THAT CONDEMNATION SUIT.

The Jury Awards About What the Railroad Offered.

The trial of the cause pending between George Zobelein and others and the Redondo Railway Company for a right of way over lands back of Agricultural park which has been going on before Judge Shaw for several days, came to an end yesterday in a verdict practically for the company.

Mr. W. E. Hughes, the agent of the railway, says he offered $2,500 for the privilege of crossing three tracts of land of about seventy acres in all, using a little less than two acres of it, and passing nearly through the center, in somewhat of a curve. The property is subdivided into residence lots.

The jury last night brought in this verdict, which is somewhat complicated: To George Zobelein, $230 for right-of-way and $283 for damages; to the Groff estate, $648.90 for right-of-way and $200 damages; to the Cordes estate, $745.50 for right-of-way and $400 for damages. The verdict further decrees that the company shall build a fence along their line on both sides, and cattle guards wherever necessary. This work the jury estimates will cost $728.22. The total amount awarded the property-owners is $2,516.40. This is about $1,250 per acre, or if treated as lots, $250 per lot. If treated as lots, of course there are a number of them rendered more or less useless by the passage of the road, and the price per lot would not be very much.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

A Baby Lies on the Track While a Train Passes.

Yesterday morning at a little before 11 o'clock as the Santa Fe overland to the East was passing Lincoln park, it ran over a baby belonging to a family named Earl. The child was playing on the track and was not noticed by the engineer or fireman. As the train passed over, the child stepped down between the ties and was not fatally injured. The side of its head was bruised and two fingers of the right hand were crushed so that they had to be cut off. The age of the child was stated to be about one year and it is also stated that it has Gipson, who was sent from Shasta county in 1878 to San Quentin prison to serve a life sentence for the murder of a stock man named Schroeder. Convicted with Gibson for complicity in the same crime were men named Hilbrant and Tom Gipson. The latter was pardoned by Governor Perkins, and Hilbrant made an affidavit that he swore falsely when he stated that A. P. Gipson was implicated in the crime. Tom Gipson also swore afterwards that A. P. had nothing to do with the murder. The pardoned man is about 70 years of age.
