

OUT OF TOWN.

LIVELY TIMES REPORTED AT THE BEACH RESORTS.

Interesting Letters from University, Redondo Beach and Santa Monica—Notes and Personal.

Correspondence of the HERALD.

Miss Fanny Dyer, of Riverside, is the guest of her friend Miss Fannie Whitlock, on Thirty-seventh street.

Prof. E. R. Shrader, formerly professor in the university here and later acting in that capacity at Woodbury's business college, has purchased a one-third interest in the Los Angeles business college. The new management took charge July 1st.

Miss Edith Brown, in company with Miss Viola Bennett, left for the seaside Wednesday, Long Beach being their objective point.

It is rumored that George Ripley, our former shoemaker, and who left to ship as a sailor, has been drowned. No particulars.

Mrs. Selah W. Brown and son Valentine left Wednesday for Long Beach.

Dr. W. S. Matthew, pastor of University M. E. church, began his thirty-days' leave of absence Wednesday. Editor Bodkin, of the Southern California Christian Advocate, will occupy the pulpit next Sunday morning.

Dr. Lindley and wife are visiting with Milton Lindley, on Jefferson street.

Paul Arnold, one of the recent graduates from the university, left for his home in Orange on Tuesday.

Hon. W. B. Christy and son George left for their home in Phoenix, Arizona, on Monday.

Gondie & Mitchell, our butchers, have a young coyote at their shop on Wesley avenue.

A number of young men of this vicinity have left for Santa Paula, where they have been engaged to pick fruit.

The weather has been very warm since Saturday last.

The "small boy," with his "cannon firecracker," is the "terror prevalent," University, July 2d. CELL.

Redondo Beach.

Correspondence of the HERALD.

Many parties are daily locating here for the summer. The line of teams loaded with camping outfits, furniture, etc., resembles the old-time turnpike and stage-line road scene, every one drifting toward the land of comfort, pleasure and health. The Santa Fe and Redondo Beach lines are well patronized. The bathing today was very fine, and many dipped in the surf.

Commodious pavilions are being erected for the free use of all who wish to occupy them to enjoy their lunch.

The wharf was crowded with those who enjoy fishing, and the anglers' luck was excellent, for every one had his share of finny beauties.

Forty thousand roses of the rarest varieties are in bud and bloom at the Redondo Beach Company's green-house and garden. Mr. S. Chevancher, who has charge of the garden, says he never saw flowers of all kinds grow with the same rapidity at any place like this.

Redondo is advancing to the front as rapidly as possible, and will soon surprise all of her neighbors.

Little Willie Andrews is slowly recovering, and his many friends are happy to know it.

The Fourth is bound to be well celebrated, as every one has expressed patriotic opinions and will boom Redondo land with powder and bombs. The fireworks on the wharf in the evening, the procession, foot racing, wheelbarrow race, sack race, potato and fat man's race, all for liberal prizes, attract the attention of all who delight in sport.

Mr. Walker, of the Ocean View, says his house is well filled and thinks well of the future outlook of Redondo.

One hundred and sixty daily and evening Los Angeles and San Francisco papers are subscribed for at this point, which shows the people are bound to read, and not be ignorant of the day's doings. H.

Redondo, July 2d.

Santa Monica.

Correspondence of the HERALD.

H. G. De Garmis is now occupying his cottage on south beach.

Henry Matson arrived today, and organized a hunting expedition.

Miss Clara Healy of Los Angeles, and Miss Lizzie McGinty of the Shen cottage.

John Scheik has secured quarters on north beach, where he will spend the summer.

W. S. Moore and W. S. Lyons spent the day here, rumor has it looking after delegates.

Colonel Jeremiah Flanders, a wealthy orange-grower of Highlands, San Bernardino, is rusticiating at the seaside, the guest of Thomas J. Newby.

J. C. Wallace, the nurseryman of Alhambra, has taken a cottage, corner Second and Arizona streets, and will entertain his friends there the coming summer.

Quite a number of teachers have arrived, among them the Misses Meade, Webb, Baker, Baywright, who will occupy the Monroe cottage for the summer.

H. R. Ruggles of San Francisco, has secured quarters on north beach, where he will erect a suitable tent for his family and friends.

The day was more than fine and quite a number of Angelenos came down to enjoy the day. The number of arrivals who come to spend the summer here increases daily and by the Fourth we will put on our summer airs.

The late arrivals at the Jackson house are: C. C. Stephens, G. S. De Garmo, P. Hill, William A. Burr, Andrew Anderson, A. S. Porter, J. H. Reynolds, G. W. Reynolds, J. W. Larren, Los Angeles; John V. Sumner, Colton; William Gird, wife and maid, D. T. Armstrong, San Bernardino; J. G. McMillan, R. L. Matthews and S. A. Allen, San Francisco. J. C. H.

Santa Monica, July 2d.

A Los Angeles Artist.

Miss Florence Potts exhibits a fine crayon study of a classical subject. It is Hero beckoning Leander to her tower as he swims the Hellespont. The figure is strikingly graceful and beautiful, and the expression of expectancy, mingled with the soft tenderness of impassioned love that lights up the eyes, gives a character to the work that is very creditable to the artist's instinct of the author. The entire work—the central figure, the water lines and the landscape beyond—possesses a merit in its treatment that gives promise of a bright future to this gifted Los Angeles girl.

Mrs. Fulton's Reputation.

A few days ago, in the report of the application for the guardianship of the Besett children, the testimony of Humane Officer Wright was made to say that Mrs. Fulton's reputation was not good. This is not so. Mrs. S. J. Fulton has for many years past had a reputation of being one of the most kindly and charitable ladies of the city, and those who know her are generally the first to apply to her for aid and encouragement. Before she married Mr. Fulton she was the widow of the late Judge T. J. Haggin, of Kentucky, the father of J. B. Haggin, of San Francisco.

Broadway Market Contractors.

In the account which appeared a few days since of the opening of the Broadway market, mention should have been made of the excellent work done by the contractors of the building, Captain A. F. Mackay and J. M. Skinner. Without the assistance of their skill and experience the building could not have been finished in his present perfect style. This firm is also doing the work at the reform school at Whittier. The city contains many monuments of their work.

Cure for Bronchitis.

E. Carey, of Erie, Penn., writes as follows: "I had bronchitis for over two years. My life was miserably wretched by it. It was cough, cough, until at times I thought I would choke to death. I tried every remedy it seems to me outside, more inside. Now and then I would get slight relief, then back again it would come worse than ever. Last winter I started using ALCOCK'S PECTORAL PLASTER and kept them on; I felt better, almost immediately, and have kept one on my chest almost ever since, using it as a chest protector. I cannot say too much for them, for I am cured of that disease."

Reminiscence of the Johnstown Flood. Soon after the great flood in the Conemaugh valley, Penn., last summer, the press dispatches heralded the news of an epidemic of diarrhoea in Johnstown. The following letter from Rev. H. L. Chapman, pastor of the Methodist-Episcopal church, Johnstown, gives the particulars and most successful remedy used:

The box of six dozen Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which you sent at the suggestion of Hon. Wesley Redhead, reached us soon after the great flood and at a time when diarrhoea was quite prevalent. As soon as it became known that I had the medicine for distribution, there began a great run on it, which continued until it was about all gone. Every one, so far as I heard from them, testified to its virtues, declaring it to be the best medicine for the purpose they had ever used. Those who got it shared it around with their neighbors, so that I am confident your generosity in sending it was productive of great good. We used some of it ourselves and found it not only an excellent medicine for diarrhoea, but for all kinds of pains and uneasiness in the stomach and bowels. It has been regarded as the best medicine known here for the diseases it is recommended for. In view of your sending such a large quantity for free distribution among poor people, I think you are entitled to this testimonial in its favor.—H. L. CHAPMAN, pastor Methodist-Episcopal church, Johnstown, Pa.
