WAR ON SALOONS.

The best element of the people in this City cannot but help to endorse the action of the District Commissioners in refusing to grant licenses to certain whiskey saloons in this City. Indeed some of these saloons are responsible for a great deal of the crime committed and if there was a limitation to some of these dives we know that the atmosphere would have purer odor. We know, however, that the Commissioners have been misinformed concerning certain saloons, in the northwest and it is hoped that where a decent saloon is kept the Commissioners and the Chief of Police will make a searching investigation before the licenses are rejected.

DEATH OF ROBT. E. KEYS

It will no doubt be surprising as well as painful to the friends and acquaintances of Mr. Robt. E. Keys to know that he was one of the victims in the railroad accident on last Saturday night. Mr. Keys was formerly a student of Howard University. He moved to W. Va., some several years ago, where he was married to a highly educated young lady, who is now the mother of four children. Mr. Keys was expecting an appointment in one of the governments departments, but his sudden death by the carelessness of the man at the railroad crossing, removed a deserving and rising young man. His body was prepared for burial by M. Barker, the undertaker, under the directions of Mr. and Mrs. Silence and sons, at whose residence Mr. Keys was boarding and much credit is due to these worthy citizens for interesting themselves in this young man.

SHE DID NOT HONOR HIM.

The journalistic (?) freshness, alias the thing that calls itself editor, paid a visit to the public schools a few weeks ago to see how the ladies recognized him. He soon found out before he had visited many schools. One or two ladies, from his report, treated him well, and of course from what he said in his article, he found much to be learned, but in another lady's school, who is regarded as one of the best young teachers in the school, Miss Dixon, he couldn't find anything to be learned. The secret of the matter is, Miss Dixon had no time to be bothered with a crank, hence he saw nothing to be reported in her school.

SOUTH WASHINGTON NEWS.

On Monday morning last, Zion Baptist church was filled to its fullest extent with the District ministers, where expositions, exercises, and general discussions preceded a well worded, logical and eloquent paper by the Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Phillips, entitled "Ministerial Titles."

The paper covered all claims, answered all questions, and refuted all objections; it also discussed titles, their origin, meaning and utility. General discussions which followed ably defended the paper, and showed that both the Holy Scriptures and necessity demanded their use.

Rev. Robinson of the First church said that the paper shows the richest reasons why practical use of these titles are essential among the Baptists.

Rev. Gray of Minnesota, "The Bible is full of authority for ministerial titles, and authority of the ministers alone confer those who are properly authorized.

The Rev. Brooks of the First Baptist church, on 19th street, one of the finest pulpits orators in the city said, that he would claim for these the highest standard of morals as well as educational qualities. He favored their use in the Universities instead of the general ministry, because their preference was more select.

Communion services for the month of Dec., as it is the last month in the year, have been held in the various churches, and to-morrow they will commence at the Zion, Metropolitan, Mt. Horeb and Macedonia.

Students are steadily entering the National University at 316 H st., s. w., where its sessions are being held, pending selection for better quarters.

A woman screamed out murder three times, because her husband from whom she had parted, was following her.

A GALLANT UNION OFFICER.

A PROMINENT LAWYER—A GOOD CITIZEN AND A FAITHFUL PUBLIC OFFICIAL.

Col. Smith A. Whitfield, 2nd Assistant Postmaster General, was born in Francestown, New Hampshire; he attended the Academy school in his native town, and at Hancock he entered the State College but a short while prior to the breaking out of the late civil war. When the 2nd New Hampshire Volunteer Infantry was being organized under Col. Marston, late a Senator from that state, young Whitfield, being so full of patriotism, left college and enlisted; though but 16 years of age, he showed so much nerve that he was quickly promoted from the ranks. At Williamsburgh he received a wound in the head; when he recovered he was promoted, Aug. 2nd 1862, to the Captaincy of Co. "G" 9th N. H. V. I. and received two additional wounds. After his appointment as captain, he was promoted to Lieut. Colonel for gallantry on the field, [Sept. 1863.] Colonel Whitfield was mustered out of service Oct. 1865. At the close of the war he settled in Cincinnati and continued his studies which had been interrupted by the war, at the same time he entered into politics on the side of the Republican party. In 1868 Mr. Whitfield entered the Internal Revenue service and served in the capacities of Deputy Collector and Inspector, and while in this service he studied law, and was admitted to the bar of Cincinnati, after a successful campaign, in 1877. He was promoted to be U. S. Internal Revenue agent, and assigned at various times to the districts of Ill., Ky., and N. Y. In 1880 he was appointed Asst. P. M. of Cincinnati, and in 1881 was made Postmaster and held the office until Sept. 1885. During Mr. Whitfield's administration of the Post office at Cincinnati he appointed and promoted more colored men to positions of prominence than either of his predecessors, which has made him near and dear to the hearts of the intelligent portion of our race, in that city, and in fact wherever he is known.

In February 1886, Gov. Foraker appointed him a member of the Public Affairs of the City of Cincinnati. He served in this position until March 1889, when he was selected by the President, Benj. Harrison, to the position of 2nd Asst. P. M. General.

Mr. Whitfield is an able public speaker, a good organizer, a true republican of the Sherman, Foraker type, and an official not taunted by color prejudice.

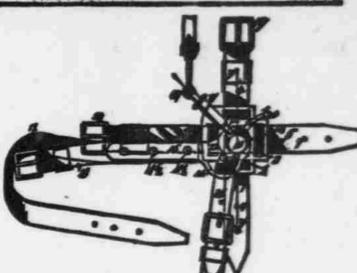

WEST WASHINGTON NOTES

The concert given by the "Harmonion Glee Club" at Union Wesley church Tuesday and Wednesday evening, was largely attended; the singing of the Misses A. and T. Joy, Mrs. Lucy Moore and Messrs. A. Hall, Wm. Williams and F. Honesty, need special mention; the song entitled "The world is coming to an end," by Mrs. Moore, was one of her best efforts before a Washington audience. Mrs. F. Benard and Mr. Thomas Ingram were the accompanists. If the members of the Harmonion desire success as a Glee, they should try in the future not to keep their audience waiting so long to begin their exercises.

Rev. J. P. Cox of Ebenezer A. M. E. church has begun a revival there. The Musical and Literary Association has adjourned their meetings until Jan. 10, 1890, by order of the President, Mr. Jas. L. Turner.

The officers of the mission school of Mt. Zion M. E. church, have arranged to give a Christmas entertainment on Christmas day at 2 p. m. Any contributions will be thankfully received by Messrs. J. N. Williams and Jas. L. Turner. The Ebenezer A. M. E. Sunday school will give a grand Christmas

J. Coolidge, HARNESS ATTACHMENT.

Patented NOVEMBER 13TH, 1888.

J. S. Coolidge's Harness attachment is the best thing of the kind ever put on the market. It is so arranged that any one can secure it to any harness, in three minutes, without cutting the same in any way, right out in the street. It can be taken off its former harness in two minutes, and the harness returned to its former style without the least trouble or exertion. It saves time in hitching and unhitching as a horse can be attached to the vehicle in less than 30 seconds and extricated in less than 5 seconds. It is an ornament to the harness and contains nothing in its parts to get out of order, the case being so constructed that the straps can be lengthened or shortened as is required. The Bolt is removable secured so as to allow the spring to be removed when worn. The particular advantage this device possesses over others consists in the construction of the case and arrangements of the straps, whereby the same may be attached to any harness without cutting the same, as has been heretofore necessary in order to use devices of this character.

To the loop of the Bolt may be attached lines 28, said lines being connected with the driver by suitable means, so that if the horse runs or becomes unmanageable, the tightening of the lines will draw the bolt 12, and the spring 24 will cast the plate 16 a-side and release the animal from the vehicle. Any woman or child can hitch or unhitch a horse without the slightest trouble. Thousands of the attachments are being used every day.

Excursion to the home of "Santa Claus" Monday evening next.

Rev. T. O. Carroll, pastor of the Mt. Zion M. E. Church, was given a surprise by his congregation last week; the majority being the recent converts. A well filled table was left laden with sweet meats, dainties, etc. The affair was arranged very secretly which was quite a surprise to both the pastor and his wife who has assisted him much in the revival at his church which has just so successfully closed after nine weeks with 185 converts.
