

PASADENA.

The Y. M. C. A. will hold its regular Sunday meeting this afternoon in Strong's hall. B. A. Sparks will conduct the meeting.

The Grant outfit, consisting of eighty teams, scrapers, etc., has returned from the Cajon pass, where it has been working all summer. Work on the grading of the Terminal will keep the outfit busy for some time. Mr. Grant is the contractor who built the Cross road.

Workmen are engaged in laying the half-mile track at Sportsman's park, for the tournament of roses. The management of the hunt hopes to have a number of pony tournaments present, and requests all boys and girls driving or riding ponies to decorate them with flowers. The entries are coming in rapidly for the different events.

The time for payment of taxes expires tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock. Five per cent will be added after that time.

The Raymond excursion arrived last night. Among the guests at the hotel up to noon yesterday were A. H. Sellers and wife, Chicago; Mrs. A. Curtis and sons, San Rafael; A. C. Armstrong, J. W. Cullon and party, Henry Bell, San Francisco; J. R. Dean, Tombstone, Ariz.; W. W. Hunt, San Francisco; C. C. Loomis and wife, San Diego; Will Savidge, Michigan, and A. A. Kingsland, New York.

Madam Andre's Carnival of Novelties company gave an entertainment last night in the Opera house for the benefit of Edwin Hoffman and family. Only a fair-sized audience was present.

Memorial exercises in honor of the late J. D. Giddings were held at the meeting of the North Pasadena Reading circle on Friday evening.

Rev. S. B. Anderson, of Ohio, will preach in the Presbyterian church this morning and evening.

Eastern mail was three hours late yesterday.

There was a full attendance at the regular meeting of the council yesterday. The salary of the recorder was abolished at the end of the present recorder's term and fees fixed at $3 for each case. The contract and bond of the Pasadena Electric Light and Power company for lighting the streets for one year, as previously agreed upon, were approved. The petitions relating to the paving of Colorado street were, on recommendation of the street committee, placed on file. The hook and ladder truck was reported completed, and the bill for it of $1955.75, was approved. The matter of paving Colorado street was indefinitely postponed. The petition of the hackmen to be allowed to stand on Colorado street in front of the Cross depot park was on motion denied. The bids for furnishing lumber for the Lake-avenue bridge were rejected, and the clerk instructed to advertise for new bids, to be opened December 27.

A MUSICAL TREAT.

The Features of the Christmas Carnival Entertainment.

It is to be regretted that the rain of Thursday evening prevented many from attending the rare musical treat at the Christmas carnival at Turn Verein hall.

Miss Helen Mar Bennett's Delsarte drill showed some very artistic posing. Mr. Emerick, from New York, although somewhat of an invalid, possesses a well trained baritone of rare quality and sweetness. He gave with effect Dudley Buck's Sunset and responded to an encore. Mrs. Mase, as usual, won storms of applause. Old themes take on new meaning under her magic touch. Liszt's arrangement of Mendelssohn's Wedding March was her selection, and one could but marvel at her wonderful execution.

Professor Arevalo's guitar club gave a rare treat. They are thoroughly trained in his own peculiar method.

The banjo duets by Harry and Mand Mase were heartily encored. Mrs. J. E. Brown's song, with cornet obligato. The Chalet Horn, was marvelously well given. She has a true, pure quality of contralto, and should be heard oftener in public. To Mrs. Taggart, one of Professor Arevalo's guitar club, is due the credit of bringing together so much rare talent. The Spanish duet by the Roth sisters, accompanied with piano, guitar and violin, was given with fine voice and much life and expression, and in response to encore sang in a very charming way La Paloma.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

They Transact Considerable Routine Business Yesterday.

The supervisors met yesterday, but did not transact any great amount of business. Bids were opened for the publication of the semi-annual report. The Times-Mirror bid $2.30 per page and the Express $2.40 per page. No action was taken in the matter.

The petition of the citizens of Burbank to have some work done on Magnolia avenue, was referred to Supervisor Hubbard.

The bids for electrical apparatus for the new courthouse were opened and taken under advisement.

NOBLES ELECTED.

The Officers of the Mystic Shrine Chosen.

The election of the officers for the coming year of Al Malikaik Temple, nobles of the Mystic Shrine, occurred at the Masonic temple last evening. The following were chosen:

Protentate, Noble Hervey Lindley;

chief rabban, Noble J. R. Dupuy; assistant rabban, Noble J. M. Johnston; high priest, Noble B. N. Smith; oriental guide, Noble Charles Otis Scott; treasurer, Noble Tom J. Weldon; recorder, Noble David Eric Barclay. At the conclusion of the business meeting, two Knights Templar were initiated, and a banquet followed, presided over by Potentate-elect Lindley. A series of toasts closed the evening.

COURT NOTES.

The Edelman Indictment Matter to Go to the Grand Jury.

Before Judge Wade yesterday the district attorney made a motion to resubmit the indictment cases against Ben and Henry Edelman. On April 2d the judge sustained a demurrer to each of the indictments. Yesterday he made an order allowing the district attorney to submit the whole matter to the grand jury. There are four indictments against Henry and three against Ben Edelman, in this particular matter.

Henry Finklestein, a native of Russia, was yesterday admitted to citizenship in Judge Wade's court.

John D. Pope was yesterday admitted to practice at the bar of this county.

Yesterday morning Charles Lawson pleaded guilty of assaulting Captain Moody, in Judge Cheney's court. He will be sentenced on Tuesday.

EMIL HARRIS.

He Denies In Toto the Rappold Story.

Mr. Emil Harris, in reference to the story by Mrs. Rappold of San Francisco, charging that he and Mr. Theodore Metzler had in some way got into their possession a lot in this city belonging to her, stated last evening to a HERALD reporter, as follows: "Mr. Rappold's property, on investigation, I found had been sold in December, 1889, on constable's sale, to Mr. Lorech. I so informed Mr. Metzler, who reported to Mrs. Rappold. For this information I paid $1, and told Mr. Metzler not to charge her any fee, but only to get back the actual expense, which he did. There is no change in the title to the lot whatever except the constable's certificate of sale to Mr. Lorech, with which neither Metzler or myself had anything to do."

FOUR WOMEN MADE FREE.

Judge Clark Does a Rushing Divorce Business.

Judge Clark yesterday granted four divorces. In every instance a woman made application to have the marriage ties dissolved. Lena R. Walker was granted a divorce from Calvin H. Walker, Aramanta Canfield was divorced from George Canfield, Josie Bassett was divorced from David F. Bassett, and Nettie Cumming from Wellington Cumming. Los Angeles is apparently following in the footsteps of San Francisco. Up there there are 250 divorces to every 1000 marriages.

MORMON ISLAND.

The state supreme court last week rendered a decision in the appealed case of De Guyer vs. Banning, which had been decided in favor of the defendant in the lower court, denying the claim of the plaintiff to Mormon island, located in San Pedro bay, and comprising 18.88 acres. Justices Sharpstein, Patterson and Thornton delivered an opinion reversing the judgment and giving the plaintiff title to the island in dispute. Justices Beatty and McFarland dissented.

A Noteworthy Exception. [From the Kimball, S. D. Graphic.] While the columns of the Graphic are open to any and all unobjectionable advertisements, yet it is quite impossible for us to speak knowingly of the merits of the various articles of merchandise advertised. Particularly is this true of patent medicines. But there are exceptions occasionally, and a noteworthy exception is the celebrated Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This now universally known medicine has been advertised in the Graphic for four or five years, but not until recently had we any personal knowledge of its wonderful efficacy, which has come about through the prevailing influenza and the scrub-born cough that has so often attended it. In the writer's family this medicine has on several occasions this winter cured a cough that baffled any and all other remedies; and the number of families in Kimball and vicinity in which this remedy has been used with like effects, attests to its value as a specific for coughs and colds of every nature.
