The sloop Esperanza is now flying the champion flag at her mast-head, and is ready to race any boat of her length on the Pacific coast. C. Cookson, her builder, wants to contract for one to beat her.

The sloop Tempora, which was captured during the races on Sunday, has not been found as yet.

The school trustees met last week and elected Mrs. Hattie Williams principal of the San Pedro schools, and J. D. Connor, May King and Mary Haislep as assistants. The fall term of school commences September 1st.

The fire company was called out yesterday to extinguish a fire on the Southern Pacific Company's wharf. It is supposed someone carelessly dropped a lighted cigar stub between the cross-timbers, and had it not been for the help received from the steamer Yaquina's fire brigade and steam pump, San Pedro would probably have been one wharf short today.

Severe fires were raging back of town last week, and Mrs. N. Narbone had some 3,600 acres of grain burned up. P. Rice lost 100 tons of hay. This is the third time in six months that Pablo has been visited by fire. He will insure everything now.

The watermelons in the city plaza are nearly ripe, and parties have been organized for a grand raid on the camping grounds, provided the city officials can be caught napping some fine evening.

All the cottages on the bluff and beach are occupied for the summer. The boating here in fine the bathing, fishing, and the fishing the finest to be had in Southern California.

San Pedro, July 15th.

Santa Monica. Correspondence of the HERALD.

Dad Feathers, an old-time Southern Pacific engineer, paid the beach a visit today.

Mrs. A. J. Beecher of Los Angeles is occupying her summer home on south beach.

Mrs. Dr. J. F. Burton of Indianapolis is stopping with Mrs. Fanny Scott on south beach.

A. E. McCarter, N. N. Cobb and J. C. Neilson spent Sunday here, the guests of friends on the beach.

Judge Richard Dunningham and family have rented a cottage on the beach, where they will spend the summer.

William A. Nash, of the San Bernardino Times-Index, is spending a few days at the beach, the guest of Miss Smith on north beach.

Our station agent, D. H. Smith, has rented the Abbott cottage on Third street, where his mother, Mrs. W. C. Smith, and brother, E. C. Smith, will spend the summer months.

Miss Georgie Bell, the daughter of Major Horace Bell, accompanied by her sisters Miss Daisy and Lillie and Master Walter and Conny Bell are spending a week on north beach. The major and his estimable wife will shortly join them.

W. H. Perry and family have rented the Hancock cottage on the bluff, where they will entertain their friends during the summer months. Mr. and Mrs. Modini-Wood and Miss Mary Brown, the niece of Dr. Salsbury of Los Angeles are visiting them.

Mrs. J. Powell Rice spoke of teaching singing, and explained the use of color in representing tones, and then drilled the class in sight singing by holding before them colors representing three vowels. Miss Platt gave an exercise in clay modeling.

Prof. Monroe lectured on reading and numbers, elucidating many interesting points, and proved beyond a doubt that it was the place of the teacher to get the pupil to think. Mrs. Plummer followed in a short exercise on the elementary vowel sounds and the proper methods of teaching the same.

Redondo Beach. Correspondence of the HERALD.

The several thousand who came by both lines of railroad, say nothing of those belonging here, enjoyed themselves in many ways today. The fishing never could have been finer. B. O. McCord floated his house today to the point, making the change of venue for the advantage of being nearer crawling and fishing for larger fish. The point is well worth visiting. The sand snipe, which are so delicious when cooked, are drifting southward, and many parties are out upon the hunt for them.

Mr. Gasaton, formerly from San Diego, Coronado hotel and from the Stewart hotel, San Bernardino, and Arcadia hotel, Santa Monica, was visiting us yesterday.

The campers at Redondo Beach are: C. L. Chadwick, S. B. Harton, Mr. and Mrs. Coleson, Mr. and Mrs. Kayser, Dr. L. C. Maynard, Mr. Sheldon, Mr. Sommers, wife and child, J. F. Lero and family, Mr. Burlingham, A. M. Fraser, Mrs. Peter Backman, Dr. A. M. Bussey and wife, Mrs. Carr, C. M. Wise, D. M. True, J. H. Bolay, Mr. Butter and family, H. W. Cowless and wife, W. R. McGrath and several friends, B. Byron and family, J. S. Murphy and family, Miles and Maxey, O. J. Fast and family.

Weston, Los Angeles; Miss Mary Williams, San Francisco; James Scapler, Los Angeles; Mrs. Mary Williams, Los Angeles; Mrs. J. D. Stewart and two children, Los Angeles; Mrs. S. A. Trees have been planted around the house and commence to grow nicely, making things look like home. H. Redondo, July 15th.

A Traveling Man Saves a Woman's Life. A traveling man, stopping at the Lee house, Campbellburg, Ind., on learning that a lady in the village was suffering terribly with cramp colic, gave the landlady a bottle of medicine which he had with him and requested her to take it to the sick woman. The medicine relieved her promptly, and she believed saved her life; it was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, the promptest and most reliable medicine in use for bowels, colic, and all ailments. WOMEN AND MICE. The reason why a woman is afraid of a mouse is a profound mystery—indeed, it has never been very clearly proven that she is. But some women are constantly in such a nervous, irritable condition that the slightest thing annoys and startles them. The cause of this unfortunate state of affairs is usually some functional derangement; some distressing or painful irregularity, some derangement or peculiar weakness incident to her sex; or it may be due to inflammation, irritation or displacement of some of the pelvic viscera, or to other organic lesions peculiar to her sex. From whichever cause it may arise, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive remedy, so certain in its curative results that its manufacturers sell it, through druggists, under a guarantee of its giving satisfaction in every case, or money paid for it will be promptly refunded. As a soothing and strengthening nerve, "Favorite Prescription" is unequalled and is invaluable in relieving and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other derangements, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.
