

A WILLING ORATOR.

Mr. Cleveland Makes a Speech at Sandwich.

A Talk on the Trials of an Ex-President.

Governor Russell Welcomes His Distinguished Guest.

The Summer Resort Crowded as It Never was Before—A Handshaking Scence and a Banquet—Mr. Cleveland's Speech.

Associated Press Dispatches.

SANDWICH, July 22.—Not since the centennial of this old town, two years ago, has Sandwich been so full of enthusiasm as today, when she extends a cordial reception to ex-President Grover Cleveland, who has chosen Cape Cod as a place of residence during the summer months. The occasion was not confined to the local bounds of Sandwich and the bourne, but to all Cape Cod, whose Joseph Jefferson, General Whittier and other distinguished gentlemen gave Cleveland a hearty reception on the train upon its arrival here. A procession was formed, headed by a band, and Cleveland was escorted to a large tent, where a reception was held. The residents, irrespective of politics, and summer visitors united in the welcome. A heavy fall of rain yesterday has been followed by pleasant weather today. The usual quiet was disturbed and the streets were transformed into busy thoroughfares. Strangers by hundreds arrived last night and this morning. A special train having on board Governor Russell and staff and other invited guests, stopped at Buzzard's Bay, where Ex-President Cleveland was escorted by George T. McLaughlin.

Cleveland and Governor Russell walked arm in arm to the reception tent. The streets were crowded and the distinguished guests were accorded a distinguished welcome all along the line. Samuel W. McCall chairman of the reception committee, received the ex-president and the guests. At the reception, Cleveland and Governor Russell shook hands with thousands of people, and passed pleasant words of greeting. The reception lasted until 1 o'clock, when half an hour recess was taken before dinner.

The assembly adjourned to the Casino, where a banquet was served. When Cleveland entered he took a seat on the stage and was given a great ovation, ladies waving their handkerchiefs and the gentlemen cheering. Three cheers were given "for the next president" and three for the next governor. The speakers and invited guests occupied seats on the platform. After the banquet Henry C. Thatcher, of Yarmouth, who presided, made a brief address of welcome and introduced Mr. Cleveland, the guest of the occasion.

Ex-President Cleveland replied to the toast, Our Neighbors. The ex-president returned thanks for the neighborly intentions of the inhabitants of Cape Cod, and speaking of the presidency said that the honor having been relinquished the incumbent should again return to the people to assume the ordinary duties of citizenship, subject to the same rules of behavior which apply to his fellow countrymen, and on his return should be accorded the same fair and decent treatment. "Many people appear, however, to believe that once out of office we are constantly engaged in plotting for our own benefit and ends, not only to destroy the party to which we belong, but to subvert popular liberty and utterly uproot American institutions. Others are of the opinion that we should be utilized as orators at country fairs. Still others that we interfere in every political contest." He declared his confidence, however, in the good sense of the vast majority of the plain American people, and hoped that he was a good neighbor, notwithstanding the large majority of his neighbors were in a sad state of delusion politically, and hoped that all would join in guiding political action to a higher level than a mere struggle for a partisan success.

An Cleveland rose to address the assembly he was greeted with long continued applause and cheers. When the enthusiasm subsided he spoke at some length. Cleveland's remarks were frequently applauded, and as he closed there was another outburst. Governor Russell was then introduced.

In welcoming Ex-President Cleveland, on behalf of the citizens of Cape Cod, Governor Russell warmly eulogized Cleveland's administration, and closed with the assurance that Massachusetts believes in a sound currency and will not lend her aid to any movement, however honest its purpose, which would result in the debasement of the currency, unsettling credit, or impairing values. He stated that the people view with confidence Cleveland's expressions of opinion and praised the courage that led him fearlessly and emphatically to state his convictions on such an important public matter.

VAN HORNE AND DEPEW. Remored Objects of Their Simultaneous Visit to London.

TORONTO, Ont., July 25.—A cable from London says: The sudden arrival of President Van Horne, of the Canadian Pacific railway in London, coupled with the fact that Chauncey M. Depew is also here, attracts attention in city circles. The official statement is made that Mr. Van Horne is only here on strictly private business, but the belief in many quarters is that the result of his visit will probably be seen in large financial operations.

MONTREAL, July 25.—A cable from London says: Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk stocks are buoyant on account of the rumored objects of the visit to this city of Messrs. Van Horne and Depew. It is now believed that an actual fusion of the two roads is not practical, although it is generally thought that a friendly traffic arrangement will be arrived at, provided the Grand Trunk adopts a pacific attitude towards the Canadian Pacific.

Got It in the Neck. New York, July 25.—A prize fight, remarkable for astonishing brutality, took place this morning at a resort on Long Island, between Tim Tomally and Bill Gogzart, light weights. When time was called they went at each other like game cocks, hammer and tongs. Finally when they had both been banged into a jelly, in the twenty-eighth round, Tomally by a lucky blow caught Gogzart on the jugular vein, and the latter reeled,

A MOUNTAIN CLOUDBURST.

The Town of Genoa Nearly Swept Away by a Flood.

CARSON, Nev., July 25.—A thunder storm Friday afternoon came near wiping out the mountain town of Genoa. About 3 o'clock a cloudburst took place near where a big snowslide occurred years ago. In a few minutes a terrible flood of water came down three separate canyons, sweeping everything before it. When the first alarm of flood was given women and children hurried to safer quarters through the rain, carrying babes in arms. From Genoa came the water rushed down in a single breast twenty feet high, carrying logs and boulders in wild confusion. It struck C. W. Dake's undertaking shop and swept it like a log 200 yards into Gray's fields. A large stock of coffins floated off in the field.

The water made a clean sweep from Snowslide cañon, leaving the rocks bare and dashing over the base of the mountain. C. W. Dake saw the water come out and says that when the stream from Snowslide cañon struck that from Genoa cañon, the water shot up into the air fifty or sixty feet. The water from Genoa cañon rushed down with rocks and logs and covered Mrs. Raycroft's fine young orchard, potatoes and vegetables which was devastated by the snowslide of 1882. T. N. Hansen's pasture lot was covered with immense boulders and totally ruined. L. Fray is the heaviest loser of all. His large flume was entirely swept away from the mouth of Genoa cañon. Dozens of logs, some sixty feet long, and three feet in diameter, were carried across the road and 200 to 300 yards down into the field. The rocks and debris cover much of the finest meadow and grain land and destroyed the crops thereon.

HELM'S DISGRACE.

HE IS CHARGED WITH BEING AN ABORTIONIST.

The Serious Dilemma of the Surveyor-General of Arizona—A Shooting Scrape but no Bloodshed—A Young Widow's Exposure.

PHOENIX, Ariz., July 25.—A shooting occurred this morning between Pierpont Minor, manager of the Arctic ice works, and Abram Humphries, attorney. It grew out of the abortion case of Dr. Helm, in which Humphries is attorney. It was reported last evening that Minor was heading a lynching party. Humphries published an interview concerning Minor in this morning's Republican. Neither party was hurt.

[Dr. Helm, who is surgeon-general of the territory, has been charged by a young widow, who is now lying at death's door, with having performed an abortion on her. The young woman afterward went to another physician and explained her condition, and the latter had Dr. Helm arrested. All of the parties concerned have been carrying arms for the past week, and bloodshed has been momentarily expected.]

SARAH IS A YANKEE.

An Oregon Man Claims to Be a Cousin of the Actress.

PORTLAND, July 25.—A special to the Oregonian from Pendleton, Or., says: Pendleton contains a nephew of the famous sensational actress, Sarah Bernhardt. The most interesting feature of this fact is that the nephew, J. H. Keebles, has just discovered his relationship, and that the discovery leads to the history of the illustrious Sarah's origin, differing materially from that given in her biography. He claims that her true name is Sarah King and that she is an American girl. Her father, Dingley King, was of French and Jewish descent and a plasterer by occupation, living in Rochester, N. Y. Sarah's mother was dead, and she and the other children lived with an aunt, the father's sister, Mrs. Mary Finnell, near Rochester. One day a remark displeased Sarah and she left the house and never returned.

Tea Ships Arriving.

TACOMA, Wash., July 25.—The overdue tea ship Guy C. Goss arrived last night with 30,288 packages of tea, valued at $450,000. The Goss is the first tea ship to enter at the Tacoma customs house, the previous tea ships having entered at Port Townsend.

The tea is being assorted in the tea warehouse, and will comprise eight or nine special trains to Chicago and New York.

CHICAGO, July 25.—The custom house officers today received notice of the arrival of the tea steamer J. D. Walker at Vancouver and an unnamed tea ship at San Francisco, both overdue.

A Lake of Ink.

SAN DIEGO, July 25.—The San Diegan today will publish a long, descriptive account from Colonel S. K. Allen, an engineer who has just visited the scene of the phenomenon known as the volcanic region of Cocopah mountains, sixty-five miles southwest of Yuma, in Lower California. Colonel Allen says that there are 3500 active volcanoes in the region. The whole region is encrusted with sulphur. One of the features is a lake of ink a quarter of a mile in length and an eighth of a mile in width and seemingly bottomless.

Left Many Unpaid Bills.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The creditors of the tramp steamer West Indian, which left here Wednesday for Chile, have presented claims against the cargo aggregating about $2500. Gilbert Clements, agent for the vessel, states that he has no money wherewith to meet these claims, but that they will probably be settled by the owner of the vessel, Mr. Boardman, who is expected to arrive from Liverpool in a few days. It is stated that Captain Settler, of the West Indian, believed all bills paid before the steamer left.

To Make a Hot Canvass.

COLUMBUS, O., July 25.—Governor Campbell is a badly scared individual. From a semi-official source it is learned that he has requested that Ex-President Cleveland, Governor Hill, General Palmer, of Illinois, Governor Peck of Wisconsin, Governor Boies, of Iowa, Senator Voorhes and Senator Vance be invited to take part in the Ohio campaign. From two to six speeches are expected from each of these gentlemen.

Gov. Boies' Acceptance.

DES MOINES, July 25.—Gov. Boies' letter accepting the Democratic nomination was given to the press today. The issue of the campaign were discussed, special stress being laid on prohibition and the tariff, but he was somewhat noncommittal on the free coinage of silver, which was endorsed by Democrats at the Ottumwa convention.

A DASTARD'S DEED.

Madame Carnot Receives An Infernal Machine.

It is Thought to Have Been Meant for Her Husband.

The Sender Thought to be a Dangerous Lunatic.

No Political Significance Attached to the Affair—A Prayer Book Filled with Deadly Explosives—The Talk of Paris.

Associated Press Dispatches.

PARIS, July 25.—It became known today that an attempt has been made to assassinate Mme. Carnot, wife of the president of the French republic. A package from Toulon contained what appeared to be a Roman Catholic mass book. Upon an examination of this present, it leaves a hole in the book. This hole was evidently the result of a bullet or a bomb. A more careful examination to be made and it was found that the interior of the book had been cut away after the manner sometimes adopted by smugglers, and the book filled with a powerful fulminate powder. No clue, according to the police, has been found to the sender of the infernal machine, although the postoffice and police authorities of Toulon are said to be on the track of the perpetrators of the outrage.

There is no reason known for this attempt on the life of Mme. Carnot, and the conclusion is that the would-be assassin really intended to take the life of the president, and supposed that the package addressed to Mme. Carnot would be carelessly opened by the president, while a package addressed to himself might be carefully opened by an attendant. Of course this is only a theory.

The report of the attempted assassination is the talk of Paris, and has caused considerable indignation. Some people think that this alleged attempt upon the president's life, with the recent defeat of the French government in the chamber of deputies, the Boulangist agitation, the Alsace-Lorraine passport regulations debate and other similar matters have some connection, but it would not be surprising if the whole matter turn out the work of a dangerous lunatic.

LIBERAL VICTORIES.

The Tory Press Admit the Seriousness of the Situation.

LONDON, July 25.—The Tory press concede that the recent Liberal victories greatly menace the union cause. The Times, commenting on the result of the Wisbech parliamentary election says: "This defeat is the worst the Unionists have sustained. Gladstone has at last obtained an argument in support of his predictions of Liberal success at the general election. The reverse is not due to popular adoption of home rule, but rather to the Union Liberals withdrawing their support from the Conservatives, under the belief that the time had come when they can again exercise freedom of choice in politics." The Chronicle says: "The result is due to the Conservative candidate adopting a protection cry. The laborers recognize that protection for farmers will not increase their wages. They voted for the Gladstonian candidate, believing that radical measures had better be entrusted to a radical government." The Daily News is jubilant, and says the result is proof that the country generally is waiting to reverse the decision of 1886.

KOCH'S RESIGNATION.

Various Rumors Aroused by His Unexpected Action.

BERLIN, July 25.—The announcement that Professor Koch had resigned all of the public offices held by him has caused considerable discussion and speculation as to the cause of this action. There have been rumors circulating that he was dissatisfied with the results of his tuberculin discoveries, and his resignation is attributed to this. But his friends make the assertion that he is upon the point of accepting a new office—that of director of the institute of infectious diseases, which has been organized by the German government. It is also stated that the academic senate will bestow an honorary office upon Professor Koch.

England's Copyright Law.

LONDON, July 25.—Official correspondence relating to the copyright law has just been issued. Lord Salisbury, in a communication to United States Minister Robert T. Lincoln, under date of June 16th, says that contemporaneous publication in a foreign country does not prevent the author from obtaining English copyright, also that residence within her majesty's dominion is not necessary for an alien to obtain English copyright.

The Rancho Buena Vista.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Acting Secretary Chandler has affirmed the decision of the land commissioner in the case of Deputy Surveyor Wiley, one of the ranch claimants, rejecting his new survey of the rancho Buena Vista, San Diego county, and ordered the surveyor of California to make a new survey of said ranch. He has further notified the land commissioner that the area of the survey ordered must approximate one-quarter of a square league.

FRANCE AND THE FAIR.

The American Commissioners Arrive in Paris.

PARIS, July 25.—The United States minister received the Columbian fair commission—ex-Congressman Butterworth, of Ohio, Judge Lindsey, of Kentucky, and A. F. Bullock, of Massachusetts, today. The members of the commission breakfasted with Deputy Beger, who had charge of the Paris exhibition arrangements. The French commission had several sittings during the week, Meroche, minister of commerce, presiding. There were warm discussions at the time on the subject of railway rates between New York and Chicago. Much ill feeling has been caused since the arrival of the commissioners from Chicago. The latter met the French commissioners and explained matters to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Sprained His Knee.

BERLIN, July 25.—The Ruchsanzeiger says that during the rain storm Thursday, Emperor William slipped on the wet deck of the Hohenzollern and injured his knee. He will be compelled to give his leg a long rest and his projected mountain excursion has been abandoned.

Satisfactory Arrangements.

LONDON, July 25.—Sir James Ferguson, political secretary of the foreign office, says that he has reason to believe that very shortly satisfactory arrangements are to be made with the United States government in the Bering sea dispute.

AT REDONDO.

THE CHARLESTON STILL THE GREAT ATTRACTION.

The Facilities for Seeing the White Cruiser Will Be Perfect Today—The Search Light Display—Festivities at the Hotel.

The present facilities for visiting the cruiser Charleston have proven ample as well as convenient and comfortable, and there has been a steady line of people going and coming all day long, the boats being kept busy continually.

Another party of the hotel guests took the trip early in the morning and found the officers of the Charleston as courteous and polite as usual, gladly showing them over the ship and explaining many things of interest.

It is a special courtesy shown to Redondo that visitors are received aboard the ship, between the hours of 11 a. m. and 5 p. m., for this is only customary in the harbor of the afternoon.

Sunday's crowd will no doubt exceed any ever at the beach, and in order to accommodate those desiring to visit the Charleston in case the tug boats prove insufficient for the number of passengers, a large steam schooner, now in the bay, has been chartered and will ply between the cruiser and the pier.

Friday evening the members of the Los Angeles chamber of commerce and board of trade and their wives, responded to an invitation from Captain Geo. J. Ainsworth and the Redondo companies to visit the hotel and meet the officers of the navy. They arrived on the 7 o'clock train and returned at 10:45, the entire house being full. Mayor Henry T. Hazard and Mrs. Hazard were in the party.

To the delight and surprise of every one, for it was not expected till Saturday night, a test of the search lights on the big white ship was given Friday evening. The guests had all gathered on the veranda of the hotel to witness the fireworks display from a steamer in the bay when the lights flashed with gorgeous brilliancy fell upon the hotel, beautifully illuminating it. Exclamations of delight were heard from every side, and soon hats and handkerchiefs went up by way of appreciation of the fact. These lights played about for some time, flashing in all directions, from the hotel to the pier, then on the schooner lying near by, up to the sky, then down in the water, then suddenly far away in the distance. The success of the lights was demonstrated by its showing the steamer far off and bringing it in full view. It is indeed a search light, and if the Charleston was bent on destruction, any vessel would stand little chance, if within its range with the big guns booming. The display of fireworks from the steamers was fine, and altogether the evening was made exceedingly pleasant.

The famous cowboy pianist of Texas favored the guests of the big hotel with some delightful selections in the music hall yesterday morning.

Among today's arrivals at the Redondo are Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Gray, Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rosecrans, Rosecrans, Cal.; J. C. Smith, San Francisco; E. R. Hull and family, Mrs. Woolcroft, Pasadena; Mrs. Watson, New York; A. B. Johnson, San Bernardino; T. J. Lock and family, Alhambra; G. W. Connell, Mrs. J. P. Trafton, W. B. Harriott, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mentally Irresponsible.

SACRAMENTO, July 25.—The charges against Isadore Alexander, a newspaper correspondent, and Wm. Colburn, who were accused of uttering forged telegrams upon which Alexander procured money, were dismissed today upon motion to the city attorney, who said that the Western Union Telegraph company believed that Alexander was mentally irresponsible when he committed the act, and that Colburn, who is a mere boy, had no guilty intent.

Drowned in Chabott Lake.

VALLEJO, Cal., July 25.—This afternoon two small boys belonging to the Good Templars Orphans' Home, were drowned in Lake Chabott, the source of Vallejo's water supply. Their names are George Higson and Elias Duncan, both about 14 years of age. They managed to get into an old boat floating on the lake and had got only a few feet from shore when it upset. Both were unable to swim. Their bodies were recovered.

Object to Pauper Immigrants.

LONDON, July 25.—At a crowded meeting in this city, at which Bishop Belford presided, resolutions were adopted protesting against the unrestricted influx of destitute aliens into England and demanding that the government take such measures as would prevent the entrance into the country of such undesirable persons. The resolutions are supported by a number of prominent members of the house of commons who were present.

Entirely Without Foundation.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Acting Secretary Soley spent several hours last evening in investigating the report that one of the steam launches of the Penasco had been blown up by the Chilean vessel Condell. The telegraph and cable were freely used, and at midnight the acting secretary stated that no basis whatever could be discovered for the story. He said he was satisfied it was entirely without foundation.
