Water Matters Discussed at Length. Meeting of the Orphans' Home Society.

The Annual Reports of the Various Officers.

Meeting of the Iroquois Club—Several Other Matters of Considerable Interest.

The general executive committee of the citizens' waterworks movement met at the office of C. M. Wells, at the corner of Temple and New High streets, yesterday afternoon, with Mr. Wells in the chair and the following members of the committee present: Messrs H. Sinsabaugh, J. A. Anderson, Ralph E. Hoyt, C. N. Earl, James Burdette, E. E. Galbreth, J. T. Sheward, C. P. Darland, H. C. Register, A. M. Hamilton, B. E. Breakey, John Vandam, C. de Camp and J. S. Van Doren.

The secretary reported that he had notified all absentees of the last meeting as directed by the committee, and requested written replies, stating whether they wished to be retained on the committee and would give it their attention if they remained members. The secretary stated that he had received written replies from Colonel H. G. Otis and Judge J. A. Anderson, saying they favored the movement and would give it such time as they could spare, and from H. Z. Osborne, C. M. Jones, O. M. Churchill and S. M. Perry, to the effect that while they were heartily in sympathy with the movement, they would have to ask to be relieved from committee duty, as they could not spare the time to do it justice. Besides these, George W. Knox had told him that he was heartily in sympathy with the movement, and would only be too glad to assist by all means within his power.

It was stated that Oscar Macy had also declined to serve on the committee, not having the time to spare, and that no word had been received from John Maskell.

After a great deal of talk, the vacancies on the committee were partially filled by the appointment of M. J. Judah, the secretary, J. S. Oliver, Frank Sabichi and Al. Workman, and after the members had been arranged according to the wards in which they lived, the business was proceeded with, it being agreed that the members of the various wards should present names to fill existing vacancies.

The report of the sub-committee on organization was then read, which provided for the appointment of various sub-committees to carry on the various branches of the investigation, and naming the same, and, after a lengthy debate, was adopted.

The report of the committee on drafting a petition for general circulation among the people was next presented. It set forth the necessity for a change in the existing water system, called on the council to take prompt action for the city acquiring its own works, and protested against any further granting or extension of water franchises.

The report gave rise to another long debate, in which the whole subject matter of the movement was gone over. The opinion was unanimous that something should be done at once, the only question being how best to go about it. Finally, on motion of Dr. Sinsabaugh, it was resolved that the committee at once petition the council, asking that no further water franchises be granted or extended, pending the investigation now in progress.

It was decided to hold a regular meeting of the executive committee every Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and, after the chairman of the various sub-committees had arranged for the meeting of their respective committees, an adjournment was had to the next regular meeting.

FOR THE FATHERLESS.

Annual Meeting of the Orphans' Home Association.

The ladies who have charge of the orphans' home on Alpine and Yale streets held their annual meeting yesterday. There was a full attendance. The meeting was opened by prayer by Mrs. M. A. Gibson. After the reading and adoption of the minutes of the annual meeting of a year ago, the president, Mrs. Wm. Ferguson, called for the reports of the officers.

The treasurer reported that the total receipts from all sources during the year was $13,900, the expenditures $11,055, leaving a balance of $2,845 now in the treasury. The financial secretary and auditing committee also submitted their reports. The committee on administration reported that forty-one children, thirty boys and eleven girls, had been admitted in the course of the year, and that there were 105 now in the home.

Mrs. Ferguson, the president, then read her address, which was listened to with much interest. A nominating committee, consisting of Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Dodsworth and Mrs. Woodhead, was appointed to nominate officers for the ensuing year. They offered a ticket, which was elected by the ballot of the secretary. It was as follows: President, Mrs. Wm. Ferguson; vice-president, Mrs. J. H. Bryant; secretary, Mrs. R. H. Judson; treasurer, Rev. B. F. Coulter; financial secretary, Mrs. R. H. Hewitt; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. B. Woodhead.

Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. Hewitt and Mrs. Woodhead were appointed a nominating committee to offer names for members of the board of managers. The following were nominated and elected: Mrs. A. E. Pomeroy, Mrs. E. Bouton, Mrs. M. S. Baker, Mrs. George Fitch, Mrs. J. S. Chapman, Mrs. T. J. Weldon, Mrs. M. Dodsworth, Mrs. Martha Dodsworth, Mrs. R. M. Parcels, Mrs. J. A. Henderson, Mrs. J. Brousseau, Mrs. Alexander Campbell, Mrs. Hervey Lindley, Mrs. Groll, Mrs. Barnard, Mrs. Teale, and Mrs. Dr. Murphy.

Drs. Lasher and E. R. Smith were chosen physicians for the ensuing year, with Drs. Lindley, Bicknell and Maynard for consultation.

Mrs. Woodhead moved, and the motion prevailed, that the section of the by-laws which provides that if any member is absent from three consecutive meetings it shall be regarded as equivalent to a resignation, be strictly carried out.

On motion the president was instructed to appoint a committee of three to draw up resolutions expressing the regret of the association at the resignation of Mrs. Frank A. Gibson. Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Dodsworth and Mrs. Judson were appointed on the committee. The association then adjourned.

IROQUOIS WIGWAM.

Resolutions Adopted at the Meeting Last Night.

The Iroquois Club held one of the best and most enthusiastic meetings for some time last night. The braves seem to scout the idea that there ever had been a Fourth of July, and buckled down to business in earnest. They were very much in earnest over the prospect of some fun at the coming bulls' head breakfast on Sunday next, at Sycamore grove. The following committees were appointed: Games, J. Kuhrt, D. A. Moriarty, C. F. A. Last, J. E. Frick, Thos. McCarthy, music and dancing, M. J. Nolan, J. Choate, H. J. Patton; time, J. P. Moran, A. M. Hall, W. T. Harris, Jno. Moriarty; refreshments, Henry Stuhr, Joe Maier, A. Lindenfeld, Henry Kearney, D. A. Moriarty.

There were four initiations and eleven propositions for membership.

The following resolution was introduced by M. F. Styles and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, By the Iroquois of Los Angeles: That we regard the federal election bill, now pending in the congress of the United States, with apprehension and alarm, and recognize in it the insidious spirit of the Republican party and the hand of the usurper. It is a menace to our liberty, a blow at the autonomy of the states, and a declaration, after more than a century of successful experiment, that we, the people, are not to be trusted longer with local self-government. Under the guise of a law to protect the citizen in the exercise of his elective franchise, it is a scheme of a political party never known to halt at corrupt practices to capture the machinery of federal elections for the perpetuation of partisan power.

Resolved, That it is the duty of Democrats and all true patriots, pledged no less to the integrity of the states than to the supremacy of the nation, to vindicate its birth in resistance to usurpation, to oppose by all necessary means every encroachment of congress upon the right of the people of the states to manage their own affairs, or to extend the authority of the federal government beyond the strict grants of the constitution.

COURT NOTES.

Minor Matters Before the Bench Yesterday.

Judge Clark, in department 2 of the superior court, yesterday granted the petition of John R. and Katie M. Mollet for the adoption of Marshall Woolley, an inmate of the orphans' home.

Charles Julius Rohde, a German, and Harry E. Bridges, a Canadian, were yesterday admitted to the rights of citizenship by Judge McKinley.

In department 6 of the superior court, yesterday, a new information was filed against J. F. Bedwell, charging him with having obtained property by means of false pretenses, and Thursday morning next was set as the time for his arraignment. The case against José Yorba was set for trial on September 1st next, and that of Wm. Hood for the 23d inst. In the same court Judge McKinley granted the application of Mrs. Ignacia Burraol de Puentes for a divorce from her husband, Yldefonso C. Fuentes, on the ground of failure to provide.

In Justice Austin's court yesterday afternoon Clayton White, an attorney, appeared for preliminary examination upon the charge of having on June 22d last assaulted his divorced wife with intent to commit murder. A number of witnesses were examined, and testified in effect to the same account of the affair as was published in the HERALD at the time of the occurrence. On adjourning at 5 o'clock it was ordered, on motion of the district attorney, that at 9 o'clock this morning Justice Austin, Deputy District Attorney Phibbs, the defendant and his counsel proceed to Mrs. White's residence for the purpose of taking her testimony, she being unable to leave her bed, and upon their return the case will be resumed.

Harry Stewart, a brakeman, until recently in the employ of the Redondo Beach Railway Company, was taken to the city jail at 7 o'clock last evening by Constable Foyer, of that place, on a warrant charging him with battery. He is alleged to have whipped a telegraph operator. On depositing $200 bail for his appearance in Justice Lockwood's court he was released from custody.

Main and Spring Streets to be Torn Up. EDITORS HERALD.—The enclosed report appeared in last night's edition of the official organ of the city fathers of this city:

The following additional recommendation of the board of public works was adopted:

That the city attorney be instructed to present an ordinance of intention to construct gutters of granite blocks on the following named streets:

Both sides of Main street, from the north curb line of Ninth street to the south curb line of First street.

Both sides of Spring street, from the south curb line of Temple street to the north curb line of Ninth street.

Both sides of Second street, from the west curb line of Main street to east curb line of Broadway.

Both sides of Third street, from the west curb line of Main street to the east curb line of Hill street.

Said gutters to be three feet wide, set on sand on concrete base, with interstices filled with melted asphalt, and said ordinance to except such portions of the street as are already guttered with granite blocks.

As both Main and Spring streets are well paved and guttered with bituminous pavement material between the points named, where is the sense or justice in burdening the property-owners, already overtaxed, and with low rents accruing, with the cost of four or five miles of new granite gutters, no better when done than the present ones? Who is working up this job?

Is it on commission, and how much? (See recent admission of Councilman Shafer that this is the way these unnecessary jobs are put up.)

MAIN-STREET PROPERTY-HOLDERS.

Using Them for Everything. Peter Magarus, 251 Johnson avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "During the last eighteen years I have been using over fifty ALLCOCK'S PLASTERS a year in my family. I have found them a most perfect external remedy. They have repeatedly cured me of rheumatism, to which I am now subject every winter. They have cured me of pains in the sides and back three times. My wife, children and mother-in-law tell me ALLCOCK'S PLASTERS are the best remedy ever made, so agreeable, so certain. I know they have cured my wife of pains in the back and a severe cough. My mother-in-law has been cured of a most severe cold, which threatened to turn into pneumonia, by ALLCOCK'S PLASTERS."

A DAY'S DOINGS.

The League Still Meeting at Long Beach.

Lecture on Strong Prohibition Topics.

A Gold Watch Case in the Criminal Court.

How It Disappeared and Was Found Again—The Catana Case—Tammany Club Meeting.

The services at the Long Beach tabernacle began as usual yesterday with the devotional hour, under the charge of Rev. J. H. Weber. Mrs. Hilbish took charge of the children's hour. The school of the English Bible occupied the time between the children's hour and the arrival of the morning train. The 11-o'clock meeting opened with prayer and singing, followed by the lecture, "Give Up That Dog," by Col. L. F. Copeland, of Harrisburg, Pa.

The colonel, as he expressed himself, had been a lawyer before he reformed and became a lecturer, and his view of the situation was essentially a legal one. He arraigned the liquor business as causing seven-tenths of the crime and four-fifths of the taxation of the country, and brought in an indictment against the dealer, the drinker and all those who favored or allowed by their vote or non-exertion of influence, the continued existence of the business in the country. He declared his belief in the prospective triumph of the temperance sentiment of the United States and drew an encouraging parallel between the present time when intoxication is considered a disgrace and the past, when even the ministers used to "set 'em up."

The evening session included music by Mrs. L. H. Stagg and a class of pupils from the university, and an excellent lecture by Rev. J. H. Weber, on "The Continent of Europe."

The two events of today will be Col. Copeland's lecture in the morning and an illustrated lecture on "Egypt," by Rev. A. S. Dobbs, D. D., of New York in the evening.

Notes.

The two young ladies burned in the gasoline explosion on Monday were feeling as comfortable as possible under the circumstances yesterday. Miss Gray's father, who is a physician at Pasadena, was down on Monday evening and looked after her injuries. He remains at the beach for the time. Miss Dugger, the other young lady has a pair of badly burned hands.

Mr. Holgate, Mrs. Holgate and Master Arthur Holgate, of East Los Angeles, took up their residence at the beach yesterday.

A. Phillips, the excursion manager, visited Long Beach yesterday.

Rev. F. B. Cherrington returned to the city on the afternoon train yesterday.

Rev. and Mrs. P. F. Breese, of Pasadena, are staying at the camp grounds for a short time. Mr. S. A. Widney, of this city, took the doctor's place in the Pasadena pulpit on Sunday.

Rev. Will Shepard, of Santa Barbara, is a guest at the camp ground.

Henry Wilson, the proprietor of the Los Angeles fireworks factory, is taking a short outing at the beach.

Mr. Charles Tupper, editor of the Prohibitionist, of San Francisco, is still at the grounds.

The editor of the Orange Post spent the day at Long Beach yesterday.

A GOLD WATCH.

The Trouble It is Causing Thomas Waite.

Judge McKinley and a jury were occupied in department 6 the whole of yesterday afternoon in the trial of Thomas Waite, who is charged with grand larceny. The complainant, Thomas Gordon, an oil-well driller, residing at No. 404 Beaudry avenue, testified that he had known the defendant for the last ten years or more. On or about November 1, 1889, the defendant was employed by him at Wiley cañon, some four miles from Newhall, for a few days, while boring an oil well. The witness at that time had a gold hunting-case watch, which he purchased from Nordlinger, the Main-street jeweler, for $90, in 1884. While they were at work a wind storm came up, and his watch, which had been in his hob pocket, was lost in some inexplicable manner. Gordon told the defendant of his loss, and work was suspended for three or four hours in order to look for the missing watch, but although every plank of the twenty-foot square boarding around the derrick was turned over, the watch was not found. The defendant did not appear to take any interest in the search at the time, but no suspicion rested upon him.

Soon afterwards Gordon left the place and Waite remained at work upon the well. On his return to town Gordon told Nordlinger's clerk of the loss of his watch and thought no more of the matter. As he passed by the store on the morning of April 7th last, however, the clerk called him in and told him that he had seen the missing watch in the possession of a man who answered Waite's description, and he at once started out in pursuit of him.

About 3:40 o'clock he saw Waite on Second street, and at once called upon square Farmer to accompany him while he demanded the watch. Waite, however, denied all knowledge of the watch, and as there seemed to be a likelihood of a scene on the street, the officer requested both men to accompany him to the station.

Gordon did not know the number of his watch and had not seen it since he lost it, but said he "could swear on a stack of bibles it was his" when one was shown to him, and added that he "would know the feel of it in the dark."

Jacob Abramson, the next witness, was a watchmaker and salesman at Nordlinger's jewelry store on Main street. He readily identified the watch, and producing a small magnifying glass, such as is used by jewelers, he offered it to the jury and showed on the case some tiny engraving, which was found to read, "Sept. 3, 1884." Referring to his sales book, the witness showed the court an entry on that date of the sale of the watch to Gordon, and the number of the case, "171,452," corresponded with that in the book. He then stated that Waite brought it to the store on Monday morning, April 7th, and had a crystal put in, and that he questioned Waite as to how he came by it. Waite replied that he had traded a colt for it at Newhall.

C. D. Platt, the jeweler, was then called and examined as an expert upon the value of the watch, which he estimated at $40.

The case will be resumed this morning, and will in all probability be brought to a close this afternoon.

JOSE CATANA.

The Charge That Brings Him From San Francisco.

A telegram was received yesterday from San Francisco stating that José Catana had been arrested there on a warrant charging him with obtaining money by false pretenses. It appears that Catana was the captain of a pearl-fishing vessel owned by a man named Miramon, son of a Mexican general of that name. The vessel came up to San Pedro from Lower California, and laid in port for some time. It is alleged that while at San Pedro Catana incurred an indebtedness of about $800, both in San Pedro and Los Angeles, and that those whom he owed threatened to libel the vessel. Then Miramon came here, and Catana went to San Francisco. The Mexican consul swore out the complaint on which Catana was arrested in Justice Savage's court, and Miramon went back to Mexico.

Tammany Club.

The regular meeting of Tammany Club was held last evening at its hall in the Jones block, with a full attendance of members. A number of speeches were made during the meeting, but none were more favorably received than those of Mr. R. Bilderrain and Mr. John T. Gaffey. The meeting of these gentlemen on the same platform and before the same club, of which neither is a member, fully repudiates the assertions that have been made that said gentlemen are antagonistic to one another. The social meeting which followed the regular business session continued till late in the evening.

New Cases.

Among the documents filed with the county clerk yesterday were the following new complaints:

David B. Alexander vs. William Chick et al.; suit to obtain possession and restitution of part of the N. 1/2 of lot 5, block 13, O. S., corner of Spring and Fifth streets, alleged to have been forcibly entered upon by defendants on July 8, 1887; and that the claims of defendants to a certain right of way thereto be determined, and that they be enjoined from interfering with plaintiff's right of way.

Baker Iron Works vs. J. S. Van Doren et al.; suit to obtain judgment for $512.20, alleged to be due on two promissory notes, with interest on $115.20 at 10 per cent. per annum from March 20, 1889, and upon $400 at 10 per cent. from January 12, 1890.

Scrofula Sores. "My adopted boy, aged 14 years, suffered terribly from scrofula sores on his leg, which spread till they at one time formed one great sore from the calf of his leg up to his thigh, partially covered with scab, and discharging matter continually. The muscles became contracted so that his leg was drawn up and he could hardly walk. We tried everything we could hear of, without success, until we began giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla. In just a month, after he had taken two-thirds of a bottle, the sores entirely healed, his leg is perfectly straight, and he
