

POLICEMAN DORSEY

To Be Defended by the City Attorney

In His Case With Johnnie Abbott.

The Police Commission Settles Some License Matters.

Considerable Discussion Over Saloon Matters—The Various Actions Taken.

The board of police commissioners met yesterday afternoon.

The chief reported favorably upon the matter of the application of John Frierlinger for a transfer of the license for No. 1100 North Main street, now in the name of Paul Metzger; but Mr. Dexter presented a protest signed by G. T. Hanly et al. against the granting of the same, on the ground that it was a menace to society, a hindrance to church work, a filth mill to morality and an outrage to decency.

Mayor Hazard said that he looked at the matter in a different light. If the board wished to exercise its authority and confiscate a man's property, as would be done in this case should the license be revoked, it should have more grounds on which to do it than was the case in this instance.

In the matter of the application of M. Eyrard for a permit to obtain a license for a new saloon at No. 812 Macey street, the same was denied unananimously.

The petition of A. J. Krueger for a transfer of a license for No. 2135 East First street from H. W. Gerke was granted.

The matter of the petition of C. H. Carlisle et al., demanding the revocation of the license granted to Henry Cramer, at No. 1974 East First street, on June 18th last, which had been shelved for several weeks, was then brought up for action.

Mr. Lewis opened the ball by saying that the board represented the people, and when a petition came before it signed by reputable citizens, the board ought not to ignore it, but should do all in its power to relieve the petitioners.

Mr. Dexter said that it seemed to him that a whole neighborhood should not be made to suffer because one man had been granted a license through a mistake. He then presented a letter addressed to himself by Officer Wallin, in which it was shown that Cramer had not completed the work of fitting up his saloon when he was notified that a protest had been filed against him by his neighbors.

Mr. Collins said that he had passed the place every day, but not one of the protestants had spoken to him about the matter until two weeks after the protest had been filed. He then informed them that he had been willing to pay Cramer the amount he had expended on fixtures he would vote against them.

Mr. Collins moved that the petition of C. H. Carlisle et al. be received and filed, whereupon Mr. Lewis moved to lay Mr. Collins's motion upon the table. This having been voted down, the roll was called on the previous motion, which was carried by 3 votes to 2, Messrs. Dexter and Lewis voting negatively.

Mr. Dexter then presented a communication addressed to himself by W. R. Norton, calling attention to the shooting of rabbit hunters within the city limits, and stating that his wife and family were frequently compelled through the proximity of space to retreat into the house for fear of stray bullets. At the suggestion of Mayor Hazard the matter was referred to the council without recommendation.

Mr. Collins said that he would like to have an expression of the board on the matter of the case of Officer Dorsey, who had recently been held to answer to the charge of assault with a deadly weapon by Justice Savage. He thought that as the offense charged had been committed by the officer with his "billy," a weapon of defense put in his hands by the city government, and which he had used in the exercise of his official duties, it was proper for the city to defend him.

He therefore moved that the city attorney be requested to instruct the city attorney to take charge of Dorsey's case and defend him, which motion met with the unanimous approval of the board.

There being no further business to dispose of, the board adjourned until Wednesday next.

AUSTIN'S WORK.

What He Did With Certain Offenders.

Charles Garner, the railroad brakeman charged with having seduced Mary S. Carter, a seventeen-year-old girl from San Bernardino, on June 10th last, was yesterday morning held to answer by Judge Austin in the sum of $1,500.

W. Jones was fined by Justice Austin in the sum of $10 yesterday afternoon in the police court for disturbing the peace of the residents in the vicinity of Alpine and New High streets. Jones, hearing that someone had insulted his wife on Tuesday night, was consumed with a desire to avenge the insult, and rushing from his house met a colored man named D. Sands, on whom he at once made an onslaught. Sands defended himself until Officer Stewart arrived and arrested both men for fighting, and after spending the night in jail was discharged by the court when the facts were made known.

In the police court, yesterday afternoon, George Reddin appeared before Justice Austin for trial upon the charge of disturbing the peace, and was fined in the sum of $5. The complainant, a colored cook named Ada Douglas, alleged that the defendant went to her house on Alameda street and abused her because she would not give him some money. The defendant, on the other hand, claimed that he had given the woman $5 after she had promised to allow him to have intercourse with her, but as she subsequently refused to keep her promise he had demanded the return of his money, which she also refused.

Since United States Marshal George E. Gard took charge of his office he has had shipped back to the Flowery Kingdom 61 Chinamen who had unlawfully entered the United States. He has now confined in the San Diego county jail 18 more, and in the county jail of this county an additional 7, who in a few days be forwarded to the land of their nativity.

SYNDICATE BREWERIES.

Details of the Organization—List of the Officers.

Mr. Jacob Adloff, the general agent of the Fredericksburg Brewing Company in this city, has furnished the HERALD with the following details of the consolidation of the several brewing companies in San Francisco, under the title of the San Francisco Brewery Companies (Limited).

The arrangements for the transaction of business by the San Francisco Brewery Companies (Limited), the syndicate organization that has now control of all the local breweries, excepting the National, Enterprise and Bavaria, that manufacture steam beer, have been completed. The office of the association is on the southwest corner of Market and Fremont streets, in the Lachman building.

As the breweries are turned over one or more of the old proprietors will remain in charge; for instance in the Wieland, J. H. Wieland remains; in the United States, P. Rohrbacher; in the Fredericksburg, E. A. Denicke, H. Ohland in the Chicago, and so on through the whole list. All the old employees will be kept on as before.

The payment for the property was made two-thirds in cash and one-third in bonds, and one-third of the entire investment is made by citizens of this state; of the remaining two-thirds, five-eighths were taken by Brindley Hone, director of the Royal Bank of Ireland, and by the Ulster Bank (Limited), Dublin and Belfast. The workmen now employed in the different breweries of the company are all union workmen and none others will be employed.

The large amount of money now invested will enable the company to enter into larger industrial undertakings, such as glass works, cork manufacturing, malting for exportation, etc. Altogether it will, no doubt, prove a very profitable change for the state. The price of beer will not be raised, but rather lowered, so as to drive all imported beer out of the market.

The officers of the company are: Board of managers—William Alvord, president of the Bank of California, Samuel G. Murphy, president of the First National Bank, Ernest C. Denicke, of the Fredericksburg Brewery, John H. Wieland, of the John Wieland Brewing Company, and H. Dutard. Officers—Ernest A. Denicke, manager; A. F. Schultz, secretary; J. H. Kretschmar, cashier; Charles Egbert, head accountant; solicitors—Messrs. Schlesinger, Charles Hoellig, Francis and Koehnke. Names of breweries in the company—Wieland's, Fredericksburg, United States, Chicago, Willows, South San Francisco, Pacific, Oakland, Brooklyn and Holburg.

LECTURES.

Among the prominent lectures to be delivered are the following:

"The Four Napoleons," illustrated by Mr. C. E. Bolton. "The Sham Family," a novelty of wit and satire—fifty heads under one bonnet—that makes sport of sham in all the walks of life. "Reunited Germany and Heretic Louise," by C. Bolton, a lecture of the highest order, and represented on large canvas, in illustrations. Mr. Bolton will deliver other lectures upon "Russia and Romanoffs" and "Land of the Midnight Sun."

"The Blind Man Eloquent," or Dr. W. H. Milburn, the blind chaplain of the house of representatives, will deliver five of his world-famous lectures: "What a Blind Man Saw in England," "What a Blind Man Saw in Washington Forty Years Ago," and "What He Sees There Now," "The Mouth of Gold," "What a Blind Man Saw in Paris." Mr. Milburn will also preach one or two sermons during the session of the assembly.

"Military Genius" is the title of a lecture by Gen. L. A. Sheldon, to be given August 12. John De Witt Miller—the very name of this popular lecturer is enough to provoke a smile, as he stands side by side with the other De Witt (Talmage) in versatility, humor and pathos—he lectures on the "Uses of Ugliness," August 2; "Love, Courtship and Marriage," August 4; "The Stranger at Our Gates," August 5, and "Disgraced Men I Have Met," on August 6; closing with "Some Contemplative Characteristics," on August 8.

"The Life and Times of Thomas Jefferson," is the subject of an able lecture by Stephen Bowers, Ph. D. Col. Homer B. Sprague, Ph. D., the soldier, scholar and literatus, speaks on "John Milton," "Riches and Shakespeare."

In addition to these popular lectures, Dr. W. H. Pendleton gives three lectures on Scriptural study and interpretation; Rev. Dr. A. J. Frost, three lectures on the Book of Hebrews; Dr. David Reed, likewise three lectures on Biblical Themes; Rev. Dr. H. M. DuBois conducts a course of lessons on the "Symbolism of the Bible."

Prof. Henry Ludlam directs a School of Oratory and Elocution, one department of which is designed especially for the study of sacred oratory or pulpit elocution.
