BEAUTY AND BUSINESS.

THE ORPHANS' FAIR AN UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS.

Last Evening's Festive Gathering—A Scene of Pleasure and Profit—The Booths and Their Occupants.

There was another large attendance at the Orphans' Fair last night, and the interior of the new Army hall presented an animated scene in which business and pleasure were so deftly interwoven that the former was almost indistinguishable to the average observer. Yet in every direction the attaches of the various booths were working like bees, and the man must indeed be stony-hearted who could not resist their wiles. Nor were their efforts confined alone to the sterner sex, for each was prepared also to overcome all scruples by offering such tempting bait as could not fail to win the heart of the victim. Everything that could possibly be imagined was for sale or raffle, and resistance was useless.

THE JUDGES MUST SIGN.

Prohibition Judicial Candidates Must Take the Pledge. The executive committee of the Prohibition party yesterday selected as that party's judicial candidates, two of the nominees from the Democratic and Republican tickets respectively. The selections from the former were W. S. Knott and F. D. Joy, and from the latter James W. McKinley and Lucien Shaw. These gentlemen will have to spend a bad quarter of an hour, however, when they are interviewed by the chairman of the Prohibition party's committee, for that gentleman is required by his party to obtain from each candidate a written statement that he will not countenance the use of intoxicating liquors as beverages.

A COSY RESORT.

Miller & Salter's Place in the New Los Angeles Theater. At 225 South Spring street, the new Los Angeles Theater building, Miller & Salter have opened a very cosy resort for the public in general, and the patrons of that popular theater in particular. Gustavus Miller is an ex-member of the police force, well known to the public, and Thomas Salter is quite as well acquainted with people about town. They have opened as cosy a place of resort for those who wish a little refreshment between acts, when the play is dull, as there is in the city. It has been fitted up elaborately, and it is stocked with the choicest viands. A sumptuous lunch counter figures as an attractive adjunct, and there are private rooms for those who wish a retired hall hour to themselves. It is a very desirable addenda to the new theater. (Adv't.)

Bonsonett for $451.09 and foreclosure of mortgage. Catharine M. Hardin, widow of W. P. Hardin, deceased, petitioned to have his last will and testament admitted to probate.

MAIER & ZOBELIN.

The Celebrated Brewers' Reply to the Saloon-keepers. Maier & Zobelien, proprietors of the Maier & Zobelien brewery of Los Angeles, beg to reply to the saloon-keepers of Los Angeles and vicinity, who addressed a communication yesterday to the San Francisco Brewing Association (Limited). Referring to the report that we have sold our brewery to said syndicate, we say there is not a word of truth in that. We have never had the remotest intention of selling our property to said syndicate, nor to anyone else. The man who made such representations is nothing less than an impostor, and we regard the whole affair as a drunk-mer's trick. We assure our patrons in this city and vicinity that our brewery is not for sale. Our whole thought is to brew the best beer on the market, and thus to hold control over our already large circle of customers. And we hereby pledge our word of honor to our customers not to sell our brewery; and we also pledge them that we will brew in the future as in the past the best beer offered in this city; and we once again pledge them that no money shall go out of this city that our efforts can keep in it. And so with many thanks to our patrons we remain,

WORSE THAN A BRUTE.

John Wilson Tried Last Night to Kill His Wife. John Wilson, the blacksmith, who lives on the corner of San Pedro and Thirtieth street, was arrested early this morning by Officer Sanchez and booked at the city prison on a charge of attempted murder. For half an hour Wilson, who was drunk, had beaten his wife, cutting her about the head and wounding her severely. The room where she was looked like a slaughter house when the officer entered, it, blood being smeared over everything. Dr. Kirkpatrick was summoned, but was unable to state the extent of the woman's injuries. Mrs. Wilson told the officer that her husband had tried to kill her, and he certainly came very near succeeding. Wilson has been arrested on similar charges several times, and bears a bad reputation. He is very wealthy, owning a large amount of real estate, from which he is said to derive an income of $800 a month.

Steady Progress.

Has characterized Hood's Sarsaparilla ever since it was placed before the public. Wherever introduced, its sales have grown from year to year, until now it is the most popular and most successful medicine offered. Any druggist will confirm this statement. The secret of this success lies in the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a medicine of merit. It does actually accomplish all that is claimed for it, and when given a fair trial, is reasonably certain to be of benefit.

Positive Statements.

"Since Hood's Sarsaparilla has been in my hands for sale I have had frequent and unreserved testimonials in its favor. Although carrying this preparation for less than one year, my sales have been greater than of any similar preparation, and the testimonials in its favor are as positive and personally noticeable." A. WAZIAR, Healdsburg, Cal.

Sells On Its Merits.

"My boys say, 'Papa, why don't you buy more of Hood's Sarsaparilla at a time; we are always short.' It sells on its own merits." F. BAAL, Portland, Oregon; the oldest druggist in Oregon. N. B. Be sure to get only

NEW DEVELOPMENT OF THE Bear Valley & Alessandro Development Co.

[That will please all those Fortunate ones who have purchased land in that Beautiful Valley, Known as the Alessandro :-: Tract. The Reduction of Water Rates

By the Company is a liberal concession and shows a fairness that is greatly appreciated by the large army of land purchasers who expect to improve the land bought from the Co.

It is but just and proper that the Bear Valley and Alessandro Development Co should announce to the people who have bought lands in the Alessandro tract, and to the public at large, the plans of the company in placing those lands on the market—so far as those plans have been perfected, and so far as they affect public interests.

Before the plans of the company could be perfected, there was such a demand for the land that the managers felt compelled to offer the land for sale.

On the spur of the moment the company adopted a water system which it has been considered best since to change; but in making the change the cost of the water to the land owner has been materially reduced, and hence no one who has purchased land can take exceptions to the new program; but on the other hand, all purchasers, so far as they have become acquainted with the new system, have heartily approved of the same.

It is the purpose of the company to have an irrigation district formed that shall include the entire Alessandro tract, together with such lands adjoining that tract as it shall be thought best to include in the district. The work of forming that district has already commenced.

The Bear Valley Land and Water Co. will contract with that district when formed, to sell it two-acre water rights of the class B series from Bear Valley reservoir for each acre of land in the district, at a cost of $30 per acre, taking pay therefor in bonds of the district at their par value.

This water right will be equal to that heretofore advertised—one inch to four acres.

The Bear Valley and Alessandro Development Co. will pipe the water to each ten acre tract of the lands owned or sold by them, as heretofore announced, and other land owners in the district will have to arrange for their own distribution of water, which is to be delivered by the Bear Valley Company. The Alessandro Company will put in their distribution system on 8000 acres of land in time for irrigation next season.

The cost of the district system, as now proposed, as compared with the plan set forth in the company's advertisements and options, is as follows: The land owner will have to pay 6 per cent. interest on $30 an acre, which is $1.80 per acre a year; also, the rental of $5.56 an acre a year after he commences taking water, making a total of $7.36 per acre a year, in lieu of the $10 an acre provided for in the options. This is a saving of over one-fourth of what the land purchaser expected to pay. No water rental is to be paid by land owners until they commence using water.

At the end of ten years the district will commence paying off the principal of the bonds, paying each year one-tenth of the face of the bonds. This will increase the annual payment somewhat, but after the eleventh year the interest account becomes smaller each succeeding year, and at the end of twenty years the bonds will all be paid off, and then the annual payment of the land owner will be but $5.56 an acre per annum—a little over one-half the amount the purchasers of land expected to pay.

The contract between the Bear Valley Company and the irrigation district will be such that the annual rental can never be increased.

The Bear Valley Company puts in the pipe line and canal to deliver the water to the district, and must forever keep those conduits in repair.

The water will be measured at the point of delivery within the limits of the district.

AMMON P. KIRCHING, Vice President and General Manager of the Bear Valley and Alessandro Development Company, and Vice-President Bear Valley Land and Water Company. F. E. BROWN, Chief Engineer of the Bear Valley Land and Water Company, and of the Bear Valley and Alessandro Development Company.
