HARTFORD NOTES.

Hartford Conn., June 16. This week has been one of great interest. A great variety of things have taken place, among them was the concert and strawberry festival given by Mr. Lot Freeman, which was a success.

The ladies of the Worcester St. church, gave a strawberry festival and a concert, these ladies deserve great credit for the work they are engaged in; they are endeavoring to buy a church of their own and success seems to crown their efforts so far. This church is made up of some of our best people. Many of them are from different parts of the south and the city of Washington is well represented. Their pastor, Rev. Harris is a very fine speaker.

WEST WASHINGTON.

N. E. SEDGWICK, Agent and Reporter, 1315 27 Street.

The picnic given by the trustees of Ebenezer A. M. E. church on Thursday evening last was a grand affair both socially and financially. Great credit is due Mr. Cruso Lenior who was the chairman of the committee. The successful competitors for the prizes were, Miss Estella Johnson, handsome gold watch; Mr. J. Davenson, gold headed cane; Mr. Tighman, handsome bed set.

The grand Rally at Mt. Z on M. E. church on Sunday last was not successful as anticipated only $385.00 was realized. Addresses were delivered by Mr. R. D. Rufin and others.

The concert given on Monday and Tuesday evenings last by the Ebenezer A. M. E. Sabbath school was without a doubt the finest ever given by that school. The success of the concert is due their energetic corps of supervisors. The famous choristers Butler Bros, Supt. H. W. Hewitt and Dr. C. B. Cruso. The most attractive feature of the entertainment was the grand drill of 12 young Misses under the command of Capt. Geo. Beason, Lieut. C. Fantro, orderly Sergt., Thos. Riddle and Sergt. Julius Wheeler. Music by Mr. F. Jones was as usual grand. The amount realized was $67.75.

Rev. C. W. Cole of Wilberforce, Ohio, has been appointed by the A. M. E. Conference, pastor of Zion Union A. M. E. Mission.

A number of our young gentlemen left Thursday and Friday for the Springs.

OUR INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

THE LADIES HARD AT WORK.

For more than two years an organization known as the Industrial Institute has been doing a good work in this city by securing means and affording opportunities for needy boys and girls to learn something of practical every day work. From a small beginning the ladies of this organization have persisted in their efforts, until they now maintain a sewing school at Lincoln Mission, cor. 11 and R sts., and one at Smith hall on L st; they also support a class of girls at the school of Cookery on H st. and a class of boys in the Industrial Department at Howard University. They have been largely dependent upon their own efforts for the means necessary to do this work. Though a few friends have contributed quite generously. Hon. Fred. Douglass recently gave $10., Mr. J. Osborne Hunter has sent contributions, while others have expressed a warm interest in the work. Mrs. B. K. Bruce is president of the organization, Mrs. John F. Cook, treasurer, and other well known ladies are among the officers. A bazaar on quite an extensive plan is proposed for the coming fall, as the ladies are anxious to extend the scope of their work. The closing exercises of the sewing school at Smith hall will occur next Tuesday June 22d from 6 to 9 p. m. A week later the school situated at Lincoln Mission will hold its closing exercises.

JERRY'S OWLS.

One of the many jovial men in this city is Jerry Robinson, at 907 11th st. n. w. Jerry keeps a first class place where ladies and gentlemen need not have any hesitancy in going. Jerry has two pet owls, and he says that he can make these owls, if not talk, think of the devil's prayer. What that prayer is no one knows but Jerry and his owls. These owls are fed on spring chicken, and they can destroy more spring chickens in five minutes than Jerry can spit out yams concerning them. A few minutes talk with Jerry will convince the most profound hypocrite that Jerry doesn't belong to church and that his owls know as much of the hereafter as he does. A few days ago, Jerry said to a BEE scribe that he had just received a diamond pin from his sweet heart, and before he explained about the pin he cried out "I bet any man five dollars that my owls are imported," but before he was taken up, three well dressed ladies entered his saloon parlors up stairs and called for three plates of Fussell's cream. Before he had put the cream on the table he commenced to explain to them the history of his owls, just as one of the ladies was about to show him a card of a man talked to death, several gentlemen down stairs got in to a discussion about those owls which attracted his attention, who excused himself and was soon found in their midst and to prevent Jerry from telling any more yarns about the owls, they all called for mint juleps soft shell and deviled crabs. Go and see the owls at Jerry's Place, 907 11 st., n. w.

CLARA TO LOUISE.

The most important event of the week has been the presidents' state reception. Indeed, it was one of the largest in the history of receptions at the Executive Mansion. Mrs. Cleveland was the very picture of beauty. The ladies who assisted were handsomely attired in dresses very becoming to them. A list of names of members of the original has been handed to me by the managing editor. I would rather had you to have finished your comment on this affair, as the Household is very anxious to know all of the particulars. Perhaps I am in possession of certain facts that may be interesting to you and those who desire to see the success of the organization. I take this view of the matter, which is quite similar to yours. The original Orpheus Glee club disbanded, after the officers had withdrawn or left the club. No re-organization was effected, until it was rumored that there was to be organized an Orpheus Musical and Social club; then several gentlemen who were connected with the old Orpheus Glee club perfected a reorganization, by electing Messrs J. T. Layton, president, C. A. Beal, vice pres., A. K. Brodie, Secty., J. C. Nalle, Treas., and W. A. Stewart, Librarian. A circular was issued by these gentlemen and sent to the honorary members who were previously connected with the original Orpheus Glee club, requesting them to state, whether their names were used by the Orpheus Musical club with their authority or whether they were still members of the original Orpheus.

This circular has made several of the honorary members angry who say that they have a right to belong to as many social and musical clubs as they feel disposed, and call their circular impudent. The same gentlemen who are honorary members of the Orpheus Musical club belong to the original Orpheus also. I have been informed that several gentlemen, who are honorary members of the original Orpheus, whose names appear on the list before me, say that they are no longer honorary members of the original Orpheus. Their excursion will take place in September and there is no doubt of a success. The excursion of the Orpheus Social and Musical club will take place next Friday. You better be at the boat in time, as it will be the largest and most select excursion that has ever been given for the benefit of the HOME CIRCLE. Let me hear from you soon.

Truly yours,

Clara.

THE CATERER'S FETE.

HOTEL NEWS, GOSSIP, &c.
(From our special correspondent.)

Philadelphia, June 16. The Caterers' fete last week did not come up to the general expectation, but the small number that were present enjoyed it.

The combination excursion, given by the Cherry Street, St. Thom as and others, was extremely large. There was a late at 1500 at the falls and all enjoyed the day hugely. Mr. Charles Barton of the Lafayette became very much infatuated with one of the fair ones and at one time he assumed an attitude, that made him look like a statue. The chairman was so great, that presented itself before him that he was immovable. Be careful Charlie.

The Mansion House at March Chunk opened on the 9th and at least 300 guests registered. Mr. Perry Wilson, head waiter and Mr. Dubois his second, did the honors of the day. Mr. Dubois brought many relics from Mount Pisgah.

Messrs Jeffreys, Prater and Brown left for Cape May Tuesday to prepare the Stockton for the coming season.

Mr. Henry Nichols formerly of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing in your city, holds quite a lucrative position in the office of the Penn. R. R. He has an interesting wife and Junior "Nichols" to cheer him in his quiet home

Those who are connected with the Hotel Fraternity are leaving the city rapidly for the various watering places. Jesse Slade is holding forth at the Lafayette and bids fair to prosper.

Mr. Harry Counsellor of the private waiters' union left for Boston Tuesday.

Miss Laura Lewis, the daughter of Mr. Eugene Lewis, the tailor of your city, leaves for Washington in a few days on a visit to her parents. Miss Lewis is quite a fine lady and is thought very highly of by all who are acquainted with her and I know she will be sadly missed by her many associates, who will rejoice on her return to this city in the fall.

Mr. Andrew Stevens takes charge of the dining department of the Stockton this season.

The old volunteer Fire Department of Philadelphia gave an excursion Tuesday to Atlantic City. They presented a fine appearance with apparatus, upon the principal streets leading to the ferry. Mr. John Wright of the American goes to the Grand Union at Saratoga this season. He is a member of the Brotherhood and I trust he will do some good work among the bailmen and waiters in preaching the Brotherhood and its benefits.

Mr. Albert Bettencourt's Hotel is frequented by a vast number of hotel men. He has made some very fine improvements at his house and many that go are well treated.

Yours,
"Wanderer."
