

BLOODY BALFOUR.

A Fresh Outrage on the Irish Race.

Dillon and O'Brien Placed Under Arrest.

Warrants for Other Nationalist Leaders Issued.

An Evident Purpose to Knock the Prisoners' Proposed American Trip in the Head.

Associated Press Dispatches.

DUBLIN, Sept. 18.—John Dillon was arrested this morning, at his residence, near this city, and conveyed on a special train to Tipperary, accompanied by a large military escort. William O'Brien was arrested at Glengarriff and taken to Cork. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of Sheehy and Condon, members of the Comnoss, Patrick O'Brien and Rev. David Humphreys, of Tipperary. The charges on which Dillon was arrested, are conspiracy and inciting tenants on Smith Barry's estate not to pay rents.

The arrest of William O'Brien was made at the Glengarriff hotel. The charges against O'Brien are similar to those on which Dillon was arrested. O'Brien was immediately carried to Dublin.

In addition to those already mentioned, it is ascertained that a warrant has been issued for a man named Dalton, who has been active in the work of the land league.

Here in Dublin the police are keeping a strict watch over the headquarters of the land league. Dispatches from Tipperary report that the organizers of the local branch of the league there are under close police surveillance. This leads to the belief that the authorities are contemplating further arrests. The Irish Nationalists had no suspicion of the impending blow, and are at a loss to know what it portends. Mingled surprise and indignation are the predominant feelings. Dispatches from various parts of Ireland indicate that the Nationalists are everywhere excited over the arrests.

O'Brien and wife arrived at Tipperary tonight. They were enthusiastically cheered during their passage through the town. In court the prosecutor asked that O'Brien be remanded until Thursday in £1,000 bail. This was done. The police inspector denied on examination that the mission to America had anything to do with the arrests. Dillon was also received by a large crowd, and after giving bail, addressed the people from the steps of his house. The warrant mentioned the offenses as occurring between March and September. A constable served a warrant on Sheehy, but did not arrest him.

PROFOUND SURPRISE.

All England Excited Over the Irish Arrests.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The one topic in London today is the news from Ireland. The general feeling of profound surprise is that the government had kept its secret so well. No hint of the intended action had reached the public. No explanation of the reasons for the government's course is vouchsafed. On all sides doubts are freely expressed as to the political wisdom displayed, but it is too early to predict the effect on the people of England. The Parnellites, while greatly surprised, were not cast down. Their theory of the arrests at this juncture is that the government tried to prevent the departure of Dillon and O'Brien to America, because they feared the effect of the speeches of the Irish orators in America would be to create a fresh outburst of American sympathy with Irish home rule, which would be of great moral help to the liberal cause, championed by Gladstone.

Up to this evening no definite information had reached here of the specific utterances of Dillon and O'Brien for which they were arrested. It is supposed, however, that the ostensible grounds for O'Brien's arrest are the speech he made last Sunday at Schull. Speaking of the failure of the potato crop and the gloomy outlook, he said the tenants should meet and consult as to where proportion of rent they could pay, and abide by the decision. If the tenant would absolutely refuse to pay a penny of rent until every family that tilled the soil was placed beyond the reach of starvation, then if the government evicted the starving people, it would be swept out of existence by a torrent of English indignation, and the whole civilized world would send money and assistance.

Michael Davitt takes a hopeful view of the situation, and says the effect will be favorable to the cause. Balfour, he said, has never made a greater mistake.

British Press Opinion.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Referring to the Irish arrests the Times says the only surprise is that the arrests were so long delayed.

The Standard says the prosecution has nothing to do with the speeches delivered elsewhere than in Tipperary. The Daily News says Balfour has committed an act of stupendous folly for which it is difficult to assign a rational motive.

The Chronicle says Balfour probably intended to avert disorder in Ireland. The Telegraph justifies the arrest on the ground that the Parnellites are becoming more daring in the face of the supposed supineness of the government.

Harrington's Theory.

LINCOLN, Neb., Sept. 18.—President Fitzgerald of the Irish National league received a cablegram today from Timothy Harrington, informing him of the arrest of Dillon and O'Brien. Harrington added: "It was evidently to prevent their visit to America and exhaust our resources."

Storms in Iowa.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Sept. 18.—A heavy rain storm, accompanied by severe lightning, visited this section this afternoon. Many cellars were flooded and great damage done. Several

BAY CITY BRIEFS.

Charles Meyer Killed at the New City Hall.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—Charles Meyer, of the well known firm of Meyer & Simms, riggers and stevedores, was instantly killed at the new city hall this afternoon. The firm had a contract for raising the girders employed in the construction of the northeast wing, and Meyer was acting as superintendent while raising a 300 ton girder. The rope broke, and Meyer was struck by the boom of the derrick, crushing in his skull and chest. He was 49 years of age, and leaves a wife and four children.

Eugene McCabe, the son of a feather dealer, was arrested this morning for assault to murder. McCabe was in a drunken condition, and William White, a barber, tried to induce him to go home. McCabe objected, and drawing a pocket knife, stabbed him in the abdomen, inflicting a bad wound.

George Ingalls, a fireman in the employ of the California electric works, narrowly escaped being killed this morning. He was climbing to the roof of the Concordia club building, when a piece of scantling gave way, and he fell a distance of about thirty-five feet to the sidewalk. He was removed to the receiving hospital. He had his left knee broken and his face severely cut.

The opening exercises of the Mechanics' fair took place in the Baldwin theatre this afternoon. President David Kerr made an address; George H. Maxwell delivered an oration, and a lengthy literary programme was rendered. The exhibition at the pavilion opened tonight.

Treasurer J. P. Dockery, of the joint committee of Native Sons, was busy all today disbursing funds raised for the recent celebration. The largest sum paid out was $2,075 for fireworks, and the total payments amounted to nearly $15,000.

THE WHEAT SURPLUS.

A Serious Shortage of Tonnage for the Export Trade.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—A prominent grain broker, in discussing the outlook this morning, said, in reference to wheat surplus and tonnage supply: "Starting with 950,000 tons of wheat for export on the first of June, consisting of 250,000 tons of old crop, and 700,000 tons of new crop, we had on hand on the 15th of September (after allowing for the imports from Oregon) remaining in the state for export, 820,000 tons. Against this we had in sight on the 13th of September, tonnage amounting to 308,000 register tons, capable of carrying, say 508,000 short tons. This shows we have yet to have directed this way in the next two months, a further carrying capacity of 312,000 short tons, to have sufficient tonnage to enable the exportation this season of the balance of our wheat on hand for shipment. It is probable that considerable wheat will come down from Oregon this season, which of course, will shorten the tonnage supply on the above figures for our own wheat. This shortage is going to be a serious thing, and will possibly cause a continuance of the depression in the wheat market."

COAST COMMERCE.

General Gibbon Reads a Paper Before the Board.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—The Pacific Coast Board of Commerce today adopted the report of the credentials committee, admitting to membership organizations from Aberdeen, Walla Walla and Oregon City.

General Gibbon, commanding the department of the Pacific, read a lengthy paper on coast defenses, in which he took the ground that though the chances for war nowadays are slight, no premium should be offered for foreign men of war to come into our harbors, and propose the alternative of taking away millions of our gold, or battering our cities about our ears.

The committee recommended that a thousand copies of Estee's address on reciprocity, yesterday, be printed for distribution.

The committee on shipping reported strongly in favor of the proposed quahar bill, and a lengthy report on the necessity of a Pacific cable was read.

A Stage Held Up.

SAN ANDREAS, Cal., Sept. 18.—The stage from Valley Springs to San Andreas was held up by two masked men this afternoon about four miles from town. The eight passengers on board were robbed of about fifty dollars, and the wooden box of Wells, Fargo & Co. was taken. The iron box remained untouched. Immediately upon the arrival of the stage, the sheriff started in search of the robbers.

At Least a Million Dollars Wagered on the Result—Detectives Shadowing the Fighters.

Associated Press Dispatches.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—A London special says: The Slavin-McAuliffe fight for the championship of the world and the international championship belt, is likely to take place within the next eighteen hours. The principals and backers are here. The price of tickets ranges from $50 to $250. McAuliffe will fight at 200 pounds, twenty-four pounds lighter than when he fought Jackson, while he is in better condition than ever before. Slavin has been boasting that he will quickly knock out his opponent, but betting remains five to six on the San Francisco boy. The amount that will change hands on the result will exceed $1,000,000. The resorts are crowded with sports from all the principal cities, as well as from Paris and Brussels. Detectives in plain clothes are seen in every throng, for the authorities realize that it will be a feather in their cap if they can stop the fight and arrest the principals.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—The Press Association says tonight's meeting of Slavin and McAuliffe will be purely a formal affair for the purpose of making arrangements for the coming fight. The Sportsman says both men are in the finest trim.

REGISTRATION OFFICERS.

Precinct Boards to Consist of Three Members Only.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 18.—In March the legislature amended the law of 1874, by providing that an election board should consist of two inspectors and two judges. The election commissioners then adopted a resolution providing that a precinct registration board should consist of three members, and the election board should consist of two inspectors and two judges, to be selected from opposite political parties, and that precinct registration officers should not serve on election boards. The Republican county committee took the position that a precinct registration board should consist of four persons to be selected from opposite political parties, equally, and they therefore brought a writ of mandamus to compel the commissioners to appoint four members instead of three. In an opinion filed today, written by Justice McFarland and concurred in by Justices Patterson, Sharpstein, Thornton and Beatty, Justice Fox dissenting, the writ was denied, and the matter decided in favor of the election commissioners.

TAKING A NEW TURN

World's Fair Commissioners Reconsider.

The Double Site Is No Longer Wanted.

The Local Commission Will be Asked to Offer Washington Park.

George R. Davis, of Chicago, Selected for Director-General—Utah's Proposed Exhibit.

Associated Press Dispatches.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—From today's action of the national world's fair commissioners, and from a canvass of the commission, it can be stated that the majority of that body is finally and irrevocably opposed to the double site for the world's fair, and that on Saturday next a resolution will be offered and adopted, requesting the Chicago directory to tender Washington Park (or what is generally known as South park). In case this is refused, the commission will report to Washington that no adequate site has been offered.

There are indications of a change in sentiment in regard to the director-generalship, and from indications tonight, the local directory will select one man as director-general, probably George R. Davis, who it is thought the national commission will elect a man of their own, with the title of commissioner-general, and will place him in charge of all foreign and inter-state exhibits in connection with the fair. This will, of course, curtail the powers of the director-general.

Today's meeting of the commission was an exciting one. Soon after the body was called to order a resolution was offered by Mercer, of Wyoming, which had already been agreed upon in caucus. It sets forth that the act of congress provided for the tender of "an adequate site," and whereas a resolution adopted by the commission at its first session, implies that it adopted those terms, resolved, that the former action be reconsidered and the Chicago directors called upon for a site adequate and in one compact body.

Mercer, McDonald (California), Sewall (New Jersey), St. Clair (Virginia), Martindale (Indiana) and others spoke in favor of the resolution, and their comments on the action of Chicago so far, were scathing. Finally the matter was laid over till the committee on titles reported.

A resolution was passed calling upon the local directory for an immediate report as to what extent the consent of the authorities having jurisdiction over the lake front and Jackson park sites had been obtained, the cost of preparing both places, and out of what fund they proposed to pay this cost.

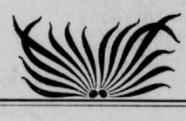

The Chicago local directors held a meeting tonight until after midnight. The result was the endorsement of George R. Davis, of Chicago, for director general. In answer to an inquiry as to the proposed divisions of exhibits the directory submitted a rough draft, showing the art hall and some kindred exhibits on the lake front, and the agricultural mining and other displays at Jackson park. The directors estimate that it will cost a million and a half to prepare the proposed lake front site, and a million and three quarters to prepare the Jackson park. The ten millions guaranteed is not to be touched for site preparation, that amount being reserved for the construction of the buildings.

UTAH'S EXHIBIT.

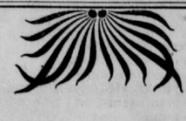

The Mormon Territory Intends to Be Eclipsed by None.

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—F. H. Lannan, of Salt Lake City, world's fair commissioner from Utah, has applied to the committee on site for ten acres of ground for Utah's display. He says all of it will be utilized, and no state or territory will make a more interesting or varied display. They propose a main building to consist of minerals, a palace constructed wholly of Utah mineral and building material. Inside of a central court, one hundred feet square, will be a series of galleries. The floor of the court will be an exact reproduction of the surface of Utah—mountains, lakes, cities, streams, railways and everything reproduced on a proper scale. The four wings will contain the mineral, agricultural, manufacturing and art exhibits. The walls of the galleries will be decorated with paintings of Utah scenery, birds-eye views of cities, historical and prominent buildings. Models of mills and mines will be constructed, and a prominent feature will be an ingeniously contrived imitation of the great Ontario silver mine. Free concerts and other entertainments will be given by various organizations of Salt Lake City while the exposition lasts. The grounds will be laid off in the highest art of landscape gardening, and irrigated in such a manner as to show Utah irrigation and its superiority over all other systems of irrigation. All the agricultural products and vegetables known to Utah, from silk and cotton to sugar and corn, will be cultivated. One of the most unique features will be a reproduction about an acre in size of Great Salt lake. Bath houses will be provided and the visitors afforded an opportunity of baths, exactly similar to the baths of Great Salt lake.
