

THE CAMERA'S USE IN WAR

New Invention Which Discovers Secrets of Forts and Army Movements Creating Excitement in Europe.

New York.—In these days of unsettled political conditions among the European nations, all new inventions, which may be useful in war, are awaited with an eagerness only equaled by the undercurrent of distrust and suspicion that prevails everywhere. The latest invention makes it possible to take photographs in the air at heights varying from 150 to 400 yards.

Military Europe is excited over the experiment in aerial photography that the French minister of the marine, M. Alfred Picard, has been making off the coast of Morocco. Capt. Sacconey has been working for months past to develop a machine that would produce a clear and detailed view of a country, its forts, encampments and general outlines. The results have gone beyond all expectations. A photograph of Casa Blanca has been taken by this wonderful camera at an altitude of 400 yards and three miles from shore.

In structure this machine resembles an enormous box kite. To it is attached a cable by which the apparatus can be made to ascend or descend at the will of the operator. When the desired height is attained the aim can be accurately taken and the snap worked from below. The whole photographic outfit is so simple that it can be placed on the deck of a boat, and worked at sea with as satisfactory results as from the land. The importance of these pictorial documents in time of war is obvious. By the aid of these aerial photographs the enemy can fix with precision the exact disposition of the opposing forces, while their entrenchments and forts no longer will be a safeguard.

CHAINS TRAMPS TO TREES

New Jersey Constable Devises "Lock-Up" That Is Terror to Weary Willies.

Delanco, N. J.—The good housewives of this locality have risen up as one and called blessed George F. Hahner, constable, "Pooh Bah" and regulator of the morals of this model village. As a terror to evildoers and various stray persons afflicted with wanderlust Hahner has achieved a reputation second to none.

For years this Jersey hamlet was pestered to death with the most variegated assortment of tramps and amateur handout artists that ever worried women into losing their naturally angelic dispositions. The ples that motter made were no longer safe when set out on the back porch to cooloff. They disappeared like magic. Likewise, the yellow-legged spring chickens, saved for the preacher's special election, were swept from the roost in evening hours. When the situation got desperate the women of the village called in a body one day on Hahner and demanded protection for their erstwhile happy homes.

Hahner's excuse has been that, lacking ja facilities, there was little use in plang the offenders in the toils of theaw. So he had been content to chie them away with veiled threats Then it was that he devised a "tree-lock-up," whose efficacy has been demonstrated to such an extent that fan has come to this town and tramps at used to infest the place give it wide berth.

Hahner ordered an extra supply of handcuffs and some of the tramps caught in his next raid were chained to trees in the village street. The experiment as an astonishing success.

WORTH ADVERTISING FOR.

There are 5,499 Negroes employed here in Washington by the Government alone, and these 5,499 Negroes draw salaries aggregating $3,044,404. These more than three millions of dollars are spent right here in Washington, but scattered among the hundreds of tradesmen. Is this amount of money worth bidding for? It certainly is, and not even the largest stores in this city would refuse to get the big end of it did they but realize how much money the Negroes are really spending.

Now The Bee is the only Negro publication in this city. It stands without a rival or competitor, and covers the field like a blanket. If a few of the merchants in this city will patronize the advertising columns of The Bee, presenting the attractive bargains they may have, these Negroes — these 5,499 Negroes who draw annually from the Government over three millions of dollars — will assume that by patronizing a publication edited and operated by one of their race that such firms desire and deserve their patronage. And such firms will receive the bulk of these over three millions of dollars received and spent by the Negroes of Washington.

What clothing stores, what furniture stores, what dry goods stores and what other lines of business will now make an effort to divert to themselves these over three millions of dollars spent by Washington Negroes by advertising in The Bee?

Place your advertising in The Bee and watch these 5,499 appreciative Negroes spend their over three millions of dollars with you.

Now is the time to advertise in The Bee, the newspaper that goes into every Negro home in Washington. Remember, merchants of Washington, it's what advertising pays you, not what it costs.

VICTIM TELLS HOW LOCKJAW FELT

Doctor was Worried When His Face Began to Stiffen—Fought Disease St. Louis.—Dr. F. W. Grundmann of Washington avenue, who was pronounced out of danger from lockjaw, after suffering for almost three weeks, described how he felt during his illness.

"In diagnosing my own symptoms a week after the germs of tetanus had entered my blood, I thought I had the disease, but I was not sure," said Dr. Grundmann. "One day, as I was stepping off a street car, it started permatually and threw me on my knee on the street. A hole was ripped in my trousers, and a gash cut in the flesh of my knee, into which earth from the street was ground."

"It gave me no trouble, pained me very little and I gave it no further thought. About a week later I found that I had fever and that the muscles of my neck pained me and were constricted. Next I observed spasmodic jerking of the limbs. These I knew to be premonitory symptoms of lockjaw."

"That night I got a real shock. I observed a growing rigidity of the muscles of the jaws. If it kept on they would become locked beyond all hope of unlocking them. "In one day I had 6,000 units, about a fluid ounce, of the serum injected. My jaws continued slowly to grow more rigid, but we fought the disease with the serum until at last we saw that we had the disease going the other way, and we fought it out. "The germs of tetanus may be in any manner of dirt. If you have a wound in your finger and go out into the garden and stick it into the fresh earth you stand a chance of getting lockjaw."
