ADVERTISING RATES. A DEMOCRATIC UPRISING. The Democracy in this county and all over the State are making preparations for a vigorous and aggressive campaign.

The Democracy in this county and all over the State are making preparations for a vigorous and aggressive campaign. In this city the clubs are filling up with active and enthusiastic members, and there is a spirit and clan animating the rank and file of the party that is instinct with the prestige of a sweeping victory.

It is rather odd, as the Banning Herald remarks, that while Col. J. J. Ayers, editor of that sterling Democratic paper, the Los Angeles Herald, is prominently spoken of as a candidate for Governor, his paper thinks by all means the Republicans should nominate Gov. Waterman.

To a looker-on in Vienna, or to one who feels the unconcern of the husband during the urso-tor battle, it would seem that the Republican party of this county, as represented by its chief organs, is badly by the ears. Harmony, with a big H, is sadly discordant, and its ranks are pitted against each other in mortal combat.

WE ARE assured by one who is conversant with the facts, that Don Pio Pico is in no danger of being ejected from his home for a long time, if at all. After the Governor's transaction with Cohn et al. nearly seven years ago, he remained in possession of his ranch house and about fifty acres adjoining, and this possession he has maintained ever since.

IN AN editorial yesterday upon the progress of the State Reform School buildings at Whittier, we named Mr. R. B. Young as the contractor of the work on the main buildings. He is the architect. The fine residence of Superintendent Lindley was constructed by Contractors Mackey and Skinner instead of Collins and McNally.

THE PHYSICAL TRAINING OF WOMEN.

No departure from old methods and ideas in modern times carries with it more hopefulness for the future of the race than that in the education of women. For more than a generation the life of the average American woman was such as to engender a condition of physical ill-health, imbecility and tendency to organic diseases that were a menace to the continued propagation of the race.

THE Los Angeles Herald has come out with a new dress that is very neat and becoming. The Herald is a good paper, ably edited and newsy, and we are glad to see signs of prosperity at a time when all other kinds of business are looking up.

PROTECTION FROM INFECTED FRUIT TREES. The action of the fruit-growers of this county, in organizing to protect themselves from the importation from abroad of infected trees, will commend itself to everybody; and it would have perhaps saved us from another citrus pest if the movement had begun at an earlier period.

THE Los Angeles to Re-Open. Katie Emmett and her company in The Waifs of New York, who are en route to the Coast, have been secured for a four nights' engagement at the Los Angeles theater commencing Sunday evening, April 6th.

BASEBALL NOTES. This afternoon the game of ball between the police and constables will take place. The nines will parade the streets from 1 to 2 o'clock.

UNDIVERLED TELEGRAMS. The following telegrams remain un-called for at the Western Union telegraph office, corner Court and Main streets, March 29, 1890: Bristol Sisters, Mrs. Maggie Whitmer, Mrs. Cora Cushing, J. W. Schmidt, J. W. Potts.

THANKS to a Republican Legislature which passed every spendthrift measure that came before it, the State tax rate last year was 72.2 cents on the one hundred dollars, the very highest rate ever reached in California.

HOPE FOR THE AGED.

A Prominent Man Shows How Elderly People Can Prolong Their Lives and Avoid Weakness and Suffering. Charles Dickens never wrote a truer thing than the following: "Can anything be more pitiable than the sight of elderly men or women who realize that the strength of earlier years is departing? Down the plane of life, whose end is in darkness, they look, and wonder if their weary steps will carry them painlessly to the end."

STUCK ON OUR STYLE. What the Other Fellows Say of the "Herald's" Dress. The Los Angeles Herald, the ablest edited journal on the Pacific Coast, appears in a new dress which becomes it well.
