

A Sermon in Rhyme.
If you have a friend worth loving,
Love him, yes, and let him know
That you love him, ere life's evening
Tinge his brow with sunset glow.
Why should good words not be said
Of a friend—fill he is dead?

If you hear a song that thrills you,
Sing by any child of song,
Praise it. Do not let the singer
Wait deserving praises long.
Why should one who thrills your heart
Lack the joy you may impart?

If you hear a prayer that moves you,
By its humble, pleading tone,
Join it. Do not let the seeker
Bow before his God alone.
Why should not your brother share
The strength of "two or three in prayer"?

If you see the hot tears falling
From a brother's weeping eyes,
Share them. And by kindly sharing,
Own your kinship with the skies.
Why should anyone be glad
When a brother's heart is sad?

If a silvery laugh goes rippling
Through the air, let him know
Share it. 'Tis the wise man's saying—
For both grief and joy a place.
There's health and goodness in the mirth
In which an honest laugh has birth.

If your work is made more easy
By a friendly, helping hand,
Say so. Speak out brave and truly,
Ere the darkness veils the land.
Should a brother workman cheer
Falter for a word of cheer?

Scatter thus your seeds of kindness,
All enriching as you go—
Leave them. Trust the Harvest Giver:
He will make each seed to grow.
So, until his happy end,
Your life shall never lack a friend.

References Required.
Mr. Hightone—"My dear, you must send that new girl away at once. She is not fit to have around."
Mrs. Hightone—"I will just as quick as I can write her a reference."
"Reference? Do you mean to say you intend to give a creature like that a reference?"
"Of course. How can I help it? If I don't she'll tell everybody about the condition you came home in the other night, and the way I talked to you."—[Good News.]

A Life-Long Practice.
Young M. Softy (the conversation had been upon the subject of insomnia)—
"It is easy enough to go to sleep if you get about it right. I have, an infallible recipe for it."
Miss Slygirl—"What is that, Mr. Softy?"
Mr. Softy—"When I want—aw—to woe Nature's sweet restorer, I—aw—banish everything like an idea from my mind, doncher see?"
Miss Slygirl—"You've been practicing it all your life, haven't you?"—[Texas Sitings.]

During a Motherly Call.
Mrs. Beebody—"You look pensive, my dear."
Her Recently Married Daughter—"I've had an awful fit with Tom."
"Mrs. Beebody—"Didn't I caution you to avoid the first unkind word?"
Her Daughter—"I tried to, but he declares that I broke the rule."—[Judge.]

A Sign of Luck.
Julius Smiff (recovering from the collision)—
"Wut's de number ob dat hack?"
A Sympathizer—"I suppose you want to prosecute the driver, don't you?"
Julius Smiff—"No, I want ter play policy. Dat hack done killed my wife, ain't it?"—[Texas Sitings.]

He Consented.
Uncle Dick—"What is he, my dear? As your guardian, I really think I ought to know before I consent to an engagement."
Ethel (timidly)—
"He is the son of a great man, sir, and—"
"Uncle Dick—"Marry him by all means, my dear, that is an admirable profession."—[Bostonian.]

A Precaution.
He—"You don't object to my being with you so much, do you?"
She (delightedly)—
"Of course not."
He—"You see father has made me promise that I won't become engaged until I graduate, and I've got to keep away from other girls as a precaution."
—[Bostonian.]

The youngest of those who served in the union army must today be about 47 years of age. Only one-eighth of those living at any time exceed that age, so that of the 7,000,000 male adults who were living when the war closed, not more than 900,000 are living now, and over a third of these are southerners. A voting population of 12,000,000 will not long consent to pay more than half the entire revenue of the government to a twentieth of their number. Further appropriations for pensions cannot be asked without imperiling the continuance of all grants for that object.

Scrofula
In Its Worst Form—"White Swelling" Cured.

The remarkable effect of Hood's Sarsaparilla in the following case illustrates the power of this medicine over all blood diseases:
"My son, 7 years old, had a white swelling come on his right leg below the knee, which contracted the muscles so that his leg was drawn up at right angles. Physicians lanced the swelling, which discharged freely, but did not help him materially. I considered him
I was about to take him to Cincinnati for an operation, expecting his leg would have to be taken off, and began giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla in order to get up his strength. The medicine worked up his appetite, and soon pieces of bone were discharged from the sore. We continued with Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it seemed to be doing him so much good, and the discharge from the sore decreased, the swelling went down, the leg straightened out, and in a few days he had perfect use of his leg. He is now apparently as well as ever." JOHN L. MCMURRAY, Notary Public, Ravenswood, W. Va.

Mr. Chase's Opinion.
Mr. F. N. Chase, director of the Iowa State Board of Agriculture, says: "While out at the State fair grounds on the 6th inst., Mr. Rounds, of Cedar Falls, was taken with a sudden and violent attack of cholera morbus. I procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for him, after his taking the first dose, he felt relieved of the pain and in a short time he was well and remained to see the fair. From what I have seen of the effect of this medicine, I regard it as being one of great merit and an Iowa product which people of the west have great need of during the summer months." For sale by C. F. Heinzemann, 222 N. Main St., John A. Off, corner 4th and Spring St. and all leading druggists.

Popular Books.
Of the old books, Dumas's "Monte Cristo," "The Three Guardsmen," and "The Mysteries of Paris" have a hold on my customers. I sell a copy of Victor Hugo's "Les Miserables" every ten days regularly. Occasionally I have an order for some one of Gunter's books, "Barnes of New York" being in the lead. I had a box of Stevenson's "Jekyll and Hyde" which had just over after the rage for Stevenson's books. I got this box out the other day and put the books in front of the house, but people look at them and laugh at me. Poor Hugh Conway's books seem to have dropped out of recollection. What a run they had! And there was John Habberton! When his "Helen's Babies" came out people came out and stood in a line in this store to buy them. I don't believe I could give one of them away now.—[Chicago Tribune.]

Dysentery, Diarrhoea and Bloody Flux.
No one need fear any serious consequences from these diseases if Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is used promptly as directed. It can always be depended upon and when combined with water is pleasant to take. It has been in use for over eighteen years and has proved itself to be a certain cure for these diseases, even when in their worst forms. It saves the lives of many children each year and is equally effectual for adults. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by C. F. Heinzemann, 222 N. Main St., John A. Off, corner 4th and Spring St. and all leading druggists.
