The Senate Votes Arms to Settlers.

Senator Pugh Discusses the Elections Bill.

The House in Committee on Pension Appropriations.

Representative Cooper Plays Pension Commissioner Raun Alive—New Bills, Etc.

Associated Press Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—In the senate today, among the bills introduced and referred, was one for a permanent tariff commission, and one by Stewart for the free and unlimited use of silver as money.

The joint resolution reported yesterday by Hawley, to issue arms to North and South Dakota and Nebraska, was taken up.

Hawley urged the necessity of prompt action.

Voorhees quoted an interview with Governor Foster of Ohio, ex-member of the commission to treat with the Sioux, in which Foster said the whole trouble arose from the fact that the Indians were starving. Give them enough to eat and there will be no further trouble.

After a lengthy debate on the question, the joint resolution was amended so as to apply to the states of North and South Dakota, Wyoming and Nebraska, and passed.

Morgan introduced a joint resolution, which went over until tomorrow, appropriating $5000 for investigation, under orders of the senate, as to the causes of the trouble among the Indians.

The elections bill was then taken up, and Pugh addressed the senate in opposition to it. The bill, he said, was never intended to be put in operation in Republican districts. It was founded on one proposition, and that was that state election officers might be watched, guarded and controlled because they were Democrats. The whole conception of the bill was a transparent and audacious scheme, having no other end or purpose than the capture of Democratic districts and their transfer to the Republican party in congress, to be used in perpetuating its supremacy in defiance of the will of the people.

Gray obtained the floor, but as he did not desire to speak this afternoon, Blair moved to lay the elections bill aside until tomorrow and take up the displaced labor bill.

Hear gave notice that after today he would endeavor to press the elections bill without having it laid aside for any other purpose whatever, until the final vote was reached.

Cockrell objected to the labor bill being taken up, and after a number of bills on the calendar were passed, the senate adjourned.

IN THE HOUSE.

Cooper Takes a Shot at Pension Commissioner Raun.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—In the house, today, unfinished business in the morning was the bill for the punishment of every guardian, conservator, curator, tutor or other fiduciary agent, for the embezzlement of pensions of wards. The previous question was ordered—yeas, 115; nays, 92; and the bill passed.

On motion of Morrow, of California, the house went into committee of the whole on the pension appropriation bill.

Morrow explained that the bill appropriated for the payment of pensions $133,173,000, to be distributed among 654,715 pensioners. This was the largest number of beneficiaries ever provided for in any single item in the statutes of the United States. It was estimated that the gross income for the United States of those pensions for the year 1892, would average $203.40 each. He believed there would be no deficiency next year.

Cooper of Indiana got the floor and reviewed all of the charges made against Commissioner of Pensions Raun, which formed the basis of an investigation last session, and asserted that they had all been proved. The pension bureau should be presided over by a man above criticism and above reproach. During the last campaign Raun had gone to Indiana and had invaded his (Cooper's) district. The commissioner's only excuse was that he might defeat Cooper's election. Raun had gone to Indiana to prostitute his high office for partisan ends. He (Cooper) had great veneration for the pension bureau, and protested that the institution should not become the spawning place for corporations or a stall for the sale of patent rights, nor should it be presided over by a "moribund and malodorous politician," likened by a Republican paper to a bad egg.

Sawyer, of New York, was surprised that Cooper should make his speech at this time before the case was closed. Cooper had said the committee had abandoned any further investigation, but it had been a clear understanding that the committee should hear further testimony at this session. Sawyer further denied that the charges against Raun had been proved.

After further debate, the committee rose and the house adjourned.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

Morrow to Succeed Mizner as Minister to Guatemala.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—It is reported that the president and Secretary Blaine are seriously considering the appointment of Congressman Morrow, of California, as minister to Guatemala, in place of Mizner, recalled.

The president has reappointed Joseph T. Jacobs, of Ann Arbor, Mich., member of the board of Indian commissioners. The secretary of the treasury has sent to the house a request for the immediate appropriation of $100,000 for the purchase of beef and other provisions for the Sioux Indians.

Dr. Jedediah H. Baxter, surgeon-general of the army, stricken with paralysis Monday, died this morning. He never regained consciousness after the attack.

Quay's Pension Bill.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Senator Quay yesterday introduced a bill granting all persons on the pension list, or hereafter placed on it, who have lost both eyes or both feet, or who are otherwise totally disabled, a pension of $100 a month; also, to all persons who lost an arm at the shoulder or a leg at the hip, $80 a month; and to those who lost an arm below the elbow or leg below the knee, $55 a month. Those who lost a hand or a foot, or have been totally disabled in the use of them, are to have a pension of $50. The bill further provides that persons who contracted no more disabilities shall receive a sum per month equal to the total rates for all of the disabilities suffered.

Representative McKinley today introduced a bill in the house similar to the one presented in the senate, providing that the present tariff law shall not affect the operation of the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty.

MONETARY BILLS.

Senator Stewart and Representative Bland Introduce New Bills.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Senator Stewart today introduced a bill for the free and unlimited use of silver as money. It amends the first section of the present law, by repealing the clause limiting the purchase of bullion, and requires the secretary of the treasury to purchase all the silver bullion offered, at a price not exceeding one dollar for 371.25 grains of pure silver. It also amends the third section by requiring the secretary to coin at least two million ounces per month after the first of July next, and as much more as necessary to redeem the treasury notes issued in the purchase of bullion.

In the house Bland introduced a bill requiring the secretary of the treasury to prepare a new series of treasury notes, commonly called greenbacks, and issue them in sums equal to the amount of national bank notes, from time to time surrendered for redemption or cancellation.

Bland also introduced a bill authorizing the issue of a series of legal tender notes to meet any deficiencies in the revenues of the government. The preamble to the bill recites that a deficiency in the revenues is now threatened, and the country is not in a condition to bear any further taxation.

O'Donnell Contests the Majority.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—Dr. C. C. O'Donnell filed application this afternoon praying for a special session of the superior court to count the votes cast for mayor at the last election. O'Donnell, who ran as independent, claims that he, and not the Republican candidate, is entitled to the certificate of election. The case will be heard on the 15th inst.

A DIFFICULT TASK.

THE ENFORCEMENT OF OBNOXIOUS FEDERAL LAWS.

If Trouble Is Had in Executing the Present Mild Election Laws, How Will It Be If the Lodge Bill Is Passed?

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Attorney-General Miller, in his annual report, says vigilant efforts have been made to enforce the legislation excluding Chinese immigration. By co-operation with the treasury department, it is believed most of the attempts to cross the border have been frustrated, as have the attempts to bring Chinese directly through the ports of the United States upon the Pacific.

In regard to the reorganization of the judiciary, it is earnestly hoped that the legislation now far advanced will not be permitted to fail.

In regard to the difficulty in enforcing law, the attorney-general says: The enforcement of the internal revenue laws and the United States election laws is particularly resisted. Several assassinations of officers and witnesses, with the purpose of impeding the execution of the laws, and orders of the United States, occurred during the past year. Within the last ten days a deputy marshal attempting to serve a warrant for the arrest of a man for the violation of the postal laws, was shot and instantly killed by the man sought to be arrested, and on preliminary examination before a magistrate of the state, the prisoner was promptly discharged. It is certainly an anomaly in government that those who have committed murders for the purpose of stopping prosecution in the federal courts, should not only be punished but not even be put upon trial in the state courts. So long as persons who kill officers, witnesses or jurors for the purpose of impeding the administration of justice, can only be tried and punished in the federal courts as for minor offenses, the administration of the United States laws and the laws themselves in many districts, will have little respect.

The supreme court recently decided that there is a "peace of the United States." Is it not the duty of congress to provide laws for the preservation of this "peace" everywhere and at all times? In prosecutions for violations of the election laws in several districts, convictions and pleas of guilty have been obtained in a large number of cases. As an illustration, however, of the difficulties met in such prosecutions, the attorney for one district reports that in a certain county, a number of whose citizens were convicted of violations of the election laws, that the county court ordered all the fines and costs assessed against them in the United States court, to be paid out of the county treasury; and in another county, a number of whose citizens were in like manner convicted or pleaded guilty of such offenses in the United States court, $1300 was actually paid out of the county treasury upon such fines and costs in one day. These facts speak for themselves.

LEGAL BUZZARDS.

Fattening of the Pensions of the Old Soldiers.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Secretary Noble has been paying considerable attention lately to the subject of attorney's fees in pension cases, and is formulating a plan by which claimants for pensions not represented by attorneys may be placed upon the same footing as those who are. In speaking today of attorney's fees, Secretary Noble expressed himself with some warmth. The pension bureau, he said, is now issuing between 14,000 and 15,000 certificates a week. This means that attorneys are receiving every week out of the moneys appropriated to relieve the necessities of the old soldiers, an amount estimated at between $150,000 and $175,000. A large number of cases have been adjusted under the old law, which allowed a fee of $25. The new law allows but $10, but even at this rate the attorneys would realize $150,000 a week. "I look over the lists of attorneys," added the secretary, "and find many of them are men who, upon their knowledge of the law, could not practice before a country justice of the peace, but here in Washington they manage in a few years to accumulate a million dollars or more, acting as attorneys for pension claimants."

A WHITE GOVERNOR.

Tillman Inaugurated in South Carolina.

He Makes a Remarkable Inaugural Address.

All Men Not Created Equal According to His Notion.

But He Insures to All the Right to Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness.

Associated Press Dispatches.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 4.—Governor-elect B. C. Tillman, elected on a reform ticket composed of Farmers Alliance and Democrats who wanted a change in government, was inaugurated today in the presence of a crowd from all parts of the state. In his inaugural address he referred to the national victory of the Democratic party. In regard to the election in his own state, he said: "It is gratifying to note the fact that this is attended by a political phenomenon which was a surprise to all of us. Our colored fellow citizens absolutely refused to be led to the polls by their bosses. When it is clearly shown that a majority of our colored voters are no longer imbued with Republican ideas, the vexed negro problem will be solved, and the fear of the return of negro domination will haunt us no more. Can I not pledge in your behalf that we white men of South Carolina stand ready and willing to listen kindly to all reasonable complaints, grant all just rights and safe privileges to these colored people, and guarantee fair treatment at our hands. We whites have absolute control of the state government, and we intend to retain it. Intelligent exercise of the right of suffrage, at once the highest and most sacred duty of the citizen, is beyond the capacity of a vast majority of the colored men. We deny that all men are created equal. It is not true now, and it was not true when Jefferson wrote it. But we cannot deny that it is our duty as the governing power in South Carolina, to insure to every individual, black and white, the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

It is now believed Senator Hampton will be defeated by Irby, the Tillman candidate for United States senator.

UNSETTLED MARKETS.

California Products Unfairly Treated in New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—The Commercial Bulletin says: The present condition of the market for California raisins is not as flattering as holders could desire. There is no considerable supply of first-class goods on spot or offering to arrive. More or less trouble has been experienced with buyers, who deem it expedient to reject goods coming in on contract, for the most trivial reasons in some cases; and the adjusting of such difficulties is not infrequently the means of unsettling values somewhat. A somewhat similar experience with deliveries of prunes and peaches has a rather depressing effect upon the market. Those goods and prices are, therefore, rather unsettled at the moment. Doubtless the money situation has some bearing on the market.

INTERCONTINENTAL ROAD.

Delegates Meet at Washington to Devise Ways and Means.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—The intercontinental railway commission, composed of representatives from the United States and other American republics, met for organization today at noon. This commission was recommended by the international American conference for the purpose of supervising a survey for a line to connect the railway systems of North America with those of South America. Secretary Blaine called the meeting to order, and made a brief address of welcome, in which he pointed out the magnitude, importance and far-reaching results of the proposed work. A. J. Cassatt, of the United States, was chosen president. After routine business, the conference adjourned till Thursday noon.

JACK THE RIPPER.

Editor O'Connor Goes Away From Home to Learn the News.

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—Referring to the story that Harry Dam, a New York and San Francisco journalist, while at work on the London Star, concocted the "Jack the Ripper" letters which created such a sensation in London in connection with the Whitechapel murders, T. P. O'Connor, M. P., editor of the Star at the time, says he never heard of the story before, and doesn't believe a word of it.

A Missing Coal-Dealer.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 4.—Jacob Sharp, a coal dealer, who has been missing from his office since November 24th, is now believed to be on the way to relatives in Germany. An investigation is being made of his affairs, and it is stated that parties in this city will be losers to an amount in the aggregate of about $30,000 unless Sharp returns. The Oregon Improvement company, it is stated, will lose about $8000. The Spanier estate, of which Sharp was executor, will lose between $4000 and $5000, and he is debtor to other parties and firms in sums ranging from $1000 to $2000.

Passenger Rates Advanced.

CHICAGO, Dec. 4.—The Western Passenger association has decided to advance the rate from Chicago to Pacific coast points, December 15th, from $72.50 for first class, to $75, and from $47.50, second class, to $50, in conformity with the demands of the transcontinental lines for increased proportions on through rates.

Valuables Stolen.

PORTLAND, Dec. 4.—It has just come to light that last Monday night thieves entered the room of Dr. Anton Lomenfeld, and stole diamonds, notes and valuable papers to the amount of $15,000. The police are attempting to keep the matter quiet in order to obtain some clew.

Detectives Puzzled.
