A Caesarian Birth Successfully Performed.

Mother and Child Both Survive the Operation.

The Infant Put in an Incubator to Finish Hatching.

Original Package Saloons Blooming All Over Kansas—General Eastern Dispatches.

Associated Press Dispatches.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 18.—Modern surgery achieved a notable triumph at the Philadelphia hospital when a Caesarian operation was performed by Dr. William E. Ashton, obstetrician at the institution, yesterday, which will go on record as a remarkable incident of modern science. The patient was a young colored woman of robust health. Both child and mother were saved, and are expected to recover. Dr. Ashton was assisted by Professor Hirst, obstetrician of the University of Pennsylvania; Professor Montgomery, Miss Smith, chief nurse at the Philadelphia hospital, and her aids, Miss McClevey and Miss Burkheimer. Dr. Ashton finished the operation in the remarkably short time of twenty-one minutes and thirty seconds. The child, a female, has been placed in an incubator, a curious contrivance resembling very much in appearance a child's bathtub. It is of tin, made with a section on each side for holding hot water, and a compartment in the middle for the child. Uniform temperature of 100 degrees is maintained in the compartment.

LAST SAD RITES.

Justice Miller Laid to Rest at Keokuk, Iowa.

KEOKUK, Iowa, Oct. 18.—A committee of citizens met the body of Justice Miller at Burlington and conducted it to Keokuk, arriving at 9 o'clock this morning. At the depot the honorary pallbearers and various committees took the body in charge, and it was escorted by the Second Regiment Iowa National Guard, Torrence Post G. A. R., the guard of honor and several thousand citizens. The body was borne to the federal building, which had been elaborately draped in mourning. The casket was conveyed to the courtroom, in which the dead justice frequently presided, and placed upon a handsome catafalque. The face of the beloved jurist was exposed to view, and during the few hours the body lay in state it was viewed by several thousand people.

At two o'clock funeral services were held at the Unitarian church, of which deceased had been a member. The church was entirely inadequate to accommodate even a small portion of the crowd about it long before the doors were opened. The funeral procession, headed by the clergymen, moved up the central aisle, followed by the pall-bearers bearing the casket. In a few minutes the family entered with Chief Justice Fuller, members of the state supreme court, and various bar delegations. There were many handsome floral tributes. The burial service was read by Pastor Hassall, a prayer was offered by Rev. McIlwain and a sermon was preached by Rev. Hassall.

The funeral procession to Oakland cemetery was the largest ever seen here, including officials and court dignitaries, military and civic societies, the fire-department and citizens. The hearse was drawn by four black horses. The services at the grave were very simple. Public and private buildings were draped in black. A high wind during the early morning destroyed many of the decorations. Besides the distinguished gentlemen who accompanied the remains from Washington, many others assembled here to pay their last tribute of respect. The supreme court of the state was represented, and large delegations attended from all the states included in the circuit presided over by the dead justice.

THE CRESCENT CITY CRIME.

The Committee of Fifty Ferreting Out the Assassins.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 18.—The meeting of the committee of fifty tonight was secret, but the committee announced that it would pursue the investigation to the end, bring the murderers of Hennessy to justice and break up the Italian assassination league in this city. A thousand dollars was raised on the spot, and by next week, the committee expects to have $50,000 to assist in the work. One of the facts stated was that the ship Elysia is coming up next week with 700 Italian emigrants on board. The mayor interviewed the custom house authorities, and as a result they will go down and meet the ship. Unless the emigrants can satisfy the officers that they are desirable financially and morally, they will not be allowed to land. Joe Machecha, who was arrested today, has heretofore been considered a prominent Italian above the murderous plots of his more ignorant fellow-countrymen. Since his arrest some damaging evidence has been developed. The ladies owning the shanty where the assassins are supposed to have plotted and gathered, identified Machecha as the man who rented the place from them, and paid a month's rent in advance. Several parties also say they followed Machecha on the night of the murder. He and the Matrangas, also supposed to be the leaders in the affair, were eating a big supper while the shooting was going on. They remained until 3 o'clock in the morning, having a good time, and when they parted Machecha is alleged to have said: "Boys, I've done all I can; I'm only sorry he was not killed at the first fire."

Original Package Saloons Reopened.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 18.—Dispatches from all the large cities and many towns in Kansas, state that during the day many of the original package saloons have been opened and are doing a thriving business as the result of the decision yesterday by the United States circuit court. Several mass meetings were held throughout the state this evening, at which the governor was petitioned to call an extra session to re-enact the old law.

M'KINLEY'S CAMPAIGN.

Speaker Reed, General Alger and John Jarrett On the Stump.

MASHILLON, Ohio, Oct. 18.—Speaker Reed addressed here tonight to the two largest political gatherings ever seen in this district. Thirty-two carloads came over from Medina, where a mass meeting was held in the afternoon. There were big delegations present from other surrounding towns. John Jarrett, consul to Manchester, England, also addressed both meetings. General Alger spoke at the opera house.

World's Fair Matters.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—The executive committee of the world's fair national commission held a meeting today. The following committee meetings were announced: Foreign affairs, in New York City, October 22; fine arts, in New York City, October 23; mines and mining, in Chicago, November 27. A long discussion ensued on the propriety of calling the board of lady managers together. The question was referred to a committee. It was agreed to take no action in the matter of classification until the report of the classification committee was complete.

Driven Out of Business.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 18.—At a meeting of the directors of the Cherokee Strip Live-stock association today, the secretary was instructed to give the stockholders notice of a meeting to be held to dissolve the association now that pasture lands are to be taken from them. President Hewins says about fifty per cent of the members will go out of the cattle business, while a majority of the remainder will move their business and herds to Montana.

A FALSE ALARM.

AMERICAN WARSHIPS NOT THREATENING PORTUGAL.

The Rumor That a Fleet was to Proceed to Lisbon and Demand Settlement of the Delagoa Bay Claims Denied.

LISBON, Oct. 18.—The Commercio Do Portugal publishes a letter from Berne, declaring that a fleet of American warships will arrive at Lisbon shortly for the purpose of demanding the payment of claims made by the United States for damages arising from the seizure by Portugal of the Delagoa Bay railway.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—General Batchelder, United States minister to Portugal, after reading the London dispatch about the Delagoa bay claim, said the matter was before a board of arbitration, and until the board reached a conclusion no action would be taken by the United States.

The assistant secretary of the navy said this afternoon, there is not a word of truth in the report that a fleet of American war ships had been ordered to Lisbon to enforce the payment of the Delagoa Bay railway claims, or for any other purpose. It is probable the cruiser Baltimore, now in northern European waters, will visit Lisbon, but no significance is attached to this.

Swindled His Wife.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Samuel W. Lewis, a broker, is locked up on the charge of swindling his wife out of a fortune by purchasing worthless stocks, or pretending to do so. When he had reduced her to penury he left her, and detectives finally located him in Hartford. On the way back Lewis jumped from the train in the night, while it was running twenty-five miles an hour. Detective Von Gerichten leaped after him and caught him. Both men were quite badly hurt.

Drying House Burned.

ANAHEIM, Cal., Oct. 17.—The drying house of John Hunter, two miles northeast of Anaheim, was burned to the ground this morning. Loss, about $1000.

NOT IN IT.

San Pedro Republicans Scarce as Hen's Teeth This Year.

EDITORS HERALD—Ha! ha! They came, they saw, and they did not conquer. The Republican meeting here last night was largely attended by ladies and Democrats, but Republicans were conspicuous by their absence. The advertised grand torchlight was a miserable fizzle, and had it not been for the recruits from Wilmington and Long Beach, San Pedro would not have been able to furnish enough Republicans to have one. As it was, there was in line from San Pedro eighteen men and three boys, and from Wilmington and Long Beach fifty-five men and boys.

Never before have the prospects for a great Democratic victory in this precinct been as flattering as they are at present. Aguirre felt lonely, as he could plainly see that Gibson would snow him under beautifully on November 4th, if San Pedro has anything to say about it.

Senator Bowers failed to enthrone the audience when he said San Diego wanted no appropriations for her harbor and San Pedro ought to have at least as much as Galveston, viz., $6,000,000. For some reason or another the speakers forgot to mention Markham's name at all, and the only issues discussed were those occupying the boards between 1840 and 1865, with the exception of what they termed the Democratic steal of more than $6,000,000 by the last legislature. They forgot to state, however, that Senator Bowers of San Diego voted for all of this steal, as they term it.

The Republican leaders are already beginning to quarrel over the handling of the sack, and if frequent trips to Los Angeles can better matters, the man that carries the vote of San Pedro in his vest pocket will handle it, as of yore. What a pity there are not more elections and more sacks for all to handle.

Stamboul Trots a Mile at Napa in 2:11 1/2.

Freedom Lowers the Yearling Stallion Record.

Bonner Takes Exceptions to Some of Baldwin's Statements.

Sunol the Greatest Trotter Living—The World's 100-Yards Sprinting Record Is Again Lowered.

Associated Press Dispatches.

NAPA, Cal., Oct. 18.—Stamboul trotted against time today, and lowered his record, making a mile in 2:11 1/2. Suetette won the first postponed trot today, Ana second, Directa third; time 2:28 1/2.

Second special trot—Sidney J. took first two heats and race; best time 2:30; Victoria second, Soudan withdrawn after the first heat.

Princess Alice won the 2:30 trot over Gold Medal in straight heats; best time 2:16.

Three-year-old stake—Entries: Linette, Lizzie F. and Millie Wilkes. Linette took first two heats; best time 2:29 1/2.

Linette won the last heat and race in 2:29 1/2; Millie Wilkes second. Special trot—Starters: Mary Low, Maggie E. and Emma Temple. Maggie E. won in three straight heats, Emma Temple distanced; time 2:19 1/2, 2:23 1/2 and 2:21 1/2.

Stamboul's Work.

Between heats the stallion Stamboul, driven by John Goldsmith, accompanied by a running teaser, piloted by McDowell, was sent to beat the Pacific coast stallion record (2:12 1/2) held by himself. The horse was in the best possible form, and in warming up showed a magnificent stride. When he got the word a dozen watches chronicled the fact, and as the quarter was checked (33 1/2 seconds) to the half the great horse went like clockwork in 1:06 1/2. At the three-quarter he had not slackened his pace, the watches showing 1:39 1/2. Down the stretch he came urged to the utmost speed by the cries of the driver, passing under the wire amid a storm of cheers. When the judges announced the time (2:11 1/2) the assembled populace went wild, and another hearty cheer rent the air. Stamboul finished very strong, making the last quarter in 31 1/2 seconds.

The Yearling Record Broken.

McCorbitt's yearling colt, Freedom, driven by Goldsmith, McDowell accompanying with a runner, was sent to beat the yearling stallion record (2:35). The little fellow after getting the word, went round the track without a skip, under the driver's skillful pilotage, not only beating the yearling stallion record, but smashing Norlaine's yearling record. The time by quarters was .37 1/2, 1:17 1/2, 1:55 and 2:29 1/2. When the time was given out, there was another scene of excitement, yelling and cheering; hats were thrown in the air and a perfect pandemonium reigned.

Hazel Wilkes had a walk-over in the free-for-all trot. She simply jogged a mile.

Wanda, driven by William Virget, accompanied by a runner, was driven a mile in 2:20. She would have lowered this a few seconds but for a disastrous break at the head of the stretch. The driver attempted to break her record (2:18 1/2) but failed, making the circuit in 2:19.

FALL HANDICAPS.

A Princeton Sprinter Breaks the World's 100-Yard Record.

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 18.—The annual fall handicap meeting of the Princeton university athletic grounds association was held this afternoon, and was remarkable for fast time made in the 100 and 220 yards dashes, by Carey of '98. Four experienced timers gave 9 1/2 seconds as the record for 100 yards, which breaks the world's record made at Washington last Saturday, by John S. Owen, Jr., of Detroit, and 22 seconds for 220 yards on a curved track, equaling the American record for the same distance straight away.

Pugilist in London. NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—A Police Gazette's London cablegram says that Gus Lambert, the American heavy-weight pugilist, and Teddy O'Neill, of Liverpool, have been matched to fight for $200. The men are to fight at catch weights, on November 6th. Slavin and McAuliffe are boxing to large audiences, and both are being well received.

BONNER AND BALDWIN.

Disagree as to Straight-Away Trotting—Sunol's Possibilities.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Bonner does not like Baldwin's statement that Maud S and Jay-Eye-See would stand no show in trotting on a straight mile course, and that the record would be lowered to two minutes. He says: "The public patronize trotting races to see horses trot, and with a mile straight away very little could be seen." "Will you send Sunol for a record if the proposed track is perfect?" "I am opposed to straightaway tracks, both for runners and trotters. The oval track is the only one for horse-racing, and a record made on a straightaway or kite-shaped track is valueless. In my opinion Sunol is a wonderfully long strider, and this straightaway would be just the thing for her."

Bonner does not believe a trotter will ever fairly travel a two-minute mile. He says: "That's nonsense. The fastest trotter in the world—barring none—is this filly Sunol. Why look at her. She is only a baby just now. Yet only two horses—Maud S. and Jay-Eye-See—have trotted better. With everything turning out favorably, she may get down to 2:05 or 2:07. It may be 2:04, but that is the limit of a trotter's speed."

AGITATED GAULS.

THE AMERICAN TARIFF CONTINUES TO WORRY THEM.

Retaliatory Action Advocated by One Faction, While Another Thinks France has Already Done Too Much in that Line.

PARIS, Oct. 18.—There has been great excitement during the week at Lyons, over the new United States tariff law, and Burdeau, the Lyons deputy giving notice that he will, in the chamber, demand retaliatory action for the increased duties on French goods. He will especially propose that a retaliatory duty be placed on petroleum, and also suggest that boards of inspection be established for the examination of all imports from the United States. On the other hand, the committee for the defense of the silk market, held a great meeting at Lyons, at which the speakers took the ground that retaliation was likely to do more harm than good.

The president of the chamber of commerce called attention to the fact that the retaliatory policy against Italy had already cost the Lyons market 7,700,000 francs worth of business, and given Germany industrial supremacy in Italy. Besides, the notable injustice committed by France and other countries toward America in the matter of pork, had led to conferring extraordinary powers upon the president of the United States by the Edmunds retaliatory bill, and might entail dangers to the great French staple articles of export, particularly wines and silks.

The president was followed by a senator and two members of the chamber of deputies, all of whom spoke to the same effect.

The Petit Journal thinks the bill affects England and Germany more than France, which ought not to be drawn into making reprisals against the United States. Temps holds that if the new American tariff is injurious to French interests, France cannot complain, as it has for over nine years persisted in enforcing an unwise act that has been injurious to America. The moment has come, it says, to repair this mistake and the circumstances are favorable.

The council of the department of Bouches de Rhone has already called for the annulment of the decree against American pork.

A meeting of the cabinet was held today, at which the final draft of the general customs tariff was approved. The cabinet also accepted the reduction made by the budget committee in expenditures, as estimated by Rouvier, the minister of finance. This leaves 4,500,000 francs available, thus permitting the government to reduce the duty on alcohol.

IN A DENSE FOG.

Emperor William's Social Reforms.

His Grand Schemes Lacking in Materialization.

Finance Minister Miquel Curbs the Kaiser's Extravagances.

Reducing Revenues and Increasing Expenditures Makes the Future Budget a Vague Uncertainty.

Associated Press Dispatches.

BERLIN, Oct. 18.—[Copyrighted, 1890, by the New York Associated Press.] The emperor will open the langtag in person on November 11th. The emperor desires the passage of a measure for the reduction of the prices of articles of food and the rent of dwellings for the working-classes. Her Von Maybach, minister of public works, who was charged with the operation of the bill providing for the erection of dwellings for workmen in every populous center, has secured imperial assent because of the incomplete condition of his proposals. It is the opinion in official circles that the trouble is due to restraints placed upon Maybach by the minister of finance.

The emperor has a grand scheme, but Minister Von Maybach, on consulting with Miquel, the Prussian minister of finance, found that there were obstacles to the investing of more than 8,000,000 marks in building small tenements in the suburbs. This incident applies to the general position of the government in regard to schemes for costly social reforms and accompanying projects for abolition of duties on cattle and grain between Italy, Austria and Germany, and leaves the budget of the future in a dense fog. Miquel insists that the government should proceed with the greatest caution. Miquel's policy implies waiting to see what effect the new United States tariff will have upon some sources of German prosperity before committing the country to long tariff treaties in any direction.
