CATARRH, THROAT DISEASES, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption, together with diseases of the Eye, Ear and Hair successfully treated by M. HILTON WILLIAMS, M.D.

M. C. P. S. O. With his new system of medicated inhalations combined with proper constitutional remedies for the liver, stomach, blood, etc.

Probably no system of practice ever employed has been so universally successful as that introduced by Dr. Williams for the cure of Catarrh of the Throat, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

CONSUMPTION, From consumers, "to waste away," usually applied to the advanced state of lung disease. The following are prominent symptoms in the first stage, and whenever any of them exist a thorough examination should always be made, with a view to arrest the disease if shown to exist. There is usually a sense of weariness upon a little exercise, a disposition to remain passively an idle, despondent, often from no apparent cause, a peculiar sensitiveness to the effect of cold, and a breathlessness upon moving quickly, or descending a hill or stairs, a slight hacking cough, with or without expectoration, excitability upon slight occasions, flying pains through the chest or back, or under the shoulder blades. The symptoms are more noticeable toward or during the night, slight fever in the afternoon; cold feet and hands, or in many cases, blue lividity of the lips and roots of the finger nails.

Constitutional or tubercular consumption is a common form of lung disease. The progress is slow, but if left to itself no less sure. It usually begins with a dry cough. At first these tubercles are exceedingly minute, the patient not at all suspecting their presence. Gradually they develop into more active disease, and then follows the train of symptoms which leave no doubt as to its true character. Sometimes spitting of blood or slight streaks in the mucus is the first indication of tubercular deposit, or it may be a chilly sensation in the back, followed by more or less of the tingling in the palms of the hands, or an afternoon flush on the cheeks. The slow and gradual inroads of this form of consumption leave the stomach and appetite undisturbed for a considerable time. Finally, however, hectic fever and night sweats supervene, preceded by a diarrhoea. Then the loss of flesh and strength becomes rapid, the chest contracts, the features sharpen, the eyes dilate an unusual brilliancy, and the patient begins to realize that he is in the last stage of confirmed constitutional consumption.

By the employment of proper inhalations in the form of medicated vapor (not steam or spray) we are able to produce immediate and direct action upon the diseased surface in the pharynx and the nasal passages, for air will find its way into the remotest and intricate cavities, where it is utterly impossible to make fluid applications. By these means every case can be cured.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedies at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance from business whatever. I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the Compound Oxygen and other inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success.

The very best references from those already cured.

CONSULTATION FREE. Those who desire to consult with me in regard to their cases had better call at the office for an examination, but if impossible to visit the office personally can write for a copy of my medical treatise, containing a list of questions. Address

DAILY HERALD.

United States Signal Service. Report of observations taken at Los Angeles, August 25, 1890: Time. Bar. Ther. RH'm Wd Vel W'ther 5:07 a. m. 29.90 62 84 S 1 Cl'ndy 5:07 p. m. 29.84 69 67 W 8 Cl'less Max. tem., 81; min. tem., 61. SAN FRANCISCO, August 25.—Forecast for California: Fair weather, except light rains at Los Angeles.

BRIEFS.

The Crown Hills society will meet at the Ellis college hall this evening. The Iroquois club will hold a regular meeting tonight at 8 o'clock, at 227 West First street. There is an undelivered telegram at the Western Union Telegraph office for Frank A. Kimball. L. Rickabough writes to the papers denying all the allegations made against him by one James G. Bennett, and setting forth that he has not skipped the country, but is at 1314 Ellis street, San Francisco, for all comers.

PERSONAL.

Theo. Rimpau, of Anaheim, came into the city yesterday evening. He is at the Hollenbeck. R. W. Damon of Glendora was in the city yesterday, looking like a happy and prosperous granger. J. W. Hart, of Anaheim, was in Los Angeles yesterday. He says things are solid as bricks at old Anaheim. Henry C. Roberts, of Azusa, was in the city yesterday, probably looking after Republican politics a little. Miss May E. McGregor, of Chicago, sister of W. Bert McGregor, of the Times, is spending several months in Los Angeles. Geo. M. Holton Esq. left last night for Fresno, to be gone a few days. He is a delegate to the Republican congressional convention. Mr. J. W. G. Coifran is visiting the Southern California agencies of the Hartford Insurance company, of which he is the San Francisco manager. Mrs. W. S. Livengood and child, Miss May Eisbeller and Miss Annie Livengood were among the overland passengers yesterday, from Chicago. N. C. Carter goes to the east today to secure immigrants for Southern California. He will travel with a stereopticon and several lectures, a combination which ought to draw any quantity of immigrants. Mr. G. A. Rice, of New Jerusalem, Ventura county, is at the Hollenbeck. Mr. Rice is the Democratic nominee for the assembly from Ventura and Kern counties, and has a walk-over contest before him.

Startling Discovery.

The discovery by the inhabitants of a locality hitherto unsuspected that pestilential scourge of fever and ague, that it exists in their very midst, is decidedly startling. Such discoveries are made at every season in every part of the Union. Subsequently, when it is ascertained, as it invariably is at such times, through the valuable experience of some one who has been benefited and cured, that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a thoroughly efficacious eradicator of the malarial poison, and a means of fortifying the system against it, a feeling of more security and tranquility reigns throughout the neighborhood. Besides the febrile forms of malarial disease, dumb ague and ague cake are removed by the potent action of the Bitters, to which science also gives its sanction as a remedy for rheumatism, dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint, debility, kidney troubles, and all diseases impairing the organs of digestion and assimilation. au 26-3t

Ornaments of the Swell Esquimaux. At any time from 16 to 22 years of age the male natives have their lower lips pierced under each corner of the mouth for labrets. When the incision is first made sharp pointed pieces of ivory are put in. After the wound heals the hole is gradually stretched to half an inch in diameter.

Some of the poorer natives wear labrets made from cannon coal, ivory, common gravel and glass stoppers obtained from ships, which they shape for the purpose. All who can obtain them have agate ones.

Some of the girls have their ears pierced just back of the lobe, where it is thinnest. They wear ivory earrings, some of which are carved with plain figures, while others have a setting of turquois. Some of them have a string of beads, extending from one ear to the other, suspended under the throat. Tattooing the chin among the women is general, and it is kept up, so they say, because it has always been the custom. At the age of 6 one narrow perpendicular line is drawn down the center of the chin, powdered charcoal being used in coloring. At about 12 years of age the line is broadened to half an inch, and a narrow line drawn parallel to it on each side.—Sitka (Alaska) Letter.

One of the Meaneet. One of the most remarkable cases of close fistled stinginess ever known has just been brought to light in Salem, Ills. It is unnecessary to name the parties, but the story as vouched for by several citizens of this place is as follows:

A farmer residing near here, worth from $5,000 to $10,000, not long since had a brothel in the neighborhood who was very sick. The attending physician requested that the sick man be given small quantities of lemonade. The wealthy brother was dispatched to town to get some lemons. He went to a leading grocery store and purchased three for ten cents. That night the sick brother died, and only one of the lemons had been used.

The day after the funeral the wealthy brother took the two remaining lemons back to the merchant and said as his brother had died before using all of them he had no further use for them and he demanded six cents for the two returned. The merchant refused to take the lemons back and the miserly old fellow went away mad.—St. Louis Republic.

Calino's Trick. M. Calino, the French wisecracker, has at last said an eminently wise and witty thing.

One night at the Tomnoddy club, of which M. Calino is an honored member, a group of men were discussing the question, "What is the best trick a man can play on his mother-in-law?"

The matter came to M. Calino for his decision. He thought it over gravely for a minute or two and then responded: "Gentlemen, the best trick that I can think of for a man to play on his mother-in-law is not to marry her daughter!"—Youth's Companion.

Afraid of the Dog. At Athens, Ga., a man on his way home saw a dog running toward him through the darkness at full speed. Surmising that the dog was mad the man climbed up a tree and remained there the rest of the night, with the dog standing guard below. When daylight came the man discovered that the dog was his own. Slowly and softly he began to descend, and the truth was rapidly dawning in his mind.—Chicago Herald.

COMPANY

Asphalt Paving

Company of Los Angeles. CAPITAL, $50,000. L. BLANKENHORN, Pres. H. BROWN, Secy. A. F. MACKAY, Vice-Pres. S. HUTTON, Supt.

Contractors for Asphalt paving on streets, sidewalks, warehouse floors, cellars, wineries, etc. We use the same class of material and manner of laying as in universal use in the East, and the only ones permanently successful. Over 900 miles of this paving are now laid in the principal cities of the United States. It is supplanting stone, wood, and other pavements. Recommended by sanitary and civil engineers of cities, because:

1.—It is cheaper to maintain. 2.—It saves wear and tear of vehicles and lessens cost of drayage in increased loads hauled. 3.—It is clean, free from dust, mud and unhealthful accumulations common to every other pavement and dangerous to health. 4.—It is comparatively noiseless; in this respect a boon appreciated by business men, invalids, dwellers in hotels and homes.
