PORTER IS BEWILDERED.

Havana Servant Unable to Comprehend American Ideas of Woman's Importance.

A Havana correspondent says that with all the superficial gallantry toward the fair sex with which the Cuban and the Spanish are endowed, there is a peculiar disregard and mistrust which, to say the least, is very strange to American or English ideas.

HOLDING THE TELL-TALE LETTER.

Household was first established in Havana, the good housewife, to the mind of the deep-chested Spanish porter, was an utter nonentity.

There was a little informal dinner, and the mother of the household asked her daughter to write to Capt. So-and-so, inviting him to attend.

A GOSPEL ELEVATOR.

The Bible Texts Painted on its Sides Can Be Seen at a Distance of Twenty Miles.

Leah's Weekly thus describes one of the novel sights on the plains of western Kansas, the "gospel elevator" at Lebanon.

KANSAS GOSPEL ELEVATOR.

All four sides are painted, in gaudy colors, striking Bible texts, imporing to confession and conversion.

Peculiar Piano Law suit. A court in Providence, R. I., has just adjudicated a case that possesses interest for piano purchasers.

Truthful Boy. "What is the reason a chicken cannot swim? You may answer, Tommy."

tered a suit for its recovery. Judgment for the piano dealers.

Tons of Gold in Use. The amount of gold coin in actual circulation in the world is estimated to be about 865 tons.

Case Enough. Bilkins—So you didn't go to the masquerade ball? Wilkins—No; I made a fool of myself there last season, and I didn't care to risk it again.

His Work Unsatisfactory. "Did you ever get the money D'Auber owed you?" "No. He wanted to square accounts by painting my house inside and out."

Wanted One That Would. Irate Female—See here; do you mean to tell me that I have such an ugly nose as that?

Did Him Good. Doctor—Ah, the little one looks pretty well; the pills seem to have helped him. How did you take them, Johnny?

Then She Wanted It, Too. Mrs. Wilful—My husband told me if I didn't like this brooch, you'd exchange it for me.

Where the Trouble Lies. "When a woman will she will," said the fair maiden decisively.

A Better Name. Miss Summit—He is one of the most generous men I ever met. Why, he took me out to luncheon yesterday and let me order it all myself.

Poiled Again. "I never give money to beggars on the street," said the pedestrian.

Between Friends. "Yes," said the girl who had just received a legacy, "he has asked me to marry him."

A Nocturne. I would I were a gentle owl, then none would say me nay if all the night I chose to prow and sleep the livelong day.

ITS GENIAL WARMTH. Old Lady—Aren't you cold, little boy? Boy—Nif! Dis cigar keeps me comfortable.—N. Y. World.

To Catch Him. Fuddy—I want to get acquainted with Moskins, but I hardly know how to go about it, he's such a queer fish.

Explained. Knicker—Wonder why Cholly's so popular with the girls? He can't even express himself.

A Few Lines. Ida—Sometimes a few lines will cause a woman no end of worry.

Borrow Everything Else. "Shortleigh is always cheerful—never borrows trouble."

Truthful Boy. "What is the reason a chicken cannot swim? You may answer, Tommy."

An Impossibility. Photographer—Look pleasant, please, Sitter—Can't I live in a boarding house.—N. Y. World.

The Real Reason. Johnny—Why do they say that the pen is mightier than the sword? His Father—Because you can't sign checks with a sword.—Boston Traveler.

Almost as Good. "Now that I have promised to be yours forever and ever," she said, as she looked up into his eyes, "tell me, Harold, if I am the only girl you ever loved."

A Cause of Action. "Uxory has sued Soaksem, the furrier, for alienating his wife's affections."

In Vino Veritas. A corkscrew boasted of its pull until a bottle that was full. The bottle said: "You must confess it's owing to your crookedness."

NOT WHOLLY UNEXPECTED. Burying the Tattered Colors. In connection with the story of the British flag said to be buried at Pretoria, it is perhaps worth mentioning that in the middle of the last century it was no unusual occurrence for the tattered or "wounded" colors, as they were quaintly styled, to be interred.

Knew He Was a Good Catch. She—And now, Alfred, dear, you would better go and ask papa.

High Rollers. Rowland Rantis—So our audience tonight will be composed of ultra swells? Roxey—Yes, me lord. Why, if we receive any eggs rest assured they will be $1,500 great auk eggs.

Wonders and Wonders. Nature works wonders, and the enterprising dime-museum manager gathers them in and works the public at ten cents per head.—Chicago Daily News.

Worse Than War. "What's the difference between football and war?" "Football is war without any humane object in view."—Chicago Record.

Didn't Laugh with the Rest. Jones—What were the boys all laughing so heartily over? Brown—Smith got off one of his jokes.

Anticipated. "You ought to take time by the forelock," urged his friend.

He Knows the Kind. Jones—There goes one of the best business men in the city, and I don't suppose there is anybody in the office who takes more risks.

Another Mind Relieved. "Pa, what are allied forces?" "A man's wife and his mother when he attempts to say a good word for the woman in the case. Now run upstairs and play with your little horse cart."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Not Fashionable. It was the first time Dorothy had ever seen a bull with a ring in his nose. "Mamma," she exclaimed, pityingly, "just see in what an unbecoming place he wears his jewelry!"

Insinuating. Reggy—What is bliss, Miss Daisy? Miss Daisy—You ought to know, dear boy.

An Odd Case. She—Yes, that is May Jennings. Such a peculiar girl, mamma. Mamma—in what respect?

Mutually Careful. "Bobby, you mustn't play with that little Ducky Jones; he isn't a good boy."

They Still Happen. "Pa, do any miracles ever happen any more?" "Yes. One happened to me last night. I told your ma why I was late getting home and she believed me."—Chicago Times-Herald.

A Mistake. Gladys—I thought you said he was rich? Mildred—Oh, no! I merely said he had more money than brains.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Rubber. Suddenly he ceased gathering her in his warm embrace. "Are we observed?" he whispered, fearsomely.

A Sybarite. "James, wake me to-morrow morning at six o'clock." "Yes, sir, but isn't that a bit early for you to get up, sir?"

Strictly Proper. Mistress—I saw two policemen sitting in the kitchen with you last night, Bridget.

Beyond Evidence. A party was being shown over the British museum. In one of the rooms the keeper pointed out a collection of antique vases, which had been recently dug up at Herculaneum.

The wise man turned to one of his companions and, with an incredulous shake of the head, whispered: "He may say what he likes, but he shall never persuade me that they dug up ready-made pots out of the ground."—Pearson's Weekly.
