ABSCESS OF THE BRAIN

The Dangerous Disease Dr. Huckins Suffers From. Dr. P. T. Huckins, a well-known physician of this city, has been seriously ill for some time past. His illness was at first comparatively trifling, but owing to some difficulty his medical attendants did not properly diagnose his case until two months after he had suffered excruciating pains. The doctor's illness at present is caused by abscess of the brain, which places him in a very dangerous position, owing to the fact that the opening is insufficient to let out the discharge. The physicians are undecided as to whether to operate or not, owing to his enfeebled condition from his long illness. Dr. Huckins has been a physician in Los Angeles for many years. He has built up a large practice, and his many friends will deeply regret his misfortune. It is to be hoped that he will speedily recover.

SIXTH DAY, JANUARY 3, 1891. Purse $200; one mile.

Entries: John Treat, Al Moraine, El Cajon; Gambo, Gus Walters, Los Angeles; Bell Ringer, C. C. Harris, San Bernardino; Ulpiano, U. F. Del Valle, Los Angeles; Judge Terry, A. S. Ashe, San Francisco; Naicho B. M. A. Foster, San Francisco; Zingarella, M. A. Foster, San Francisco; Nerva, Elmwood stables, Santa Clara; Nabeau, Elmwood stables, Santa Clara; Initiation, Elmwood stables, Santa Clara; Sir Walter, Elmwood stables, Santa Clara; Vinco, Elmwood stables, Santa Clara.

Purse $150, of which $25 to second horse; owners' handicap; weights to be announced through the secretary not later than 6 p. m. of the day preceding race.

Entries: Ida Glenn, H. D. Miller, San Francisco; Centinella, C. Thomas, San Bernardino; April Fool, J. H. Walker, Fresno; Gambo, Gus Walters, Los Angeles; Hock Hocking, U. F. Del Valle, Los Angeles; Judge Terry, A. S. Ashe, San Francisco; Nacho B. J. F. IN TROUBLE. Jacob Taylor and Dennis O'Brien to Answer Criminal Charges.

Jacob Taylor and Dennis O'Brien, who were arrested in San Diego by Sheriff Aguirre, were brought to this city yesterday, and went at once to Burbank, where they gave bail. Taylor was the defendant in the recent $50,000 damage case. O'Brien was one of the chief witnesses for Taylor. He testified at the trial that he had been intimate with Miss Marshall. O'Brien is arrested on a charge of perjury. There will be some developments to chronicle before very long, as considerable bitterness is being shown.

A National Event. The holding of the World's Fair in a city scarcely fifty years old will be a remarkable event, but whether it will really benefit the nation as much as the discovery of the Restorative Nerve by Dr. Franklin Miles is doubtful.

It is just what the American people need to cure their excessive nervousness, neurasthenia, headache, dizziness, sleeplessness, neuralgia, rheumatism, indigestion, confusion of mind, etc. It acts like a charm. Trial bottles free with book on "Nervous and Heart Diseases," with unqualified testimonials, free, at R. W. Eberle & Co., 132 N. Spring st. It is warranted to contain no opium, morphine or dangerous drugs.

Paints, Oils and Glass. Corner Second and Main. P. H. Mathews.
