A STAND FOR JUSTICE. When the Los Angeles Typographical Union started out on its crusade against the newspapers of this city, it had before it a proposition from the proprietors, based on the dull times, that the scale should be reduced.

The demand made by the Jackson Club of Los Angeles county, at their meeting last night, that the primaries for the County Convention should be held under the State law, will meet the approval of all good Democrats.

The Jackson Democratic Club met last evening at Y. M. I. Hall with Joseph Mesmer in the chair and W. L. Price Secretary. There was a large attendance. The following resolutions were introduced and unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, it is reported and is generally accepted that in certain wards of this city methods were employed at the primary election held in July 1890, for delegates to the State Convention which were in violation of Democratic rule and precedent, and prevented a fair and free expression of choice of the Democratic voters of these wards:

Therefore RESOLVED, that this Club denounces such practices and would hold up to public censure, all and singular those engaged therein.

RESOLVED—That we regard such practices as an outrage upon the rights of democratic voters, as undemocratic in principle and most undemocratic in practice, that the fair fame of the Democratic party ever foremost in the championship of the most perfect freedom and fairness in all and every popular election cannot be sullied by even the appearance of a dishonest ballot.

RESOLVED—That this club in strict accord with the true principles of Democracy declares its purpose to use every honorable means to prevent the recurrence of such proceedings, that it repudiates all unfairness in party action and pledges itself to fight any man or men, who shall seek official position by such means, and will do all in its power to prevent the nomination of any man who shall resort to any such means to secure his success—believing that in this way we can best support the integrity, success and glory of the Democratic party.

Resolved—That the county central committee be requested to call the primaries for the coming county convention under the state law in reference thereto.

The chair appointed as such committee: Judge A. V. Hutton, Hon. Calvin Edgeron and Judge A. J. King.

Many members spoke in an eulogistic manner of the course the HERALD has pursued in showing up the dastardly outrages committed at the late primary election. The Jackson club is stronger in favor of Mayor E. B. Pond for governor but whoever the nominee may be it promises him its hearty support.

The membership of the club is now close on to 500. Joseph Mesmer, the President, gave his hearers an idea of the manner in which the primary was conducted in the eighth ward.

Resolved—That the members of the various Democratic Clubs of Los Angeles petition the county central committee to call the primary election for delegates to the county convention under the state primary law, and that a committee of three be selected from the Jackson club to confer with the other Democratic organization.

"fraud, and says that neither he nor his colleagues will pay the slightest attention to them, for they deliberately misrepresent the sentiments of the people, and of many at least of the delegates. He is out and out for Pond. The fraud was accomplished thus: After the Convention had selected the delegates and had nominated an entire County ticket, there being apparently nothing else to do, two-thirds of the Convention retired. The remainder had evidently got the cue to stay, and then the motion to instruct was put, declared and carried. Sharp practice, but it will not win. Still, it produces its effect, and Coleman's strikers are howling all over the hotels."

As our correspondent says, such efforts may produce a momentary impression, but they cannot make a Governor of a great State. The Pond movement rolls on with the resistless force of the tides. There is very little claptrap about the great popular uprising; but, all the same, there is a terrible earnestness about the men who are seeking good government for California and whose preferences circle in a quite remarkable manner about Pond—a preference, by the way, which ramifies in a way quite peculiar into the very center of the Republican party.

We have not a high opinion of the usefulness of the Senate of the United States, but when all has been said and done that body has some strong points. Amongst others, it sometimes has a mind of its own, and is not unwilling to draw the line at equity and common sense from time to time. For instance, when Andrew Johnson was impeached, in reality for being an honest man, enough Republican Senators were found to kill the high-handed conspiracy. It looks now as if the Force Bill will meet its death in the Senate. No more revolutionary measure was ever devised to harass an unoffending people. The colored population of the South are themselves vigorously protesting against it. Though it was given a specious title, and pretends to have been devised to insure fair elections, the common sense of fair people of all parties sees that it is a measure whose inevitable effect would be to undermine free institutions.

The demand made by the Jackson Club of Los Angeles county, at their meeting last night, that the primaries for the County Convention should be held under the State law, will meet the approval of all good Democrats. Then repeaters and bootlers will be sent to the penitentiary instanter if they attempt to carry out their dirty tactics.

WHAT JOHNSON THINKS.

He is sanguine about Markham's Success.

For the past day or two there have been rumors industriously circulated to the effect that Cal. Markham had withdrawn from the gubernatorial contest, on condition that he receive the nomination for congressman at large.

While Col. Markham's friends took no stock in the story, the parties circulating the rumors were so persistent that it was thought best to put a stop to the whole business by getting an authoritative denial from headquarters. E. P. Johnson, Jr., accordingly telegraphed his father, Gen. Johnson, who is now in San Francisco, giving the story, and asking for the facts, and yesterday received the following dispatch which sets the matter at rest for once and all: San Francisco, August 7, 1890.

To E. P. Johnson, Jr., care Los Angeles Furniture Company, Los Angeles: Markham is in to stay, and is a sure winner. E. P. Johnson.

Police Matters. Sergeant Morton has temporarily been appointed Captain of police during the absence of Capt. Roberts, and officer Gus Smith will act in Sergeant Morton's place during that time.

Spilled Out. Yesterday morning at 8 o'clock a young lady and her father were spilled out of a barouche, with a runaway horse attached to it at the corner of Alpine and New High streets. The young lady was hurt and the gentleman's clothes were badly torn. Officer Stewart who lives in the vicinity rushed out to the assistance of the couple and helped to fix up the vehicle, which had been overturned. The names of the sufferers could not be learned.

DOUBLY DISTRESSING.

A Serious Mishap at a Young Lady's Funeral.

SEATTLE, Wash., August 7.—A horrible accident occurred at the funeral this afternoon, of Lillie Young, the 17-year-old daughter of a laboring man. As the father was too poor to engage a carriage, he and Rev. Anderson, who was to conduct the services at the grave, rode to the cemetery on the horse with the undertaker. The team became frightened and ran away. The hearse was demolished and the coffin was broken open, exposing the body of the dead girl. Rev. Anderson and the father of the girl were both thrown under the horses' feet, and the former was knocked insensible, while the latter sustained many bruises. Another coffin was procured and the body buried.

Nearly a whole cargo of stone had been piled on the wharf, and McAuley was stationed on top of the pile, when, without warning, the wharf gave way and went down. He did not rise, and it is supposed he is held down by the stones and efforts to recover his body have so far failed. McAuley came from Michigan two months ago where he has a wife and two children.

CONVICTS REVOLT.

A Mutiny in the Massachusetts State Prison.

BOSTON, Aug. 7.—[By the Associated Press.] For some time past trouble has been brewing at the Charlestown State prison, having its origin in the objection of the inmates to submit to the enforcement of the Bertillon system of measurements. This afternoon the convicts in the shoe shops refused to obey orders, and as if by some pre-arranged signal all set up a terrific yell and missiles of every description were sent flying in all directions, the windows on the north and west side being completely demolished. They made a dash for the yard and a mob of over fifty infuriated convicts rushed for the various walls. Instantly the sentries began firing. Other officers of the institution were quickly at hand and with drawn revolvers soon massed the gang in groups, after a hard fight in which clubs were freely used and many convicts' heads were badly crushed.

Word was quickly sent to police headquarters and in about the time 200 policemen reached the prison in patrol wagons. It is not thought that any of the prisoners were seriously wounded, but as the excitement has not fully subsided it is impossible to say what the result of the shooting was. The guards on the walls have been trebled and a large number of police are massed in the yard corridors.
