

HE WAS SKEPTICAL.

WOULD NOT BELIEVE THAT OUR PRODUCTS GROW OUTDOORS.

That is the Place For Us, Hannah, Said He When He Saw the Corn.

Among recent arrivals from the east are a man and his wife from Southern Illinois. The man was in the office of D. Freeman, Esq., yesterday, and told a funny story on himself. He was up in Chicago when Ben Truman began to unpack his big corn, pumpkins, and other products sent to the permanent exhibit. He looked on open-mouthed at the things as they came out of the boxes, and at last he began to give expression to his thoughts. He said to Truman: "Do you expect us to believe that these things grow out of doors in the natural way in your country?" "Yes," said the debonnaire major, "we think intelligent people can be made to credit this. Why should it not be believed?"

"Well," said the inhabitant of Egypt, "I do not believe it, and I think few in this part of the country will believe it." "How do you think they grew?" asked Truman. "How do I think they grew? They grew under glass, every last one of them, and that subjected to all the methods of forcing known to gardeners."

Truman replied: "You are altogether wrong, my friend. I know that country and you do not. I have known it intimately for twenty years. I know every farm from which these products come. I have seen all these things grow there during all these years."

"They grow all the year round, and mature in January the same as in July. Strawberries, green peas and tomatoes grow all the year round. Why, what are you talking about! That country shipped last year 2,600 carloads of oranges between the end of December and the first of June. The great months for oranges are January, February and March. All that crop cannot be raised under glass. At this moment there are thousands of acres of corn and pumpkins out there in the open field, all of them much like these samples before you. Now I will make you a proposition. Here are the people's names who sent these on. Their places of address are attached to the products. You take down a list of those names as long as you like. Go out to Los Angeles and I will give you a card to Mr. Freeman, who will tell you how to get to the farms. If you do not find everything better than I represent it, I will pay all the expenses of your trip, and take your wife along on the same terms."

At the close of Mr. Truman's address, the skeptical granger from the swamps of Egypt turned to his wife and said: "If that is true, that is the place for us, Hannah!"

And sure enough, here with Hannah, to look up the cornfields and pumpkin-patches. He went down last night to Cerritos, to see whether the big pumpkins and yellow corn grow in the open field or under glass. And that is what is the matter with Hannah.

CHICAGO EXHIBIT.

President Marvel Tells What He Thinks of It.

Mr. Marvel, president of the Santa Fé Railroad company, is most enthusiastic over the display Southern California is making at the permanent exhibit at Chicago. He, this morning, telegraphed Mr. D. Freeman, chairman of the exhibit committee here, that thousands of people were viewing with astonishment the wonderful exhibit from this fertile and unequalled section, and that this practical illustration and proof of the varied and valuable products of Southern California would bring thousands of home-seekers to our golden coast. He says the exhibit will be formally opened today in grand style. Major Truman has written to Mr. Freeman to the same effect, and says: "While Los Angeles and San Diego counties have done well, Pomona has covered herself with glory by her grand display, and Orange county has done almost as well." Two carloads for the exhibit have already reached Chicago, and the contents have been placed in the hall. This grand work is giving eastern people practical proof of what Southern California can produce, and will completely counteract the bad effect heretofore produced by slanderous lies concerning this section that have been so diligently circulated by some of the eastern papers.

Mr. Marvel sent the following telegram yesterday to D. Freeman, Esq., in reference to the arrival of the second carload of stuff:

CHICAGO, Oct. 13. D. FREEMAN, CHAIRMAN: TRUMAN SAYS you may say to Nolan that he shall remain there until he is perfectly ready to come and has perfected organization. He will write Nolan fully. The second car came in Friday. Nothing was broken or decayed. The formal opening will be on the 14th inst. A. MANVEL.

THEY LIKE IT.

Hundreds of People Visit Pretty Westlake Park.

If any residents in Los Angeles have any doubt whether the Westlake park is appreciated by the public, they have only to take a trip there on a Sunday. The day before yesterday the park was crowded, both with pedestrians and carriages of all descriptions. All the boats were engaged as fast as vacant, and a gentleman counted eighty-seven carriages standing about while their occupants enjoyed the scene, and there must have been 100 or more driving slowly around all the time. Between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock a resident on Orange street amused himself by keeping tally of the number of buggies that passed his house, and his figures show 176 one-horse, and 42 two-horse conveyances. This, it must be remembered, was on a street that was only completed eight months ago. This does not look like a "busted" city.

THE BELT WILL GO.

Captain Barrett Starts Today to Contract for Material.

Captain A. W. Barrett was jubilant yesterday when the council named his franchise for the belt electric system of street railroads over the veto of his honor, the mayor. To a HERALD reporter the captain said: "I have resigned my place as a commissioner for the opening of streets, and tomorrow I go north to make contracts for the material to build the road. Then I will go on to Portland, Seattle, Tacoma and other cities to look into good roads there, the best plans for their construction and operation. City Engineer Fred Eaton will go with me, so that he may be able to give his opinion on our affairs as they come up."

"Captain," said the reporter, "do you mean to say you will proceed at once and continue to build until all the twenty-three miles of double track named in the franchise is completed?" "That is exactly what we do mean. You say some of the streets are not yet graded. Well, Second street was built there, and it is not all graded yet. We will expect to put our own road on grade as given up by the city, and do the necessary work ourselves. We mean business."

IN THE LAW'S CLUTCHES.

People Who Are in More or Less Legal Trouble.

James A. Souter, of Canada, Antonio Nuschia and Antonio Monteleone, of Italy, were naturalized yesterday by Judge Shaw. Charles Johnson, of Sweden, was made a citizen by Judge Cheney.

W. L. Harvey, who was fined $15 in Santa Monica for a misdemeanor, had his application for a writ of habeas corpus on the ground that there was an informality in the commitment, denied yesterday by Judge Cheney.

Frank W. Dyer, who shot C. Taylor several weeks ago, was yesterday admitted to bail by Judge Shaw in the sum of $3000.

On motion of the district attorney yesterday in department six, the information charging A. J. Eccles, Harry Amon and Oliver Cummins with an assault with intent to do great bodily harm to Editor Bennett of Azusa, was dismissed, when the three young men charged with having tarred and feathered the newspaper man. The evidence against them was very flimsy.

In department one, John Penman, accused of rape, will be tried November 1st; W. H. Thomas, assault with a deadly weapon, November 3rd; William Hood, burglary, November 6th; J. J. Reyes, cattle stealing, November 24th.

ALHAMBRA.

An Interesting Lot of Personal and News Notes.

Mr. Webster of Highlands was here last week. Doctor Elwood, who has been quite ill, is about again. Mr. W. C. Wild and family are in their home on Garfield avenue. Mr. Staininger, who had his arm injured some weeks ago, is improving. Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Adams left last Tuesday for their home in Phoenix, Arizona. Mr. J. A. Green's house is getting its last coat of paint, which improves it very much. Six newcomers arrived in Alhambra last week, and intend to make this their future home. Mr. F. M. Larkin has moved his family into Mr. C. T. Adams' residence on Gimindia street. Dr. Gresham has moved his office from the bank building to the house formerly occupied by Dr. Adams. Last Monday afternoon the Ramona reservoir broke its banks, and flooded a large part of the town, but no damage was done to speak of. There was a very pleasant reception given to Mr. and Mrs. Morris, the new Methodist minister and his wife, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Stewart, last Friday evening. Prof. Fairman of Los Angeles preached last Sunday in the Presbyterian church. He will preach next Sunday, and will also give a lecture in Pasadena in the near future for the benefit of the Alhambra Lend a Hand society. LYNDIA.

CAN IT BE?

The Alleged Trade Between Frank Kelly and McLachlan.

A story was circulated yesterday among politicians which, if true, will effectively kill all possible chance, if any ever existed, of the election of James McLachlan, the Pasadena candidate on the Republican ticket for district attorney. Mr. McLachlan, during the administration of District Attorney Frank Patrick Kelly, has been that officer's deputy in Pasadena. It is now asserted that the trade was made before the convention met, that if McLachlan got the nomination and was elected, Mr. Kelly was to receive the appointment of deputy at Pasadena. For some reason or other the Pasadena Republicans are not happy at this prospect, and there is a general kick among the party leaders, who believe that Mr. Kelly's name cannot be profitably used in this campaign.

THE WALNUT CROP.

Shipments Are Beginning in Real Good Earnest.

Last week, Mr. B. Gutrodo, of Los Nietos, shipped for the east three cars of prime walnuts, grown in his big orchard at Rivera. Tomorrow the Walnut Growers association, of Rivera, will ship six cars of nuts. These are the first shipments of the season. For first-class shelled nuts, well bleached and in new sacks, the growers are getting as high as 10 cents a pound this year. At that price one orchard will pay $200 to as high as $500 an acre, and it is nearly all profit.

A MILKMEN'S UNION.

Preliminary Steps Taken for Its Organization.

Several of the milkmen of the city, realizing the necessity of an association for the mutual benefit and protection of all engaged in the production and sale of milk in Los Angeles, met on Saturday at the hall of the Y. M. C. A. Preliminary steps were taken for a permanent organization. The temporary officers selected were Charles Victor Hall, chairman, and C. H. Sessions secretary. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws. There will be another meeting at the same place on next Saturday at 10 a. m.

A BAD TUMBLE.

A Painter Falls Forty Feet to the Side-walk.

A painter named Miller fell from the roof of the Argyle hotel, corner of Second and Olive streets, to the stone pavement, about 35 or 40 feet. He was injured internally, beside having several ribs and one arm broken. He was taken here to his residence, corner of Seventh and Spring streets. Miller is about 21 years old and unmarried. His condition is very precarious.

WILLETT AT HOME.

SHERIFF BEXLEY'S PRISONER COMES BACK TO HIS RANGE.

Where Were the Four Deputies on Friday Night—Ball Not Molested—Bexley's Actions on the Train—Did He Get Molested?

A prominent resident of Norwalk was interviewed yesterday at the First National bank by a HERALD reporter, respecting the Nathan Willett escape. The reporter opened the conversation by asking whether the indignation meeting came off Saturday night, as advertised. "Yes, sir," was the reply, "it came off, and I assure you that it has lost Martin Aguirre every vote around Norwalk at this coming election. Aguirre received many a Democratic vote—mine too, last election, but he will never get one again down my way. He will not even get a Republican vote. He may think that it is not so, but he will find out to his cost at the polls, that the people of Norwalk will bitterly resent a renewal of the Santa Inquisition in free America. We have heard that Aguirre had sent down four deputies on Friday to prevent any breach of the peace on that man Ball. Well, sir, they must have got lost on the plain, for I assure you that no one saw them down my way. When Ball arrived at the depot with our little deputy constable received and escorted him to the justice's office, where he was admitted to bail. No violence of any kind was offered him and he left for Los Angeles totally unmolested the following morning. It was reported that some fellow, a professor of something or other, was to have come the next evening to address us at the meeting to advocate Aguirre's action. It is fortunate that he failed to do so. There are some very hot-headed people at Norwalk, and if he had appeared it is probable that an unguarded remark of his would have let loose pent-up feeling and caused regrettable actions."

"Now, sir," said the reporter, "I have it on good authority, that Willett has returned home, and is now at his farm."

"Well"—after a considerable pause—"it is true. Nathan came back on Sunday night and is with his wife and babes."

"Has he no fear of re-arrest?" "Not just now. Sheriff Bexley, of Lee county, Texas, left Colton on the 10th for home by the 7:45 train, taking with him his requisition papers. Do I think that Willett paid him to let him go? I cannot tell. Nate certainly had the money to do it; he had nearly $5,000 with him. But it is very possible that he just escaped from him without putting up a cent. It is hard to say what happened. There is one thing, however, that I know. Conductor Curtis, of the train on which Bexley and Willett were, told me that if Bexley was playing a part, after his prisoner's escape, he ought to quit being a sheriff and become an actor. He could not remain quiet in his seat for more than a few minutes. Then he would get up excitedly and talk to anyone in the car. 'By G—' he would exclaim, 'this will defeat my reelection!'

"Well, Willett returned on Sunday night. He will not be taken away again in the fashion he was some days ago, I assure you. If he has to return to Texas, we will see that he does. We do not judge people before hand and do not presume to pass on this man's guilt or innocence. All we want is fair play. If Bexley returns for him with his requisition papers in the proper shape, and gives Willett a show to arrange his business before returning to the Lone Star state to stand trial, you may rest assured that the little fellow will go with him manfully and do what is right. As far as Aguirre is concerned, he has irrevocably lost the sympathy of every voter of our community."

"DR." MEFFERT.

An Infamous Person Who is Out on Fifteen Dollars Bail.

William Meffert, an alleged physician, appeared before Justice Austin, in the police court, yesterday, and entered his plea of guilty to the charge of battery, preferred against him by Tessie Plummer, an unfortunate girl, who asserts that he knocked her down and brutally ill-treated her, because she refused to support him with her illegotten earnings. He was ordered to reappear for sentence at 11 o'clock this morning, at which time testimony will be taken to determine the gravity of the offense.

PRACTICAL TESTS.

An Astonishing Offer—Some of the Details.

The San Francisco papers of recent date contained the following offer:—"As an evidence of the ability of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla to prevent sick headaches, we will give to the first twelve responsible persons who will apply at our office a bottle free if they will agree that after their headaches have been cured that they will admit the fact over their signatures."

This offer so startlingly asserted the efficiency of the remedy that many accepted, and the letters of the parties, nearly all of whom responded, are probably the most convincing attestations that any remedy ever received. The following is a sample of those received:—"I have been subject to bilious headaches and constipation for several years past; in fact, have been compelled to take a physic every other night or else I would have a headache and dull, mean feeling. I have taken that bottle of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, and have derived great benefit from it, and intend continuing it. After my own experience I can heartily advise those troubled with biliousness and constipation to try it. Yours, CHAS. E. ELKINGTON, 126 Locust Avenue, San Francisco."

I take pleasure to let you know that my boy is well all right, he has not had any of the spasms since about March 29th. The people can hardly believe it from the fact that he had as many as 15 a day or more. I believe he was a very nervous child all his life but did not show any signs of spasms until last December, after which they came in regular succession, and I had 2 doctors attending who could do nothing for him, nor even tell us what the matter was. He had despaired of his ever getting well, until I got Koenig's Nerve Tonic. After taking not quite a bottle he got quite well and has not had the least sign of spasms since. Respectfully Yours, MRS.
