

COMING SOUTH.

C. P. HUNTINGTON AND PARTY WILL VISIT LOS ANGELES.

They Are Expected to Arrive Tomorrow. Further Cuts Made in the Eastern Passenger Rate War.

The dispatch printed yesterday morning in regard to the visit of President C. P. Huntington to Los Angeles sets at rest all doubts about that gentleman's movements. His special train will start from San Francisco today, but the exact moment of its arrival in this city is not certain. A crew has been ordered to Tehachapi to run the train to this city, and it will start today. It is announced that the party will travel only by daylight, and in that case some time will be occupied in the trip down.

A committee of the chamber of commerce, consisting of President E. W. Jones, Dr. J. P. Widney, M. L. Wicks, Caspar Cohen, Eugene Germain and A. H. Denker, was appointed some time ago to receive Mr. Huntington and confer with him about subjects of interest to this section, and they will be on hand when the train arrives. A telegram was sent to Fourth and Townsend streets, San Francisco, yesterday, asking for particulars of the movements of the party, and a reply is awaited.

Mr. Huntington and party will travel in a special train of three private cars. Mr. Huntington, his family and William Mahl, his right-hand man, will use the former's private car. Colonel Fred Crocker and J. A. Fillmore will also take their private cars. J. C. Stubbs and C. F. Smurr accompanying the former gentleman, and Arthur Brown, H. J. Small, J. H. Wallace and B. Welsh accompanying Mr. Fillmore.

Stockton, Santa Barbara and Los Angeles will be visited, possibly San Diego also, and a large number of smaller towns, and on the conclusion of the trip Huntington will go directly east from Los Angeles in a special train over the Santa Fe road, at the personal invitation of President Manvel. He expects to come back to the coast in September and remain here for the rest of the year.

Notification was received yesterday at the Santa Fe offices in this city that the Missouri Pacific had made a further reduction in the rates between Denver and St. Louis to $6.55. The original rate between these points was $25.50. The first cut made it $10, the second $8, and the last move is now announced. Rates from this city will not be affected till the figure goes below $6, which, calculating on the present rate of $1 between Kansas City and St. Louis, would reduce the fare between Denver and Kansas City to a point below the amount allowed the Missouri Pacific roads on transcontinental business. In that case the Santa Fe will be enabled to sell to Kansas City at a figure as far below $35, second class, as the Missouri Pacific or Burlington or Wabash is willing to go below $5 between Denver and Kansas City. In case the transcontinental rate is affected, of course the other overland lines will be compelled to meet the figure quoted by the Santa Fe via Denver; but this consummation is not probable.

The Southern Pacific will probably carry an immense crowd to Santa Monica today and tomorrow. A band has been engaged to play on the esplanade, and the hot weather will prove a powerful agent in driving people to the seashore.

SANTA MONICA.

Notes of Interest from the Seaside by the "Herald's" Reporter.

Meine Bros.' band give their third and fourth free open air concerts on the esplanade yesterday and today, between 2 and 5 p. m. The programme is as follows: Part I.—March, "Belfast" (Suppe); Potpourri, "Modern Times" (Beyer); waltz, "Showers of Gold" (Waldteufel); Gavotte, "Forget Me Not" (Wiegand). Part II.—Overture, "Night Wanderer" (Moskau); selection, "Huguenots" (Meyerbeer); comic medley, "Brother Gardner" (Rollinson); two Mexican dances, (a) "Chloe," (b) "La Media Noche" (Lange). Part III.—Overture, "The Minstrel" (Lamothe); selection, "Sonnambula" (Bellini); "Little Footsteps" (with variations for clarinet, cornet and bass); galop, "Bon Jour" (Faust).

The ladies of the relief corps gave an entertainment on Thursday evening at Stein's opera house, which was well attended.

A. H. Rogers photographed the school children yesterday, and got some very effective groups. Jesus Martinez inflicted an ugly wound on Pancho Moreno May 14th at Padra Gordo, a Spanish settlement about ten miles north of here. Martinez has a bad record, they say, having been in prison most all of his life, and having just been liberated from Folsom, where he served a ten years' sentence for killing a man at San Bernardino. A warrant has been issued for his arrest, and the constable has already started in pursuit. The old veterans give every week an entertainment of some sort for the amusement of their guests and inmates. The one given Thursday evening was a most excellent one, being composed of music, recitations, with the farce, "Box and Cox," for a wind-up.

Colonel Kinney, of San Francisco, has been the guest of Colonel Treichel for the past few days. Dr. Steinhilber has come down from Los Angeles with his family and taken possession of his cottage on the beach. The bathing is remarkable fine, and many enjoy the luxury daily.

The Board of Supervisors.

The report of J. F. Durham, road overseer, and Aaron Smith, special agent, regarding notifying the Chinese gangs at Lang's, was filed. There were 1,100 of them, nearly all of whom claimed residence at San Francisco. A. B. Hotchkiss appeared for the railroad company. Road Overseer Taylor, of Rowland, was granted a leave of absence. Supervisor Dunn was appointed a committee of one, with power to act, with regard to extending the Pico bridge on the west side. The application of William Banning for a wharf at Avalon was discussed and the matter taken under advisement. The report of W. R. Blackman in reference to the tax-collector's office was filed, and turned over to Mr. Platt for verification. A petition for the extension of Figueroa street to the Green Meadows road, with a bond, was received, and T. H. Stafford, J. H. Toler and William Dryden, were appointed viewers.

A Wharf for Avalon.

The petition of Captain William Banning for a wharf franchise at Avalon came up before the board of supervisors yesterday. A protest was also filed. Judge W. F. Fitzgerald appeared in behalf of the protesting party, and Judge J. D. Bicknell for Captain Banning. Both gentlemen were heard upon the question, and it was finally decided that it is too important a matter to settle by a hasty conclusion, and accordingly the board, at the request of both parties, will visit the island today, look over the premises, and consult the residents and property-owners as to their wishes in the matter.
