

THE METHODISTS.

THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

What was Done at the Santa Barbara Meeting—The Full List of Appointments Made for the Year.

The fifteenth session of the annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church of Southern California, which opened in Grace M. E. church, at Santa Barbara, September 23d, closed on Monday evening. Bishop D. A. Goodsell, D. D., of Texas, presiding.

The session opened on Tuesday evening with a reception being the bishop at the home of Rev. E. W. Caswell, D. D. The reception was largely attended. The regular business session opened on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, preceded by the usual opening service, the sacrament of the Lord's supper.

About one hundred and forty ministers answered to roll call. H. J. Crist was elected secretary, and F. M. Larkin assistant. The forenoon was taken up with the appointment of the various committees, the introduction of visiting brethren and addresses by the bishop, Rev. Geo. W. Gray, D. D., representing the Freedman's Aid society.

Rev. B. F. Cray, editor of the California Christian Advocate, and J. D. Hammond, secretary of the Book Concern of San Francisco.

The afternoon of the first day was passed by a brief statistical session and the anniversary of the Epworth league, Rev. J. H. Peters presiding. Addresses by Rev. F. M. Larkin, Rev. W. L. Douglass and Rev. Geo. W. White. The anniversary of the church extension society was held in the evening, Rev. R. S. Cantine, D. D., presiding. Addresses were made by Rev. A. B. Morrison, Rev. Thos. Stalker, D. D., and Rev. M. F. Colburn.

On Thursday the regular business session opened at 9 a. m., Bishop Goodsell in the chair, the usual conference prayer meeting preceding the forenoon session.

The morning was occupied by reports from the presiding elders and passing upon the characters of the different members of the conference. No charges were preferred against any member. The reports from the presiding elders showed general prosperity throughout the conference. Several new churches and parsonages have been built, many repaired and improved, old debts paid off, and general spiritual prosperity, with a fair increase in membership. The afternoon was occupied by the anniversary exercises of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, Mrs. E. W. Caswell presiding, with addresses by Mrs. Thomas Stalker, Mrs. J. W. Vancleve, Rev. M. M. Bovard and Rev. Mr. Clancy. The anniversary of the Freedman's Aid society was presided over by Rev. H. Cox, D. D., and addressed by Rev. W. A. Wright and Rev. George W. Gray, D. D., of Chicago.

On Friday the session opened at 8:30 by regular conference prayer meeting. The business session began at 9 a. m., Bishop Goodsell in the chair. The more important exercises of the session was the able address of the bishop to the class received into full connection. The afternoon session was devoted to the anniversary exercises of the new order of deaconesses, presided over by Dr. Bresee and addressed by Miss Widney, Mrs. Ransom, Mrs. Thomas Stalker, Mrs. Vancleve and Rev. T. E. Robinson. Immediately following this was the anniversary of the Sunday rest movement, Dr. E. Thompson in the chair. This meeting was addressed by Miss Mary E. Lathrop, of Denver, Dr. R. S. Cantine and Dr. Selah W. Brown.

Temperance anniversary was celebrated in the evening, Rev. B. C. Corey in the chair. Rev. F. D. Mather and Rev. A. M. Hough made addresses. Following this was the anniversary of the Woman's Home Missionary society, Mrs. Dr. J. E. Widney presiding. The annual report was made by Alice M. Gray, Koon, and after this speeches were made by Rev. W. S. Matthew, Mrs. Charles Leach and Mrs. M. A. Gibson.

On Saturday the conference opened as usual, with the bishop in the chair, Rev. P. F. Bresee, D. D., of Pasadena, Rev. R. S. Cantine, D. D., of Los Angeles, were elected ministerial delegates, and Dr. J. P. Widney of Los Angeles and Hon. D. M. Welch of Santa Barbara lay delegates to the Episcopal Council, to be held at a time and place not yet determined upon.

Rev. F. M. Tarkin of Alhambra was selected as editor of the Southern California Christian Advocate, and Gail B. Johnston its publisher. The afternoon was spent in the memorial services of Rev. J. B. Morrison and Mrs. L. M. Chase, and the funeral services of Rev. Stringfellow, who partook of the communion the first morning of the conference, and was buried by his brethren at the close.

The evening was spent in the interests of the Southern California University, Hon. E. F. Spence presiding. Addresses were made by the President Dr. Bovard, Rev. S. S. Thompson, Mr. A. H. Naffziger and Mr. G. D. Whitcomb.

On Sunday love feasts at 9:30 was led by Rev. Daniel Cobb, Bishop Daniel A. Goodsell presiding. Addresses were made by Reverend George W. Gray, D. D., at 3 p. m., and missionary anniversary was celebrated in the evening, presided over by Bishop Goodsell and addressed by Dr. Cantine and Dr. Mather.

BAD MAR TOM.

An Infuriated Chinaman and a Butcher Knife.

The kitchen of the St. Nicholas hotel was the scene of considerable excitement Monday night. A young Chinaman named Mar Tom has of late presided over the culinary department of that fashionable institution, and presuming upon the fact that he had been there for some time, he not only ran things below stairs to suit himself, but evinced a disposition to assume control of the hotel also. About 8 o'clock Mrs. H. Solomon, the wife of the proprietor, had occasion to take Mar Tom to task for his insolent behavior, but the heathen resented her interference and grabbing an ugly looking butcher knife, he rushed at her and chased her out of the kitchen. Her shrieks of terror as she fled from the murderous Chinaman, attracted the attention of some of the guests, who ran to her assistance. The heathen then fled from the house, whereupon the police were notified and Officer Sanchez was dispatched in pursuit of him, with the result that at 9 o'clock Mar Tom was captured on Alameda street and taken up to the city jail, where he was locked up on the charge of assaulting Mrs. Solomon with a deadly weapon.

ALHAMBRA.

A Number of Personal and Social News Notes.

Correspondence of the Herald. Rev. F. M. Larkin left last Monday to attend conference at Santa Barbara. Mr. H. H. Mayberry left for the north last week to enjoy his vacation with his alma mater, the U. de C. at Berkeley. Mrs. W. E. Furguson, who has been spending a few days with her friends, returned last Tuesday, to her home at Glendale. The entertainment given by the members of Miss Hubbard's Sunday school class was a great success; the programme went off finely. The members of the class had made some fancy articles which were sold. The net proceeds will be about sixty dollars, which will be used to buy the pulpit for the new M. E. church.

Dean Trew has returned from Redondo Beach, where he and his family have been spending the summer. Capt. F. E. Gray announces himself as a candidate for county assessor. Mr. Geo. Rice jr., will attend school at Los Angeles, this year. Mr. J. C. Wallace's new residence is growing fast, and will be a great addition to the town.

DOWN IN THE DEPTHS.

An Unfortunate Man Who Has Taken a Big Tumble.

Monday morning an elderly man, named D. H. Holmes, who bore the unmistakable signs of having seen better days, was arrested on Spring street by Detective Bowler and lodged in the city jail upon a charge of petty larceny. About twelve months ago Holmes was head salesman in Sheward's dry goods emporium in this city, and was liked and respected by all who knew him. He was, however, cursed with a weakness for liquor, and giving way to his besetting sin, he appeared at the store on several occasions in a state of inebriety. This led to his discharge, and for the past few months he has gradually allowed himself to fall lower and lower.

On Sunday evening he entered the stable of George Lorenz, at 445 S. Main street, and was caught in the act of carrying off several portable articles. He managed, however, to effect his escape, but the matter was reported to the police and he was arrested yesterday upon this charge. He will be taken before Justice Austin today.

A Pleasant Sensation of health and strength renewed and of ease and comfort follows the use of Syrup of Figs, as it acts in harmony with nature to effectually cleanse the system when clogged and bilious. For sale in 50c. and $1.00 bottles by leading druggists.

NEW SUITS.

Two Actions Commenced Against Transportation Corporations.

G. G. Charlton yesterday commenced suit against the Southern Pacific railroad company to quiet title to a piece of land on the San Fernando rancho. Mrs. M. H. Field uses Leon Cordier and the Pacific railway company for $5300 damages on account of wounds sustained in a collision, while she was riding in a Pacific railway car that came in contact with the wagon of defendant.

Mr. G. W. Sutherland, a druggist in the town of Colfax, state of Washington, keeps in stock all of the leading medicines for the throat and lung diseases, but says he sells more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than any other and has never heard a complaint from anyone. This Remedy gives entire satisfaction, because it can always be depended upon. It is popular because it never disappoints and because it is pleasant to take. Let anyone afflicted with a severe cold or other throat or lung troubles, give it a trial and he will realize for himself what a valuable medicine it is, and learn why it is so popular. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by C. F. Heinzeman, 222 N. Main street. John A. Off, cor. 4th and Spring streets, and all leading druggists.

Bear in mind that St. Patrick's Pills not only physic, but cleanse the whole system and regulate the liver and bowels. A dose at bed-time is sufficient. For sale by C. F. Heinzeman, 222 N. Main street. John A. Off, 4th and Spring streets, and all leading druggists. St. Patrick's Pills are liked because they are reliable; because they produce a pleasant cathartic effect; because they correct bilious disorders and because they are as near perfect as they can possibly be made. For sale by C. F. Heinzeman, 222 N. Main street. John A. Off, 4th and Spring streets, and all leading druggists.

When purchasing teas or coffees, do not look for a chromo or a six cent pickle dish to go with it, but go to H. Jevne's grocery house, where pure teas and coffees at proper values can always be had, 136 and 138 North Spring street.
