesting wills, divorces, and speculation is valuable and reliable. She reads your destiny—good or bad; she withholds nothing.

MRS. MARTH tells your entire life past, present and future in a DEAD LANGUAGE, has the power of any two Mediums you ever met. In tests she tells you mother's full name before marriage, the names of all your family their ages and description, the name and business of your present husband and the name of your next if you are to have one, the names of the young man who new calls on you, the name of your future husband, and the day, month and year of your marriage, how many children you have or will have; whether your present sweetheart will be true to you and if he will marry you; if you have no sweetheart she will tell you when you will have and his name, business and date of acquaintance. All your future will be told in an honest clear and plain manner and in a dead trance. Mothers should know the success of their husbands and children young ladies should know everything about their sweethearts or intended husbands. Do not keep company, marry or go into business until you know all, do not let silly religious scruples prevent your consulting.

Madame is the only one in the world who can tell you the FULL NAME of your future husband, with age and date of marriage, and tells whether the one you love is true or false.

Try these unusual persons who believe that there is no truth to be gained from consulting a Medium, but such beliefs are contrary to the truth. It is only from the lack of discrimination that such a conclusion can be reached. It is not every one who placards himself or herself as a medium that can stand a test of what he or she claims.

And a person of an enquiring mind may ask the reason why. It is simply that these advisers do not take the time to study human nature. They do not spend their thoughts for a moment with acquiring the art of phrenology and kindred branches that will have a tendency to make the pathway to the road of the business clear and devoid of all obstacles.

It is an undeniable fact that persons will come for advice in full knowledge of what they want to know, and yet as soon as they confront a Medium they try their utmost endeavor to dispel from their mind that they know so as to hear if it will be rehearsed by a Medium. To get the secret out of or medium.

It is the art used by many unprincipled mediums, but to take hold of the head and gain control of the mind thereby is a matter of impossibility to most of them. And yet this can be done and by consulting Mrs. Marth the seeming mystery becomes a realization.

This subject has received no little attention by eminent men and even college professors. So it proves conclusively that although there are impostors in our midst with oily tongues perhaps the rates of wisdom have not been closed to the entire profession.

It takes a great deal of study to become an accomplished medium and by a continuous and untiring effort, the key to the well of apparently unfathomable mysteries has been secured by MRS. MARTH for the benefit of humanity.
