

DEMOCRACY AHEAD.

THE GERMANS DECIDE TO WEAR THE POND LILLY.

An Enthusiastic Meeting at Turnverein Hall—Another Democratic Club Formed—Several Meetings—To Santa Monica This Evening.

The German Democratic citizens of Los Angeles organized last night at Turnverein hall and chose the following officers for the coming campaign:

President, L. Winter; vice-presidents, H. Glass, L. Roeder, A. Feldshaw, A. Schraeder, J. Johansen; secretary, John Zens; treasurer, A. Fuhrberg.

The name selected for the organization was "The German Democratic club of Los Angeles." All German Democrats were invited to sign the roll, and special attention was called to the fact that all should at once register.

The speaker of the evening, Dr. Kurtz, made an eloquent and impressive address in his native tongue and brought frequent applause. The cheering of the present office holders in the city and county was fully appreciated, and as name after name of the Republican delinquents was mentioned, the room fairly rung with the plaudits of his hearers.

Hon. W. H. Workman spoke eloquently on the present condition of affairs in this city and county, and in a brief speech explained some matters which, though seemingly insignificant, were weighed with importance when he got through with them.

One of the most powerful addresses of the evening was made by Hon. T. E. Gibbon; his masterful manner of explaining the rottenness of the city and county administration was truthful and refreshing, and the members of the organization appreciated that fact.

J. Kuhris, J. R. Matthews and A. Lichtenberger also made short addresses. The invitation to attend the meeting at Santa Monica tonight was accepted and all the members are requested to be present. The club roll was signed by twenty-nine German Democrats.

The Alliance. A meeting of the Democratic Alliance was held at the headquarters in the Downey block last night, Dr. Kurtz presiding.

A communication inviting this club to attend and participate in the Democratic demonstration to be held at Santa Monica this evening, was received from the Santa Monica Democratic club. The invitation was accepted and all members of the club are earnestly requested to attend and take part in the affair. The Southern Pacific company has provided ample facilities for carrying delegations from this city and returning them the same evening.

Hon. T. E. Gibbon was appointed to represent this club as one of the speakers of the evening. A number of applications for membership were received and the following named gentlemen were elected: T. C. Hannon and T. J. Rask, of this city, and Charles Bell, of El Monte.

Third Ward Democrats. The third ward Democratic club met last evening at their hall on the corner of Fourth street and Broadway. The presiding officer, J. E. Clark, called the meeting to order in the absence of President Foy, and made a strong speech on the silver question.

Mr. W. Knott addressed the club on the favorable outlook for Democratic success in the November election.

Mr. Joe Davison called the attention of the club to the Democratic demonstration tonight at Santa Monica and requested all the members to participate. Thirty-one new members were elected. Thirteen applications were filed with the secretary.

It was ordered that a mass meeting of the Democrats of the third ward be held at the club rooms next Friday evening for the purpose of selecting a ticket to be voted at the coming primaries.

Santa Monica Democrats. The demonstration of the Santa Monica Democracy tonight will, undoubtedly, be a great success. The Ironquos, Tammany, Jackson, Alliance and German Democratic clubs have all signified their intention of going.

The speakers so far selected are: Hon. Joseph D. Lynch, Hon. T. E. Gibbon and M. E. C. Munday.

An Eighth Ward Meeting. The Eighth Ward Democratic club will hold a campaign meeting in their rooms next Tuesday evening. It will be addressed by able speakers on the issues of the day.

Maier Will Run. Mr. Simon Maier, the well known butcher, has consented to be a candidate for councilman on the Democratic ticket, from the Eighth ward. This is the ward which Theodore Summerland is supposed to carry around in his vest pocket, but which will surely go Democratic, as Mr. Maier is very popular, able, and has the confidence of the residents. Mr. Maier has won a most enviable reputation as a man of probity and ability.

STOLE A WATCH. And Now Time Hangs Heavy on His Hands.

M. N. Staples is in a bad boat and will not be able to vote at the Republican primaries today. Staples is under arrest for stealing a watch and chain from Mrs. Margaret McGregor during an overland trip to this city over the Santa Fe road. The spoil was found secreted in a coal bunker. Staples will have a chance to explain matters on October 3rd. In the meantime, he is a guest at Hotel Darcy.

FOR FAST HORSES. A Proposed Drive by the Side of a Lake.

Mayor Hazard has a very elaborate scheme on the tapis for improving and beautifying Agricultural park. Last evening he explained his idea to Messrs. L. Lichtenberger, J. W. Robinson and R. R. Brown, directors of the Sixth District Agricultural association. The mayor proposes to make the park a popular resort, and would have the directors put in a lake in the center of the track and make a half-mile drive for the benefit of the public who own good horses, along the far side of the track. He thinks that such a drive would make the track very popular, and would thus give everybody a chance to speed their horses. This drive would virtually be an extension of Figueroa street and the entrance would be from that street. There will be gates at both ends, so the drive can be closed on race days and fair time. At all other times the public will be at liberty to speed their horses. The mayor is of the opinion that the scheme is a good one and that thousands of people could be induced to attend open air concerts on summer evenings on the lake. This is the main proposition, although there are several other minor plans for the improvement of the park.

ONE OF THE SWINGERS.

MAJOR BEN. C. TRUMAN IN CHICAGO.

He Indulges in Some Reminiscences—The First Side Show of the Columbian Exhibition.

Domiciled at the Leland hotel are Major Ben C. Truman and family, of Los Angeles, Cal., says the Chicago Times. Twenty-four years ago next month, Major Truman was in this city as one of the staff officers of Andy Johnson, when the latter was making what has been termed ever since his famous "swing around the circle." Andy came to Chicago to assist in the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the Douglas monument, which took place on a Thursday in October, 1866. Truman was one of his private secretaries, and had been with him ever since the old Tennessee had been made military governor of his state, and brigadier general of volunteers in March, 1862. Truman did journalistic war work all through the rebellion for the New York Times and Philadelphia Press, and reported the daily progress of the "swing around the circle" for the Chicago Times.

In an interview with the gentleman last night he stated that only a half-dozen of the original "swing-ers" were left. "Farragut, Grant, Seward, Rawlins, Wells, Rousseau, Custer, Senator Patterson, Thomas, Surgeon General Barnes, Colonel Morrow, McCullon, Meiggs, Postmaster General Randall and twenty others whose names I cannot quickly recall," he said, "have been laid in their silent tombs. Stoneman is in Los Angeles a very sick man. Congress ought to pension him or give him back his retired pay, which he wisely surrendered to be made governor of California. Stoneman never was great anywhere, but he always did the best he could, is dead on the square and possesses lots of the milk of human kindness. Colonel Moore is chief of police of Washington. There are only a few of us knocking around terrestrially. Jeff C. Davis, also dead, commanded here in Chicago and escorted the party in spectacular style to the Sherman house. Romero and I had the fifth carriage. Johnson and members of reception committee the first, Seward and others the second, Grant and Rawlins the third, Farragut and wife the fourth, and so on. The crowd was immense, and Señor Romero lost his hat and I loaned the elegant Mexican minister mine, and improvised a turban out of a silk handkerchief. I was undoubtedly taken by many for his valet. George Francis Train got in with the party some way at Detroit, and made things hum in his own erratic but unapproachable style.

"I am here now," continued Major Truman, "to open the first side show of the great Columbian exhibition. In other words, President Manvel, of the Santa Fe, some months ago proposed to the four or five southern counties of California to give them a splendid hall in the Rialto building free if said counties would make a pretentious exhibit of their products and pay for the management of the same. This proposition was responded to, $12,000 was immediately raised and placed in bank, and I was unanimously made manager. The exhibit, which will be exceedingly fine, will be opened on a corner of the ground of the Rialto building on Oct. 1. It will be a miniature of what we will have in '93. The legislature will be asked for $1,000,000 and will give at least $400,000. Chicago will be a gainer from California to the tune of nearly $2,000,000 if it does not divide its grounds."

THE WICKED PARTNER. He Will Soon Leave the East for California. The merry war in the Republican party is to have an exciting feature added to it soon, in the person of C. P. Huntington, "the wicked partner" of Senator Leland Stanford. Yesterday Mr. Huntington's private car passed through this city to the east, so that he can return in it. Mr. Stanford's friends have announced that he will not be here until after election. He will perhaps have his campaign to Messrs. Dick Chute and W. W. Stow, but Mr. Huntington's arrival may hasten his.

The Illustrated Annual Herald. The most acceptable present you can send to eastern friends is the Illustrated Annual Herald. There are forty-eight large pages of fresh and reliable information about Southern California, including statistical matter of the greatest value, relating to the climate, crops, population, etc. There are fifty fine illustrations of local scenes, the birdseye view of the city of Los Angeles being alone worth the cost of the publication. No gift would be more appreciated in the east than a copy of the Annual Herald. It may be obtained of newsdealers or at the Herald business office. Price 15 cents per copy.

A VERY PRETTY FIGHT.

THE REPUBLICANS HAVE THEIR WARD CAUCUSES.

A Row All Along the Line—The Court House Ring Hold Their Own—The Contestants Result Chiefly in Drawn Battles.

The Republicans had a political Donnybrook fair last evening. The different wards held their caucuses, and most of them held three or four. The tickets adopted will not apparently have any effect on the opposition, and the real fight will occur today.

In the third ward the "Soldiers and Sailors' League" succeeded in standing off the "citizens' ticket, and the result was an adjournment without action. The "Soldiers and Sailors' ticket" is against the court house ring, and especially County Clerk Meredith. "What is the matter with Meredith?" asked a Herald reporter of one of the "leaguers."

"He told a G.A.R. man who asked for a registration clerk's appointment, that the old soldiers were a lot of stiff and ought to have all been shot; ain't that enough?"

The first ward ticket is as follows: Charles Wickman, C. W. Stevens, W. Mundell, W. S. Poo, J. C. Earl, John Cadman, R. W. Pierce, O. N. Ranney, Robt McGarrin, H. V. Van Duzen, E. E. Johnson, Frank Cooper, W. R. Willis, H. S. Knopp, Frank Marsh, Sherman Smith.

The second ward nominees for that region west of Bunker Hill avenue are: S. G. Millard, J. Mills Davies, G. L. Pierce, C. C. Bonnell, George Hall, E. J. Reese, C. A. Stillson, Washington Taylor, J. M. Skinner, G. S. Robinson, J. L. Sheek, E. Flores, E. W. Spears and W. H. Thomas.

The two tickets in the third ward are as follows. The "Soldiers and Sailors" ballot reads as follows:

Dr. W. G. Cochran, P. A. Stanton, Robert Boswell, Frank McCoy, Frank Walker, Fred J. Gilmore, J. L. Denick, Geo. R. Shoto, J. C. Bur, J. T. Swope, C. M. Fairbanks, Geo. L. Arnold, R. D. Wade, A. W. Patton, C. A. Carlisle, H. Glaze, Dr. Walter Lindley, J. M. Witmer, W. C. Ackerman, M. G. McKoon, G. H. Pettis, C. M. Wells, W. F. X. Parker, F. O. Wyman, C. W. McKelvey, G. W. Van Alstine, E. A. Forrester, W. H. Griffin.

The "citizens," which is said to represent friends of Wilcox for recorder, County Clerk Meredith and Sheriff Aguirre, is made up of Henry T. Hazard, John Mansfield, J. G. Griffin, W. C. Furrey, George E. Kester, P. H. Stanton, Robert Bowell, Frank Walker, George Shatto, J. T. Swope, C. M. Fairbanks, George L. Arnold, R. D. Wade, Walter Lindley, C. A. Carlisle, G. W. Van Alstine, C. M. Wells, W. F. X. Parker, J. L. Moore, George Pettis, Geo. W. Cooke, Dr. R. W. Ellis, C. D. Platt, George Seip, S. K. Adams, Ed. Clifford, H. E. Carter, J. F. Aull.

In the fifth ward the following ticket was elected: W. F. Fitzgerald, George Alexander, E. F. C. Klokke, J. Q. Tufts, T. J. Carson, J. D. Stein and H. H. Boyce. Another ticket will be sprung today, bearing the names of H. O. Collins and Dr. H. Sansabaugh in place of Tufts and Boyce.

In the seventh ward the Seventh Ward Republican club put up the following ticket, which is also said to be the "Boyce" ballot: H. D. Barrows, W. H. Warren, J. J. Gosper, John Lovell, H. E. Storrs, H. T. Payne, John McIlmoil, J. P. Wanvig, F. V. Pauley, T. A. Stombs, A. O. Adams, R. B. Russell, E. A. Dwy, L. E. Binger, Brainard, Smith, W. H. McDonald, C. Maham, Geo. N. Lockwood, T. M. McLellen, J. J. Neimore, G. A. Wren, Scipio Thompson, W. F. Henderson.

Against the "Boyce" ticket today, Fred Smith will play the following:

J. W. Wolfskill, L. Ledbetter, S. C. Dodge, E. H. Turner, C. Maholin, John Hughes, F. A. Hamilton, C. M. Snell, C. J. Kuban, R. H. Shlan, J. T. Brown, H. Vignes, H. L. Harris, G. A. Wilkins, E. F. Clifford, W. A. Miner, G. B. Webb, Evans Brown, M. L. Starin, H. J. Hutchinson, C. C. Crowley, M. Strasser, A. Stump.

In the ninth ward there was a four cornered fight. Several gangs of toughs and workers were pitted against each other, and the result is the following four tickets:

First ticket: W. W. Murphy, George Campbell, John Bell, Sam Kutz, C. H. Haskins, Captain Loomis, H. W. Cowles, J. W. Browning, Y. Yorba. Second ticket: T. H. Ward, S. C. Hubbell, Dr. George Campbell, J. W. Browning, Sam Kutz, Y. Yorba. F. P. Corcoran, H. W. Cowles, John Bell.

Third ticket: R. H. F. Variel, S. C. Hubbell, Frank P. Corcoran, L. Girado, C. H. Haskins, John Bell, J. W. Browning, Sam Kutz, H. W. Cowles. Fourth ticket: F. P. Cochran, A. A. Bell, D. W. Campbell, H. Ward, Alfred W. Murphy, R. H. F. Variel, L. G. Loomis, F. A. Yorba.

In the fourth ward the following caucus ticket is very liable to be met with an opposition ballot:

B. W. Lee, H. A. Barclay, S. P. Mulford, J. A. Bernstein, George E. Gard, W. H. Rhodes, John H. Gish, E. H. Stern, J. J. Walsh, Fred Eaton, C. C. Allen, W. S. Marchant, A. H. Miller, J. W. Haverstick, Henry C. Owens, S. H. Kingery, E. J. Rising, J. A. Thomas, W. H. Crane and G. Wiley Wells.

The Sixth ward caucus selected the following names: A. N. Hamilton, W. H. Burns, W. F. McIntosh, E. H. Dalton, George F. Weeks, E. B. Bayley, J. L. Murphy, F. B. Bickford, D. R. Rosell and E. W. Fortune.

AMUSEMENTS.

Maude Granger the Queen of Six Juliets.

Henry E. Dixey.

Among the more remarkable experiences during the commencement of Maude Granger's career on the stage, was her appearance at the memorable benefit given the English actor, George Rignold, at Booth's theatre prior to his departure for England. "Handsome Rignold," as he was called, was an immense favorite in New York, and when his benefit was arranged, the novel idea was presented of giving "Romeo and Juliet" with Rignold as the Shakespearean hero, and presenting the reigning favorites of the metropolitan stage as Juliet, in different scenes from the play. Adelaide Neilson had been announced, but was indisposed. The ball opened with Fanny Davenport in the "balcony" scene, and she was followed by Ada Dyas in the "nurse and nuptial" scene. Then came Minnie Cummings in the "banishment" scene, which was followed by Marie Wainwright in the "parting" scene and then came Grace D'Urney, an aspiring debutante, in the "tomb" scene. "The trying draught" scene was entrusted to Maude Granger," said the New York Tribune, in speaking of this singular performance, "and was a surprise to every one, showing the remarkable dramatic ability of this lady. She was deservedly recalled twice and easily carried off the honors of this interesting performance."

Miss Granger's engagement at the Grand opera house next Monday and Tuesday, in "Inherited," is one of the chief topics of conversation among society people and theatre goers.

Mr. Mansfield will open the box office this evening, from seven o'clock till nine, to accommodate those who wish to purchase tickets for Maude Granger or Dixey and cannot come during the day.

Dixey in Portland.

Tonight closes Mr. Dixey's engagement at the Marquam Grand, and to say that it was one of the most successful this season would be to refer to a fact which is already known to the Portland theatre goers.

It was the bright young comedian's first visit to this city, but he was no stranger to the local lovers of amusement. Mr. Dixey has been one of the most successful actors of the present decade, and his pronounced and wonderful success in the east was a matter which had not escaped the public attention. There is probably no artist on the American stage today who presents to his audience more picturesque and genuine merit than does Mr. Dixey, and no one has done more conscientious work to elevate to a high moral plane the burlesque end of the dramatic profession.

His cardinal idea as embodied in the two plays presented here is absolute cleanliness. There is nothing to offend the eye or the ear, and there is much to please both senses. Carrying with him a company of artists of the first magnitude, scenery by the carload, indicates an amount of enterprise and a desire to please that is rarely found in this age of very mediocre traveling companies.

"Adonis" was the opening card of the engagement, and this pleasing old burlesque, after a run never equaled, found the highest favor with Portland audiences, and very deservedly so. There is much in the play which has no present application, and which consequently is not as well understood, but taking the play as a whole it was a remarkable success. The individual and concerted action of the cast was most praiseworthy, and those who witnessed the clever performances were not slow in recognizing the fact.

Of the "Seven Ages," much can be said in its favor. It is far above the ordinary burlesque and in some instances, notably in the judges and the old man's scene, Mr. Dixey soars away above comedy and really reaches legitimate acting. Those two great pulses which speak for the successes of the theatrical productions—the box office and the enthusiasm of the audience—were unanimously in favor of the two plays, and this is really all that should be considered in the proper measurement of a play's weight. Mr. Dixey received splendid support from Messrs. Gresham, Howard, Schiller and Don, and Misses Perkins, Wallace, Bronson, Mulle and Mrs. F. M. Bates, so well known to Pacific coast audiences.—Portland Oregonian.

BRYANT DISCHARGED.

John Walsh Makes a Short Public Statement. William Bryant, the milkman, who shot John Walsh, thinking him an highwayman; was yesterday ordered discharged from the charge of an assault with a deadly weapon by Judge Austin.

John Walsh called at the Herald office yesterday and desired to inform the public through its columns that he has lived here 17 years and is now in the employ of the Lacy Manufacturing company of East Los Angeles. He was the person who was shot by William Bryant on Lecouvreur street on the morning of the 28th of August, within 150 feet of his own house. Mr. Walsh denies that he intended to rob the milkman or anyone else. He admits that he was considerably under the influence of liquor and was going home at 4:20 a. m.

The Pavilion to Open as a Theatre—The Los Angeles Opening.

Managers Harry Wyatt and Frank Conant yesterday secured the pavilion for the winter season, and will play legitimate attractions there at popular prices.

Manager Wyatt has decided to open the Los Angeles theatre the week of October 13th. He has booked for that week two companies, James A. Herne in "Hearts of Oak," and the "U. S. Mail."

Pure Blood

Is absolutely necessary in order to have perfect health. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the great blood purifier, quickly conquering scrofula, salt rheum, and all other insidious enemies which attack the blood and undermine the health. It also builds up the whole system, cures dyspepsia and sick headache, and overcomes that tired feeling.

Scrofula Sores.

"My adopted boy, aged 14 years, suffered terribly from scrofula sores on his leg, which spread all they at one time formed one great sore from the calf of his leg up to his thigh, partially covered with scab, and discharging matter continually. The muscles became contracted so that his leg was drawn up and he could hardly walk. We tried everything we could hear of, without success, until we began giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla. In just a month, after he had taken two-thirds of a bottle, the sores entirely healed, his leg is perfectly straight, and he can walk as well as ever. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine I ever saw for scrofulous humor. It has done its work more than satisfactorily." WILLIAM SANDERS, Rockdale, Milam County, Texas.

THE COULTER DRY GOODS HOUSE.

FASHION NOTES.

Never in the history of this house has so much thought, time and expense been so willingly given to the purchase of Fall Goods as there has been this season. Two buyers sought the market this fall, and have given their undivided attention to the purchases. We can truly say no labor nor pains has been spared in accomplishing our one object, and that was to give the ladies of this community an equal chance with their sisters on the Atlantic coast, of having the pick and choice of the Novelties in Dry Goods. We didn't rush in the market and buy any and everything and pay large prices, but simply worked and used our brains in selections. If you buy too early you don't get the choicest novelties and you pay too much. Don't, ladies, be in a hurry to buy for you will surely repent at your leisure, unless you have visited our house. We are sure to please you with style, quality and price. This is no idle talk; but you can't afford to purchase anything until you visit us. Our Novelties are select in style and texture; our prices are lower than ever. For two reasons we claim this: First, it is our aim to handle a larger quantity than ever; second, we have bought our goods as low as cash would purchase, and we had the market and cash to command only the lowest prices from the importer.

Rough stuffs in mixed, plain and plaids have the preference in everything in woolen goods. Flashes, especially, are to be used in a variety of forms in trimming; Astrachans are affected in many ways for trimming; Velvets, embroidered are used for Gigot sleeves, black grounds with colored figures have the preference. Plain Velvets and Velvetines are used extensively; Fringes and hand-made Silk Trimmings, with and without cut beads, are very popular, and the best styles are scarce. We are showing a large line in Scotch, English, and French Plaids, in Serges and Plain Cloths. Broadcloths are more popular than ever for Tailor Made Costumes. In plain goods, Henriettas, Serges and Whipcords have sway for light materials, while for rough effects Cheviots Homespun and Aldine Suitings have come to the front for street dresses. English Corduroys are the rage for traveling and carriage dresses, and are effected by the bon ton classes. Cloakings are shown in rough effects. Now a few words about Black Goods, as in the Colored Goods, rough effects, such as Homespun, Cheviots and Camels hair are the correct. For Black Goods in smooth effects we are showing Broadcloths, English Cloths, Serges, Whipcords, Broad Wales, Plaids, stripes, Rip Reversible Cords, Henriettas, Raystines, Biarritz and Sebastopol.

We have many new things in Silk and Woolen Goods to mention, but our space forbids. Come and see these handsome goods, and don't buy until you have visited our elegant stock. Remember, quality superb, quantity largest, prices lowest. Respectfully,
