

SOME SOCIAL EVENTS.

PLEASANT AFFAIRS WHICH OCCURRED DURING THE WEEK.

A Rose Dinner-South Side Social-A Chesterfieldian Dance-Church Social. Notes.

Lent has naturally a restraining effect on society events. The buds and blossoms are busy attending church services, and between times preparing those real sweet bonnets and perfectly lovely costumes with which to mark the advent of spring, and the replacing of sackcloth by silks and satins, and the substitution of poudre de riz for ashes.

A ROSE DINNER.

Mrs. E. E. Kugemann gave a rose dinner in honor of some friends on last Saturday afternoon. The novelty of the prevalent rose color of the ornaments used and the dishes served was pleasing. The souvenirs were made for the occasion of square palettes with moss roses tied in the openings, below which a scroll of parchment was fastened with gold cord.

SOUTH SIDE SOCIAL.

The South Side Social club was most successfully entertained on Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Effie Royer, No. 134 East Twenty-fourth street. Picture drawing was the principal game of the evening, and created much merriment. Prizes were won by Miss Edith Haines, Miss Mabel Skofstad and W. F. Whittaker.

A CHESTERFIELDIAN DANCE.

The Chesterfieldian club gave its monthly party at the Bellevue Terrace on Wednesday evening, the 18th inst. Delightful music was furnished by Arend's orchestra, and a general good time was the order of the evening.

A CHURCH SOCIAL.

Union hall, 1700 Grand avenue, was well filled on Thursday evening at the thirteenth monthly social given by the First Christian mission. The following programme was well rendered, almost every number being heartily encored: Piano and violin duet, Messrs. Shepard and Schonehamer; recitation, Miss Fannie Whartel; vocal solo and recitation, Miss Bertha Owen; vocal solo, Mr. Kohler; recitation, Master Arthur Bell; piccolo and piano duet, Robbie Burns and Mr. Peck. Following the programme the usual social was enjoyed.

THE NEWSBOYS' BENEFIT.

The benefit entertainment for the Newsboys' Home, which will be given on Friday evening and Saturday matinee, will be very attractive, as the best talent of the city have kindly volunteered their services for the occasion. Every number on the programme will be sure to please. The matinee is a novelty, being given wholly by children of marked ability, and will please grown persons as well as children.

ILLINOIS SOCIAL.

An immense audience filled Illinois hall on Tuesday evening at the regular social of the Illinois association. The entertainment was in the nature of a benefit to one of this city's brilliant and favorite young artists, Pearl Gleason. The programme was an excellent one, and those who appeared therein acquitted themselves excellently. As was expected, Pearl Gleason was the bright, particular star of the evening, and never did she appear on the stage to better advantage. The opening piano duet by Pearl and Miss Mary Emery was exceptionally good. Pearl's rendition of The Polish Boy was one of the best elocutionary efforts of her life thus far. Not only was her elocution nearly flawless, but her acting was superb for one so young. In fact it would have done credit to an actress of riper years and long experience.

A musical will be given at the residence of L. J. Rose, on Grand avenue and Fourth street, on Wednesday evening next, by Miss Nellie Boynton and her pupils.

A SQUASH PARTY.

A squash party was given Friday evening at the Redondo hotel. The highly flavored vegetable was a fine specimen of its kind, and the guests were requested to display their tact by guessing how many seeds it contained. A jar of beans was also the object of another guessing game, and the fortunate winner of the prizes were Miss H. Pullman, Mrs. George R. Blanchard, Mrs. S. Stephenson, Dr. Hamlin and Mr. B. Ford. A poem suitable to the occasion was written by one of the guests and read by Dr. A. P. Meyler.

MARRIAGE BELLS RANG MERRILY ON TUESDAY FOR THE NUPTIALS OF DR. J. H. TROUT.

A rising young graduate of pharmacy of this city, and Miss Effie Petrie, a well-known society belle, late of Worcester, Mass. The happy couple started immediately after the ceremony for the Hotel Coronado, where they will spend part of the honeymoon, and after touring for some time will return to this city to live.

The Los Angeles Business College Literary society gave an entertainment and social at the college hall, 144 South Main, last Friday evening. The hall was well filled, the programme was of the highest order and was appreciated by everyone present.

Mrs. B. Stanberry and Mrs. J. J. Schaller will sing the Quist et Homo, from Rossini's Stabat Mater, at St. Vincent's church, this morning. The choir will render Schubert's mass in C and a male chorus will sing a new Veni Creator, choral, written by Judge Ellis.

Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. William A. Parish and Miss Lydia K. McBratney. The marriage will occur at the Central Baptist church on Wednesday evening, February 25th, at 7:45 o'clock.

A Colonial tea party will be given on Wednesday evening, February 25th, at the residence of Mrs. A. H. Ackerman, St. James Park, for the benefit of the Woman's home library. All desiring to attend should procure tickets in advance, from any member of the board of managers of the home. No tickets will be sold at the door.

PASADENA.

In spite of yesterday's rain the Valley Hunt club reports one of the most enjoyable meets of the season. An enthusiastic riding party of eighteen had congregated by 8 a.m. at the intersection of California street and Orange Grove avenue; and the old hunters in the party predicted a fine chance for game, and to the cloudy weather. The Arroyo seco was the chosen field of sport, and before 10 o'clock a cat and a coyote were killed. The rain commencing at that time the many hunters turned their faces homeward, but to their surprise were met by Wiley & Greely's four-in-hand with a party of ten, and best of all, the lunch. After a short consultation all repaired to the South Pasadena hotel, where the lunch was served and the hours made merry by song and dance. O. Stewart Taylor singing a number of rollicking songs. At 2 o'clock the party dispersed, vowing it one of the jolliest meets of the season. Among the riders were Messrs. Wokvins, Wilson, Wright, Viell, Hill, Miss Mary Cole, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Martin, Captain Bartlett, Dr. F. F. Rowland, Messrs. Granger, Taylor, Daggert, Bandini. Cancer of the Nose.

In 1875 a sore appeared on my nose, and grew rapidly. As my father and cancer, and my husband died of it, I became alarmed, and consulted my physician. His treatment did not do good, and the sore grew and worse in every way until I had concluded that I was to die from its effects. I was persuaded to take S. S., and a few bottles cured me. This was after all the doctors and other medicines had failed. I have had no return of the cancer.
