

Girls Who Are in Demand.

The girls who are wanted are good girls— Good from the heart to the lips; Pure as the lily is white and pure. From its heart to its sweet leaf tips. The girls that are wanted are home girls— Girls that are mother's right hand. That fathers and brothers can trust to. And the little ones understand. Girls that are fair on the hearth— And pleasant when nobody sees; Kind and sweet to their own folks. Ready and anxious to please. The girls that are wanted are wise girls— That know what to do, and to say; That drive with a smile and a soft word. The wrath of the household away. The girls that are wanted are girls of sense. Whom fashion can never deceive; Who can follow whatever is pretty. And dare what is silly to leave. The girls that are wanted are careful girls— Who count what things will cost. Who use with a prudent, generous hand. But see that nothing is lost. The girls that are wanted are girls with hearts. They are wanted for mothers and wives. The strongest and frailest lives. The clever, the witty, the brilliant girl. There are few who can understand. But, oh! for the wise, loving home girls. There's a constant, steady demand. —J. H. GRAY.

Mrs. Bryant's Complaints.

February 5th, '06. Mrs. Susie E. Bryant, Dear Madam: The Board of Directors of the Richmond Hospital met on January 29th and your letter of the 26th was handed to the Board by the Secretary, Dr. D. A. Ferguson. The letter was read and duly considered and in reply would state that the first intimation that the Board had of any trouble was through your letter. Miss Cabiniss as Superintendent of Nurses, it is her duty to place or cause to be placed in the daily occurrence of that institution the daily occurrence of the same and especially if it pertains to the conduct of the nurses. If my conduct in her class on January 19th was of such that it was necessary for Miss Cabiniss to exclude me from her classes it was Miss Cabiniss' duty to place it in the records of that day's occurrence. After leaving her room and taking my seat in the office, if I there so demeaned myself so that I had to be driven from the Institution it should have been recorded as a separate and distinct offense and on the first rounds of the Surgeon-in-Chief, these charges should have been handed him by Miss Cabiniss. The Surgeon-in-Chief receiving the charges, if he felt that they were too grave for him to decide, he then should have called his Board. It should have commanded me to appear before it and show cause why I should not be dealt with according to the laws governing that Institution. If the Board is correct in its statements, Miss Cabiniss has not only failed to report any misconduct of mine on the 19th of January, but has hidden her own conduct from the Surgeon-in-Chief and the Board for ten days. They declared that the first intimation came to them through my letter. The Board further states: "We understand through your letter that Miss Cabiniss dismissed you from her classes, which she had a perfect right to do; each professor has the same right." This declaration is absolute boundless and without condition. No institution on earth except the Richmond Hospital gives any professor the unlimited right to exclude any pupil or cause them to be excluded from his or her class without assigning their reasons for their act. The Board makes this sweeping declaration without any investigation, without stating a single reason; neither does their letter show that Miss Cabiniss had even been asked a single question; for it begins by saying that, "Your letter was read and duly considered" and in reply said these things from the face of my letter. The Board further states that it alone has the right to receive you into and dismiss you from the school. Yet ten days prior to the utterance of these words, Miss Cabiniss had assumed that authority and the Board confirmed her actions without assigning a single reason.

The board further states, "Any infraction of rules or misunderstanding of whatever nature that should arise at any time between pupil and teacher, and the pupil feels that she has been mistreated and cannot get satisfaction that pupil has the right to get satisfaction from your letter it appears that you have done none of these things to get justice."

It will be remembered that the Board through the Surgeon-in-Chief set January 22 as its first date to meet me, but referring to do so, then Thursday, January 25th was set, again it refused to meet me. Each of these dates were prior to the meeting on the 29th. Since Miss Cabiniss did not report this matter, will the Board please explain why Dr. M. B. Jones should set the above dates to consider this very matter if he had not been applied to by me.

When the Board did finally meet on the 29th, it met without my knowledge. It neither called me to meet any charges nor gave me an opportunity to meet them to learn why I was so unjustly treated. It appears that the Board seeks to lay its responsibilities at my door when they throw in my teeth, "You remark, I no longer consider myself a nurse of the Richmond Hospital."

How could I when Miss Cabiniss, the Supt. of Nurses had driven me from the Institution and denied me the right to attend any of my classes and the Board, for whom I had worked so earnestly for three years, repeatedly refused to meet me or show me any protection, consideration or appreciation for my past services; neither gave me any permission to return to complete my course.

The Board further remarks, "It appears that you have severed your own connections with the Institution and there is nothing for the Board to do." Signed: Dr. D. A. Ferguson, Secretary." After being driven from the Institution by the highest official in it at that time, the Board completely overlooks Miss Cabiniss' act but holds me responsible for leaving after being driven away.

It is not my intention now, nor has it been at any time to seek vengeance on any body, but when I remember the sacrifices that I have made and the suffering through which I have gone to help rebuild this Institution from its very beginning, I would prove myself less than a woman if I should fail to demand justice at the hands of the Board of Directors of the Richmond Hospital, for the unjust and unexplained treatment that I have received at that Institution.

The Emancipation Celebration.

The emancipation of the colored people was observed in this city last Tuesday. There was a general suspension of work and there were two parades, both of which were creditable, although the combined showing did not seem to equal that of one of last year.

The Afro-American Emancipation Association was under the management of Mr. J. C. Randolph, President and J. Thomas Hewin, Secretary. The Sixth Va. Emancipation Association was under the management of Mr. William Mason, President, Mr. J. T. Thompson, Financial Secretary and Mr. William L. White, Corresponding Secretary.

The former selected Mr. W. I. Johnson, the well-known brick layer and leading officer in the Hod-Carriers' Union as Chief Marshal and the latter selected Mr. James C. Smith, Chief Marshal. The parade was orderly and the marching men under good control. The Sixth Virginia contingent extended its line of march to Church-hill.

The Afro-American Emancipation Association had chosen Rev. T. A. Green as orator of the day and he delivered an impassioned but interesting address. Rev. V. Peyton and Rev. W. T. Johnson assisted.

The Sixth Virginia Emancipation Association repaired to Miller's Field across the creek from St. Peter St. and James H. Hayes, Esq. delivered a rousing oration. He was assisted by Rev. J. H. Binford and Rev. L. E. Green.

Both parties had concluded the exercises by 6 o'clock and the day passed off without any disagreeable incident.

—The people came and found the place. Mr. I. J. Miller was at 528 E. Broad St. and hilled the goods. Call and see him.

MAYOR Mc CARTHY'S FLAG SPEECH—MR. CARTER'S OPINION.

To the Editor of the PLANET. Sir:

Despite President Roosevelt's indignant attitude toward the white South and its leading representatives the old feeling that once divided the Northern and Southern sections of the country still exists in the South, if the utterance of Mayor McCarthy to the Ice Exchange Convention which convened at Richmond, Va. on the 21st last is worth while to notice or be considered as voicing the sentiments of his white fellow citizens.

His honor said in his address of welcome to this Convention, "I am a son of an Irishman. The stars and stripes are all right in their way, but for me there are but two flags, the State flag of Virginia and the battle flag of the Confederacy, and as I am concerned I recognize the battle flag of Virginia." When Bishop Henry M. Turner made relative remarks at an Afro-American convention, the newspapers considered his voice unfriendly and against the true interests of the Country.

The writer cannot agree with the Bishop in damning the flag which upholds national dignity and maintains respect for the government at large. The flag is the symbol of the flag he knows, and according to the laws of nativity it is his flag as well as the son of an Irishman, German, French or English. But Bishop Turner had more cause to make use of the remarks he did, than the Mayor McCarthy.

The distinguished Churchman had fought nobly to uphold the respect for the flag which now denies him and his fellow citizens the civil rights which Mayor McCarthy and his white fellow citizens now fully enjoy. Every door of hope and every avenue of business is open to Mayor McCarthy and the Irish race in this country, but are closed to the Afro-American people. If only in this country five years an Irishman has more rights and enjoy greater opportunities than the native born African, whose forefathers toiled here, uncompensated for more than two centuries.

Mayor McCarthy's race of people has for many years complained of British oppression but when they come to the United States they become leaders in oppression against the Afro-American nation. They become leaders of mobs that burn the bodies of black men at the stake, and originators of oppressive laws. They disfranchise and deprive the Afro-American of that right of which they complain is denied them by British rule, taxation without representation. They are by force and fraud the makers and the executors of the laws in Southern States and cities. They are instrumental in creating Jim Crow car laws for the lone purpose of humiliating the patriotic Afro-American citizen.

All of this power is given the Mayor and those of his opinion by the flag that flies over the law making body and the Supreme Court at Washington, yet he wants the Confederate flag which is dead and never did represent anything but death and destruction.

PLANNING TO OVERTHROW CASTRO

Revolution in Venezuela to be Directed From New York and Paris.

WEALTHY MEN IN THE SCHEME

New York, April 2 — The World says: "One of the largest merchants in New York said that arrangements are being perfected here and in Paris and London for a revolution in Venezuela which will annihilate Castro and open up that country to American capital and enterprise."

"A number of rich New York merchants are said to be interested in the movement, which the promoters declare, will involve the employment of 15,000 soldiers and the expenditure of $5,000,000 in the campaign. President Castro, if the plans do not go astray, is to be either expelled or destroyed, and a native Venezuelan is to be installed as his successor."

"In this connection it is said that Castro, anticipating a successful revolution against him sooner or later, has converted some of his alleged $40,000,000 fortune into cash and has sent it to America and France. "Carlos B. Ferguero, Venezuelan consul in New York, said at his home that he had heard such an expedition was being organized or promoted, but had been unable to learn anything definite about it. He said he had understood shares in the scheme were being sold."

"I would like to get hold of one of those shares," he said. "I will buy all that are offered."

"The consul inquired eagerly as to the point the expedition was to sail from."

"The expedition is to set out shortly from Europe in three large steamships, which are already under contract. They are to carry about 5000 volunteers, with the following quantities of ammunition: Eight thousand Mauser rifles of the latest pattern, 24,000 rounds of cartridges, 500,000 shells, eight rapid-fire guns, 8000 army belts, 1000 officers' swords, 1000 officers' revolvers, 3000 machetes and swords, together with other supplies."

A Bold Robbery.

On last Wednesday night, two bold burglars broke into The New Enterprise Store, 528 E. Broad St., and helped themselves to the very best goods, including suits, shoes, hats, and gent's furnishings. Striking a match to see if they had the desired sizes, they were astonished to see the low prices marked on goods of such superior quality. This being the case, their consciences smote them so hard that they opened their pocket books, and left the money on the counter for the goods taken.

Why don't you buy your clothing there? You have no excuse now. They have rid the store of all the old stock and have put in a brand new stock, of all the latest novelties and gent's furnishings. They invite you to call and examine their goods and prices and if they do not compare favorably with those of other merchants, they don't want your trade.

Now isn't that fair enough? The New Enterprise Store, 528 E. Broad St., I. J. Miller, Prop.

LOOTED MILLIONAIRE'S HOME

Thief Who Got Away With $100,000 in Valuables Arrested in New York. New York, April 3.—After a pursuit of four weeks by the police of three cities, central office detectives arrested Thomas J. Wainwright, describing himself as a lawyer of Boston, who is charged with robbing the residence of Dr. Nicholas J. Pinault, of Minneapolis, of jewelry, silverware, pictures and securities to the value of $100,000. The police say that Wainwright is one of the most accomplished criminals in the country.

Dr. Pinault is one of the wealthiest citizens of Minneapolis. He usually spends his winters in Europe or in the south. Just before starting for Pass Christian, Miss., last winter the doctor engaged as caretaker of his Minneapolis home a young man who said he was Thomas J. Wainwright, and that he was a lawyer, temporarily out of practice.

Toward the end of last February Dr. Pinault was astonished to receive from his Minneapolis bankers a letter asking why it was that he wanted to sell certain valuable stocks and bonds that had just been offered through a Minneapolis firm of brokers. The doctor started at once for Minneapolis to investigate. There he learned that the caretaker had disappeared and with him practically everything of value in the Pinault mansion, as well as the contents of the doctor's safe in the deposit vault. The list of valuables stolen consists of diamonds, rubies, an immense quantity of silverware, many priceless antiques, among them a watch once owned by Cardinal Richelieu, costly laces and furs and several valuable paintings.

Grace Curtis, of New London, Pa., Ends Disappointment With Acid. West Chester, Pa., April 4.—Grace Curtis, aged 29 years, daughter of Absalom Curtis, of New London, committed suicide by swallowing a large quantity of carbolic acid in her bedroom. She died in terrible agony a short time later. It is said that an unfortunate love affair prompted the deed.

Miss Curtis, owing to her beauty, was a social favorite, and it is alleged that she was receiving the attentions of a only son of a wealthy farmer who lives near the Curtis home. Some days ago the young man left the neighborhood, and she began to mourn for her absent lover. It has since developed that there are two other young ladies of the neighborhood who are mourning his absence.

P. S. Gobin, of Lebanon, in his place. Orders were also issued placing General Miller on the retired list and expressing Governor Pennypacker's appreciation of the long and distinguished career of General Miller as an officer of the guard, and of his energy and efficiency while in command of the division, and regrets that the urgent demands of business prevent his continuance in active service.

General Miller's resignation was mailed to Adjutant General Stewart from Franklin on March 21, but was kept secret until after the formal acceptance and the promotion of General Gobin.
