THE BASTILE.

Its Fall Celebrated at the Pavilion Last Evening.

La Belle France filled Mayor Hazard's pavilion with youth, beauty, gallantry and talent last evening to celebrate La Fete Nationale, the 14th of July.

President Le Mesnager made the opening address in such a patriotic vein as to draw forth almost continual applause.

Madame Marchetti sang again, and was followed by Monsieur Jean Dupuy, a grizzled hero of several campaigns, who solemnly sang La Marseillaise.

Doctor Le Baron replied on the part of his nationality to Colonel Williams' speech, in an address full of good feeling, closing with, "Vive la France and vive les Etats Unis."

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Several Donations to the Permanent Exhibit.

The chamber of commerce exhibit room is a bower of semi-tropic beauty at present, as well as a practical exponent of semi-tropic resources.

were as follows: Fred C. Bean, Antelope valley, alfalfa; George Cole, Whittier, apples, pecans, apricots, walnuts; C. F. Haines, apricots; Mrs. E. Hurlbut, acacia tree; T. A. Gardner, University place; one case apricots that takes the lead; Mrs. J. E. Boyce, Santa Monica, potted plants; H. S. Bennett, green corn; N. Hayden, Vernon, plums, apricots, apples, figs, peaches and walnuts; E. L. Heuck, Vernondale, blackberries; C. W. Hicks, orange tree; Mrs. M. Hayes, Vernon, apricots.

Mr. Hayden has engaged a table and intends keeping it filled with products from his ranch. Flowers donated—Mrs. M. W. Oliver, Mrs. C. A. Holden, Miss M. Creery, Miss Greebe, Miss N. Hutchinson, Mrs. L. O'Brien, Mrs. M. B. Smith, Mrs. John Bryson, Sr., Master Jesse Bryson, Mrs. Wm. Bryson, Mrs. Lethin, Mrs. Dr. Mitchell, Mrs. Lansing, Mrs. C. N. Richardson.

The Ladies' Annex. That body full of local patriotism, the ladies' annex to the chamber of commerce, met yesterday. Mrs. Dr. Wilder occupied the chair and Mrs. McDonell performed the duties of secretary.

The publishers of the Sunday World offered to publish all matter relating to the annex which the ladies might furnish. The offer was accepted.

As a result of considerable discussion a resolution was adopted stating that it was the sense of the annex that its members should give articles of home manufacture the preference over those imported.

A firm which deals in such articles presented each lady with a bottle of flavoring extract and of liquid blueing, which gifts were most highly appreciated.

A letter was received from Mr. Hervey Lindley and Major E. W. Jones, owners of the Broadway market house, thanking the ladies for their services at the festivities at the opening of the market.

The following were elected members: Mrs. L. C. Meyers, Mrs. R. T. Templeton, Mrs. F. R. Warner, Miss Louisa H., Kramer, Mrs. D. D. Johnston, Miss Florence Varial, Mrs. E. H. Alexander, Mrs. J. B. Leveridge, Mrs. Annie S. Milligan, Mrs. E. H. Hutchinson.

The following resolutions were offered by Mrs. Dr. Mitchell and Mrs. W. D. Bryson, of the committee on resolutions, and was adopted:

Resolved, That whereas, Major H. W. Patton has, by his capable, amiable and gentlemanly conduct in his official relations with the annex, so far won its esteem and regard that the ladies comprising the same most sincerely regret his resignation from the chamber of commerce as secretary;

Resolved, also, That the ladies return to him their grateful thanks and hearty appreciation of favors bestowed, and extend to him their best wishes for his future success in life.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to Mr. Patton.

FIFTH-STREET DEMOCRATS.

Candidates for Election to the County Convention. An enthusiastic meeting of the Democrats of and in the neighborhood of Fifth street took place last night, at the residence of Mr. P. M. Scott, at which a club was organized by the signing of over fifty names to the membership roll.

The meeting was called to order by A. A. Frew, who nominated Mr. P. M. Scott for chairman, who was unanimously elected. J. H. McElheney was chosen secretary. Considerable enthusiasm was manifested, and the prospects for a Democratic victory in the Seventh ward were considered very flattering.

HE WHISTLED M'GINTY.

Prominent Political Possibilities Off for the North. "We Southern Pacific fellows are not in politics any more," said the handsome young ticket agent in that company's office to a HERALD man yesterday, "so I can't tell what is going on, but there is an exodus to the north of notables just now. I was called up a bit ago by the 'phone, and Governor Waterman engaged a sleeping-car section for tonight's train. In a few moments the bell rang me up again, and what sounded like the same voice said, 'Say, I want a section on tomorrow's noon train for San Francisco.' All right, governor, I thought you wanted to go north tonight," I answered.

Young man, I'm not governor yet, came back to me. "Why, ain't you Governor Waterman?" I queried. "Not exactly," was the reply. "My name is Markham. H. H. Markham, and I want a section in the Pullman on tomorrow's train." Then I told him Waterman was going up tonight. "What did he say to that?" "Nothing. He began to whistle M'Ginty, though, as he left the 'phone."

Chinese on the Way.

United States Marshal Gard yesterday received a telegram from Ensenada stating that yesterday morning the steamer Newburn landed sixty-five Chinamen at that port, having brought them from Guaymas. They are understood to be on their way into the United States via Tia Juana, but in view of the precautions taken by Major Gard it is not probable that they will get very far on this side of the line before they find themselves in the hands of United States officers.

Pullman Passengers.

Passengers for San Francisco and northern points over the Southern Pacific yesterday were: Arthur Rodgers, Miss George, Mr. Howe, E. A. Ray, Mr. Ellis, Mrs. J. M. Johnson, Governor R. W. Waterman, Mrs. Fitzmaur, P. J. Deacon, Mrs. Hatfield, L. Myers, S. Ferrier, Mrs. Simpson, E. C. Smith, J. S. Kinnan.
