

AT THE CAPITAL.

Senatorial Spoilsmen Show Their Hand.

Two New Pension Offices to Be Created.

The Tariff Debate Continued in the Lower House.

A Pension Voted to Mrs. Delia Parnell. The Senate Silver Caucus—Chinese Exclusion, Etc.

Associated Press Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—In the senate today a communication was received from the treasury department, with reports from the special agents as to the evasion of the laws against the entrance of Chinamen coming from Canada.

The annual pension appropriation bill was taken up, the question being on the amendment increasing the number of pension agents (salary, $4,000) from eighteen to twenty.

The bill having been reported back from the committee of the whole to the senate, the question on the amendment came up again for action.

Cockrell said he was humiliated at the fact that the committee on appropriations, headed by the distinguished senator from Iowa (Allison), had just been ridden over rough-shod by the republican majority.

Sherman suggested that Cockrell was making a very great affair out of a small matter, and argued for the increase, saying that the pension office at Columbia was so crowded now that an increase in the pension agents was absolutely necessary.

Cockrell referred to the rumor that there was a warm and lively contest over the Ohio pension agency; that a friend of an ex-president had been selected over the choice of another distinguished citizen (meaning Sherman), and that the senator who was so grievously disappointed was patiently awaiting the creation of these two new offices.

Allison said he felt aggrieved that the majority voted an increase of the agencies. It showed that the majority had not examined the question with the care it should.

Paddock said there were localities worse off as regards the necessity for an increase of agencies than Ohio. He spoke of the needs of Nebraska, Kansas and other western states, and said if there was any action it should be for the readjustment and consolidation of some of the smaller agencies.

Gorman said in the interests of the soldiers congress might bankrupt the government, and probably would, for in fifteen years there would be more spent for pensions than it had cost to put down the rebellion.

Finally the discussion closed, and Sherman's amendment was agreed to, 22 to 21. Payne voted with the republicans, and Allison, Ingalls and Hunt with the democrats. Teller did not vote.

The bill then passed, and the military academy bill was taken up and passed. The army appropriation bill was then taken up. Among the amendments agreed to was a paragraph appropriating $100,000 for buildings at military posts for libraries, gymnasiums and canteens.

Hale moved an amendment that no alcoholic liquor, beer or wine be sold or supplied to enlisted men in any such buildings. Cockrell moved to amend the amendment by striking out beer and wine. No quorum voted, and the Senate adjourned, leaving Hale's and Cockrell's amendments pending.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

A Pension Voted to Mrs. Parnell—The Tariff Debate.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—In the house today, Hitt, of Illinois, called up the bill granting a pension of $1,200 a year to Mrs. Delia Parnell, daughter of Admiral Charles Stewart, with an amendment reducing the pension to $50 a month. After discussion the amendment was agreed to by a vote of 35 to 23, and the bill was passed. The house then went into committee of the whole on the tariff bill.

Fitch, of New York, spoke against the bill.

Gear, of Iowa, (a member of the committee on ways and means), said the old proverb: "Scratch a Russian and you will find a tartar," might be applied to democrats. For, if the shiny pretenses were scratched off a democrat, a free-trader would be found. In 1888 the people had rendered their verdict. He favored protection for any article that was produced in this country. If the United States could produce sugar in sufficient quantity to supply the domestic wants, he would foster it by fair protection; he believed that was impossible. He was convinced that the United States must look to other countries for her sugar.

McMillin inquired how it was that sugar-trusts had had such a phenomenal rise recently.

Gear suggested that the pending bill gave the refiners a protection only of four-tenths of a cent, while the Mills bill gave them one cent.

McMillin replied that the pending bill gave them raw material. It was evident from the rise in sugar trust securities that the trust was not to be hurt by this bill.

Gear, continuing, expressed his opposition to any trust or combine formed to enhance the price of the necessities of life. The time had come for the American congress to end the sugar combine by passing the pending bill. This bill gave the people cheap sugar, cheap raw sugar and cheap refined sugar, and destroyed the root and branch of the greatest combine known to the country—a combine which might be called the American devil-fish, which had been devouring the substance of the people for almost a century.

Crisp did not believe that to the manufacturer protection had been a beneficial system. As to the laborers in manufacturing establishments, as to the farmers throughout the land, he felt sure the system had been injurious. The system drove out competition. It diminished the number of producers of a given article and increased the ease and facility with which they could combine to elevate the price. The majority of the ways and means committee, said Crisp, continuing, was pledged to the principle of protection, and offered a sop to the farmer. It said to the farmer that it put a duty on his products, when the truth was that it would do him no good. The way to benefit the farmer was to give him free salt, give him free cotton ties and reduce the price of the necessities of life. The gentlemen on the other side claimed that they were recording the verdict of the people. The people did not agree that the tariff question was finally settled at the polls. It was generally believed that the protected industries had put together a great campaign fund by which they bought in "blocks of five" to vote to carry out their ideas.

Payne, of New York, remarked that the gentleman from Texas (Mills) had said he knew how the republicans carried the election, and the gentleman from Tennessee (McMillin) intimated that the postmaster-general had contributed money. He (Payne) had noticed that McMillin did not say anything about his presidential candidate and his cabinet officers who stepped up to the captain's office and settled, in violation of the civil service law.

Laughter and applause. Of course that man was not to buy votes. Payne then proceeded to argue in support of the bill.

Wheeler, of Alabama, spoke against the bill, and the committee rose and the house took a recess.

CHINESE EXCLUSION.

The Enforcement of the Law Fraught With Many Embarrassments.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Assistant Secretary Tichenor, in response to the senate resolution calling for information relative to the evasion of the law prohibiting Chinese immigration, today sent to the senate reports from the special agents along the border.

Whitehead, at Niagara, calls attention to a phase of the subject which, he says, is likely to become a serious question. Chinese persons are found unlawfully within the United States, smuggled from Canada, and they do not have certificates showing that they have paid the dominion customs tax of $50 per head. How are they to be returned to the country whence they came? The dominion customs officers refuse to admit such persons to Canada without proper certificates, and our officers will not leave to choose between smuggling them back or placing them on the bridges connecting the two countries, where they are certain to suffer much discomfort before release.

Special Agent Brooks, under date of Toronto, May 1st, says he has creditable information that during the past year upwards of 200 Chinamen were unlawfully sent into this country from Canada.

Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The president has approved the act providing for the classification of worsted cloths as wools.

Caldwell, of Ohio, today introduced a bill to prevent the desecration of the United States flag by printing on it advertisements, etc., making such an act of offense a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of fifty dollars, or imprisonment for thirty days, or both.

Representative Morrow, from the committee on foreign affairs, today reported a resolution requesting the president to open negotiations with Mexico for the promotion of commercial and friendly relations and the adjustment of boundaries. The resolution requests the president to invite the government of Mexico to negotiate for the creation of an international commission, to which shall be referred all questions affecting mutual intercourse and relations. The report accompanying the resolution points out the necessity of Mexican co-operation with the United States officials in order to prevent Chinese from flooding the United States through Mexico.

THE POORHOUSE HOLOCAUST.

More Lives Lost than at First Reported.

UTICA, N. Y., May 9.—The bodies found in the ruins of the poorhouse at Preston already number thirteen. The impression is growing that the loss of life far exceeds the first estimate. In one building were many very aged men and women, some of whom had not left their beds for months. It is now believed that a number of these perished.

The Bear at Seattle.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—A telegram was received at the treasury department this morning announcing the arrival of the revenue steamer Bear at Seattle on her way to the Kering sea to assist in the protection of the seal fisheries. She remains at Seattle until the authorities at Washington determine upon a policy regarding these fisheries. It is expected that the matter will be settled in a few days.

The Clangor of an Alarm Bell.

Closely by the stillness of the night, could scarcely startle the ordinary individual more than to drifting noise the nervous invalid. But once the nerves are braced and the system invigorated with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, this abnormal sensitiveness is succeeded by a tranquility not to be disturbed by trivial causes. Impaired digestion is a fertile cause of nerve weakness and unnatural mental gloom, and a vigorous renewal of the action of the stomach is one of the surest means of invigorating and quieting the nerves. Insomnia, or sleeplessness, a form of nervous disease, is unquestionably benefited by sedatives, when it is prolonged, or of frequent occurrence, but its permanent removal is more effectively achieved with the Bitters. This medicine is also signally efficacious for malaria, rheumatism, constipation, complaint and torpidity of the kidneys and bladder.

A Chicago Crook Captured at Denver.

Insurance Swindling Was His Specialty.

Charges of a Graver Nature Also Made Against Him.

A Host of Kentucky Statesmen Ready to Step Into Senator Beck's Shoes. Spring Races.

Associated Press Dispatches.

CHICAGO, May 9.—A dispatch from Denver tonight announced the arrest of Dr. Meyer and wife, on request of the Chicago authorities. It is learned here that Meyer was wanted for extensive insurance swindles. He has had a sensational career in Chicago. At one time he was accused of poisoning a patient, Henry Goldman, a well-to-do citizen, the alleged object being to secure Goldman's money. Coupled with this was the gossip that Meyer was playing the role of lothario to Goldman's wife. Following the death of her husband, she married Meyer, but they separated. The woman now under arrest with Meyer is understood to be another wife, the daughter of C. C. Dressell, an aged gentleman, whose life, it is alleged, had fraudulently been insured in the Germania Company, of Chicago, for $5,000, the fraud consisting in presenting a bogus Dressell for examination. Meyer was consulting physician of the Germania Company, and since unearthing the Dressell fraud, it is asserted, a number of other cases of like nature have come to light. The Chicago police had a long hunt for the doctor.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—A meeting of the republican senatorial caucus was held today, at which the silver question was again under consideration. It is said the only proposition discussed was one to make the notes to be issued for the purchase of bullion full legal tender, the bullion redemption clause having been abandoned. The caucus was attended by about two-thirds of the republican senators, and while the majority were in favor of making the notes full legal tender, it was decided to postpone formal action until there shall be a full attendance. The opinion is expressed that a satisfactory conclusion will be reached.

SOUTHERN METHODISTS.

Proceedings of the Quadrennial Conference at St. Louis.

St. Louis, May 9.—The general conference of the Methodist Church South was resumed this morning. The report of the board of church extension was submitted, showing that much efficient work has been done. Under the call for memorials and petitions, a memorial from Texas asked that the discipline be changed to prohibit the licensing of women to preach. Rev. David J. Waller, secretary of the British Wesleyan conference, London, the first delegate ever sent to the general conference of the M. E. church, South, from a foreign conference, was introduced and cordially received.

Scratched 28 Years

Scratched twenty-eight years. Body covered with scaly psoriasis. Constant shedding of scales. Suffering endless and without relief. Scratched all the time. Physicians and the usual remedies useless. $200 thrown away. Cured by CUTICURA REMEDIES at a cost of $5. Skin now as clear and free from scales as a baby's. Cured January 20, 1887. Cure permanent to date, February 5, 1887.

Cured by Cuticura

If I had known of the CUTICURA REMEDIES twenty-eight years ago it would have saved me $200.00 (two hundred dollars) and an immense amount of suffering. My disease (psoriasis) commenced on my head in a spot about the size of a cent. It spread rapidly all over my body and got under my nails. The scales would drop off of me in the time and my suffering was endless and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to have this disease over again. I am a poor man, but I am relieved to have some of the doctors' prescriptions, etc. I took.....and.....Sarsaparilla over one year and a half, but no cure. I went to two or three doctors, and no cure. I cannot praise the CUTICURA REMEDIES too much. They have made my skin as clear and free from scales as a baby's. All I used of them were three boxes of CUTICURA, and two cakes of CUTICURA SOAP. If you had been here and said you would have cured me for $200, you would have had the money. I looked like the picture in your book of psoriasis (picture number two, "How to Cure Skin Diseases"), but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hands over my arms and legs to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose. I am all well. I scratched twenty-eight years, and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times. Any one who reads this may write to me, and I will answer it.
