A number of his articles have appeared in the papers of this coast, and are always read with interest. He will, it is expected, deliver a lecture here.

NEWS NOTES.

Col. Root will give the first of a series of Saturday night hops at the Redondo hotel tonight.

The finance committee of the council will meet this morning and consider several matters referred to it on Monday last.

The Oro Fino Club will open its new rooms on Spring street this evening. A very taking programme has been arranged for the occasion.

A concert was given last evening at Simpson tabernacle for the benefit of the soldiers' monument fund. A full account will appear in tomorrow's paper.

The Bonnie Brae baseball club defeated the mail carriers by a score of 10 to 1 yesterday. The features of the game were the base hits of the Bonnie Braes. The Bonnie Braes will go to Garvanza tomorrow to play ball.

Mr. J. E. Howe, who resides at No. 119 Mayo street, met with a serious accident on Wednesday last, which has caused his confinement in his room since that time. Mr. Howe was driving along Second street, near Los Angeles, when in crossing the car track his buggy was overturned accidentally and he was thrown out and seriously injured. He attributes his accident to the wretched condition of the street at the place where the accident occurred, and the probabilities are that a damage suit will be instituted against the city in the near future.

Notes of the Rail.

Secretary Patton, of the chamber of commerce, has received a telegram as follows:

"Regret extremely that our plans will not admit of a visit to Los Angeles at this time. Must return east immediately. CHARLES F. ADAMS."

The account of Mr. Adams's, president of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, arrival at San Francisco has been noted in the telegraphic columns. It was expected that he would visit Los Angeles.

J. Adams, of the Chicago and Alton railroad, received a telegram from headquarters yesterday stating that rates will be restored on and after June 9th to the point they were before the cut was made a few weeks ago.

A Dangerous Field Fire.

Yesterday a couple of boys rode out on the mesa northeast of the soldiers' home, near Santa Monica, and lying down in the tall, dry grass proceeded to smoke cigarettes. In a moment the grass was all ablaze, and the fire swept over the mesa towards the home at a frightful pace. The soldiers were all ordered out, and after a sharp fight the fire was extinguished. It was put out just as it was about to get into a large stack of hay which, if it had caught fire, would have created so fierce a fire that the whole country would probably have been swept over. The fire was right up to the fence surrounding the home, and was conquered none too soon to save the buildings.

A ST. LOUIS PHYSICIAN.

He Tests a California Production.—His Report.

A St. Louis gentleman whose affliction was sick headaches was so surprised at the cure effected by Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, that he called it to the attention of a relative, who happened to be none other than Dr. F. A. Barrett, the well-known St. Louis physician of 2662 Shenandoah Street. The doctor saw at once that it differed from the potato preparations in that it was purely vegetable, and becoming interested in it, began a series of investigations, and in a subsequent letter candidly admitted its curative properties, and says:—

Wishing to test its virtues further, I used it in my own family, and prescribed it for patients who required a general system regulator. As a result, I can say it is an almost absolute cure for constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, indigestion, and sick headaches. These troubles usually come from a disturbed condition of the stomach and bowels, and Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is the best laxative and stomach regulator I have ever seen, and as a general system corrector is almost perfection itself. CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED.

This is an acknowledged fact and it is being demonstrated every week in the year by

M. HILTON WILLIAMS, M.D.

M. C. P. S. O., 137 South Broadway, Los Angeles, Cal.

BY HIS Acrean System of practice, which consists of Medicated Inhalations and Compound Oxygen, being administered to the patient, instead of filling the system with poisonous drugs administered by the stomach.

This system is now attracting the attention of the best physicians throughout every country in the civilized world. Narrow minded men imbued with the principles of prejudice, and who are unwilling or too indolent to inform themselves upon the scientific principles of this Acrean system of practice, may endeavor to whisper obstacles and to superciliously condemn it and pronounce it useless without inquiry or an opportunity of seeing or judging the merits of what they advise others to reject; but the abuse of such members of the profession can avail but little, and only proves that such persons are contracted in their ideas, regardless of the prosperity of their patient, and the advancement of their practice.

Consumption, like all other diseases of the respiratory organs, is conceded by all scientific and thinking men, to originate from a living germ or parasite. These little bacilli are found floating in the expectorated mucus, and after death adhering to the mucous surfaces lining the air passages. What utter nonsense it is to try to destroy these parasites by giving medicines by the stomach; and yet how easy it is to introduce them into the diseased parts by the Acrean or Inhalation system of practice. Is anything more common sense? And yet one in every twenty years ago, because of this mistaken idea; many of whom would be radically and permanently cured had they used the Medicated Inhalations before the disease became too far advanced.

Over 100,000 persons have used these medicated inhalations under our personal direction during the past twenty years, and very few of that number have died with lung trouble; and yet quite a large percentage began the treatment simply as a matter of convenience, and there was still a possibility of an absolute cure.

Persons taking this treatment can use the remedies at home as well as at our office. Consultation and one application at our office free. Those who desire to consult me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for an examination, but if impossible to visit the office personally, can write for questions and circular, both of which will be sent free of charge. The Natiek House.

NEW MANAGEMENT.

The Natiek House, one of the oldest and best known hotels in the city, has lately changed hands. M. S. Rowell has retired from the management, and the House will hereafter be conducted by Mr. H. A. Hart, a Hotel man of experience. Mr. Hart has already made a number of changes which will prove of benefit to his patrons, and adds very much to the convenience and comfort of the House. The table and Dining Service especially has been greatly improved.

During the past few weeks the Natiek has been in the hands of the painters and decorators. A commodious office is one of its good features. Electric bells with return calls and Fire Alarm have also been added, and altogether the House is in better condition than ever before for doing business. mas-1m

FOLLOW REASON!

The proper work of man, the grand drift of human life is to follow reason—that noble spark kindled in us from heaven.—Barrow.

DOES IT STAND TO REASON

That a concern which a short while ago was obliged to rename their place of business, and which packed up the remnant of their bankrupt stock, carted it around the corner and back again, to be dumped on the sidewalk in front of the rechristened store, for the purpose of deceiving the public—we say does it stand to reason, that such a firm

Can Invite the Confidence of the Public.

We never say anything to the disparagement of any competitor, who presents himself to the public under his true colors, but when a concern that settles with its creditors with 60 cents on the dollar attempts to foist itself on the public, as the

Birthplace of Honest Value

We cannot refrain from exposing them. Once more we say

DOES IT STAND TO REASON

That any firm that settles with their creditors for 60 cents on the dollar can buy their goods at cheap as a firm that pays 100 cents on the dollar, and if they cannot buy as cheap, does it stand to reason that they can sell as cheap.
