

DAILY HERALD.

United States Signal Service. Report of observations taken at Los Angeles October 10, 1890.

Table with columns: Time, Bar, Ther, R.H., W, V, W, P. Data for various times of day.

BRIEFS.

You cannot register after midnight of the 18th.

There is a telegram at the Western Union telegraph office for Secondo Guasti.

The fair opens on next Tuesday at the chambers of commerce rooms, and at Agricultural park.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to William C. Ormston, 24, Canada, a resident of Gladstone, and Sara C. Metcalfe, 26, Canada, residing at Pasadena.

The Rutkin Art club held its annual business meeting on Saturday last, and today it commences its year's work at its place of meeting in the Los Angeles College.

The ladies of the Southern California Presbyterian went into session yesterday at Pomona. A large attendance was present from the five southern counties forming this presbytery.

The Y. P. S. C. E. music committee of the Third Congregational church scored a great success at their concert in aid of the piano fund last evening.

A very large audience was present, and the programme of tableaux, songs, recitations, etc., was evidently much appreciated. Among the principal items were a violin solo by Dr. O. W. Green, excellently rendered; recitations by Miss Gracie Bainter, who took the audience by storm; two beautiful tableaux, "Childhood's Slumbers" and "Night and Morning," songs by Miss Pearl Smith, Mrs. Hester and George Mann; readings by Miss O. Bleuser and Miss Lottie Gomer, and zither solos by Floyd Watson.

Novelty in the line of invention and discovery is the order of the day. The people of this community will be delighted to learn of a recent discovery which will appeal to the father, the head of the family, but will also prove an inestimable blessing to the tired wife and mother. The husband, fatigued with the toils of the day, and the mother, worn out with the cares of household and nursing infant, are both cheered, invigorated and made happy by a glass of Budweiser beer, fresh from Anheuser-Busch Brewing association, of St. Louis. Such beer has just been imported direct from the brewery and bottled for the family trade here, and will be kept constantly on hand. Budweiser will be on draft at the Eintracht, No. 163 N. Spring street, this day only. Orders for bottled Budweiser at above address, or by telephone No. 467 and 316.
