

PASADENA.

Company B drilled last night. George Cope, of Ferris, was in town yesterday, visiting E. C. Webster. The second nine of Pasadena played a game of baseball on Sunday with the Lamanda Park club, and were defeated by the close score of 12 to 11, Lamanda Park scoring two runs in the last inning, when the representatives from Pasadena thought they had the game safe. Batteries were: Pasadena, Test and Lancaster; Lamanda Park, Simmons and Collins.

The Valley Hunt has decided on the following prizes: Ranchmen's race, a road cart; bronco race, first prize, English riding saddle; hurdle race, silver object, value, $30; member's race, cup; tourney at rings, fine souvenir; flat race, first prize, French clock. Prizes will be given for the best decorated team and pony turnout. Entries from Los Angeles county are free.

D. W. Davis is home from a trip to South Dakota. Superintendent Monroe and quite a number of the principals and teachers of town were in attendance at the institute at Pomona on Saturday.

The Mt. Wilson Toll Road company is rapidly getting matters in shape and will soon advertise for bids for the construction of the road. The Charity organization will hold its annual meeting tonight, in Wilson's hall. There will be several addresses delivered and an orchestra will furnish music. The public is cordially invited to attend. No collection will be taken up and no subscriptions asked for at the meeting.

On the coming Friday all the public schools will close for the usual holiday vacation. Quite a number of Pasadenians attended the laying of the corner stone at the dedication of the new asylum at San Bernardino.

There is a slight misunderstanding between the members of the Valley Hunt and the Athletic association. The association seems to think that the hunt members purposely refrained from patronizing the Thanksgiving day sports, some saying that the Valley Hunt representatives present could be counted on one hand. Again, the members are exercised over the probable destruction of their track at Sportsman's park, in case the hunt decides to hold the tournament of roses at the park.

Rev. Dr. P. E. Breese of Los Angeles was in town yesterday. Miss Peck will return home shortly after New Year's.

J. A. De Hay left for the north yesterday, on a short business trip.

TO THE INCOMING COUNCIL.

No More Reduce Machines—How to Reduce Expenses.

Now that the city election is over and a fair representative council is elected, it behooves each of them to look around and see the errors and mistakes of their predecessors and correct them at the commencement of their term. The people who elected each one of them expect they will profit by the past council's experience. Retrenchment and reform of abuses are the watchwords of the people. Nothing else will satisfy them. To bring this about is a plain business proposition.

The most serious and fatal mistake made by the present council (now about to retire) was its abuse of the new charter by making it a political machine from the very beginning. In order to fulfill election promises they multiplied offices at a fearful rate. The freeholders who framed the new charter supposed that, by paying good, liberal salaries to the different heads of departments, the people would elect good men, and that said heads, instead of being ornaments (as is the case of some of them at the present time), would do some of the work themselves. In other words, it was not contemplated by the freeholders that the council would allow chief deputies, assistants, inspectors, and an innumerable lot of cormorants and bloodsuckers to suck the vitality out of the city, until the payroll for all salaries (excepting, of course, the expenses attending smallpox for two years) has nearly doubled since the administration of ex-Mayor Workman, during boom times of two years ago.

Here is the fatal mistake. Let the new council cut off all unnecessary deputies and assistants. Begin right, let politics alone and work in the interest of the tax-payers and people. The people do not care for politics in our local affairs, but want good, economical government.

Cut off the heads of at least one-half of the present deputies, assistants and inspectors, and put the money thus saved into permanent public improvements, something the people can see (good roads for instance), and you will not retire from office, two years hence, in ignominy and with curses, as some of our present councilmen are doing, but will receive the plaudits of a gratified people.

Go slow in giving deputies and assistants out of the public treasure. Do not be bamboozled into giving this and that officer all the deputies he may ask for, when they are idle more than half of their time, smoking cigarettes, drawing big salaries and wasting the substance of the people.

TO BE TIED TOGETHER.

People Who Wish to Taste of Matrimony's Joys.

There is quite a boom in the matrimonial line, no less than six licenses being issued yesterday from the county clerk's office by Cupid Mappa. The following are the names, ages and nativity of the happy couples:

S. P. Collette, aged 24, native of Canada, to Miss Kate B. Hodge, aged 19, native of Utah.

Frank Haint, aged 35, native of Michigan, to Susan Hoffman, aged 34, native of Illinois.

Bernard F. Rowland, aged 27, native of Puente, to Caroline B. Sanchez, aged 29, native of California.

Charles W. Watson, aged 26, native of New York, to Mina Atchinson, aged 19, native of Nevada.

D. E. Dolph, aged 24, native of Michigan, to Miss Ella W. Powers, aged 23, native of Indiana.

G. H. Jones, aged 45, native of New York, to Cora E. Elliott, aged 34, native of Maine.

COURT DOCUMENTS

Which Were Yesterday Filed With the County Clerk.

Yesterday W. T. Houston, George Little and W. C. McBratney filed a suit against G. W. Brown, B. J. Reese, G. Griffin, W. E. Reed, John Doe, R. Roe and Edulgee Sorabjee, of the Southern California Blue Gravel Mining company, for the sum of $1375 and an accounting of all the affairs of the company. They also pray that they be enjoined from selling any property.

Mrs. Susan Glassell Mitchell, the widow of the late H. M. Mitchell, has applied to Judge Clark to have Albert Mitchell, a brother of the deceased, appointed administrator of the estate, consisting of real estate and personal property.

UNIVERSITY.

News Notes from the Athens of the Semi-Tropics.

Correspondence of the HERALD.

Last Friday evening the Epworth league of the Methodist church met and elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Rev. William Arter Wright; first vice-president, Rev. S. W. Carnes; secretary, Frank Lapham. The list of officers will be completed at the next meeting.

Miss Fannie Whitlock entertained the members of her Sunday school class at her home on Thirty-seventh street, on last Friday evening.

Dr. J. D. Henry of Tulare was here this week.

Dr. M. M. Bovard, president of the University, has been granted a vacation of six months, on account of ill-health, caused by over-work. His salary will be continued with $2000 extra. Dr. Bovard is gaining slowly in health.

The board of supervisors, accompanied by Capt. A. W. Barrett, inspected the route of the proposed Electric Belt railway last Friday.

Will Harmon has arrived home from his ranch in San Bernardino county.

Christmas will be celebrated by the University Methodist Sunday school, in the old-fashioned way, a Christmas tree, so the Sunday school board have decided.

The farmers hereabout are busy preparing for their crops.

Several weeks ago Prof. J. Ivey, of the art department of the University, had on exhibition a sample of his work in the shape of a fine oil painting of Yosemite valley, 10x7 feet, which was greatly admired by many. Prof. Ivey will soon place this painting in the hands of J. T. Cole, who will use it in his lectures on the Yosemite valley.

The University will close December 24th, for the holidays.

WONG ARK AND AH MOY

INSTRUCT THE FEDERAL COMMITTEE ON CHINESE IMMIGRATION.

Two Members of the House and Senate Committee Take Testimony Regarding the Exclusion Act and the Chinese.

The joint committee of the United States senate and house of representatives on immigration held a meeting yesterday at United States Marshal Gard's office, and listened to evidence on the matter of Chinese immigration.

As a matter of fact the senate is not represented in the committee, the distinguished members from that body not thinking it worth their while to come to this city. The party is made up of Congressman Lehlbach of New Jersey, Congressman Stump of Delphi, Ind., clerk of the committee; C. M. Landes, stenographer, and B. N. Stump, nephew of Congressman Stump. The party is in charge of Charles B. Reade, sergeant-at-arms of the senate, who is accompanied by Mrs. Reade, Chinese Interpreter Rickords of San Francisco came with the committee from San Francisco. Deputy United States Marshals Marsh and Goodrich were examined as to the workings of the exclusion act. Their testimony was in substance that from the first of last April, 72 Chinamen had been captured and remanded to San Francisco. The line from the ocean to Yuma is 150 miles and is patrolled by only these two officers. They thought there were 200 Chinamen at Escondido at that date (April 1) and there are about 30 there now, which, with the 72 captured, leave about 100 who are supposed to have crossed the line.

The witnesses both thought that if there was a provision in the bill compelling every Chinaman to take out a certificate of identification it would mend matters very much.

According to the present law it is necessary to detect the Oriental in the very act of crossing the line before he can be captured. If the patrolman meets a Chinaman on the street, and knows positively that he is a new-comer, he cannot touch him, because he has no evidence; that is, he did not see him cross the line. If the provision above mentioned were made, then every Chinaman would have to show his certificate when called upon to do so. Mr. Marsh testified that according to the last census there were about 5000 Chinamen in this county, about 1000 of which were employed outside the city on railroads, etc. It would be an excellent provision, in his opinion, in a new law to cast the burden of proof on the Chinamen, and not on the government, as is the case now.

In the afternoon Colonel H. G. Otis, editor of the Times, and Major George H. Bonebrake, president of the Los Angeles National bank, testified as to the effect on labor, and the character and tendencies of Chinese.

Ah Moy, the manager of the Chinese theater, was interrogated as to the Mongolian religion, habits, morals and business methods, and Wong Ark gave his evidence as from a Christianized Chinaman's standpoint.

The committee at first decided not to go to San Diego, as the members are in a hurry to return to Washington, but finally decided to go to that place this morning.

John W. Gardner

Having on hand a large stock of pianos and organs that he wishes to close out, has just opened a room at No. 229 West Second street, between Spring and Broadway. As he has outside matters that demand his time, the entire stock is offered at wholesale prices. By calling at the new room, you will see the finest stock of new instruments in the city; also some second-hand pianos will be sold very cheap. This is not an advertising scheme, but a positive fact. Now is the time to get a piano or organ very cheap, for a Christmas present.

EUCALYPTA for brain workers.

JESSIE'S SUIT.

The Matter Will Go to the Jury, Probably, Today.

The $50,000 damage suit brought by Miss Jessie Marshall against Jacob Taylor, the proprietor of the Del Mar hotel, is rapidly drawing to a close. The case will go to the jury sometime this afternoon. It has been a stubbornly fought suit, and considerable salaciousness has been developed during the trial. The complaining witness has attended court daily. She was invariably accompanied by her mother. The illegitimate child, who was present several times, came in for the usual amount of sympathy from the court habitués.

Some little testimony was taken yesterday, but it was principally in rebuttal and was of an unimportant character.

The stepfather of Miss Marshall testified to the previous good conduct of the plaintiff. He also testified that he did not know anybody by the name of Harry Bostwick. It will be remembered that Dennis O'Brien testified that Miss Marshall had confessed to him that it was Harry Bostwick who was the cause of her being in a delicate condition.

W. W. Holcomb and Judge Cochran both addressed the jury yesterday afternoon, on behalf of the plaintiff. Considerable stress was laid on the character of the witnesses for Taylor. Dennis O'Brien and Reiter were scorched for the infamous part they took in the matter. The attorneys for Taylor will hold forth this morning.

A HUALAPAI ACCIDENT VICTIM.

One of the Passengers Dies on Sunday at the Needles.

The HERALD, of Saturday, contained the details of a terrible accident to a Santa Fe train at Hualapai side track, in Arizona, in which several persons were badly injured, and one instantly killed.

On Sunday one of the injured passengers, who had been taken to the Needles, for treatment, died at that place. His name was not learned, but he was described as an American who had recently been in Mexico. The post mortem showed that both his legs had been broken, and his ribs crushed in.

NOT TO HIS TASTE.

Clayton White Prefers An Appeal to a Fine or Jail.

Clayton White, the attorney, who had an encounter with General Mansfield some days ago, and who was on Saturday convicted in the police court of carrying concealed weapons, was yesterday sentenced to imprisonment for fifty days, or a fine of $50. Neither alternative suited Mr. White, and he decided to take an appeal, and was by the court given until Wednesday to prepare his papers.

A Noteworthy Exception.

[From the Kimball, S. D., Graphic.]

While the columns of the Graphic are open to any and all unobjectionable advertisements, yet it is quite impossible for us to speak knowingly of the merits of the various articles of merchandise advertised. Particularly is this true of patent medicines. But there are exceptions occasionally, and a noteworthy exception is the celebrated Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This now universally known medicine has been advertised in the Graphic for four or five years, but not until recently had we any personal knowledge of its wonderful efficacy, which has come about through the prevailing influenza and the stubborn cough that has so often attended it. In the writer's family this medicine has on several occasions this winter cured a cough that baffled any and all other remedies; and the number of families in Kimball and vicinity in which this remedy has been used with like effects, attests to its value as a specific for coughs and colds of every nature.

ORANGE LANDS.

SEMI-TROPIC LAND AND WATER COMPANY.

Location of Lands, With Description of Soil and Climate, and Comparison of Prices With Other Lands of Similar Values.

The original purchase of these lands comprised 29,000 acres, situate immediately west of the cities of San Bernardino and Colton.

Two transcontinental lines of railroad, the Santa Fe and Southern Pacific, traverse east and west these lands, exactly two miles apart, giving us two townsites and stations upon each road, the stations being four miles from each other, thereby giving us unsurpassed shipping facilities.

Our land extends to within three miles of San Bernardino, one and one-half of Colton on the east and five miles of Riverside on the south.

Our average altitude is about 1200 feet above sea level, with a gradual and regular slope from the mountains on the north, with just fall enough to irrigate conveniently.

We are 400 feet higher than Riverside and 200 higher than San Bernardino, which exempts us almost entirely from frost.

Our lands are peculiarly adapted to citrus fruits, being right in the heart of the best orange producing country in the state of California. Our subsoil is the same that has made Riverside famous the world over, with this advantage—we are fortunate in having a topdressing of decomposed granite ranging to a depth of from six to eighteen inches, which holds the moisture, always being in good condition for cultivation and readily furnishing the proper nourishment for starting the growth of freshly planted trees and vines.

Irrigation may be indulged in to any degree without fear of injury to the trees, vines or vegetables, or the risk of getting the ground in bad condition, as frequently occurs on land less favored.

Our water rights are unsurpassed. We own and control almost all the water in Lytle creek, the fourth largest stream in Southern California, besides which we have a large scope of artesian water-bearing land where we have thirty fine flowing wells emptying their sparkling waters into pipes which conduct it to the rich lands below for irrigation, and to our streets for protection against fire, and to our dwellings for domestic uses. We are boring more artesian wells constantly, never failing to secure a fine flow of water, so that we have no hesitancy in saying that we have a great abundance of water for all of our rich lands.

Of the 29,000 acres originally purchased we have sold about 9000 acres at $200 per acre, which leaves us about 20,000 acres yet to be disposed of.

For the past two years but little land, comparatively speaking, has been sold in Southern California, on account of the depression in the money market, and the collapse of our boom, but now we think we see the dawn of an era of prosperity, such as has never been known in this country, and in order to attract the attention of the world to our superior location and lands, we have reduced the price to a figure below the price of the cheapest agricultural lands in this country, and propose to sell about 2000 acres to actual settlers and people who will improve the land, at $75 to $100 per acre, with 20 and 25 per cent off for improvements made within one year from purchase, making the land but $60 to $75 per acre to the man who in good faith improves the land, and on terms within the reach of all, to-wit: $10 per acre cash on delivery of contract, balance in three equal payments, due in two, three and four years, at 8 per cent interest.

Think of it! The best orange lands at $60 and $75 an acre. Go all around us and ask the price of land not so good as ours. At Riverside on the south, at Redlands and Highlands on the east and northeast of us, all famous orange producing districts, the price of unimproved lands ranges from $250 to $500 per acre, and for orchards five years old from $1000 to $2000 per acre are being paid, and they are well worth the money invested.

The water for irrigating these lands is furnished under the "Wright Irrigation Law" of this state, and costs the land owner only $2 to $4 per acre per annum.

Rialto, where is located the home office of the company, is a smart little town of, perhaps, 200 people, situated on the main line of the great Santa Fe railroad, four miles west of San Bernardino, and we have a fine depot with telegraph and telephone communications with the world. A fine large hotel, the "Semi-Tropic," elegantly furnished and well kept, occupies a square in the center of Rialto, and one of the fine school buildings for which Southern California is famous, stands upon another square of the town. Two church organizations are in a flourishing condition—the Methodist and Congregational.

A pleasant ride of an hour and a half through the beautiful orange groves of Los Angeles and San Bernardino counties takes you from the city of Los Angeles, the metropolis of Southern California, to Rialto.

An excursion is conducted from Los Angeles to Rialto every Friday morning, leaving Los Angeles at 8:30, and returning arrives here at 6:30 p. m.; tickets good for ten days. Fare for round trip $2.55, which is returned to every purchaser of land by L. M. Brown, agent for these lands for the coast counties. Office, 132 North Spring street.

For further information, address the SEMI-TROPIC LAND AND WATER CO., Rialto, San Bernardino County, California. Or L. M. BROWN, Agent at No. 132 North Spring street, Los Angeles, California.

Orange Land at Redlands

ON TEN YEARS' TIME.

THE BARTON LAND AND WATER CO. have concluded to sell the remainder of that grand old Ranch in small tracts of 5, 10, 20 and 40-acre pieces, with pure mountain water piped to it and deeded with the land at $300 per acre. Only 10 per cent cash required at time of purchase, and NO FURTHER PAYMENT FOR TEN YEARS, except 6 1/2 per cent interest per annum. The buyer gets a continuous flow of one (1) miner's inch of water with each seven acres.

Over $250,000 worth of this land has been sold in the past year, principally to people that have been engaged in orange growing for many years. Over 30,000 orange trees have been planted by the settlers between March 1st and August 1st, 1890. All of the land is within one and a half miles of the center of the city of Redlands, and a good deal of it within three-quarters of a mile. Railroad and motor line through the land.

You closely confined, tired out BUSINESS MEN, go and spend $15 per month for care of ten acres, and within five years you can sell for $10,000—if properly cultivated. TITLE U. S. PATENT. For further particulars, write to
