The Heads of the Nation to Visit this Coast.

The President and All the Cabinet Officers.

Twenty Pullman Coaches of Distinguished Visitors.

Many Foreign Celebrities Invited—All at the Senator's Expense—A Sly Electioneering Dodge.

Associated Press Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—President Harrison will make a tour of the Pacific coast some time in May or June, next year, on the occasion of the dedication of Leland Stanford, jr., university, which Senator Stanford is about to present to the state of California.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

A Number of Minor Bills Passed and Other Business Transacted.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—The senate passed a number of bills on the calendar, including the senate bill to change the boundaries of the Uncomphre Indian reservation.

Plumb offered a resolution, which was agreed to, calling on the secretary of the interior to report whether the lands granted the state of California on certain conditions by the act of June 30, 1864 (the Yosemite valley and Mariposa big tree grant), had been spoliated or otherwise diverted from the public use contemplated by the grant.

Cockrell asked that the committee reports be read, and the reading occupied what was left of the hour assigned on the calendar. No vote was taken on the resolution.

The senate then resumed consideration of the bill to define and regulate the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States; the pending question being on Daniels' amendment extending the jurisdiction of the supreme court. It was rejected.

Vest offered a substitute for the bill, proposing three divisions of the supreme court, of three justices each, the chief justice to make the assignments to these divisions; that all decisions by the court be considered final, and shall require the concurrence of five justices.

Vest did not insist on a vote on his amendment, and the bill was reported from the committee of the whole to the senate, which went into executive session and adjourned without disposing of it.

THE HOUSE

Again Compelled to Adjourn for Lack of a Quorum.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—O'Ferrall, of Virginia, and Smith, of Arizona, were the only Democrats in the hall, when the house was called to order this morning. The clerk, under direction of the speaker, called the roll on the approval of Friday's journal. The vote resulted: yeas, 153; nays, 0; no quorum.

A call of the house was ordered. One hundred and fifty-nine members responded—still no quorum. On motion of McKinley the house adjourned. A Republican caucus was announced to be held immediately.

The conclusion reached in the caucus was to go on with the Langston-Venable election case at all hazards.

THE TARIFF CONFERENCE.

A Balk in the Proceedings—No Progress Since Saturday.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Although a meeting of the conference committee on the tariff bill was called for this morning, when the hour of the meeting arrived the Democratic members were notified that there would be no meeting. The reason for the postponement was a desire on the part of the Republican conferees to consult further among themselves. It appears that no progress has been made since Saturday in the disposition of the sugar, binding twine, bonded period, and metal amendments, but that these are in such shape, if an agreement can be reached upon one, it will probably also result in an agreement upon the others.

territory, being land which the Indians leased to the United States for the especial purpose of locating other friendly Indians and freedmen thereon. Twenty-five business firms of Chicago who heretofore protested against the passage of the Korry bankruptcy bill, have withdrawn their names from the protest, and requested the immediate enactment of the bill. Senator Cullom today presented their petition.

Morey, of New Hampshire, introduced a rule in the house today making it an offense punishable by a fine of $500 for a member to absent himself for the purpose of weakening a quorum. The silver offered the treasury today aggregated 1,835,000 ounces; the amount purchased was 250,000 ounces, at $1.176. Ex-Congressman Frank L. Morey, of Louisiana, died in this city this morning of malarial troubles, combined with brain affections.

A Weather Bulletin.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Rain has fallen in the lower Mississippi valley and in the Gulf and South Atlantic states. Elsewhere the weather has remained fair. The temperature has fallen in New England and Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, Kansas, and Texas. It has risen or remained stationary elsewhere.

NEVADA'S BEREAVEMENT.

California Sympathizes With Her Grief-Stricken Sister. CARSON, Nev., Sept. 22.—The funeral of Governor Stevenson will take place in this city Wednesday, after which the remains will be taken to Oakland, and on the arrival of the train there, Thursday morning, they will be taken to Mountain View cemetery, where the funeral service will be held.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 22.—In the absence of the governor, Private Secretary Boruck, this morning, called a meeting to take action in deference to the death of Governor Stevenson, of Nevada. There were present, Secretary of State Hendricks, Controller Dunn, Attorney General Johnson, Treasurer Herold and Generals Davidson and Cosby. Mr. Boruck suggested that the flag on the state capitol be placed at half mast, and it was so ordered.

It is proposed that the state officers proceed to some point up the road to meet the funeral and that they accompany the remains at least as far as Davisville, and probably to Oakland, where the interment takes place.

Governor Waterman today mailed a letter to the secretary of state of Nevada, expressing the sorrow of the California state officials at the death of Governor Stevenson, and paying a high tribute to the deceased. At the request of Governor Waterman, Adjutant General Orton has offered to render military honors to the remains as they pass through the state.

A RICH SECTION.

Beans, Barley and Oil Yielding Large Returns.

Correspondence of the Herald. EDITOR HERALD—Who that has ever passed up and down the Santa Clara valley has not been charmed with its scenery and profoundly impressed with its productivity?

The crinkled old mountains on either hand, the green fields, the fruit orchards and the sparkling Santa Clara combine to make pictures ever interesting and delightful to the eye. But barley realize the productivity of the valley one wants to leave the train, drive back among the farms, and stand where the growing corn lifts its ears out of one's reach. Orchards are pretty to look upon from a flying train, but when one gets out under the bending boughs and attempts to estimate the maturing crop, he begins to know their value in dollars and cents.

The Santa Clara valley has been especially favored during the past season. The bean crop will not be as large as last year, but the quality is fine and prices are high, so that fully as much money will be brought into the valley from this source as in former seasons. Barley raising has been successful and prices have ruled more than double what they were last year. So that barley growers who came out even last year will have a balance on the right side of the ledger this. It is estimated that it costs about 45 cents per sack to raise and market barley, and this was about what it sold for last season. This year it is worth something like $1.25, which leaves a splendid margin to the producer, and no wonder the barley men smile a very broad smile.

Fruit growers smile the same kind of a smile, for crops have been abundant and prices good. It is estimated that this crop alone brings at least a quarter of a million dollars into the valley this year. So that with all the general prosperity and fat incomes the residents of Ventura county carry long and heavy purses and cheerful countenances.

It is said the county registers 525 more voters this year than last, which means an increase of at least 2,000 inhabitants. The Santa Paula precinct numbers 140 more voters this year than it had a year ago.

Speaking of this place leads me to recall the statement made by one of the Hardison and Stewart oil company's men in relation to that business in that vicinity. About a year ago this company began operations in the Pima district on the south side of the river not far from the Simi, and have been successful in striking some good wells. Every hole has been a profitable one, and they have drilled out six or eight in all. Other wells in the Sespe and in the Adams cañon are producing wells, and this interest is gradually becoming one of greater and greater importance. The refinery at Santa Paula has not been running for the last few weeks, but will start up again soon.

LAW AND JUSTICE.

Short Notes Taken in the Court-rooms Yesterday.

Judge Shaw admitted to citizenship yesterday R. B. Collins and William F. McBurney of England, and Philip Scheidecker of Germany. Judge Clark also naturalized Richard F. Steelow of Germany.

The report of the receiver in the insolvent matter of H. Lindenfeld, was allowed in department 5 yesterday, and an order of distribution made.

Mary McDonald was granted permission yesterday in department 5 to become a sole trader. A decree was signed yesterday, severing the marriage ties between J. B. Reddick and E. H. Reddick, by Judge Shaw.

Gustave de Laveaux, a surveyor, was yesterday examined before Judge Vanduyke and a medical commission on the charge of being insane. He was ordered discharged.

The case of the city of Los Angeles against Galpin et al. will be resumed today in department 3.

Upon a showing that J. M. Damron is sick and unable to be in court, Judge Cheney yesterday continued the trial of the first forgery charge until the 26th. S. M. White Esq. will appear for Mr. Damron.

Mrs. A. L. Cram was yesterday granted a divorce from Abraham Lincoln Cram by Judge Wade, on the ground of desertion.

The case of Sheward vs. the Citizens' Water company, in which a temporary injunction had been granted some time ago, was on trial yesterday afternoon before Judge Shaw. It is sought to obtain a perpetual injunction against the water company.

The examination of Charles Lawson, on the charge of having stabbed Captain Moody with intent to murder him, was on motion of the defense, continued till next Friday by Justice Savage.

John Kaus threw out an elderly farmer named Eldridge, who had entered his saloon near the city limits, on Main street, on Saturday, the 6th, because he had pushed his wife. Eldridge fell down, and bled considerably from a wound in the temple. Justice Savage found Kaus guilty of battery yesterday, and will sentence him this morning.

In department two of the superior court before a jury the case of Mrs. M. L. Coenen and her husband, F. J. Coenen, against the Los Angeles Cable Railway company, is now on trial. The allegations of the complaint are that on February 14th, 1888, the plaintiffs were riding on Downey avenue in a wagon drawn by two horses, and that by reason of the carelessness of the defendants' employees a collision took place between the wagon of the Coenens and a two-horse car of the cable company.

Mrs. Coenen was thrown out of the wagon and considerably bruised, and alleges that since the occurrence she has suffered permanent injury to body and health. The plaintiffs demand $50,000 damages. The case will take all day today.

W. D. Hunter, sentenced to pay a fine of $50 or to be imprisoned until it was paid, was yesterday discharged from custody by Judge Ross. Hunter, who is a San Diego man, had refused to answer the questions of a census enumerator. Having been in prison 30 days and seeing no chance to raise the fine money, he took the indignant oath, in consequence of which the United States district judge ordered his discharge from custody.

In the township justice's court Sidney Lacy last evening sued Tyler Longstreet for $85, money loaned. The papers could not be served because the defendant left for Arizona before the constable could serve the affidavit upon him.

Mrs. Geo. P. Smoot, a highly cultivated estimable lady of Prescott, Ark., writes under date of April 28th: "During the summer of 1887 my eyes became inflamed, and my stomach and liver hopelessly disordered. Nothing I ate agreed with me. I took chronic diarrhea, and for some time my life was despaired of by my family. The leading physicians and their medicines, I dropped them all and depended solely on Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), a few bottles of which made me permanently well—well from then until now."

It Builds up Old People. My mother who is a very old lady, was physically broken down. The use of Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) has entirely restored her to health.
