EXCHANGE REVIEW.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—The shock market today was less active than usual of late, and there was a reaction of material proportions all along the line. Final prices are in most cases the lowest of the day, the market closing weak and active. As usual after reactions, a broader market will be looked for, and it is likely that the announcement of a change in management of Union Pacific expected tomorrow, will be used to start the market up again.

The Queen of the Occult Science.

Mme. Blavatsky, the queen of the occult, is living in London, and although her menu is limited to hot water, tomaner menu is imitted to not water, tomatoes, nuts, raisins and juicy fruits she gains a pound of flesh every week, her weight now being nearer 300 than 200. She has a parlor carriage in which she lives day and night. All the doorways on the lower floor have been widened for her convenience, and she wheels herself from one room to the other a will. It her convenience, and she wheels herself from one room to the other at will. It requires the services of four stenogra-phers and typewriters to answer the mail that pours in on her from all sections of the civilized globe. Her attire consists of a black silk slip made baby fashion, belted at the waist with a drawstring. The arm holes measure twenty-two inches, and waist and throat measure-ments are proportional. Although she ments are proportional. Although she never talks hired girl, dress or money matters, the opinion prevails that she has ample means for genteel retirement. —London Letter. Mr. and Mrs. Navarro are spending the latter portion of their honeymoon in a tour through the Midlands, and have a tour through the Midlands, and have been staying at Nottingham, with which town the bride has grateful associations, having produced "A Winter's Tale" at the Theatre Royal some years ago with great success. They attended high mass at the Roman Catholic cathedral on Sun-day, and were more or less in evidence in the streets of the town next day, but in the streets of the town next day, but so unexpected was their appearance that though the features of the bride are familiar enough to most people, they happily escaped recognition, and the inevitable mobbing of the curious which would have followed. "How like Mary Anderson," said the proprietor of schowing the the whole they made seem purchases. a shop where they made some purchases to a friend, and the resemblance was certainly striking.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Startling Facts.

The American people are rapidly becoming a race of nervous wrecks, and the following suggests the best remedy: Alfonso Hempding, of Butler, Pa., swears that when his son was sperchiess from St Vitus dance Dr. Miles' great Restorative Nervine cured him. Mrs. J. R. Miller, of Valparaivo, and J. D. Taylor, of Logansport, Ind., each gained 20 nounds from taking it. Mrs. H. A. Gardner, of Vistuia, Ind. much headache, dizdriess, backache and nervous prostration by one bottle. Trial bottles, and fine book of marvelous cures free at R. W. Ellis & Co., who recommend and guarantee this unequaled remedy.
