

THE RECEPTION.

Last Night's Meeting of the Committee.

How the President Will Be Received Here.

Honors To Be Extended to the Chief Executive.

Everybody Vying to Make Harrison's Visit to Los Angeles a Pleasant Remembrance to Him.

The executive committee on reception of the president of the United States met last night in the mayor's office. There were present Messrs. Hazard, Griffith, Breed, Barrett, Meeser, Matthews, Mosher, Haverstick, Green, Jones, Holman, Pomeroy, Lewis, Otis, Germain, Furrey, Mott, Osborne and others.

After calling the meeting to order, Chairman Hazard said that the galleries of the pavilion should be held exclusively at the disposal of ladies, the main floor to be thrown open to the general public, while by partitioning off with ropes, the space under the galleries would be made into an avenue for the passage, which will lead to the stand where the chief executive will hold his reception.

Mr. Pomeroy moved that the grand marshal be requested to make arrangements for the admission on the stage of the grand committee. The motion was adopted. Major Jones moved, and it was resolved, that the general committee of 200 meet at the Arcade depot at 2:45 sharp, for the purpose of receiving the president and his party.

On motion of Mr. Pomeroy, the daily papers were requested to urge the owners of buildings along the line to decorate.

It was brought out that no formal invitations had been issued to the consular representatives of foreign powers until yesterday. The honorable chairman stated, upon inquiry made by Col. Otis, that if any of the foreign consuls had failed to receive any such invitations that the neglect was caused by the rush of business, and the chairman asked them to receive this notice in the daily press as a formal invitation.

The secretary was directed to inform the grand marshal of the change of route made on Monday evening.

H. Z. Osborne did not think that hand-shaking ought to be countenanced, but that prominent citizens should be introduced to the president without going through the painful pump-handle act.

Major Furrey thought that in many years from now some old people would tell their children with exultation that they had shaken hands with President Harrison, and for that reason he hated to see a line drawn in the hand-shaking line.

Major Furrey moved that the mayor be on the platform at the pavilion and introduce the general "populace" of Los Angeles to the president. The motion was adopted, although "populace" raised a little hilarity.

A carriage was ordered set apart for the representatives of foreign nations.

Major Furrey reported the receipt of $1000 from the city of Los Angeles and $150 from private individuals yesterday. Collections will be resumed today. More money is needed. He advocated the collection of money by a committee of five or six influential members. The general committee were backward in their $5 dues.

It was ordered that Mr. Joseph Mesmer, secretary, deliver no badges to the grand committee until they pay their assessment of $5 each.

About $20 was paid in right after this intimation by members who were present.

Mr. Lewis thought that the carriage committee would need $200; the welcome committee, $150; the music committee, $175; the decoration committee, $500; the incidental committee, $200; the platform committee, $200; and it was thought by several parties that it would take at least $250 to liquidate all other expenses.

On motion of Mr. Lewis it was resolved that if anything of the fund remained after the payment of all debts, it be turned over to the mayor to be turned over to the Fourth of July fund.

Members of the general committee will be supplied with badges by applying to the secretary, Joseph Mesmer, at his store on Main street till noon, when they will be entitled to entrance by the rear door of the pavilion, into the building before the arrival of the president. Major Barrett then explained how the carriages should be filled and their line of march.

President and Mrs. Harrison, Governor Markman; Secretary Wanamaker, Mrs. McKee, Mayor and Mrs. Hazard; Secretary Rusk, Mrs. Dimmick, General and Mrs. McCook; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Harrison, General and Mrs. E. P. Johnson; U. S. Marshal D. M. Ramsdell, Judge E. M. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Lovell; Major Sanger, Lieutenant Baker, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Furrey; Governor and Mrs. Luis Torres, foreign representatives; Mr. Austin, Mr. Tibbets, Mr. and Mrs. H. Z. Osborne; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Spence; Senator Felton, Mr. Oulihan, Col. and Mrs. H. G. Otis; Gov. Geo. C. Perkins, Clarke, L. N. Breed, Hon. J. D. Lynch; Gen. C. C. Allen, R. F. Del Valle; Gen. J. R. Matthews and lady; Col. C. F. Crocker, Harvey Lindley, Judge and Mrs. S. O. Houghton; Chief Justice Beatty, Associate Justices Patterson and McFarland and Supreme Court Clerk E. F. Brown; Justices Sharpstein, DeHaven and Harrison and Hon. S. M. White; Judge W. C. Van Fleet, Col. and Mrs. Frichel, W. H. Workman; Hon. J. C. Stump, Dr. Boyington, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hellman; Hon. Frank McCoppin, F. G. Teed,

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Francisco; M. R. Higgins, Ben E. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kelly.

A new finance committee was appointed consisting of Messrs. Pomeroy, Griffith, Shoulter, Schroder and Mesmer, who were empowered to appoint four collectors to gather subscriptions. Major Bonsall has been added to the welcome committee.

On motion of Mr. Lewis the general committee adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

COLONEL CORBIN'S ORDER.

Grand Marshal H. C. Corbin has issued the following order:

The seventh regiment, National Guard, will report at the Arcade depot not later than 2:30 today, where instructions will be given the commanding officer.

The grand army posts will take position on Main street at the same hour, right of the line placed so that the left will rest on Fifth street, from which point they will act as the immediate escort of the president, under the formation heretofore agreed upon.

The Catholic societies will assemble on Fifth street, right resting on Main, will form column and take up the line of march immediately behind the line of carriages. Other societies not yet reported, will take position on the left of the line, in the order of their reporting.

The teachers and children of the public schools will take position on Spring street, deploying south from Temple, under the direction of the superintendent of the public schools.

The Catholic schools will take position on the left of the public schools, also deploying south; their assignment will be made on this line as directed by the bishop or those acting under his immediate instructions.

The children should be cautioned against leaving the curbing or making any attempt to follow in the procession. Teachers should in all instances accompany the children.

The aides to the marshal will report at the corner of Second and Spring streets at 2 o'clock, and be formed under the direction of the Marshal by Lieutenant Fremont, U. S. army.

Captain Bailey and Lieutenant Collins, U. S. army, are designated to accompany the president.

THE UNION LEAGUE.

At a large meeting of the Union League last evening, the committee on reception of President Harrison made their report. A telegram from the presidential party was read, thanking the Union League for their invitation. Their reception will take place after the general reception at the pavilion. The league will form at their rooms at 7:30, march to pavilion, and will act as an escort to the president on his way to the club rooms. Only members of the league and a few invited guests will be admitted to the rooms. Beautiful floral decorations will be a feature of the reception. The affair will merely be an informal and social one, as the president is a member of the league. The league extended its invitation to the president to their reception by means of a satin finished solid silver card, bearing the well expressed sentiments of the league.

THE CATHOLIC DIVISION.

At a meeting of the grand marshal and aids of the Catholic division to take part in the reception of the president today, it was arranged that the aids are to wear a black slouch hat, with black and gold braid around same and silver star on left side of hat, black suit of clothes, and a blue sash with rosettes of red, white and blue on shoulder and on left side.

Hugh Smith was elected flag-bearer to head this division.

Mr. A. McNally is the grand marshal, and his aids are Messrs. Charles Crowley, William F. Nordholt, Edward Mulen, J. P. Morian, M. J. McGarry, C. C. Desmond, Martin C. Marsh, J. H. Dockweiler, J. F. McElweeny, George J. Lindenfeld, P. J. Ward, T. J. Cunningham, P. J. Stack, V. Pomet, F. J. Captain and Sostenes Sepulveda. All of these and other Catholic gentlemen are expected to meet at the cathedral on Main street today at 1:30 p.m.

NOTES.

John A. Logan post will meet in the post room at 1:45 sharp. The post will turn out about eighty men. All are requested to appear in uniform. All mounted men will report to Captain M. Jenkins, at Fifth and Main streets. Side arms should be worn.

The Continental battalion, foot and mounted, will form at 2:30 this afternoon on Los Angeles street, between Third and Fourth streets, rear of Panorama building.

The Grand Army posts will take position on Main street at the same hour, right of the line placed so that the left will rest on Fifth street.

The Catholic societies will meet in front of the cathedral, at 1:30, to form in marching order, preceded by the Los Angeles city band, Bishop Mora and the priests of the diocese; thence they will march to the Arcade depot to join the parade.

The Native Daughters of La Esperanza parlor, No. 24, will present the president and Mrs. Harrison with a handsome floral piece. Suspended from the design will be a white dove holding in its bill a small basket filled with duchesse roses and forget-me-nots. A forty-niner will represent the Daughters in the procession with the first cannon fired in Los Angeles. A window will be decorated in honor of the president at the Potomac.

IS HE THE MURDERER?

The Greenwood Tragedy at Napa Bobs to the Surface.

An arrest was made last evening that may be worth $4500 to the officer who made it.

On February 9th two men entered the house of Captain Greenwood, in Napa county, and robbed the place, murdering Mrs. Greenwood and torturing Captain Greenwood and finally leaving him for dead. One of the miscreants was a Swede, the other an American.

L. H. Brown, clerk of the supreme court now in session in this city, is a nephew of Mrs. Greenwood, and has made a study of the description of the two men given by Captain Greenwood. Last evening Mr. Brown noticed a man on the streets who appeared to answer the description of the American. He followed the fellow, who at last went into the Palace saloon and sat down at a table. Mr. Brown sat close to him and studied him carefully, and found that he just about answered the description, so he called an officer and had the fellow taken to the city prison, where he gave the name of Thomas B. Odin. He was fairly well provided with money, and gave his right name supposedly, for he had letters bearing it on the envelope. There are a number of rewards offered for the arrest of either one of the murderers, amounting in all to $4500, a nice little plum. The question as to the arrested man's identity will be settled today one way or the other.

AMUSEMENTS.

A Social Session—Cleveland's Minstrels—The Mendelssohn Club.

This evening's performance at the New Los Angeles theater will conclude the engagement here of the Social Session company. The affair has done a good business and has caused many a laugh, which is what it aims to accomplish.

THE MINSTRELS.

On Thursday evening Cleveland's Minstrels will open a three nights' engagement at the Grand opera house. Among the performers are the names of many well liked people, who are supplemented by the famous Cragg family of athletes.

THE MENDELSSOHN CLUB.

The Mendelssohn Quintette club, of Boston, will give two grand concerts at the new Los Angeles theater on Monday and Tuesday evenings, the 27th and 28th of this month. This company was organized in 1849 and is still under the direction of the old and well known Thomas Ryan. The following is a piece of poetry written from a true incident that occurred by Samuel Minton Peck, and dedicated to Mr. Ryan, who was taken for Mendelssohn:

IS THAT OLD MENDELSSOHN? A TRUE INCIDENT. Respectfully inscribed to Mr. Thomas Ryan. In a southern town, far from the Hub— Its name I dare not say— A famous Boston quintet club Was filled one night to play: And in the midst of it Assembled all The old, the young, the gay. A thousand happy, eager eyes Were turned the stage upon, And when, with graceful smiles and ties, The minstrel came on, The silence stilled— A voice was heard— "Is that old Mendelssohn?"

THE GERMAN FAIR.

It Opens and Is Pronounced a Complete Success.

The German fair opened last night at the Turn Verein hall. A capital programme was carried out last evening, and the fair promises to be a success. Henry Dockweiler delivered the opening address, which was very appropriate. The chorus by the Turn Verein singers was greatly appreciated.

Some of the booths are artistically decorated. The following programme has been arranged for this evening: Overture, Poet and Peasant, piano four hands, Mrs. M. Sellenschiedt and Miss Cecilia Gardner; violin, Prof. A. G. Gardner.

Vocal, comique, Der Burgermeister, Mr. N. Laub; Der Weinreisende, Mrs. M. Sellenschiedt.

Trio, for violins, by Dancha, No. 1 with piano accompaniment, violinists, Miss Cecilia Gardner, Master Aloys Gardner, Prof. A. G. Gardner; pianist, Mrs. M. Sellenschiedt.

German song, Der Liebhaber in der Luft, Mr. N. Laub. Violin and piano, selected, Prof. A. G. Gardner and Mrs. M. Sellenschiedt.

Make No Mistake

If you decide, from what you have heard of its cures or read of its merits, that you will take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy something else which may be claimed to be "about as good" or "just as good." Remember that the sole reason for efforts to get you to purchase some substitute is that more profit may be made. Firmly resist all inducements, and insist upon having just what you called for, Hood's Sarsaparilla. Then you will not be experimenting with a new article, for Hood's Sarsaparilla is tried and true.

"In one store the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's Sarsaparilla. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was, I had taken it, was perfectly satisfied with it, and did not want any other."—Mrs. ELZA A. GORR, 61 Terrace Street, Boston, Mass.

We Are All Taking It.

"We could not be without Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is the best medicine we ever kept in the house. My family are all taking it."—Mrs. J. M. BARNES, San Joaquin and Fremont Streets, Stockton, Cal.

A FORLORN SPECTACLE

From Eczema or Erysipelas—Swelling Dreadful—Suffering Fearful. Cured By Cuticura.

Cuticura Cannot be Improved—Will Cure Any Skin Disease—Not Excepting Leprosy.

Some two years ago I was attacked with what the doctors called eczema or erysipelas, swelling face and neck, and eyes swelled shut, and I could not tell you what I suffered. It would last about two weeks, then crust over and crack off in different shapes like flour. I was the most forlorn spectacle you ever saw. I bought CUTICURA REMEDIES and commenced to take them as described, and I soon found my self improving. I took seven bottles and used the soap, and the result is a permanent cure. God bless you and yours. I have lived in this place for over fifty-two years, and am now in my seventy-third year. Am in good health. Do not experiment on the CUTICURAS, you can't improve them. They will cure any skin disease, not excepting leprosy. I have great faith in them. THOS. L. GRAY, Deavertown, Ohio.

I found your CUTICURA REMEDIES the only cure for salt rheum. Have recommended them to several parties with most beneficial results. Will continue to do so. B. BROKENSHAR, 103 S. Court street, Ottumwa, Ia.
