L. Murry Brown, Esq. is in Kansas City, Mr., on the Star.

Look on our fourth page for a complete list of articles on exhibition at the fair.

Sound Advice - We conscientiously recommend our readers to try Sylvania Oil in all cases of rheumatism. Sold by all druggists for 25 cents a bottle.

A full list of the exhibits at the Industrial exhibition will be found on the fourth page.

The pastor of Isreal Bethel church was tendered a reception last Monday evening prior to his leaving for conference.

If you should have a lame horse, and have used every remedy without success, invest twenty-five cents in a bottle of Sylvania Oil. It will cure him.

FOR RENT - Furnished or unfurnished rooms, modern conveniences, at 1822, 11th st., n. w. With or without board. Terms reasonable.

There will be a lamb roast and oyster supper at Carson's hotel, Wednesday evening Oct. 27th.

The entertainment will be under the auspices of the Golden Circular Club No. 1 There will be a concert at 8 o'clock. Col. F. C. Revells and Major Geo H. Boston have been invited.

The marriage of Mr. George Coakly to Miss Hester Robinson at the 19th st. Baptist church last Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock was a scene of much solemnity. Precisely at 8 o'clock the bridal party entered the church, preceded by the ushers Messrs. Charles M. Jarvis, Spencer Robinson, Edward Pleasant and James Pinn.

At a meeting of the Capital City Guard last Monday evening Mr. F. C. Revells was elected Col. of the Command, vice W. H. Smith declined. Mr. Revells is one of the most popular men in the city, and there is no doubt that his election will make the organization one of the strongest in the city. Mr. Revells is a man of energy and industry.

His popularity as a member of the Grand Army of the Republic has given him a wide reputation. There was a great deal of opposition to Mr. Smith and it was said that those who did not attend the meeting that elected would resign if he continued in command. Mr. Revells was unanimously elected and the citizen may expect a first class organization.

"The truth in masquerade" is Byron's term for a lie. But it is the truth, and to masquerade, that Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup cures coughs and cold. No cure, no pay. Price twenty-five cents.

Mr. James Ball, of Arlington, Va. died on Thursday, Oct. 12th inst., and was buried in the Arlington-cemetery on Saturday the 16th.

J. H. Hudnell, late of Deer Park, having been secured as head waiter at the Riggs House, was on last Saturday installed. J. F. Bowie, the retiring head waiter, in a neat little speech, presented Mr. Hudnell to the waiters, who responded, and thanked Mr. Bowie for the honor conferred upon him.

Mr. Charles Taper in behalf of the waiters welcomed Mr. Hudnell, as the standard bearer, he also paid a glowing tribute to Mr. Bowie and placed him among the world renowned head waiters, Manuel Crosby, Bob Thompson, Frank King and others; C. J. S. Walker, also spoke in high praise of Mr. Bowie and delivered a charge to Mr. Hudnell. On motion of Mr. Jas. Green a vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Bowie for his kind treatment of the men he had so long presided over.

REV. LAMKINS.

It is hoped that the complimentary entertainment to Rev. S. G. Lamkins will be largely attended. Rev. Lamkins is a young man who is liked by his congregation and a man who deserves the support of the entire community.

A GREAT EXPLOSION.

Everybody knows Harry Friedlander. He is one of the most energetic young men in the city. His principal place of business is No. 912 F st., n. w. His branch store is at 816 F st., n. w. Persons should not fail to go 816 F st. and look at Mr. Friedlander's cheap goods. Read his advertisement on the first page.

ST. LUKE'S FESTIVAL.

Never before in the history of St. Luke's church has there been such a crowd as on last Monday evening. The occasion was a musical festival for the benefit of the church, with Prof. F. C. Miller as musical director and Prof. Louis Kurtz, Jr., organist. The program was carried out to the satisfaction of the classic audience present, with but one exception. Mrs. Sallie Waring's solo, "Nearer My God To Thee," was sung with ease and effect, Miss Clara Green's solo, "Ashamed of Jesus" was loudly applauded. The trio "Hear Our Prayer" by Misses Young, Webster and Mr. Plummer, the quartette "Veni Creator Spiritus," from mass in G by Misses Young and Goins, Dr. Upshur and Mr. John Nalle was enthusiastically applauded. Mr. James Johnson, who sang in the quartette "Guide Me O Thou Great Jehovah," acquitted himself well. Mr. Johnson has an excellent bass voice and with a course of training will be a credit to the musical circle. The festival was a financial as well as a musical success.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

The Baptist Sunday School Union convened with the Bethlehem school at Hillsdale on Sunday last, and was both largely attended and interesting. Prof. S. J. R. Nelson, preached an able sermon to the Knights of Jerusalem at the Gallean Fishermen Temple, F st, bet. 3d and 4 1/2 sts., s. w., on Sunday last.

The Wesley Zion A. M. E. church, does not commence rebuilding until next spring.

The religion of Jesus Christ, as managed by the southern whites, needs as much reformation as southern politics. For it both fails to embrace the elements of universal brotherhood, or to comprehend any claim of Divine justice for such

The Mount Zion Baptist church at Arlington, Va., is working hard through their trustees, to get their house of worship under roof before winter. Rev. Joseph Matthews and officers are entitled to great credit.

Rev. W. H. Holmes, pastor of the Israel Baptist church of this city, left on Monday last, to see after a little church in Virginia.

EAST WASHINGTON NOTES.

There are nine churches in east Washington besides the missions; six Baptist and three Methodist, including Hillsdale and Good Hope.

Special meetings are being held at the Mt. Jezreel and Ebenezer churches.

A large number of our good citizens from other portions of the city are now settling in the south east, and are introducing business generally.

The old Congress Hall in this community is about to be torn down, and some of the lodges from there are moving to the Virginia Hall in South Washington.

Miss Lucy Smith, whose friends deeply regret her illness, is lying very low at the residence of her parents 1255 1st st., s. e.

The musical and literary entertainment of the Ebenezer A. M. E. church, 4th and D sts., which took place on Monday last was a grand affair. It was a praise concert, where several parties were successful. Among the most tasteful productions of the evening was a paper read by Prof. J. D. Baltimore of South Washington. Among the successful table holders, was Mrs. Idel, the well known church worker.

Mrs. Mary Ann Watkins of east Washington, took suddenly sick her residence, on Sunday evening Oct. 10th and has since been ill.

WEST WASHINGTON.

James L. Turner, Agent and Reporter. 1417 West 28 Street.

The first Baptist choir has received and accepted an invitation from the Mt. Zion M. E. choir to take charge of the singing to-morrow Sunday evening at 7 1/2 o'clock p. m.

Dr. C. B. Croser has resumed his practice again to the gratification of his friends.

Mr. Levi Dorsey, of Boston is in town having been called here to attend the funeral of his mother who was buried Monday afternoon from Zion Union A. M. E. Mission, Rev. Cole officiated interment at Mt. Zion Cemetery.

A very successful festival was held last week at the first Baptist church by the Moon Light Association of which Mrs. Hunter is the Pres. On Friday evening the festival closed with a cake walk, Miss Sophia Cole and Mr. C. H. Turner being the successful contestants.

Miss Mattie Lane is still very sick at Mrs John Lee's Daubarton Ave.

Mrs. Addie Ayers was accidentally shot last Sunday evening in the left thigh by Mrs B. Peters, Dr. B. Tyler pronounced the wound slight. This should be another warning to the careless handling of pistols.

Henry Burrel a well known citizen died last Saturday morning after a long illness, he was buried Tuesday afternoon from Union Wesley church. The casket was a handsome black cloth and was literally covered with flowers including a dove. A large course of friends followed him to his resting place which was at Mt. Zion Cemetery Rev. R. H. Dyson officiated.

SOUTH WASHINGTON.

The Pastor and building committee of the Virginia Avenue Baptist church, acknowledge with many thanks, the sum of 25 dollars given by Mr. James H. Dabney, the well known undertaker, at 441 L st., n. w., to their building fund.

The First class co-operative washer-womans laundry of the Ladies Domestic Assembly of the Knights of Labor, at 813 2nd st., s. w.

The greatest improvements with in the fire limits of our section of the city, are the building regulations which prohibit the building of any houses other than brick, north of I St.

Prof. Henry Miller, with his musical circle from East Washington, will give a grand musical concert at the Virginia Ave. Baptist church 6th st., and Va. Ave., s. w., on Wednesday and Thursday evenings Nov. 10th and 11th, 1886. Proceeds for the benefit of the new church edifice.

A press brick moulder at Ford's brick yard, has tendered his services to furnish the pastor, R. S. Laws, with a handsome press brick 21 square inches, for some prominent place in the front centre of the church. Also many ladies of the public schools, suggested valuable and appreciable services which they purpose to tender.

By subscription on Monday evening last, the building committee of the Va. Ave. church, raised one hundred dollars which was paid in cash.

Persons of the Southeastern section of the city as well as South Washington, who wish to furnish us with news items as well as job printing of all kinds and advertisements, will please call upon the news editor, R. S. Laws, at 316 H st., s. w., who manages all affairs for this section.

Col. Geo. M. Arnold will, during the winter, deliver several lectures in the interest of the Virginia Ave. church edifice fund.

Mrs. Josephine Johnson, Mr. Wm. H. Thomas, and J. W. Branson, are preparing to build a handsome residence in 3rd St.

MARRIAGE.

A TREMENDIOUS AUDIENCE GREETED A. ST. A. SMITH. THE 2D BAPTIST LITERARY HIGHLY ENTERTAINED. YOUNG LADIES CAME OUT IN THEIR BEST ATTIRE.

Last Thursday evening the 2d Baptist church, 3d st., bet. H and I n. w., was crowded from door to pulpit, with Washingtons most intelligent and refined people. Young ladies came out in their best attire, old men and women who had past, over the matrimonial sea, were still full of their marriage vows.

Young men who had crowded the isles on account of no seats being vacant were the objects of the beautiful single young ladies. The first business in order was calling the association to order by the president W. Calvin Chase, and the reading of an excellent prepared set of minutes by the secretary Miss Lizzie Mason. After prayer by Prof. W. B. Johnson, several beautiful pieces were rendered by Mr. Geo. Foskey, on the organ, after which Mrs. W. Calvin Chase favored the association with a solo followed with another by Mrs. Drew, who also with Miss Minor sang a duett.

The essayist of the evening was Arthur St. A. Smith one of Washingtons most talented young men. His subject, which has been the gossip of the week, was

MARRIAGE.

After reading several pages of olden times in England, Spain, France &c, He said: Let me state, this subject was not selected by me for this occasion, on account of any special familiarity with the question myself, but for the purpose of getting the benefit of what ever knowledge the audience may have, of the subject through a few suggestions which occur to me, at the same time to bring before the organization a question upon which the ladies are equally as well posted as the gentlemen. In his anecdotes he showed love in France, in England, he related its customs on marriage, where money and meat were paid to make harmony &c. The question of marriage is an old one and has probably been discussed and decided by more persons than any other that has ever agitated the mind of the human race. The satisfactory settlement of it is quite another thing. Like the question of the future state of man it has many uncertainties and unknown quantities and unknown to be calculated and contented with many people discuss the question of the future state of man and religion; but comparatively few embrace religion as the salvation and a far less number are willing to make a practical test of the question of futurity. But with marriage it is quite different, everybody of marriageable age discusses the question and decides it either one way or the other for themselves. To decide whether it is or civil institution; whether they will or will not marry and under what conditions and ceremonies. The one being largely contingent upon the other. That they should marry for love and marry young, stay married when once married, and live faithfully up to the marriage vows is my belief.

THE CUSTOM

of marrying more than one wife is no where found among nations in a state of refinement and the rules of virtue as well as the precepts of the christian religion which we recognize tends to its prohibition, where polygomy does prevail the women are less valued and their mode of education are calculated to keep them in a state of mental darkness.

As has been truly said, married life is the true field for working out human destinies; and is of all others, the grand problem which only the twain dreedy concerned can truly solve.

Jerome Malord, was the first speaker to open discussion on the paper and said no one knows how sacred it is to love a woman. He pictured the females above all earthly dignities. His tribute was logical and most eloquent. His defense of the females was the best ever delivered by him. There never was a time that man should have two wives; that it is impossible for him to divide his love.

A. G. Lenard, was the next speaker, who said that if the men were as half as good as the women there would be more purity in the community. There was three things that he would consider, mother, wife and home. It can be seen, while Mr. Lenard appreciates wife, he puts the mother front, which was not at all appreciated by the young single ladies who had an idea of marrying. There is more misery than happiness, but let it be understood that women is above all.

H. Price Williams, took issue with Mr. Lenard and said that he had slandered the female. At this juncture Mr. Lenard asked Mr. Williams a question, but the gentleman declined to yeald. A privilege question was raised by Mr. Lenard to the affect that Mr. Williams had misrepresented him, that he had complimented the ladies. The discussion was quite lively for a while.

The president said that Mr. Lenard had said nothing in his opinion that reflected directly as indirectly on the ladies.

Mr. Malord asked Mr. Williams a pointed question, which was promptly answered.

Mr. Austin Ficklin, gave his views on the question and said no one could appreciate marriage life more than those who are married.

A. S. Richardson explained the remarks made by Mr. Lenard and thought that Mr. Williams had misunderstood him.

D. F. Batts, said that the speakers were too severe on the men.

He thought the women were as bad as the men. Prof. Johnson was the last speaker. He gave some philosophical views on marriage and after a reply by Mr. Smith, one of the most delightfully debates and evening enjoyment closes.

Next Thursday evening Mr. Geo. Arnold, will read a paper entitled the "Drama."
