

TODAY'S CONVENTION.

A LIST OF DELEGATES AND OF CANDIDATES.

A Number of Entries for the Majority. Several of them Unofficial—Everything in Readiness to Name a Winning Ticket.

The Democratic city convention meets this morning at 10 o'clock, at Turner hall. Those who have been prominently spoken of as chairman are Hon. C. E. Thom, R. C. Carlton, Judge A. M. Stephens, and Col. J. J. Ayers.

A list of the candidates announced so far is given below. A number of those mentioned for the majority have not announced themselves, and some of them probably will not permit their names to be used. The friends of Mr. Ward, for example, are pressing his name on the grounds of his business experience, his high personal character, his well-known views as to city government being a business affair, and as to his ability to meet the demands of the city in its social duties. Mr. Ward having promised his friends of the Fourth ward to stand for councilman from that ward, has not thought it best to consider the question of the majority.

The Candidates.

The following is a list of candidates for honors at the hands of the Democratic city convention. Some are avowedly seeking office, others have only been talked of by friends and have not announced themselves:

- MAYOR: A. Glasse, Sr., John Shirley, Ward, B. A. Lang, W. S. Graves, William Lacy, Ex-Mayor W. H. Workman, Ex-Mayor Thomas, J. H. Bryant and Judge Stephens.

FORTY-SIXTH PRECINCT: Geo. W. Retzger, M. C. Heine, Henry Bruning.

SUDDEN DEATHS.

Two Inquests Held Yesterday by the Coroner.

Coroner Weldon was called upon to act in his official capacity twice yesterday. In the morning an inquest was held upon the body of Milton S. Dimmick, who was killed by the accidental discharge of a rifle in his own hands at his ranch, at Cienega, on Thursday evening. From the testimony given by Mrs. Ella C. Dimmick, the unfortunate man's wife, it was learned that the deceased on his return home from work, went to a cupboard in the house to look for a bottle of acornite. Hearing the report of a gun, Mrs. Dimmick rushed from the kitchen and met her husband staggering from the cupboard, the door of which was open. In reply to her question as to what had happened, Dimmick replied, "Why, that gun went off." He was assisted to a chair by his wife, who dispatched one of her children for medical assistance. Drs. Pratt and Dougherty were soon in attendance, and on examination found that Dimmick was shot in the left breast. A rifle bullet was extracted from the patient's shoulder, and every effort made to stop the hemorrhage; but about 7 o'clock the unfortunate man died from exhaustion.

The fatal weapon, a Winchester repeating rifle, was found lying in the cupboard, the butt resting against the wall, and it was evident that in groping about in the darkness, Dimmick had evidently caused its discharge. A verdict was returned in accordance with these facts.

The second inquest was held at Pasadena in the afternoon upon the body of Edward Nicholas Lowther, a young Englishman, 22 years of age, who was found dead in bed yesterday morning. Young Lowther, who was employed on a ranch near Pasadena, had not been feeling well for some days past, complaining of pains in his chest and bones. Being unable to work, he was induced to move into town, and did so yesterday morning, one of his friends carrying his bedding for him. On being ensconced in his new quarters the youth requested his friend to get him something to eat, and saying that he was tired, sat on the bed. Shortly afterward he was seen in a sitting position on the bed, leaning against the wall, apparently asleep; but when his friend attempted to move him it was found that he was dead. From the fact that a few days ago he had remarked that a dose of strychnine would be better than any other medicine for him, it was at first thought that he had committed suicide; but the coroner made a post mortem examination of the body, which developed the fact that the cause of death was an organized clot eight inches in length in the right ventricle of the dead man's heart, which was much enlarged. A verdict of death from natural causes was accordingly rendered.

THE SANTA FE.

Private Advices Confirm the Story That Gould Has Got It.

From advices received in this city yesterday by private parties, it was learned that there is little doubt but what Jay Gould has secured control of the Santa Fe railway, by reason of the large sales of stock made under pressure by Kinder, Peabody & Co., and Baring Bros. The result is hard to predict, except that it is barely possible that Mr. Strong may be reinstated as president, as he is known to be a warm personal friend of Gould's. Despite the improvements made in the Santa Fe system, and the large business it has done of late, its stock has steadily depreciated for the last two years, until a few days ago it sank to 12. This has been inexplicable to the outsiders, but is explained on the hypothesis that Mr. Gould wanted to buy a considerable amount, and as a rule that gentleman fixes his own price.

From the same source it was learned that the Union Pacific would not build to Los Angeles, but would only extend its southern branch to a junction with the Atlantic and Pacific.

Vigorous Men and Women.

The vigorous are they who pay attention to the laws of health, of which one of the foremost is, Take care of your digestion. should a temporary attack of the enemy, dyspepsia, surprise you, foil his subsequent assaults with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. From the stomach come the fundamental supplies which minister to vigor, and thoroughly transmuted into blood actively circulated, are the maintenance of the system. Failure in countenance, nervous, attenuated in figure, appetiteless, poor sleepers, are the dyspeptic. Reinforced and built up by the great stomachic, the weak and thin increase in color and bulk, appetite improves, nervous symptoms disappear, sleep grows tranquil and refreshing, and the tranquillity of mind and despondency notable in invalids gives place to light heartedness, a capacity for easy enjoyment of the good things of this life. Use the bitters for malarial, bilious, rheumatic and kidney troubles.

Pure Java and Mocha Coffee, Sole agents, Seymour & Johnson Co. Drink EUCALYPTA for all stomach troubles.

JUDGE WIDNEY'S GUESTS.

A PLEASANT ATTENTION PAID TO THE REPORTERS.

They Were Entertained Last Evening at a Banquet—The Judge Expresses Some Complimentary Opinions on the Craft.

The first time that the news-gatherers of the daily papers of this city ever received an attention, behind which did not lurk some interested intention, was last evening when they were the guests of Judge R. M. Widney, at a banquet at the Westminster hotel. Before the repast was served, the judge made the following little address, which explains the motives which caused the affair:

"It is usual to make after-dinner speeches, but in this instance I thought it would be proper to give you the best of the feast last, and therefore make my speech first.

"Mrs. Widney and I have been the recipients of so many courtesies and of so many delicate attentions from the reporters of our city papers in the various works in which we have been engaged—the power festival, chrysanthemum fair, home for young ladies, and other social and benevolent enterprises—that we have for a long time desired to express our appreciation of the many kindnesses by something more than words of thanks. "Before going east Mrs. Widney had planned to entertain you at her home, but you well know how overcrowded she was with various duties, and this pleasure was not possible.

"I take this occasion, more on her behalf than mine, to thank you for your most kind and liberal co-operation in the work of the past.

"I look upon the work of the reporters throughout the nation as one of the most important factors in our civilization.

"Ten thousand eager minds in weary bodies pursuing the slightest clues, chasing down the latest facts, unearthing the concealed and correctly placing before the world the occurrences of the fleeting hours.

"What would we do without these facts? The financial, business, social and political movements are based upon the facts you report from day to day. An incorrect, an incomplete reporting of a single day would cause the loss of millions. And if the public lost confidence in the reliability of your reports, we would not dare to make another move.

"Your profession is one of the most important and honorable, enabling us to build up our industries, to develop our resources, to protect ourselves from the earliest indications of lurking epidemic, or social or financial dangers.

"Reporters, as a citizen of Los Angeles, who appreciates your work to the public and to himself, and to Mrs. Widney, I thank you and tender you the pleasures of this evening."

Nothing could be more perfect in its appointments and material than the feast which was then enjoyed.

Mr. R. J. Colver, of the Times, when the coffee and walnuts appeared, requested Col. Shaw, of the Express, to express the sentiments of the reporters towards their host, which he did in a most effective manner. As the hour was near when "the devil" calls for "copy," after a few more informal remarks, the guests took their leave, giving three cheers for the Judge and Mrs. Widney.

Those present were: Miss Nettie Freeman, Edwin Bowles, W. G. Taylor, R. H. Farquhar, E. L. Jones, R. J. Colver, Lester Osborne, Otheman Stevens, Mr. Todd, John H. Bennett, John Woodward, Frank Oakley, Col. H. G. Shaw and W. G. Miller.

Mr. George L. Arnold, cashier of the University bank, assisted the judge in receiving the guests.

PUBLIC WORKS.

The Recommendations Made Yesterday by the Board.

At the regular meeting of the board of public works held yesterday, the following report was adopted for presentation to the council on Monday:

Recommend that all proceedings to sidewalk Canal street, north of Temple, be discontinued, to enable the property owners to do the work themselves.

Recommend the passage of ordinances accepting Los Angeles street, between Ninth and Tenth streets; of intention to open Lucas avenue, between Seventh and Ward streets, and also to open Santee street.

Recommend that crosswalks be laid across Twenty-third street and Grand avenue, and Washington and Cherry streets.

Recommend that the communication from the Southern California Railroad company, stating that it is strengthening the levee as rapidly as possible, be filed.

Recommend that no ordinance ordering sidewalks to be laid on the south side of Pico street, between Main and Hill streets, be passed until the property owners set their fences back to the proper line.

Recommend that the protest of A. M. Stephens et al. against the paving of a portion of Regena street by private contract be granted, as the work cannot be done without the unanimous consent of the property owners.

Recommend that the street superintendent be instructed to put Griffin avenue on grade, north of Grandin street where it has been changed, between Grandin and Canada streets.

Recommend that the request of W. T. Somes, to be allowed to erect an ornamental sign in front of his place of business on South Spring street, be granted, provided the work be done under the direction of the street superintendent, and that Louis Fay be accorded a like privilege on West First street.

CONSIDERABLE IN IT.

The Tribune Throws Mud at a Respectable Unfortunate Woman.

The Tribune in its issue of yesterday attempted to cover up the fact of its being badly scooped on a sensational story of the narrow escape of a respectable woman from the wiles of a vile profligate, by making an alleged disclosure of what it called "the facts in the case," which it printed under the appropriate heading of "Nothing in it."

Chief Glass, when shown the article referred to last night, was very indignant, and assured a HERALD reporter that it was a malicious lie from beginning to end, and one that was calculated to do an irreparable injury to the lady referred to. Having given his word to the relatives of the lady not to divulge her name, he was not of course at liberty to do so, but he was perfectly convinced of the truth of her statements, and could produce corroborative evidence, if necessary, at a few moments notice. As to the reflections cast upon the lady by the morning paper referred to above, the chief said that he had learned that an enterprising reporter had "investigated" the matter, by interviewing Max Cameron, the proprietress of the house of ill-fame at 203 Alameda street, who naturally attempted to defame the woman who so narrowly escaped being entrapped into her infamous service.

MORE NEEDED.

The Ladies of the Benevolent Society Need Contributions.

Some time ago the ladies of the Benevolent society issued a circular to the public, making an appeal for help, which has brought many responses. Still much is now needed, and could be had if each charitable citizen would contribute what they could individually afford.

The ladies are specially grateful for small donations, and these if sent from every citizen toward the cause of his suffering and unfortunate fellow beings, would swell the grand total to an amount sufficient to provide for the wants of every poverty-stricken home in Los Angeles.

The Owl club, as their contribution toward this benevolent enterprise, will present the play of Esmeralda at the Grand opera house, the use of which has been kindly given by Mrs. O. W. Childs, some time between the 15th and 20th of December. This performance is sure to be an excellent one, given under the direction of C. A. Dobinson and M. Lehman, who will be assisted by Professor Ludlam and his class, Charles Vogelsang and others.

WHERE THEY GROW.

Big Watermelons from the Monte Country.

Mr. John McGirk, of El Monte, has received the following letter from a seed merchant at Philadelphia in reference to a watermelon grown on his place and sent east to compete for a prize:

Office of Wm. Henry Mauls, Importer and Grower of Seeds, PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30, 1890.

Dear Sir:—It gives me pleasure to inform you that after due investigation, I have decided that you are entitled to the premium offered for the largest prize jumbo watermelon raised from seeds purchased of me the past season, owing to your having raised a jumbo weighing 131 1/4 pounds, consequently you will find enclosed herewith a draft on the Third National bank of this city for $100, being amount of prize offered, etc. Yours truly, Wm. Henry Mauls.

The above melon was grown on land rented of E. J. Baldwin in the Ro Potrero de Felipe Lago.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Packages Sent to California on Wheels.

The chamber of commerce sent to California on Wheels, in Pennsylvania, five cases, containing lemons, limes, oranges, persimmons, pomegranates, citron, apples, pumpkins and watermelons, pamphlets and bulletins. This makes a grand total of 300 packages sent to the car since the opening of the permanent exhibit. Donations were received from W. T. Clapp, of Pasadena, of the finest pomegranates of the season, and a fine display of apples from Mrs. H. Schumel, of La Ballona. The Rivera tower was handsomely decorated with oranges, lemons, limes, citron, apples, guavas and flowers from L. L. Beckett's home. O. P. Passons and T. R. Passons also donated oranges, lemons, flowers and citron.

REPUBLICAN DELEGATES.

The Correct List for Precinct A in the Third Ward.

In the list of the returns from the Republican primaries published in yesterday's issue, an error was unwittingly made as to the ticket elected in Precinct A of the Third ward. Of the 51 votes polled in this precinct, 47 were cast for the following twelve gentlemen, who were duly elected as delegates to the convention, on the regular caucus ticket: L. E. Newton, E. Hill, Geo. R. Shatto, J. Van Dam, W. C. Furey, Geo. Lawrence, J. M. Witter, Geo. E. Seip, C. W. McKay, C. D. Platt, A. L. Church, Geo. H. Stewart.

The Illustrated Annual Herald.

The most acceptable present you can send to eastern friends is the Illustrated Annual Herald. There are forty-eight large pages of fresh and reliable information about Southern California, including statistical matter of the greatest value, relating to the climate, crops, population, etc. There are fifty fine illustrations of local scenes, the bird's-eye view of the city of Los Angeles being alone worth the cost of the publication. No gift would be more appreciated in the east than a copy of the Annual Herald. It may be obtained of newscasters, or at the HERALD business office. Price 15 cents per copy.

The best place in town to get a good mercantile lunch is at John Brink's, 219 North Spring street.

W. Galer, printer, 316 West First street.

STILL ANOTHER.

A Political Move Called the Young Men's Party.

There was a large meeting at the headquarters of the Young Men's Progress and Improvement party, 113 West Second street, yesterday. No one exactly knows what this party is for, except its promoters, and they will not tell any secrets. There would seem to be enough parties in the field now, for legitimate purposes.

The meeting was called to order by Frank C. Stedman, who briefly outlined the objects of the party. Mr. Stedman then called for nominations for temporary chairman. Thomas M. Gilbert, in a neat speech, nominated W. O. Gilkey, who was elected by acclamation.

I. W. Stewart then placed B. Fehemann in nomination for secretary. Mr. Fehemann was elected. Chas. W. Palm was elected treasurer. The next business was the selection of an executive committee, which was as follows:

W. O. Gilkey, chairman; J. A. Gregory, Chas. W. Palm, Thos. M. Gilbert, Frank P. Stedman, J. W. Stewart, W. H. Davis, Paul Flammer, H. Schlessinger, Nat. G. Beardsley, T. J. Gallagher, Jas. W. Blackburn, W. H. Rutzgahn, Oscar Gunther, Thos. Miller, Eugene Fischer, H. K. McInerny, H. Stuyvesant.

The following resolutions were then adopted:

Resolved, That there be a committee of 500, appointed by the executive committee, to act as a canvassing and advisory committee. The order of appointment to be every fourth name on the roll.

Resolved, That the Young Men's party carefully canvass the record of each candidate, and that a committee of fifteen be appointed for that purpose.

Resolved, That each candidate receiving the nominations of our party, endorse the platform and pledge himself to carry out its principles.

Resolved, That the Young Men's party, in the coming campaign, know no political party and only select candidates for their special fitness for the position they will occupy.

On motion it was ordered that the secretary be authorized to advertise the plan for the selection of the various candidates in the papers, and that the candidates be selected on the following day.

Immediately after the adjournment of the general committee, the executive committee was called to order, and the following sub-committees were appointed:

Campaign committee: Frank P. Stedman, Paul Flammer, I. W. Stewart, H. Schlessinger, James W. Blackburn.

Finance committee: J. N. Gregory, Charles W. Palm, W. H. Rutzgahn, T. J. Gallagher, Thos. M. Gilbert.

Auditing committee: W. H. Davis, Nat. G. Beardsley, James C. Stevenson, H. Stuyvesant, Oscar Gunther, Thos. Miller.

The campaign committee was instructed to secure such clerical and other help as might be found necessary. The executive committee as a whole will meet again this evening.

PEARL HINTON DISCHARGED.

The U. S. Grand Jury Ignore the Charge of Mailing an Obscene Letter.

The United States grand jury made a partial report to Judge Ross yesterday. They failed to find a true bill against Pearl Hinton, charged with sending an obscene letter through the mail, and she was discharged from custody. The grand jury then adjourned until Tuesday at 10:30.

Malaria

Is believed to be caused by poisonous miasms arising from low, marshy land or from decaying vegetable matter, and which, breathed into the lungs, enter and poison the blood. If a healthy condition of the blood is maintained by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, one is much less liable to malaria, and Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured many severe cases of this distressing affection.

A Wonderful Medicine.

"For malaria I think Hood's Sarsaparilla has no equal. It has kept my children well right through the summer, and we live in one of the worst places for malaria in Marysville. I take Hood's Sarsaparilla for that all gone feeling, with great benefit." Mrs. E. F. Davis, Marysville, Cal.

Break-Bone Fever.

"My daughter Pearl was taken with dengue (or break-bone) fever 2 years ago, and my friends thought I would lose her. I had almost given up hope until she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. She took four bottles in four months, and gained 15 pounds. I thank Hood's Sarsaparilla for giving her back to me restored to health and strength." JULIA A. KING, Sherman, Texas.
