SATURDAY, SEPT. 8, 1900

We are opposed to disorderly colored people as much as we are against disorderly white ones.

BROTHER PETERS seems to want separation from the colored folks in the day time. What does Brother Peters want in the night time?

We have received the NORFOLK NEWS and ADVERTISER, with Mr. J. E. DICKERSON, Jr., as editor and manager. We wish it success.

The re-election of BISHOP ALEXANDER WALTERS, as President of the National Afro-American Council was a deserving tribute to a most worthy man.

It is to be regretted that HON. WILLIAM J. BRYAN has not been booked for speeches in the Southern States. The doctrine which he is preaching is sadly needed in that section.

NEW ORLEANS under democratic rule had a Negro butcher. New York under democratic rule had a Negro butcher. In both instances the police aided against the colored people.

COLORED men, remember that our white friends are not all dead. We must merit good treatment, even though we fail to receive it.

THE RICHMOND, VA. TIMES seems to be suffering with a severe attack of Negro-phobia. It knows all about the disease, but is absolutely unable to secure a remedy with which to cure itself.

By boycotting the Jim Crow street cars of Atlanta, Ga., the colored people entailed a loss of $5,000 per month upon the company and the boycott is still in operation.

Every horse, mule, and ox was utilized by the colored people and they stayed off the street cars.

BROTHER PETERS of the "Jim Crow" street car resolution should propose Negro conductors, for his proposition, and should also make a further inquiry as to the mixing of white ladies with colored males and females at the Richmond Normal School.

But he wouldn't touch that because some of his relatives might get a job there.

PROF. JESSIE LAWSON explains in the Washington, D. C., EVENING STAR that there was no politics in the National Afro-American Press Association.

So that as it may, it was nevertheless an ominous silence which portends good to the National Republican Party. It was manifestly an inning for the other side and J. MITCHELL was unquestionably gratified. There is no doubt in the world, but what the colored people have regard to the administration managers indifferent to their interests and somewhat antagonistic to their promotion.

MR. WHITE'S FAREWELL

There is an underlying element of the pathetic in the words accredited to Hon. GEORGE E. WHITE, the only colored congressman at the capital of the nation. Said he:

"I am not only going myself, but I am going to take 50,000 Negroes with me."

I am going to New York to live. I cannot live in North Carolina and be a man at home. As a matter of fact, I used to feel at home in my state. When I practiced law at the bar of North Carolina I was not discriminated against because I was a Negro. That is all in the past now. As a matter of fact, I am going to practise law in New York. I feel I will be given a cordial welcome there."

We trust that Mr. White's predictions may be realized. He has proven himself true to his racial interests, and devoted to his country.

It is unfortunate that he must at his age of life seek a home in another clime.

For our part, hemmed in as we are by proscriptive legislation, we feel dependent ourselves at times; but she I remain on Virginia's soil until the end of the chapter, mingling our tears with those of our down-trodden people, and pleading their cause against all comers.

God grant that Mr. White will not forget us when prosperity comes to him. The Negro haters can do their worst. We have seen "kloominer times than this present," and have learned what "a sublime thing it is, to suffer and be strong."

PETERS AND HIS PET MEASURE.

We hardly believe that any one will deny that the feeling between the best class of white people of this city and the best class of colored people has been of the most friendly description.

How unfortunate then that in the midst of the disgust caused by the Epps' "Jim Crow" law upon our railroads, it should be further increased by the miserable antics of a Mr. R. L. PETERS, who is now serving his term as Councilman.

The only R. L. PETERS we can find anything about is a painter, and is accordingly in the business of making things appear other than what they really are. In this effort, he has applied his brush in the vain attempt to show to Richmond that it has a miserable street-car service, due to the fact that the colored people will not get off the face of the earth.

It is particularly unfortunate that in both of these outrageous propositions, laboring white men should have been the patrons of the measures.

Both Mr. J. E. EPPS and Mr. R. L. PETERS, Negro-like, are so "dead poor" that they are under the necessity of being on the street, either for office or a job of painting.

Now, any labor leader of intelligence will admit that labor cannot afford to fight labor, that antagonisms should not be promoted between any classes of workmen, be they black or white.

Whenever this is done, trusts smile and enjoy the situation hugely. So long as the colored laborers are careless of the welfare of the white laborers and vice-versa, the breach thus made and kept open makes the enemies of labor certain of success in any attack made upon the divided ranks of labor.

But R. L. PETERS is not thinking of this. In order to win a little cheap notoriety and to obtain a "pat or two" upon the shoulder by the ward-heeler and bar-room bummers, together with an approving smile from some of the ladies of modest circumstances with whom he associates, he would sacrifice the interests of the workmen and crucify labor.

This separation business is drifting to the point where it will cause endless trouble.

Will Mr. R. L. PETERS (his name is in keeping with the prejudices) than proceed to offer a resolution separating all white men from our women in private houses and leave alone the outside show on our street-cars?

He should remedy and existing evil for we note that the conductors on our railroads are unable to separate the passengers according to race.

There are so many white Negroes that many of our people are insulted by being ordered out of the "Jim Crow" simply because they are not as black as their more fortunate neighbors and all classes are debating the question as to where to put them.

We are reliably informed that a white Negro female was buried in Hollywood last week, although her parents were colored. When it is known by the authorities, they will be under the necessity of disturbing her rest and laying her away on the hill-side.

We trust that Brother PETERS will convert his wayward brethren to the error of their ways in mixing with Negro women as was the case of that white man from Petersburg, who lost all of his belongings in staying too long in the company of one of them.

It is a pity that the white laboring men have no champion now, but must rely upon the efforts of the Negro-hating scorchers, who see no road to fame, save that which lays in the abuse and persecution of one of the kindest races of people on the face of the globe.

When R. L. PETERS would represent the colored people of Richmond as a disorderly, lacking self-respect and unfit to ride upon the street-cars of the city, he libels and slanders them, and merits the condemnation of every white and colored person in this locality.

Oh, that some one would give him a thick coat of black paint from the crown of his head to the sole of his feet so that Pariah-like, he might wander through our city and feel the blighting effect of the additional ostracism to which he would subject us

GENERAL SOUTHERN NEWS.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 5.—John D. Rockefeller has made Spellman seminary, a negro college in this city, a present of $180,000. The money has been paid into the treasury of the American Baptist Home Mission society, of New York, which institution has charge of the college.

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 3.—George W. Vanderbilt has started an endowment fund to the Clarence Barker Memorial hospital at Bltmore. The hospital will be formally opened tomorrow, and was erected in memory of Clarence Barker, a cousin of the Vanderbilts, by his sisters, Adele Elma Barker Schmit and Virginia Purdy Barker Bacon.

Jackson, Ky., Aug. 31.—Shots fired into the dining room at the home of James Barnett, on Howard's Creek, yesterday killed Mrs. Nancy Barnett, an aged woman, her 12-year-old granddaughter and Mrs. James Bennett. The latter's husband, James Bennett, is being pursued by officers and others, it being charged that he did the shooting. It is said that Bennett was jealous of Barnett.

Richmond, Sept. 4.—"Topeka Joe," alias Joseph E. Evans, alias Harry Miller, alias Joe Barker, is suspected of being the leader of the gang that broke into the Williamsburg (Va.) bank some months ago, and who was being held at the city jail here for safe keeping until his trial should come up at the September term of the court at Williamsburg, made his escape yesterday morning about 3 o'clock.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 4.—James J. Jeffries, the pugilist, in an interview here yesterday said: "I will fight Corbett if he is anxious to have a match, but it will have to be a case of winner getting everything and loser only the beating. That is the only way to do business. Fitz can get a fight from me, never he wants it when he goes about it properly and gives time to the man who wants to fight."

Jackson, Miss., Sept. 4.—Reports have reached here of a fresh outbreak of the Kennedy-Horton feud in the Auburn neighborhood, 20 miles south of Jackson. Friday the two factions met on the public highway and a fight occurred, during which T. W. Hackley and John Strong received probably fatal wounds. The fight was caused by the elopement of a daughter of James Kennedy with John Strong. A good portion of the entire neighborhood is involved.

Little Rock, Sept. 4.—The entire Democratic ticket headed by Hon. Jefferson Davis, of Pope county, for governor, was elected in Arkansas yesterday. Early returns indicate that the vote will be lighter than was expected. H. L. Remmel, the Republican candidate for governor, made a good showing, and his increased vote over two years ago will probably reduce the usually large Democratic majority. There was no opposition to the Democratic ticket for any office except the governorship.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 1.—The execution of Tom Jones, the negro murderer, took place here yesterday. He kept his nerve on the gallows and died in five minutes after the drop fell. He was baptized and joined the Catholic church Monday. On the 22d of March last Jones killed Ella Jones, his paragon, and her 13-year-old daughter, and burned their house to hide the victims' bodies. He had a child, the youngest of whom was an unnamed month old babe, of which Jones was the father.

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 5.—At a wheat threshing near Long's store, in Union county, yesterday Dr. S. J. Love, his mother, brother and sister and five farm hands were poisoned by arsenic, which is believed to have been placed in a dinner with murderous intent. Dr. Love died within three hours. All the other victims were alive at last reports, but very sick. There is every indication that arsenic, in some state, had been put in one of the dishes served at dinner, but when or by whom the deadly drug was placed in the food is a mystery.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 1.—On account of the failure of miners and coal operators at Coal Creek to agree on a wage scale yesterday the annual contract with the miners was not signed today, as has been the custom. The miners decided to adjourn the conference until Sept. 10. On account of this failure to agree all coal mines in Coal Creek, Jellico, Middleboro and intervening points with the exception of two or three are closed down. It is not a strike, as both miners and operators are hopeful of reaching an agreement by Sept. 10. About 3,000 miners are affected. The operators have refused to concede the demands thus far.

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 5.—George C. White, the only negro congressman in the United States, has announced that he will give up his residence in North Carolina if the recently adopted amendment to the state constitution is upheld by the higher courts. He will begin the practice of law in New York. He says: "I am not only going myself, but I am going to take 50,000 negroes with me. I cannot live in North Carolina and be a man and be treated like a man. I used to feel at home in my state. When I practiced law at the bar of North Carolina I was not discriminated against because I was a negro. That is all in the past now."

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 31.—With returns from about 76,000 votes, and with 4,000 or 5,000 to hear from, Governor McSweeney leads in the race for governor by about 3,000 votes over Col. James A. Hoyt, the Prohibition candidate. It is expected that all returns from Wednesday's primaries will be in by tonight. Senator Tillman, with no opposition, returns to the United States senate. He is running considerably behind his ticket. State Treasurer Timmerman and J. H. Jennings, a one armed Confederate, are running a neck and neck race. Col. James Tillman, a nephew of the senator, is doubtless the highest man for lieutenant governor.

India's Plague Victims. Bombay, Sept. 4.—Official returns show that there were 7,969 deaths from cholera in the native and British states during the week ending Aug. 26. The numbers of relief works are decreasing and the numbers receiving gratuitous relief are increasing.

A RAILROAD MASSACRE.

Excursion Train Wrecked on the Reading Road at Hatfield, Pa. THIRTEEN DEAD, FIFTY HURT

The Excursion Train, Running Thirty-five Miles an Hour, Crashed into the Rear End of a Combination Milk and Passenger Train.

Philadelphia, Sept. 3.—Thirteen persons killed and fifty others injured in the appalling record of a rear-end collision between an excursion train and a milk train on the Bethlehem branch of the Philadelphia and Reading railway yesterday morning at Hatfield, Pa., 27 miles north of this city.

The killed are: Miss Annie Sherry, aged 21 years, South Bethlehem; Robert Miller, 21, South Bethlehem; Richard Bachman, 40, South Bethlehem; William Ehret, 22, South Bethlehem; Ira Ehret, 20, brother of William, South Bethlehem; Joseph Mordant, 22, South Bethlehem; Charles McConigle, Allentown; Thomas Day, Allentown; Miss Annie Kaelin, 24, Telford; Godfrey Kaelin, father of Annie; William Blackburn, Ambley; Harold Landis, Hatfield; Florian Waldsperger, Taylorsport, Pa.

The injured: John David, Philadelphia, engineer of excursion train, skull fractured, critical; Albert J. Wagner, Philadelphia, Bremen excursion train, contusions chest and legs, serious; Wilson Crosland, South Bethlehem, baggage-master of milk train, head lacerated, serious; Michael J. Tighe, Allentown, legs crushed and burned, serious; John Gorman, South Bethlehem; foot crushed; John McHugh, South Bethlehem, leg and thigh injured, contusions chest and legs, serious; Abraham Trause, Jr., South Bethlehem, deep scalp wound, contusion of back and internally injured, serious; Mrs. William Burkhardt, South Bethlehem, injured internally; Miss Gertrude Burkhardt, South Bethlehem, both legs broken; P. J. McMahon, South Bethlehem, ankle broken; John Reichley, South Bethlehem, internally injured; Mrs. George Harrison, arm broken and contusion of body; Irvin Newhard, head badly cut; Mary Newhard, South Bethlehem, crushed ribs; Miss Carrie Bachman, daughter of Richard Bachman, who was killed, chest crushed, serious; Miss Brennan, South Bethlehem, arm broken; L. T. Hartz, South Bethlehem, arm broken; Harry Schlott, South Bethlehem, leg contused; Edward Reese, Allentown, contusion of shoulder and legs; Mrs. S. Haber, Allentown, both legs broken; John Schantz, Allentown, toes crushed; William Schantz, Allentown, thigh injured; Miss Schantz, 14, toes, legs broken; Mary Koch, fractured legs; Lewis Knecht, Bethlehem, contusion of legs; George Landis, Bethlehem, scalp wounds; Mrs. Alfred Schroyer, Bethlehem, badly lacerated; Annie Miller, South Bethlehem, hips crushed; William Wilmeyer, South Bethlehem, badly lacerated; Mrs. Wilmeyer, legs crushed; Hon. W. H. Roseberry, of Lansdale, member of the legislature.

The wrecked train consisted of ten day coaches, and was the first section of a large excursion made up of people from Bethlehem, Allentown and surrounding towns to Atlantic City. This section carried only those persons who lived in Bethlehem and Allentown, and left the Union depot in Bethlehem at 6:05 a. m., exactly 35 minutes behind the milk train. The latter train consisted of two milk cars and two passenger coaches, and had stopped at every station on the road from Bethlehem to Philadelphia. At 6:54 the milk train drew up at the milk platform at Hatfield, less than two minutes the special excursion train running at the rate of 35 miles an hour, crashed into the rear of the milk train. The locomotive ploughed through the two passenger coaches and crushed them as if they were egg shells. The milk car immediately in front was also badly wrecked. Four persons, Godfrey Kaelin, his daughter, Mamie, Harold Landis and William Blackburn, in the passenger cars of the milk train, were almost instantly killed.

As soon as the crash came a terrible cry arose from the smashed cars, and those who had been injured quickly crawled or jumped from the cars and went to the assistance of the injured. Many were pinned down by wreckage and had to be freed by the liberal use of axes. With three or four exceptions the others died on their way to the hospitals.

The second section of the excursion, made up of persons from towns other than Bethlehem and Allentown, left soon after the first section, but was flagged before it reached Hatfield. As it could not get through on account of the blocked tracks it was returned to Bethlehem, and there was great rejoicing at the narrow escape of its occupants from the catastrophe.

The coroner of Montgomery county visited the wreck early and spent the entire day at the scene. He directed the removal of the dead to Lansdale, a short distance south of Hatfield. He promises a rigorous investigation into the horror.

Victims of the Hatfield Wreck. Bethlehem, Pa., Sept. 5.—The condition of John Davis, the engineer of the excursion train which was wrecked on Sunday morning at Hatfield, Pa., where 13 persons were killed and 50 injured, is reported to be slightly worse. Fireman Albert Wagner, of the same train, is still in a critical condition. There were at least a dozen new cases of injured persons reported yesterday. The most serious of these are Mabel Kluge, who is paralyzed and lies in a critical condition, Mrs. Howard Edelman, who is suffering from severe internal injuries, and Miss Laura King, who has been unconscious for 48 hours.

Minneapolis Flour Shipments. Minneapolis, Sept. 5.—The official figures compiled by the Northwestern Miller show that the flour output of the Minneapolis mills the past year was 15,308,160 barrels. The output in 1898 was 15,818,445 barrels. Foreign shipments increased 344,460 barrels.

Hanna and Depew in Ohio Campaign. New York, Sept. 5.—Senator Hanna left the Republican headquarters in this city yesterday afternoon to be gone for three weeks. He went to Elberon, and will go to Cleveland today. He will open the Ohio campaign at Youngstown on Saturday and will then go to Chicago. It was announced here yesterday that Senator Depew will be in Youngstown with Senator Hanna.

Gave His Life For a Boy. New Haven, Sept. 5.—Albert Harris, aged 60, a farmer, whose home was in Orange, died at the City hospital yesterday as the result of an unusual accident. He attempted to catch in his arms a boy who fell off the roof of his barn, but instead the boy struck him on the head with such force that his neck was broken. The boy was little hurt.

The Republicans, as usual, will control the general assembly, having elected the 30 senators and the usual large majority of representatives. Mrs. Dunlap a Suicide.

Nashua, N. H., Sept. 5.—Mrs. Ellen Dunlap, wife of Irving Dunlap, of the fish commission in Washington, committed suicide by drowning in Pennichuck pond yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Dunlap was brought here several weeks ago for treatment for a general breakdown in health and despondency. Yesterday afternoon her husband took her for a drive, and while passing Pennichuck pond, as they were chatting pleasantly, Mrs. Dunlap, without warning, sprang from the carriage and into the water. Mr. Dunlap, being unable to swim, could not help her. The body was recovered. Mrs. Dunlap was 30 years of age.
