RICHANGE REVIEW

NEW YORK, September 9—The Stock Market was without stimulus of any kind today, but the pressure to sell was much less than yesterday, and as consequence, prices moved more to the natural inclination than for some time past, A remarkable feature of the day was the strength dispinyed in the afternoon in the face of the high rates exacted for money, which reached 25 per cent, and closed at 20. The market closed strong; white wheat closed dull to best prices of the day.
