

after the Inauguration of Major McKinley. Our Police Department will have its hands full, picking up tramps on the streets.

The Emancipation celebration will take place April 16th. The city is being flooded with books. If the white people would only rebuke the bogus collectors they would see a different kind of celebration. One-half of the money that is collected goes elsewhere.

ARTHUR R. APPLER

This gentleman keeps one of the best places in West Washington. He is in vogue by the very best citizens who live in the vicinity of his place of business. Mr. Appler has been in business for seven years, and there is no man who is more highly respected and who conducts a better house than he does.

He should be granted a licence because he keeps a first class place. People who have never signed a whiskey license before have recommended his house as a first-class place. Mr. Gimon Wolf is representing Mr. Appler, and it is hoped that he may succeed. No better man can be found.

DORSEY F. SAVILLE, P. G. M.

There is no young man in this country better qualified for grand secretary of the Masonic fraternity than Mr. Dorsey F. Saville. He is one among the progressive young men in this country who has made the Masonic organization in this city a success. He represents the only legal body in the United States, and has given to the many thousands readers of THE BEE and Masons in the United States legitimate Masonic news.

THE BEE WOULD LIKE TO SEE.

- District politicians not disappointed. M. M. Holland 6th auditor. Bob Keyes, sealer of weights and measures. C. M. Smith succeed Judge Cox after he retires. J. L. Pugh promoted to judgeship. Chief Clerk Sylvester promoted. D. B. McCary get fat. District politicians be honest. Tom Carter messenger at the White House. Prof. Langston President of Howard University.

WHAT THE BEE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW.

- If some men know a good thing when they get it. Will an Afro American succeed the present incumbent of the recorder's office. How many have told him they want him retained. If some of them have not been playing tweedledee and tweedledom. How many got it in the neck. What has become of Oliver Black's bill for attorney's fees. Was it not rather a cheap bill for professional (?) services. How many volunteers have been fooled. If they have not been given all they deserve. How many have asked for places for services rendered. Are they not some waiting now for favors. If a dog takes a bone will he not bring one.

IT IS RUMORED.

- A colored judge will be appointed in the Police Court. John P. Green, of Ohio, has made himself whole. Rev. S. G. Lampkins will change his mind on the whiskey question. His arguments do not harmonize. Those colored men who have opposed the appointment of a colored man in the cabinet will commit suicide. H. C. Smith, of the Cleveland Gazette, has knocked the Indianapolis adventurer out. Smith will come out on top. All the colored trustees will resign after having appointed a white man to supervise their own high school principal. Scott Montgomery is either a success or a failure. The trustees should give him a show to test his ability. Scott Montgomery is no fool and he will resent the insult offered him. Dr. D. H. Williams of the Freedmen's Hospital will remain where he is.

ANNAPOLIS NOTES

SPORTS AT ANNAPOLIS.—ASBURY CHURCH.—APPOINTMENT AT THE STOCK HOUSE.—REV PERKINS AND CONFERENCE PREPARATIONS.

JANUARY 27, 1897.

The Clifton Base Ball Club of Annapolis organized a few days ago with the following young men who have won a wide reputation as base ball circle: H. E. Spriggs, catcher has a reputation that is hard to beat behind the bat; J. Dempsey is the famous Blue Mountain whirler of in and out cutters, down and up shoots; J. Pomter is the phenomenal first base W. Addison, the lightning second base; H. Hill is the man that stops you short; J. C. Darnell is the stuck fast on the third base; J. Miller, the great left fielder, and George Collins knows his business in the center field and pockets every thing that comes his way; Thomas Gray makes them sick on the right field and all these fellows are hard hitters and makes they man the sters turn green when they man of a stick. Wallace Parker; Samuel Davage, the quick eyed man on Calvert street, is captain. This crew means business and has made up their minds to whip the first team that comes in sight. Luck to you boys, watch that green eyed monster.

The Maryland Athletic Foot Ball Club has elected new officers: C. Brown, President; J. H. King, Vice President; W. Brown, Secretary; D. Garver, Assistant Secretary; C. Jones, Treasurer; J. Brown, Assistant Treasurer; G. Spriggs, Sergeant-at-Arms, they are known as the Yellow and Blues and they are the hottest foot ball boys in Annapolis. J. Brown, D. Garver, and C. Chase plays the great end and Boogy Banks is the great F. B. sign, James Brown, Manager.

Among the hoboes, or the great trampoline was rendered a Asbury Church Monday night to a large audience. The Ill Troves Singing Club presented the Comic Opera, entitled "Among the Hoboes." The repertoire of the play was made up of selections from Verdi's great Opera "Il Trovatore" and included the celebrated "Anvil Chorus," assisted by the Arrudel Mandolin Club. The trampoline scene was from "Handful Superba" in which the three nimble comedians, Charles Johnson, Charles McPherson and Gus Holland introduced specialties and comic songs, "Still the world goes on" was sung and acted by the premier baritone, Walter Spriggs, the manager. The singing was excellent of which Miss H. Howard and Miss S. Toodle should be specially mentioned. Gus, the comedian, who had worked for Mr. Steiner three days and Mr. Butler three weeks was a success at taming the pastor's chicken.

Miss Annie Parson and Miss Kate Gunn of Philadelphia, are visiting their brother and cousin, Mr. Alfred Parson at 78 Clay street. Mr. Parson has recently moved here from Harford County having received the appointment of assistant foreman at the State House, under Gov. Lowndes.

The dedication service of Mt. Moriah A. M. E. Church will take place Sunday, January 31st, of which we hope to give a full account next week. Mrs. S. T. Tire has returned from John Hopkins and is reported to be on a fair way to recovery. She has had a tedious time of it and has the sympathy of the entire community.

The Fourth Quarterly Conference of Asbury Church will take place Monday 8 p. m. Quarterly services will be conducted Sunday by Rev. G. Key, P. E., of the District, who will preach at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. He will be in the city Saturday and confer with the pastor in completing the arrangements for entertaining the Washington Conference here March 10th. It has been very cold here and skating has been good in places and lovers of that sport have enjoyed the ice immensely.

Asbury Church was well attended Sunday the collection amounted to $35. Rev. P. T. Perkins, the elegant and able pastor of Asbury Church is making extensive preparations for the next Conference.

Rev. James Lee, presiding elder of the A. M. E. connection was here Monday.
