

THE SECRET OUT.

The Proposed Inglewood Santa Monica Line

May Form a Part of the Belt Electric System.

The Advisability of Connecting with the Pico Street Line.

The Santa Monica Wharf and Terminal Railway Company and Its Plans. Other Railroad News.

At the annual election of the Santa Monica Wharf and Terminal Railway company, the following directors were elected for the ensuing year: Elsworth Chaffee, Arthur Gayford, J. A. Stanwood of Santa Monica, and C. C. Hall and James Campbell of Los Angeles, of whom James Campbell was chosen president; J. A. Stanwood, vice-president; Elsworth Chaffee, secretary, and Arthur Gayford, treasurer.

A HERALD reporter called on Mr. Campbell and asked if there was any truth in the reports as to the road being built from Santa Monica to Inglewood, and if the Santa Fe company had anything to do with it. Mr. Campbell said that the company was formed for the purpose of building to Inglewood. But the Santa Fe company had no interest whatever in the project; it was wholly a private undertaking.

"I cannot say," he added, "just how soon the road will be built; but at any rate not until all rights of way are secured. Since the opening of the Electric Belt road, we are considering the matter with much care as to changing the line to connect with the Belt system, by means of their Pico street line, and to operate our road with electricity.

"You will have the shortest line to Santa Monica will you not?" "Yes, by considerable, and the grades will be remarkably easy."

"Will electricity give power enough for a large passenger business?" "Yes, sir. I consider electricity as the coming power for railways, and it is worthy the intention of railroad managers who are about to expend large sums of money for costly locomotives. This is particularly true of short lines."

"We have secured nearly all the rights of way necessary, and have the finest possible terminal grounds at Santa Monica. Yes, the plan includes a wharf and complete shipping facilities."

A BELT RAILROAD PARK. The Belt Electric railway people, it is stated, have purchased from the Wolf-skill Land company, several acres in front of the Arcadia depot which they will at once proceed to turn into a beautiful park. It is to be hoped that the statement will be found correct; the plan is in line with the broad liberal policy pursued by this company in its dealings with the public, and would serve to further its popularity.

RAILWAY BUILDING. The Railway Age statistics show that from January 1 to July 1 there have been constructed 1723 miles of main track in thirty-eight states and territories on 139 roads. The south and northwest continue to show the greatest activity.

The German Fruit company sent a special train of seventeen cars east yesterday over the Santa Fe, loaded with potatoes.

A dispatch from San Diego received yesterday by Manager Wade says that today will be the last day that visitors will be received on board the Charleston. Arrangements have been made to run a ferry boat between the Santa Fe wharf and the Itata and Charleston, and other small craft will run to carry people across. On the days after Sunday the Charleston will take coal on the following three days, and it is supposed will then leave.

TWO MEN SHOT

While Riding Along Los Angeles Street.

As Messrs. A. J. Warren and J. W. Sage were riding in a buggy along Los Angeles street, and were passing a wholesale grocery store, two shots were suddenly discharged and each of the men keeled over and found themselves bleeding from wounds about in the same part of the back of the head. They soon gathered themselves together and a crowd of men ran to their assistance. They were taken to the office of Dr. Orme, who examined their wounds, but found them only superficial. At the base of the skull a charge of bird shot penetrated Warren's scalp and there were superficial wounds from stray shot in the cheeks and other parts of the head. Sage's injuries were almost identically similar. The doctor dressed the wounds and the men went off greatly satisfied that they had escaped so easily. Upon returning to the place where the shots were fired, they ascertained that a countryman was loading his team with packages and had a shotgun lying in the bed of the wagon. In throwing in one of the packages it struck the hammer of the gun and the load was discharged just as Warren and Sage were passing and in range. They both refused to make complaint against the granger, who was for a time very seriously alarmed. It was a very careless thing on his part to leave a loaded gun loose in his wagon bed while he was throwing heavy packages on top of it, and it was more good luck than good management on his part that the ensuing accident was not a serious one. If the injured men had not been good natured about it, they could have given the careless countryman a good deal of trouble.

COLE'S LIBEL.

A PAPER THAT SHOULD HAVE BEEN FILED LONG AGO.

The Poor Itata Receives Another Legal Shot—The Courts Piling Case Upon Case Against the Plucky Owners of the Vessel.

United States District Attorney Willoughby Cole yesterday filed in the district court another libel in the Itata case, this time against the arms in the ship's hold, which were transferred to the steamer from the Robert and Minnie. Marshal Gard is now in personal custody of the vessel, as well as her contraband cargo, and will probably remove the latter to some spot on shore for safe-keeping. The document filed yesterday reads as follows:

To the Honorable Erskine M. Ross, Judge of the district court of the United States for the southern district of California. The libel of information of Willoughby Cole, attorney for the United States for the southern district of California, who prosecutes on behalf of the United States, and being here present in court in his proper person, in the name and on behalf of the United States against two thousand cases of rifle ammunition, containing 2,000,000 rounds, 250 cases of rifles, containing 5000 rifles, and 5000 bayonets in cases, and against all persons intervening for their interest, in a cause of forfeiture, alleges and informs, as follows:

That the marshal of the southern district of California heretofore, viz., on the 8th day of July, 1891, at the port of San Diego and within such southern district of California, on waters navigable from the sea by vessels of ten tons burden and upwards, seized said 2000 cases of rifle ammunition, containing 2,000,000 rounds of such ammunition; 250 cases of rifles, containing 5000 rifles, and 5000 bayonets in cases, being the property of some person or persons to the district attorney unknown, and now hath the same in his custody at said port, within the district aforesaid, as forfeited, for the following causes:

For that heretofore, viz., on the 8th day of May, 1891, within the limits of the United States at an anchorage within two miles from the island known as the island of San Clemente, which island is in the state of California and within the jurisdiction of this court upon waters of Pacific ocean, navigable by vessels of ten tons burden and upwards, one Pedro Mannzen, together with divers other persons to said attorney unknown, being then and there in the possession and having the control of a certain steamship or vessel called Itata, and the said Pedro Mannzen being then and there the master thereof, were unlawfully and knowingly concerned in furnishing, fitting out and arming the said steamship or vessel called Itata with intent that she shall be employed in the service of certain foreign people, viz., certain persons known as the Congressional party of the republic of Chile, then inhabitants of the republic of Chile who were there, viz., in said republic of Chile, organized and banded together in large numbers, in armed rebellion and attempted revolution and carrying on war against a certain foreign state, viz., the said republic of Chile, and the lawful government thereof; to cruise and commit hostilities against the citizens and property of a foreign state, viz., the said republic of Chile, with which the United States then were and now are at peace. And the said Pedro Mannzen and the said other persons, so as aforesaid, to the said attorney unknown, on the 8th day of May, 1891, did knowingly and unlawfully procure for the equipment of said vessel the said 2000 cases of rifle ammunition, containing 2,000,000 rounds, the said 250 cases containing 5000 rifles and the said 5000 bayonets in cases; and then, at said anchorage, about two miles from said island of San Clemente, and within the bounds of the United States, and within the said southern district of California, upon the waters of the Pacific ocean, navigable by vessels of ten tons burden and upwards, did unlawfully and knowingly place and caused the said arms and ammunition to be placed upon said vessel called Itata, as a part of her equipment—contrary to the statute in such cases made and provided and against the peace of the people of the United States and their dignity.

And the said attorney of the United States on behalf of the United States, saith that all and singular the premises aforesaid are and were true, public and notorious, of which due proof being made, the said attorney prays the usual process and motion of this court in this behalf; and that the person or persons interested in the before-mentioned 2000 cases of rifle ammunition containing 2,000,000 rounds, the said 250 cases containing 5000 rifles and the said 5000 bayonets in cases, may be cited in general and special to answer the premises and all due proceedings had thereon, that the said 2000 cases of ammunition containing 2,000,000 rounds, the said 250 cases containing 5000 rifles and the said 5000 bayonets in cases may, for the causes aforesaid, and others appearing, be condemned by the sentence and decree of this court to be forfeited to the use of the said United States according to the form of the statutes of the United States in such case made and provided.

"WILLOUGHBY COLE, United States Attorney for the Southern District of California.

GARNIER'S DEATH.

His Head Crushed in by a Wagon Wheel.

Coroner Weldon went to the Squatter ranch, near the Rancho La Brea, yesterday, to hold an inquest upon the body of Leon Garnier, a prominent sheep raiser, who was accidentally killed last night by his runaway horse. The testimony of the only eye witness to the accident, August Faure, elicited the fact that Garnier had just returned from town, and was in the act of unharnessing his two horses, when they took fright and ran around the windmill, throwing down Garnier, who was then crushed by the wagon passing over his head. He expired instantly. The tragedy took place at 7:30 yesterday night.

Leon Garnier was a native of the Hautes Alpes, France, and came here many years ago. In partnership with his brother, Camille, he had been successful for many years in the raising of merino sheep, and was well off at the time of his death. For several years he and his brother had leased the Encino ranch, where they raised some of the finest wool in Southern California. Mr. Garnier leaves a young wife, but no children. The verdict of the jury was accidental death.
