The social which was to have been held at the residence of W. J. McCaldin last night for the benefit of the Episcopal church, was given at the Webster, owing to the illness of one Mr. McCaldin's neighbors.

The First Universalist church has issued a neat card, having on one side a picture of the church and on the reverse side the order of services on Sabbath, with the weekly meetings held by the members of the church.

The postoffice will be open tomorrow morning from 8 to 10 o'clock. There will be one morning delivery only, but in case the eastern mail is on time the carrier's window will be open for a short time late in the afternoon.

Last night Albert S. Cates and Miss Susan Kraemer were married, at the residence of the bride, corner of Mary street and North Fair Oaks avenue, by Rev. A. M. Merwin, of South Pasadena. H. J. Stewart was best man, and Miss Cook bride's-maid. Mr. Cates's associates in the First National bank presented the bride with a handsome tea service.

No one of an athletic turn of mind should miss the sports on Thanksgiving day. It is confidently believed that the 100-yard dash will be run in 10 1/2 seconds, which is within three-fourths of a second of the best record for that distance. The quarter mile run will also be hotly contested, and it is safe to predict the impossibility of picking out the winner until after the race has been run. All the contestants are training hard and every event promises to be interesting.

ALHAMBRA.

An Interesting Batch of News and Personal Notes.

W. D. G. Richards of Saticoy was here last week. Mrs. Ogilvie has gone away for a several weeks' visit.

A number of the young people of the Methodist church held a very pleasant social at the residence of Mr. G. B. Johnson, on First street, last Friday evening. Several plans of work for the coming year were discussed and decided upon, and the rest of the evening was spent in a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Heyes, of San Francisco, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Weeks. PROSPEROUS POMONA.

Matters Moving in Many Lines of Progress.

EDITORS HERALD.—The spirit of progress is upon our people, and Pomona is enjoying a season of peace and prosperity.

The election passed off to the satisfaction of one party at least, and the fine fruit crop of the valley is gathered and sold. The weather is perfect and there are no grumblers left but the dry-weather ones, so people can turn their attention to the improvements of the town. The city fathers have purchased the fine property for a city park, and now can with pride take their friends to the top of Mount San Jose and point to the fair valley and the beautiful natural park, and in years to come we will have one of the finest parks in the state.

The board of trade is making arrangements to advertise our beautiful city by the use of the fine new birds-eye view of the city that Prof. D. B. Morse has ready for them, which is a gem, and gives one a fair idea of the city and surroundings. The hotel Palomares is being ably run by Mr. and Mrs. Hunt, who have issued invitations for a reception Thursday evening. The hotels are all doing a fine business, and a new one is soon to be added to the list.

Three new brick business houses are under way and will soon be an ornament to our city. There are several more contemplated.

The Vicksburg post, G. A. R., will hold a fine entertainment and social time in McComas hall next Monday evening, and have invited the boys to attend in a body; also the post and boys of Ontario.

The pastory of the Christian church is holding revival services this week and with great success.

The various societies and churches are making elaborate preparations for Thanksgiving dinners and suppers.

Real estate has sold exceedingly well during the past month, and our town is full of strangers and friends.

AN ORDER FOR A PANSY PICTURE

What did you say little Pansies? "We have come to make you a visit, Dressed up as each of us fancies, In purple, orange, and tints most exquisite;

"The style of our dresses make quaint us, Our eyes have been bathed in the dew And we come to ask you to paint us, Not many, but only a few.

"Put us all in a little old basket, The more picturesque than vases, And please don't mind if we ask it, Not to show quite all of our faces.

"We Purples and Dark Browns are modest, And would like to be kept in the shade, The Yellows and Blues and the Oddest In the light would look well to be laid;

"And if you should wish for a beauty For the most conspicuous place, We should all consider it our duty To give way to Blue Eyes and white face.

"If one should droop down, as we fancy It might, don't think we should mind it, For some one who loves you, will buy it, Would be very certain to find it."

There, sit still little dears, while I paint you, A sweet picture you'll make when you're painted, And if you, fallen pansy, feel faint, you Must ask—alas! she has fainted.

But my brush has already caught her, And she need not stay there any longer, Rest your stem in this saucer of water And you soon will revive and feel stronger.

There darlings, you cannot deny it That I've painted each as she fancies, And some one who loves you, will buy it, My dear little "Picture of Pansies."

The Mother's Heart.

In no relation does woman exercise so deep an influence, both immediately and prospectively, as in the maternal. Her smiles call into exercise the first affections that spring up in our heart. She cherishes and expands the earliest germs of our intellects. She breathes over us her deepest devotions. She lifts our little hands and teaches our little tongues to lip in prayer. She watches over us like a guardian angel and protects us through all our helpless years, when we know not of her cares and her anxieties on our account.

She follows us into the world of men, and lives in us and blesses us when she lives not otherwise upon the earth. What constitutes the center of every home, whether our thoughts turn when our feet are weary with wandering and our hearts sick with disappointment? And if there be a tribunal where the sins and follies of a froward child may hope for pardon and forgiveness this side of heaven that tribunal is the heart of a fond and devoted mother.—New York Ledger.

Hired Women Bathers.

I learned this week of a new device on the part of a hotel keeper to draw trade. Noticing a large crowd collected about a bathing place on which were situated the bath houses and pavilion of a very ordinary hotel, I journeyed thither to satisfy a not unreasonable curiosity. The crowd was engaged in looking at three young women who had just emerged from the water. The women were fairly handsome, and owned fine forms, which were somewhat fully exhibited. One had a full bathing costume of crimson, the second wore pale blue and the other wore white. They displayed no embarrassment as they walked along with a multitude of eyes resting upon them. The young women, I was told, were employed by the hotel keeper for the purpose of attracting a crowd to his bathing houses and pavilion. They serve their purpose successfully.—Long Branch Cor. Troy Press.

A Noble Woman's Entertainment.

The Countess Delaware the other day kindly invited a large number of London children to Buckhurst park from the parishes of All Saints and Pentonville, a special train bringing them from Victoria to Witherham station, whence they were conveyed in vans to Buckhurst. The children (about 400) were provided with a substantial dinner, set out on long tables in front of the castle, various amusements being afterward provided for them, racing, swinging, boating on the lake and games of all kinds. Tea was provided later on in the afternoon, the children leaving about 7 o'clock in vans for the return journey. Gifts were given by Lord and Lady Delaware, who accompanied them to the station, as did Ladies Edeline, Mary and Margaret Sackville.—New York Telegram.

Medical Aid in India.

Thirty English doctresses are at work in British India treating the poor in and around Bombay. The medical college, which cost the home government £213,000, contains 220 pupils, 200,000 women having received relief last year. Lady Dufferin, who is interested in the work, says in an appeal to the English for aid that millions of mothers and children remain without any medical help. The opinion prevails that the movement should be encouraged by support, as only a woman doctor could reach the native patients, who are not allowed to see a male doctor, and at most can only put their arms out of a screened window long enough to have the pulse counted.—London Letter.

The Time to Buy.

Country housekeepers would find it to their advantage to do some of their autumn shopping in summer, when there are few buyers and goods are marked down. A couple of days spent in careful investigation of the shops in New York city will often discover great bargains in household linens, in dress goods, in made up garments, and even in household wares. A little money will buy twice as much and twice as good as in the rush of the "season."—Housewife.

Drifted Snow Flour.

Style in Stationery.

Mauve letter paper embellished with a silver monogram has made a reappearance in fashionable circles. It is many years since lavender note paper was considered chic, but an attempt is being made to revive it. Another pretty style is known as grain de poudre, which has no more gloss than a cambric handkerchief and is excellent for the large English handwriting. The envelopes bear the monogram stamped on the front left hand lower corner, while the crest decorates the flap. The most elegant, however, is the cafe au lait tinted paper, with the monogram done in blue and gold or dark brown and gold.

Full of Hope.

"A sprightly maiden of something over sixty summers had an interview with the census enumerator in Milton a few weeks ago, and among other questions he asked her: 'Are you married, or have you ever been?' To which she replied in the negative; but observing how mournfully and pityingly he looked over the dismal fact she briskly added: 'But I am expecting every day that I shall be.'—St. Albans (Vt.) Messenger.

She Raises Silk Worms.

Mrs. Mary Davidson, of Junction City, Kan., appears to be one of the coming women who has arrived. She is by profession a silk culturist, and considered one of the most successful breeders of silk worms on the continent. For every ounce of worms raised she is able to command an average of $4.50. She has also written a manual of instruction, which has a large sale on the prairies, each book being accompanied by 2,500 eggs of the best breed. While her business was getting started Mrs. Davidson amused herself making silk flowers of cocoons, the process being of her own invention.

A Practical Empress.

While the Empress Frederick was in London she was engaged on a strange tour of inspection. Accompanied by her German architect and several well known gentlemen who make a specialty of baths, she visited a number of large houses in London in order to get some fresh ideas for baths to fit up in her own home.—New York Telegram.

Hot Weather Knocks Capid.

"This is the dullest season of the year," said Marriage License Clerk Bird. "Very few licenses are being issued now. It will be dull all through August, and then marriages will begin to start up again. During July I issued only 500 licenses."—Philadelphia Press.

According to Professor E. James, colored, the earth has but a little more than a twelvemonth to stand. Professor James is a chiroprapist with an international reputation. He has traveled much and removed corns and bunions from the crowned heads of Europe, so to speak. In his odd spells he turns his mind loose on prophecy, and after a careful study of the stars he is compelled to fix Aug. 21, 1891, as the grand shake-down and windup of the universe.

How Severe Colds are Broken Up in Montana.

From the Virginia City (Mont.) Madisonian. When we find a medicine we know to possess genuine merit, we consider it a duty, and we take pleasure in telling the public what it is. Such a medicine we found Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, last winter, when the gripe was prevailing. We are satisfied that we ward off several attacks that were threatening by the use of this syrup, and we have since relieved, in a few hours, severe colds, and in the course of two or three days, entirely broken them up by its use, as we have several of our friends to whom we have recommended it. It is all that it is represented to be by the manufacturers. If you have a cough and want to stop it, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will do the work. For sale by C. E. Heinemann, 222 N. Main street; John A. Off, Fourth and Spring, and all leading druggists.

We have always sold our lands for $200 per acre, until this fall. Now we have reduced the prices and fixed our terms to bring the land within the reach of all. We are arranging two irrigation districts under the "Wright Irrigation Act," and are selling land in one of these districts at $75 per acre, with a rebate of $15 per acre for improvements, to be put on the land by the purchaser the first year. This leaves the net price

Payable, $10 per acre cash, the balance in three equal payments, due in 2, 3 and 4 years, at 8 per cent interest. In the other district we sell the land for $100 per acre, with a rebate of $25 for improvements put on the land by purchaser the first year, which leaves the net price

AT $75 PER ACRE!

Payable $10 per acre cash, balance in 2, 3 and 4 years, at 8 per cent interest.

Our lands lie four miles west of San Bernardino and Colton, on the Santa Fe and Southern Pacific railroads, seven miles north of Riverside, and we are prepared to establish the fact that in quality and location they are not excelled in this country. Our elevation is 1300 feet above sea level, being about 400 feet higher than Riverside, and almost entirely free from frost.

The home office of the company is at Rialto, one of our four railroad stations; and the officers are: EX-GOVERNOR SAM'L MERRILL, President; MAJOR GEO. H. BONEBRAKE, Vice-President; F. C. HOWES, Treasurer; J. L. MERRILL, Secretary.

A land buyers' excursion is run by L. M. Brown every Friday morning from Los Angeles to Rialto, where carriages meet the train and carry passengers over the land. Train leaves Santa Fe depot at 8:30 a. m., and returning arrives here at 6:30 p. m. Fare for round trip, $2.55, which is returned to each purchaser of land. Tickets good for ten days.

L. M. BROWN, 132 N. Spring Street, Los Angeles, is the agent of the company in this city, who will give further information on application either in person or by letter. 10-9-4f
