

THE BOYS' HOME.

A WORTHY INSTITUTION, WHICH DESERVES SUPPORT.

Some Information About Its Features. What Has Been Accomplished During the Year—Satisfactory Results.

The News Boys' home is one of the charitable institutions of Los Angeles that is doing a great deal of good. The home is located in an unpretentious frame building at No. 319 East First street. Part of the lower story is used as a reading room. The second story contains the school room, reception room, dining room and kitchen. The sleeping apartments are in the third story and will comfortably accommodate about twenty boys.

The advisory board is composed of the following gentlemen: Mayor H. T. Hazard, G. W. McClellan, F. W. Mills, H. Chandler and Mr. Armour.

The board of trustees are: Mrs. Ducommun, Mrs. C. H. Bosbyshell, Mrs. A. S. Grovesner, Mrs. Anna Hobbs, Mrs. Dr. Sinsabaugh, Mrs. General McDonald, Mrs. Cocks, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Shinkwin, Mrs. Blythe and Mrs. Woodward.

The managers are: President, Mrs. N. A. Stillman; vice-presidents, Mrs. Colonel Otis, Mrs. Finney and Mrs. Wiggin; financial secretary, Mrs. C. H. Bosbyshell; recording secretary, Mrs. F. E. Bennett; treasurer, Mrs. E. A. Forrester; chairman of health committee, Mrs. Dr. Hewling; chairman of household committee, Mrs. A. S. Grovesner; chairman of reading room committee, Miss Blythe; committee on entertainment, Mrs. J. Brown and Mrs. Brainard Smith.

These ladies all serve without compensation, giving their time and influence willingly to help along the good cause; only the matron and housekeeper receive pay.

The home has only been organized for about a year, and of course matters are even yet in a somewhat crude state, but taking into consideration the difficulties to be overcome at the outset and the comparatively small amount of money expended, the board of managers feel that much has already been accomplished.

The reading room is especially devoted to the newsboys, and is becoming a very popular evening resort for them. It is a large, well ventilated room, provided with maps, charts, pictures, magazines, newspapers, books and games. Every night from thirty to forty boys congregate there. The ladies of the city interested in the organization provide musical and literary entertainments from time to time. These are generally held on Saturday evenings. Practical lectures, on various subjects, illustrated by experiments, are also given in which the boys seem greatly interested.

A Sabbath school is held from 6 to 7, in the evening, conducted by a committee of ladies from the different churches. It is entirely unsectarian in its instruction.

During the past month a night school has been established, the city board of education having kindly provided a teacher—Prof. Lahman—at the expense of the public school department. This school is open to all who desire to avail themselves of its privileges. It is already proving a success, and bids fair to accomplish much good.

The matron of the home, Mrs. Hilbish ("auntie," as the boys call her), is devoted to her work. She is a Christian woman, with a warm heart and motherly feelings. Under her kind, firm, judicious management, there has been a wonderful improvement in discipline.

The domestic department, under the charge of Mrs. Neely, is well managed. The rooms and bedding are scrupulously clean. The food is plain, but wholesome and well cooked. Excellent home-made bread is always found upon the table. The recent addition of a bath room to the building has proved very beneficial. Since January, 1891, forty boys have been registered as inmates of the home. Many of them came poorly clad, ragged and dirty. As soon as possible they were comfortably clothed and employment secured for them, thus cultivating habits of cleanliness, industry and self-reliance.

It should be understood that the home is not solely for the benefit of newsboys, but that any homeless boy who wishes home comforts for a nominal price is welcomed there and properly cared for. Several such boys who are learning trades and receiving but a few dollars per week have recently come to the home. One of the aims of the home is to find suitable employment for boys who are willing to work, but are unable of themselves to find any.

Of course some of the boys do not appreciate the efforts made in their behalf and return to their old habits of life, but a majority of them are very grateful, working during the day, studying at night, and willingly pay the nominal price charged for their board and room.

Six boys have been sent to their homes since January, thus gladdening the sad hearts of parents who had perhaps given them up as lost. There is no doubt but that if those persons who have so kindly assisted the home by monthly contributions in money, or by donations of food, fuel and clothing, could watch the progress made and realize the good accomplished in various directions, they would not regret the assistance they have given the ladies in their good work, but would rather increase their contributions.

The board of managers wish to extend through the columns of the Herald an invitation to any or all of the citizens of Los Angeles to visit the home and inspect its workings. Especially would they be pleased to see those who are so kindly contributing to its support.

The term—one year—for which quite a number of the original contributors to the fund by which the home is supported will soon expire, and the managers hope that they will renew their subscriptions, or that other liberal citizens will take their places, so that the good work may be continued and the benefits to the class of homeless boys may be increased.

REDONDO.

The children's hop given at the Redondo hotel last evening proved a delightful affair. It was indeed interesting to see some of the tiny little ones going through the figures of the lancers, and several figures of the german were danced. At 8 o'clock the merry little party assembled in the dining room, where refreshments were served, the orchestra discoursing sweet strains the while. The party consisted of the following: Misses Marguerite and Madalon McConnell, Mildred and Nathalie Mer-

SANTA MONICA.

Lieutenant A. N. Elser, of Company I, of the Ninth regiment, and Captain Mathews spent the day here, locating the camp grounds for the encampment which will take place here in August. The grounds selected are north of the Jones mansion, on the bluff. It will make an attraction here for the merry month of August of no mean proportions.

The campers are beginning to come in, and soon the beach will present a merry scene of those who are pleasure bent. J. A. Muir, of the Southern Pacific, entertained a party of friends at the Arcadia pavilion today.

A. Dott, of the Philadelphia ice cream factory, spent Wednesday here, returning this morning. The ladies of the relief corps gave another of their enjoyable socials at the opera house Wednesday evening, which proved not only a grand financial success but a social one.

Mrs. J. H. McDonald returned home after several months' absence, visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Bachus, of Portland.

A merry party, consisting of Papa Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Adloff, and Tom Strohm, drove down today, enjoying their day's outing immensely. The last seen they were rolling ten-pins, when Mr. Schultz was vainly endeavoring to knock down one pin with ten balls and had failed to succeed.

The many friends of Colonel Chapin will be pained to learn that the gentleman is not gaining as fast as was hoped. He is still in a very critical condition. Let us hope that he will rally and be amongst us soon.

Abe Greenwald, of Los Angeles, spent the day here, attending to business while he enjoyed the ocean spray. Henry Watson, whose nuptials were chronicled in last Tuesday's Herald, spent the day here.

Today's arrivals at the Arcadia are: J. H. Shankland, L. D. C. Gray, H. W. O'Melveny, J. Bucher, Thos. F. Crane, James Sheehy, San Francisco.

Mrs. J. J. McMunn, of East Los Angeles, who has spent the past winter and spring with us, left today for home.

Today's arrivals at the St. James are: Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hostetter, Mr. L. Hostetter, Morven Hostetter, Bakersfield, Harry T. Matthes, N. A. Wem, J. H. Bennett, Santa Ana.

J. J. Frank, of Lillenthal & Co., spent the day here.

Confirmed. The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs a few years ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers, the Cal. Fig Syrup Company.

Orange Seed. L. G. Sresovich & Co. of San Francisco have just received a cargo of extra fine orange seed from Tahiti. This is the only reliable seed that can be procured and planted with safety; it is coopered in barrels, averaging 20,000 to 25,000 seeds. Those desiring any of this choice stock are requested to order immediately.

To the Public. The fight of the Trades Unions against the Los Angeles Times is still on. When that paper concludes to employ union labor, you will be notified through the columns of the Workman Express and Herald. COUNCIL OF LABOR.

ONTARIO.

Seven carloads more of machinery for the Chino sugar factory arrived this week. One hundred and thirty men are at work putting the machinery in place.

The ladies of the Methodist church will give an ice cream social at Mrs. Brackenridge's Tuesday night.

The voters of Cucamonga will hold an anti-bond meeting tonight (Friday).

J. H. Sourwine has been appointed postmaster at North Ontario.

Mrs. C. D. Hammond, of Salt Lake city, who is in quest of a home in Southern California, inspected Ontario this week.

Tomorrow (Saturday) is the day appointed for the court house bond election. In the entire western part of San Bernardino county and in the vicinity of Riverside, there is a very strong sentiment against the issuance of court house bonds. San Bernardino, Redlands and the contiguous country are the only places that particularly favor the project. The proposition will undoubtedly be voted down. If the supervisors then endeavor to make good their threat—levy a direct tax for a new court house and jail—there will be war to the hilt.

The prune crop in this locality will be light; but the pear, peach and grape crops will be exceptionally large.

John Reed and G. D. Streeter, of Lincoln, Neb., were here this week looking for homes.

A. Petsch, a wealthy rancher of Hermosa, who owns one of the best homes in San Bernardino county, is conducting a veritable experimental station. He has rare shrubs, plants and fruits from all parts of the tropics which he is experimenting with. Among other things he hopes to demonstrate that the banana of commerce can be successfully grown on his ranch. On his place are sixteen varieties of palms, thirty-four varieties of grapes and an endless number of native and imported cacti.

A Suggestion. If you are troubled with rheumatism or a lame back, allow us to suggest that you try the following simple remedy: Take a piece of flannel the size of the two hands, saturate it with Chamberlain's Pain-Balm and bind it over the seat of pain. It will produce a pleasant heat and relieve you of all pain. Many severe cases have been cured in this way. The Pain Balm can be obtained from C. F. Heinzeman, 222 North Main street.
